Introduction

Victory In Christ Ensemble [VICE] welcomes you to our website or to this eBook to study another textbook examining politics, religion, and sexuality from a Biblical perspective. Perhaps, most Americans born after 1984 would consider it to be “politically incorrect” and in poor taste to discuss politics, religion, and sexuality. Yet, many Americans age 65+ and older clearly see that being politically correct is the antithesis of being Biblically correct. Stated differently, Satan’s sons and the Devil’s daughters now have the legal authority to block, tackle, clip, and run Christian morals out of bounds, out of our schools and other public institutions, and eventually out of the American psyche. Josh McDowell’s “The Myths of Sex Education” brilliantly shows parents and educators alike how deleterious so-called “moral neutrality” is to any society – Christian or otherwise. This protracted battle began in the 1960’s when the US Supreme Court ruled in favor of Madalyn Murray O’Hair, who was founder and president of American Atheists until 1986. Therefore, VICE is fully committed to transparent and truthful discussions of important issues that responsible, educated Americans no longer can afford to sweep under the rug. For example, in California it is illegal to discriminate against anatomical males using a female rest room, shower, or dressing room IF they identify as female – despite the banana and two grapes that say otherwise. Similarly, a California state law [AB 1955] is being proposed to allow teachers and school administrators to assist students who express gender dysphoria with transitioning without ever notifying the child’s parents! Implicitly, this bill could empower the State to remove children from the custody of religious dissenting parents in order to protect a gender confused child’s “human rights”. IF you are incredulous, then take a close look at Canada’s laws protecting a child’s gender identity and sexual expression as human rights vis-a-vis parental rights. Similarly, fifth grade students in a “politically correct” California elementary school now are mentors teaching kindergarten students Satan’s transgender or non-binary ideology, i.e., they might actually be a boy in a girl’s body and vice versa. Few Americans born after 1984 are cognizant of the extent to which Satan has brainwashed our nation to believe that sexual behavior and gender identity are a matter of personal preference. Despite what the Holy Bible has said for thousands of years, now our citizenry is expected to supplant God’s Scripture with political correctness. However, perspicacious senior citizens age 65+ and older clearly see how so-called “moral neutrality” being promoted by today’s politicians is as absurd as a “married bachelor”. Unless you live in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty, the twain are mutually exclusive. Published in 1990, “The Myths of Sex Education” by Josh McDowell presents an intelligent examination of America’s nefarious paradigm shift. Never forget that Marshall Kirk’s magnum opus for legitimizing anal sex and other forms of sexual immorality, “After the Ball”, was published in 1989. Meanwhile Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at the people of the United States for vacating biological and Biblical truths and embracing cognitive dissonance instead.

Is it possible that atheists now are a majority in our state and federal legislative bodies, including the SCOTUS? Why have our public libraries surreptitiously removed Bibles, concordances, encyclopedias, and over 100,000 classic books on ethics, philosophy, history, religion, and psychology? Typically, public libraries “vaporize” these books via displaying them and selling them for $1.00, 50¢ or even 25¢ on a display near the entrance. As an illustration, “The Myths of Sex Education” by Josh McDowell was one of several books the library was giving away for free! Even a blind atheist can see how diminishing the reading requirements at every grade level and “dumbing down” school curricula is a nefarious form of brainwashing that can lead vulnerable children to experience emotional and psychological issues. Ever since the Obama Presidency made so-called “gay marriage” the law of the land, the GLBT Movement has pushed the envelope to the breaking point. Any nation that vacates God’s commandments, by default, will become more ungodly and more evil – bar none. Thus, IF parents, principals, school psychologists, teachers, and other adults condone today’s demonic brainwashing of innocent kids in elementary school, then a decade from now, what kind of delusional as well as immoral society will we have created? As young adults, will these former children vote to detain Christian dissidents and even their devout parents in one of FEMA’s 800 fully operational internment camps? To ensure that higher education follows the same script as elementary schools, several public universities already have begun to expel devout Christian students from their Education Department and the Psychology Department for sharing Biblically correct moral values on campus regarding anal sex, lesbianism, bisexuality, and marriage. Let me repeat myself: In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, our public universities are expelling devout Christian students if they adhere to what the BIBLE teaches about sexuality. Erstwhile philosophical and intellectual inquiry via the Socratic method and vigorous collegiate debates no longer are tolerated in academia IF their arguments contravene or condemn homosexuality and lesbianism. To better understand the raison d'être for this unprecedented paradigm shift in attitudes about homosexuality, despite the AIDS pandemic during the 1980's, both teenagers and young adults would be well-advised to read Hunter Madsen's [Harvard PhD/doctoral thesis on shaping global public opinion] and Marshall Kirk's [Harvard graduate/magna cum laude/ bachelor's degree in psychology/PhD University of California] magnum opus, “After the Ball: How America Will Conquer Its Fear & Hatred of Gays in the 90s”.

In George Orwell's dystopian masterpiece, “Nineteen Eighty-Four”, Thought Police literally controlled how proles thought and behaved in response to Big Brother. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that WE the People of the United States are being brainwashed to bow in deference to political correctness and to Big Brother? How many sexual mistakes have teenagers and adults made via not knowing or not obeying the Bible? Are we smarter than or wiser than God? The Holy Bible is the substrate for VICE's entire ministry of sexual healing. Therefore, our members should study the entire Bible in order to successfully comprehend our unorthodox, yet, Biblically correct pedagogy denouncing the GLBT agenda. There is no need to argue with hellions, hypocrites, heretics, or heathens about “kat” versus “cat” because infidels have religious freedom too. Capish...or is it kapish?

Throughout “Delilah Has Digital Clippers” and our other books, VICE’s pedagogy will step on the toes of lukewarm and counterfeit Christians who don’t revere or fear God. Sometimes vilified and criticized for “hate speech” and being judgmental, VICE is not a ministry that casts the first stone, per se, at anyone! Instead, this is a ministry of sexual healing providing clarity concerning God’s “thou shalt” and “thou shalt not” list of instructions. Thus, despite the ubiquity of “political correctness”, VICE encourages members to ferret for Biblical understanding of how to fight against spiritual and temporal enemies. Your perseverance ultimately will lead to a catharsis and victory in Christ.

Nevertheless, IF this book steps on your toes, then it still is your prerogative either to obey or disobey the Bible and suffer the consequences of God’s righteous judgment and punishment. For the “chosen few” devout Christians who are eager to obey God, VICE hopes this book will be a blessing to your family and your church as a valuable resource to study several times afresh in tandem with the Holy Bible. Hosea 4 describes a nation where there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. It goes on to say, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.” Eureka! Is the United States rapidly becoming that land? Akin to athletes working out at the gym for six months to get a six-pack, VICE entreats members to study this book and your BIBLE assiduously until you develop a spiritual six-pack. Despite the rapid increase in the number of contemporary, non-denominational mega-churches, the Body of Christ is a small remnant that will not bow to Satan. Thus, try finding a saved and sanctified training partner to keep you motivated as you press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus. Please share with saints and sinners alike what you’ve learned spiritually in this ministry. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, two women or two men now can marry each other in the church. Yet, VICE pontificates and practices humility, holiness, moral purity, repentance, love and obedience to Almighty God. Today’s teenagers are the fourth generation of children born after the Supreme Court ruled in favor of atheist, Madelyn O’Hair. Thus, many Americans now consider it “normal” to disobey, disrespect, and defy parents, teachers, police officers, and other authority figures. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically whenever they create confusion and chaos by doing so. A religious education is a sine qua non for better behavioral outcomes at school, at home, and throughout any society. Compared to my childhood, the United States has eliminated erstwhile irreproachable, orthodox Christian morality from television, public debates, public schools, textbooks, social media, video games, college campuses, public libraries, and court rooms. Any nation that vacates God's commandments, by default, will become more ungodly and more evil – bar none. Perhaps, Satan is the real Commander in Chief on Capitol Hill. Christian parents, is it a sin for you not to give kids in elementary school a cell phone with Internet access? Instead of being politically correct, please teach your loved ones to pray, to study sacred Scripture, and to obey God -- especially during their turbulent teens and formative years. Nevertheless, their peers still will expose them to pornographic images and violent video games unless they are home schooled or in private Christian schools. Anyone who is spiritually blind may question whether so-called “gay marriage”, bisexuality, lesbianism, homosexuality, and transgenderism are evil or just culturally relevant mores and folkways. Yet, IF God is omnipotent and omniscient, then His moral standards never acquiesce to today's trite cliches such as, “God loves everybody, so don't judge me...” or “This is what I think about...” or “I don't see anything wrong with...” or “This is how I was born when God made me...” The Apostle Paul warned the Galatians, “Who hath bewitched you that ye should not obey the truth?” VICE asks you the same question as you study this book. The harvest is plentiful; but the laborers are few. Shall we begin? God bless you!

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, now it is possible for students to earn a high school diploma, a college degree, and even a PhD without ever cogitating important existential questions about the human experience. For example, what is the intrinsic value of my degree, my major, and my future career? Who am I, what am I, and how will my life have a positive impact or a negative impact upon society? Does God really exist and IF so, then who is he...or she? If God represents good, then does Satan represent evil? Conversely, if Satan represents good, then does God represent evil? Why did the United States Supreme Court make it illegal to read the Bible or even pray in public schools? Why did public universities in the US and the UK expel students majoring in clinical psychology for affirming there are only two genders? Why did public universities in the US and the UK terminate perspicacious professors who refused to embrace so-called “gay marriage” and inculcate GLBT ideology, which are antithetical to the Bible, the Torah, and the Quran? Whether Buddhist, Christian, Jewish, or Muslim, why do religious people have much higher moral standards than non-religious people? Yet, if non-religious people become priests, pastors, Prime Ministers, Presidents, and even Popes, then will they brainwash their followers to vacate Sacred Scripture and abandon high moral standards? What role should religion play in creating and protecting a holistic society that respects high moral standards? Inversely, does that mean the lack of religion creates a chaotic and dysfunctional society that eschews high moral standards? Who decides what is moral, immoral, good, or evil in the first place? Explain. IF you consider yourself to be a devout Christian, then how many times have you read the entire Holy Bible? Why should the answer to this query be important to people who regularly attend church, pay tithes, and participate in various ministries? Why should the answer to these questions also be important to Americans whose mores and folkways do not include any of the above? Explain.

VICE encourages devout Christians to study the King James version of the Bible to ameliorate your understanding of how demonic politically correct ideology actually is. Unlike the more popular NIV, we use only the King James version of the Holy Bible because most concordances and Biblical quotes throughout Christendom have used that edition. Imagine Youth Ministry or Sunday Schools teaching children to quote Bible verses from five different sources instead of utilizing a standard of Scripture for everyone. God is not the author of confusion; but IF you prefer to study a different “translation”, so be it. Albeit, more modern Bibles certainly have gained traction, many of them were written by atheists, gays, lesbians, agnostics, and feminists who surreptitiously infiltrated Christendom in order to diminish or vacate God’s moral standards. Anytime a lesbian or homosexual is in a position of authority as the gatekeeper for that school, church, corporation, charity, legislative body, or other institution, invariably, he or she will block, tackle, clip, and run Biblically correct morality out of bounds. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically. Thus, be sure to exercise due diligence. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, most Americans are not Biblically literate. This is indicative of our not having an intimate relationship with God. Anyone bereft of godliness automatically prefers a lifestyle that takes pleasure in forbidden fruit rather than to obey, fear, and revere God. Today, countless pastors vacate Scripture to focus upon gaining political power, pecuniary assets, and physical pleasure. IF a preacher claims that it is God’s will to bless the congregation with material wealth, is that prima facie evidence of a wolf in sheep’s clothing? Explain. Jesus stated that it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom. Therefore, are Pastor’s Appreciations and Pastor’s Anniversaries Biblically correct traditions? In the book of Acts, we see that the baptism of the Holy Ghost came on the Day of Pentecost. Afterwards, early Christian congregations sold their personal possessions and shared all things in common so that everyone’s temporal needs would be met. Tragically, Ananias and Sapphira learned the hard way that God has no respect of person. Hypothetically, IF your pastor has no intention of obeying the BIBLE, then is he [or she] a counterfeit Christian? Explain. Nobody’s perfect; but praying to God, praising God, obeying God, and worshiping God invariably will diminish temptation while born-again Christian believers will wax strong in holiness. Can any man or woman do so without studying the entire BIBLE? God’s Divine moral compass also describes the will and the nature of Satan via exposing his subtle and demonic game of “trick or treat”. Remember, Lucifer’s treat always is pleasant to your eye; but the trick is that sin separates you from God, which eventually will lead to spending Eternity in Hell.

The Bible clearly warns the church elders against putting any novice in a leadership position. Yet, many popular pastors and televangelists are only in their 30's and 40's, bereft of the wisdom, spiritual maturity and intellectual wherewithal of senior pastors in their mid-50's and 60's. One could argue the term "Senior Pastor" now is obsolete or an oxymoron in some churches. Meanwhile, Satan and his army of demons are rolling on the floor laughing at younger church leadership teams following his agenda to corrupt the congregation and the world. How long will it take for wolves in sheep's clothing to convert spiritually blind church members into stiff-necked reprobates who cry out, "Crucify Him!" in support of political correctness instead of God's Word?

Unlike my formative years, today's high school students, college students, young adult parents, and even their grandparents have had very little, if any, exposure to the Bible in their classrooms, popular movies, at sporting events, the dinner table, on their cellular phones, laptop computers, video games, television, or popular social media platforms. Meanwhile, electronic devices and social media not only are distractions from reading books such as the BIBLE, they also can act as hypnotic portals for Satanic messages to enter the hearts and minds of both younger and older audiences. As a result, "In God We Trust" has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed and our moral standards are sinking faster than the Titanic. We hold these truths to be self-evident as incest, fornicating, sagging, tattoos, body piercing, child molestation, drinking, smoking, same sex attraction, vaping, cursing, shoplifting, and disobeying parents have reached the level of a pandemic. The Bible says if you spare the rod, then you will spoil the child. Yet, the YMCA, churches, schools, government agencies, and other institutions of power fail to criticize and correct these vices during the child's formative years. By extrapolation, each generation will become more ungodly and more evil by default. Is it possible that Satan is the real Commander in Chief in Washington, D.C.? IF ever you wrap your brain around that axiom, then everything in U.S. domestic policy and U.S. foreign policy will make sense. Moreover, this truism also applies to virtually all individuals or private institutions that vacate God's commandments. Is such a nihilistic, secular world view also a formidable barrier to most Americans appreciating and comprehending VICE's pedagogy on a variety of topics such as the Iraq War, global hegemony, artificial intelligence, drug abuse, digital I.D., genocide in Israel, ethnic cleansing, unwed mothers, bastards, crimes against humanity, the GLBT agenda, human trafficking, and feminism? According to Scripture, which of these score a touchdown for Hell's Head Coach? Explain.

Half a century ago when I was in high school, Biblical morals were taught at home, at school, on television, in the children's section in public libraries, and even in many of the movies we watched for $1.00 at the Saturday matinee. Akin to the vast popularity of encyclopedias, "The Bible Story" by Arthur S. Maxwell was a quintessential ten volume set of Biblical stories specifically for children describing God's nature and God's strict instructions. Christian parents and grandparents would be well-advised to own a set today. Why? Even a blind atheist can see how a religious education at home ensures better behavioral outcomes at school and throughout society. In the 1960's, Judeo-Christian morality circumscribed laws, fairness, and equity within many government agencies and political institutions. At school, we read the Bible every morning. The Ten Commandments were on public display on bulletin boards, billboards, on college campuses, in libraries, courthouses and other public buildings. Why have they now vanished? Explain. On my first driver's license, race and religion were stamped on everyone's permit to drive. In addition to a person's race, gender, photograph, height, hair color, and home address, either "Catholic" or "Protestant" also was indicated by the Department of Motor Vehicles. During the 1960's and 1970's, many Americans did not attend church and were not devout Christians, per se. Yet, they respected the BIBLE as our nation's moral compass to discern right from wrong. What changed?

Half a century later, now it is "politically incorrect" to pray, to study the Bible, to spank a child, to point out wickedness in society, to obey the Bible, to warn people about the consequences of sin, or even to discuss sacred Scripture aloud at work, at school, at the library, on a bus, on a train, or at an upscale restaurant. Thus, is it possible that our national conscious has been seared by a hot iron [I Timothy 4] and completely corrupted by Satan? Throughout both epistles to Timothy, notice how what the Apostle Paul wrote back then also describes what is happening today. Meanwhile, can you see Satan rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at our ungodly nation? Is it possible that most institutions in the United States, including our churches, are cursed by their spiritually blind leadership team's demonic soul ties of allegiance to Lucifer? For example, are lesbian pastors inculcating holiness according to the Bible? Are gay marriages an abomination according to Scripture? Are women serving as a pastor or co-pastor with their Freemason husbands obeying or disobeying the Bible? Despite today's social acceptance, are bastards cursed for ten generations in the Bible? Should any church allow a bastard to become its pastor? Can such a clergyman lead the congregation in holiness while he [or she] stands unabashedly in opposition to God's authority and in defiance of God's instructions? Explain. Rather than to bury our head in the sand, VICE constantly queries and analyzes the extent to which fatherlessness, feminism, and political correctness have corrupted our nation. "Delilah Has Digital Clippers" is no exception. Obviously, millennials and young church members have no experiential point of reference or recollection of when 99% of women did not have children out of wedlock. Women were forbidden even to stand in the pulpit or to preach any sermon during the morning worship service. The Bible clearly instructs women to remain silent in the church [I Corinthians 14] and to inquire of their husbands at home. Yet, have you ever attended a church where women are forbidden to speak during worship? Explain. With countless husband and wife teams pastoring congregations, what happened to God's inerrant standards that remain the same - yesterday, today, and forevermore? Are we suddenly wiser than or smarter than God? I'm certain that Dr. YoungHoon Kim can resolve this quandary much better than I ever could. IF God is omniscient, then why have both the Feminist Movement and GLBT Movement vacated the BIBLE? Despite all of us having been "hardwired from birth" to disobey God's commandments, have we forgotten the consequences of our sinfulness? Albeit the GLBT Movement and the Feminist Movement are politically successful, why would devout Christians ever attend churches with women, pedophiles, homosexuals, bisexuals, bastards, lesbians and adulterers etc. in the pulpit teaching their congregations not to repent for vacating God's instructions? Can any such wolves in sheep's clothing endorse VICE's ministry of sexual healing? Can such wolves in sheep's clothing intercede unto our Heavenly Father on behalf of lost sheep? Can a wolf in the pulpit cast out demons and lead sinners to true repentance? On Judgment Day, what percentage of counterfeit Christians will inherit Eternal Life? 25%, 50%, 75%, 100%, or none of the above? Eureka! Now is the best time for sinners to repent, to be baptized with the Holy Ghost, to study God's Word, and to obey His unvarnished instructions regarding what pleases Him! Invariably, spiritually blind Americans will continue to go along to get along with whatever forbidden fruit Satan proffers as the plat du jour. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically via their lack of Biblical wisdom, godly understanding, and the discernment to recognize his game of “Trick or Treat”. Is it possible that without the indwelling of the precious Holy Ghost you might join Judas, Pharaoh, Lot’s wife, and other infidels in Hell’s Lake of fire? Don’t say anything! Just think about what you must do to be born again and to avoid that fate.

Rest assured that throughout our pedagogy, Victory in Christ Ensemble will neither add to nor subtract from God’s unvarnished instructions concerning what pleases Him. However, in the Last Days Lucifer proffers a “Satanic bible” to deceive mankind into doing the very things God condemns. Despite nomenclature such as “tolerant”, “politically correct”, and “inclusive”, the choice is yours whether to live in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty. Never forget that God is not a politician who needs your votes or your approbation. On Judgment Day, will God tolerate, include, or reward members of the GLBT Movement or the Feminist Movement with Eternal Life in the Kingdom of Heaven? Instead, will God say, “Depart from me ye workers of iniquity!”, as they plunge into Hell’s lake of unquenchable fire? Never forget there are no spectators in life’s Spiritual Super Bowl. All of us score touchdowns for only one team as we cross the end zone. Victory In Christ Ensemble challenges political correctness via clearly articulating what the Holy Bible teaches about the nature of God and the will of God for our lives. In Genesis 3, irreproachable moral purity vanished the nanosecond Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit. While most Americans may not consider themselves to be “the anti-Christ”, why do they assiduously attack, block, tackle, clip, and run anyone out of bounds who dares to obey God’s commandments regarding gender and sexual morality? Is that tantamount to being against or “anti Christ”? Explain. Throughout His earthly ministry, Jesus cast out devils and demons and restored people to their “right mind”. Today, VICE encourages sinners to allow Christ to do likewise in your life. Repentance can restore counterfeit Christians to their “right mind” and free them from soul covenants, pride in perversion, witchcraft and generational curses! Some pastors believe and teach that Christianity began the nanosecond Jesus rose from the dead. I could be wrong; but I believe the Christian Church officially began in Acts 2 after the Holy Ghost fell upon those disciples who believed that the resurrected Jesus, indeed, was the Son of God. Because they taught people to repent of their sins, accept Christ as the promised Messiah, and then be baptized by water and the Holy Spirit, many of them were maligned, marginalized, beaten, stoned, imprisoned, beheaded, and crucified. As our nation considers mandatory digital IDs, 800 FEMA internment camps, and the elimination of paper currency, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that history will repeat itself, akin to the Holocaust, once the mark of the beast is required to buy or sell? Déjà vu! Nevertheless, devout Christians must remain steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in the word, the work, and the will of Almighty God.

Politically correct pundits vilify “religion”, and especially devout “Christians”, as being judgmental, hateful, intolerant, non-inclusive, bigoted, and evil fanatics. This fallacious assumption is Lucifer’s quintessential prototype for a plethora of irrational and emotional arguments vis-a-vis ideological or intellectual positions challenging their veracity. As an illustration, GLBT affirming pundits almost never acknowledge the elevated mental illness, depression, and attempted suicide rates among transgender men and women who decided that God made a chromosomal mistake in the delivery room. The Bible says God created only two genders: male and female. C’est tout! Even a blind atheist can see the chaos that transgender surgery, unisex dressing rooms, all gender locker rooms, non-binary public bathrooms and showers have created in trying to be “inclusive”. Stated differently, political correctness is a demonic Trojan horse that blocks, tackles, clips, and runs morality out of bounds and slowly extirpates probity from that society. Agnostic and atheist pundits might argue that Christianity is responsible for the Crusades, slavery, Colonialism, the Indian Removal Act, the Trail of Tears, and Manifest Destiny, which led to ethnic cleansing and the decimation of Native American tribes throughout American History. However, in this argument, is counterfeit Christianity the real culprit vis-a-vis authentic, irreproachable Christianity? Explain. The Roman Catholic Church has a similar legacy of nefarious pogroms, witch hunts, Inquisitions, and Papal heresy in maintaining its empire across Europe while simultaneously increasing its wealth and power in the New World. Once again, counterfeit Christianity is the culprit. Stated differently, Eurocentrism has bastardized Christianity via a perennial template: 1) send in the troops, 2) malign, molest, marginalize, and murder the indigenous people with impunity, 3) seize total control of the natives’ land, 4) get filthy rich exploiting their oil, gold, diamonds, copper, cobalt, and other valuable resources, and 5) establish a legal system of Apartheid to guarantee the “white man” never has to pay reparations or face criminal prosecution. Since 9/11, this template has gone into overdrive on a global stage. Yet, why has the US military invaded countless countries in the Middle East and Africa that were no threat whatsoever to our national security? Déjà vu! Is Satan the real Commander in Chief in Washington hiding in plain sight behind the ventriloquist's curtain? Thus, the morally corrupted Church and State continue to work in tandem to hide their end game of hegemony behind a fig leaf of counterfeit Christianity. Yet, the BIBLE teaches all of Homo sapiens: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." IF the Bible is God's inerrant Word, then devout Christians are obligated to study it, rightly divide deceptive dogma from Biblical doctrine, and apply God's irreproachable commandments to our daily lives. Not only do wars and rumors of wars portend the Last Days, so-called gay marriages also affirm that the Second Coming of Jesus Christ is close at hand. We just don't know how close and should remain as vigilant as the five wise virgins. [Matthew 25] At the behest of Satan himself, [DEI] diversity, equity, inclusion, and political correctness are efficacious, yet, demonic weapons of mass destruction of God's righteousness throughout the United States. For those of us who are old enough to remember when "In God We Trust" was our mantra, today's comparative chaos is obvious. However, the efficacy of political correctness is proportional to the extent to which pundits can convince Christians to vacate sacred Scripture as their moral compass. We hold these truths to be self-evident that most lukewarm Christians already have done so.

"In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth," is the first sentence in the Holy Bible. Thereafter, assiduous readers will learn the nature of God and the will of God for our lives via perusal of His "thou shalt" and "thou shalt not" list of Commandments in both the Old Testament and the New Testament. Indirectly, this Biblical knowledge gives devout Christians a picture of the antithetical nature of Satan as well. Following God's perfect creation of the world, Satan appeared almost immediately in Genesis as a serpent who deceived Adam and Eve into committing the original sin. As a result of the serpent's surreptitious seduction, Adam and Eve disobeyed God and ate the forbidden fruit. Subsequently, both of them were cursed and expelled from the Garden of Eden. Similarly, any rebellious, stiff-necked, and reprobate person is ever faithful [semper fidelis] to Lucifer until deliverance or death. Meanwhile, Lucifer is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because he understands the nature of God and the will of God. In the Garden of Eden, the forbidden fruit was succulent and tempting. Yet, it was poison and pleasant to the eye at the same time. Similarly, Satan's libertine lifestyles are appealing to millennials and younger Americans who are spiritually blind and have no moral compass to warn them not to eat "forbidden fruit". Bear in mind that God had warned Adam and Eve of the penalty of “death” if ever they defied His simple instructions. In retrospect, had they fully understood beforehand the dire consequences of disobedience, is it possible that Adam and Eve might have decided not to yield to Satan’s temptation? What would you have done? Explain. Stated differently, free will is a two-edged sword, which can either protect us from a demonic, spiritual enemy or cause us to commit spiritual suicide whenever we, of our own volition, deliberately disobey God. Quoting the Apostle Paul, “The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is Eternal Life through Jesus Christ our Lord,” applies to the United States just as it did to the Romans in antiquity. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, spiritually blind Americans will regret their disobedience and sinfulness only after the penalty of spiritual suicide becomes self-evident in their lives and the lives of their children. Without giving it a second thought, many sinners will have sex, get tattoos, get branded, shoplift, sell drugs, take drugs, get drunk, and get multiple body piercings without realizing they are opening portals for demons to attach themselves to their now defiled body, a/k/a “their temple”. IF you are incredulous of this axiom, then you would be well advised to study the entire BIBLE at least seven times. Why? Doing so will manumit you from spiritual blindness and even change your Spiritual DNA to discern the dangers of being politically correct. Thus, why have very few Americans born after 1984 read the entire Bible? Are generational curses the culprit for soul ties to Satan? For those who attend church, our chronological age is not just a number because it circumscribes the spiritual atmosphere of the milieu into which we were born. In our nation’s history we have become so secular that the spiritual atmosphere in many institutions of power is demonic rather than divine. Spiritual wickedness in high places abounds in our government agencies, our courtrooms, and throughout American society. Prior to 1984, studying and discussing the BIBLE were common activities among teenagers and young adults. College students admonished their peers about the dangers of premarital sex, drugs, and the subliminal, Satanic messages in rock music. Since then, Biblical illiteracy has become the justification for a plethora of pleasurable sins that destroy youthful virtue and innocence. We hold these truths to be self-evident as generational curses accrue whenever priests, popes, cardinals, bishops, elders, pastors, parents, grandparents, siblings, or other relatives secretly practice paganism, Wicca, Satanism, hedonism, nihilism, necromancy, sorcery, animal sacrifice, sex magic, divination, and witchcraft rituals at home. Children born under such a curse develop soul ties to Satan without any effort on their part because they were signed, sealed, and delivered to him at birth. Thanks to Adam and Eve, all of mankind is hardwired from birth to want to partake of forbidden fruit. Yet, God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to shed His blood on Calvary's cross for the propitiation and forgiveness of all of our sins. Today's Feminist Movement and the GLBT Movement have infiltrated the church in order to deny this spiritual axiom. Therefore, IF teens or millennials have internalized this secular world view, then will they even recognize how Satan is deceiving them via pecuniary assets, physical pleasure, political power and purchased pulchritude? For thirty pieces of silver, Judas fell for Satan's trick and betrayed Jesus with a kiss. Later, he regretted his lucrative deal with the devil and committed suicide. Was it worth it to spend Eternity in Hell? VICE admonishes America's youths, including those who underwent transgender surgery, that you can have victory in Christ. No sin you have committed [other than blasphemy against the Holy Ghost] renders you unworthy of God's forgiveness. According to His Word, IF you repent, then God can forgive you. Biblical literacy is comparable to a deadbolt or security alarm system that makes it difficult, though not impossible, for Satan to have access to your temple. Ergo, the central Biblical message for all Americans is that we must be born again IF we desire a right standing personal relationship with God.

During His earthly ministry, a Jew named Nicodemus asked Jesus to define "born again". Jesus replied, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." A much more familiar verse in that same chapter reads, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Thus, Jesus Christ made it very clear that through believing that He is the Son of God, any man could be saved rather than condemned. Yet, why do most people reject the Messiah's invitation to be born again and inherit Eternal Life? Because of our sinful nature, the Bible teaches us God's immutable requirement and expectation that we lay aside every sin and walk in holiness. Jesus warns us and reminds us that straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. When was the last time you read the entire Bible? How else will you find it? In 2025, the GLBT Movement, political correctness, and the Feminist Movement are weapons of mass destruction that incessantly block, tackle, clip, and run out of bounds faithful Christians who walk in holiness obeying God instead of Satan. After Adam's original sin, humanity's "operating systems" were hardwired to covet physical pleasure, pecuniary assets, political power, and purchased pulchritude. Once downloaded, we fall for the relentless game of “Trick or Treat” like bait on an angler’s hook where Satan’s treats are pleasant to our eyes. Yet, the trick is that sin always separates us from God, which invariably results in some form of unforeseen peril and punishment. Albeit the Bible admonishes us always to obey God, even devout Christians occasionally fall short, like Adam and Eve, and must repent after we have sinned. Lukewarm Christians would be well-advised to begin studying and obeying God’s Word instead of allowing Satan’s forbidden fruit to trick you. Once they are removed from the vigilance of their parents, it is not God’s will for college students to have premarital sex. Despite the libido being excited by adolescent hormones, virginity still is God’s precious gift for any wife to bestow upon her husband on their wedding night. Yet, many pastors are deafeningly silent about the obvious increase in unwed mothers and same sex attraction within their church congregations. We can’t fix it IF we can’t face it. With so much violence and sexual stimulation on cell phones, in school, in video games, in popular music, in magazines, in videos, in movies, and on TV, sexual immorality has become “normal” to America’s youths. The Youth Ministry in our churches must never forget that sexual mistakes carry a heavy penalty that can last a lifetime. Thus, challenge your Youth Pastor and Senior Pastor to start a ministry of sexual healing for teenagers and unmarried adults. God’s unvarnished instructions about what pleases Him certainly are not tantamount to “hate speech”. WE can fix it IF we can face it, inconsequential to whatever “it” is.

For centuries, the Holy Bible had been the universal moral compass for Christendom, even before the United States of America ever existed. Prior to the early 1970’s, students studied the Bible every morning, recited Bible verses, discussed the meaning of Scripture, prayed for God’s blessings and protection, and then ended our devotion with the Pledge of Allegiance. Today, it is illegal for teachers and their students to do those things that now are called “hate speech”. As a result, our nation’s morals are sinking faster than the Titanic. Teachers are well aware that they will be reprimanded, suspended, or even fired for any religious instruction in their classrooms. Yet, why do public elementary schools roll out the red carpet for “After School Satan Clubs”? The Bible reminds everyone that we can not serve two masters because we will love one and loathe the other. As a nation, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that Lucifer or Satan is the real Commander in Chief hidden in plain sight in Washington, D.C.? American society certainly has become increasingly more sinful, ungodly, demonic, and wicked as our citizenry embraces nihilism, paganism, Wicca and Satanism. Nevertheless, Jesus still warns us that strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. In the Last Days, perhaps, a few more people should get right with God or get ready to roast in Hell's lake of fire. How can a "new babe" in Christ or devout Christians inoculate themselves against politically correct heresy and apostasy? Brothers, VICE prescribes and proffers a holistic 90-day Bible Boot Camp, especially IF you have not already read the entire BIBLE at least seven times. Gentlemen, please consider the following and may God bless you richly:

- Stop attending your church for 90 days to pray and commune intimately with God.
- Stop watching TV, stop listening to secular music, stop watching and playing basketball or any other team sports, stop playing video games.
- Stop fraternizing with people who are demon possessed, atheists, unrighteous or otherwise not born-again Christians.
- Read the entire Bible during this 90 day boot camp and take notes that you will want to review later.
- Ask God, not your pastor, bishop, or another church leader to reveal whatever you don't understand.
- Spend several hours praying for discernment of sacred Scripture.
- Temporarily, stop tithing to your local church for 90 days [you can hold the $$ in abeyance].
- Instead, spend no more than $50 per week sharing a meal with a homeless person.
- Each week, meet that same person [if possible] to discuss life's struggles and to evangelize.
- Let them talk about family issues, homelessness, abandonment, child molestation, domestic abuse, unemployment, PTSD, trauma, etc.
- Learn to pray and intercede for their temporal needs and their need for salvation through Jesus Christ.
- Instead of lending any money, offer your sister or brother empathy, godly advice, and valuable life lessons he or she can implement.
- Hold your brother or sister accountable to study the Bible, pray, and seek God's grace and favor to overcome life's challenges.
- After your 90 day hiatus, return to your local church congregation.

- Within your circle of influence, share what God revealed to you in His Word.
- Start paying careful attention to the sermons and church doctrine.
- Evaluate whether doctrine is Biblically sound or whether it is dogma created by that denomination.
- IF you recognize or suspect heresy, pray about it, and discreetly ask your pastor for clarity directly from sacred Scripture.
- IF his responses are not Biblically correct then are they dogma, doctrine, denominationalism, his opinion, or heresy?
- IF the Holy Spirit leads you to another church, shake the dust from your feet and leave!

Obviously, the politically powerful Feminist Movement's agenda is to vacate Biblical standards for gender, sexual expression, marriage, and especially to nullify the subordinate role God ordained and ascribed to wives in marriage. IF Christians delight ourselves in studying sacred Scripture, then we will see how today's demonic paradigm shift toward being popular or tolerant creates chaos at home, at school, in the work place, in government agencies, in our courts, and throughout society. IF you repeat your Bible Boot Camp at least seven times within 3 years, then you might be quite surprised by the extent to which your own denomination vacates, cuts, and pastes non-Biblical concepts to attract more members and more money. Yet, are we smarter than or wiser than God? When we assiduously meditate upon God's Word, doing so not only pleases God, it also helps devout Christians overcome temptation, recognize Satan's subterfuge, and keep our temples undefiled by sin. Teenagers especially can avoid a myriad of sexual mistakes during adolescence IF they obey God! Of course, as long as we are Biblically illiterate, we will remain "spiritually blind", which gives Satan the perfect opportunity to deceive us and persuade us to enjoy his buffet of forbidden fruits. Lamentably, under the banner of tolerance and political correctness, colleges, churches, schools, and federal government institutions have embraced PRIDE in a plethora of immoral, sinful, and perverted lifestyles.

While many Americans hold strong opinions regarding tolerance for same sex attraction, fornication, adultery, sodomy, fisting, scating, pegging, gender reassignment surgery, so-called gay marriage, and other forms of sexual perversion, Hell's Head Coach is delighted whenever they score a touchdown for him. “Hip, hip, hooray!” Yet, the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Hypothetically, IF your son’s first grade teacher proclaimed, “The kat klimbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten,” then would you nominate him or her for Teacher of the Year or teach Junior how to ferret for the truth via using a dictionary? IF you lived in a nation that already had spelled cat with a “k” for centuries, then wouldn’t it seem plausible to also spell climbed, carefully and carrying with a “k”? Yet, IF a perspicacious sage showed you both the definition and spelling of “cat”, replete with a picture of the feline in the Oxford Dictionary, then would you reject or embrace the truth and correct your spelling error from a reliable, authoritative source? IF you lived in a politically correct society that molested, maligned and murdered anyone who dared to spell cat, climbed, carefully, and carrying with a “c” instead of a “k”, then akin to the prophet Daniel, John the Baptist, Stephen, and the Apostle Paul, would you have the courage to obey God or would you acquiesce to the devil in disguise? IF God is going to judge each of us according to HIS rules when we die, then why should we listen to any of Satan’s sons and the Devil’s daughters? Explain. Other than the Holy Bible, there is no other moral compass for Christians to determine what’s right or wrong. Yet, wolves in sheep clothing and other miscreants merely masquerading as men of God would much rather that you vacate Sacred Scripture and blindly trust whatever New Age immorality they preach and pontificate from their podiums and pulpits.

In our nation’s so-called “melting pot”, some people practice Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, and Judaism, etc. Yet, the GLBT Movement is an obvious contradiction to orthodoxy and attacks members of all four religions. Rather than proselytizing, VICE broadly describes the battle between good and evil as the Spiritual Super Bowl between Heaven’s Head Coach and Hell’s Head Coach. Of course, many Americans might say, “I’m not religious.” Yet, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that they still score touchdowns for Hell’s Head Coach by not having a personal relationship with God? It is quite interesting that over one hundred denominations claim to have been founded upon the Holy Bible as God’s infallible and inerrant Word. Thus, how can so many different dogmas, doctrines, and theologies emerge from the same Holy Bible? Some denominations, for example, teach that women and even lesbians should be allowed to preach and to pastor churches in order to be inclusive. Other Biblical denominations proclaim that women are instructed to remain silent in the church. More broadly, all orthodox religions converge in agreement that there are only two genders: male and female. With the very rare exception of hermaphrodites, there are no other possibilities. Thus, “gender fluidity” is neither a biological nor a Biblical concept. Yet, public schools now inculcate the idea that God made a mistake in the delivery room and encourage gender confused students to undergo transgender surgery. Unless you are living in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty, can such evil blasphemy ever make sense? Explain.

Amid so many dogmas and doctrines, studying the entire Bible for yourself is a sine qua non for church members not to be deceived by false teachers and false prophets in the pulpit or on television. In this context, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that the Jehovah’s Witnesses, the Mormon Church, and Seventh Day Adventist Church were founded by men and women who vacated, perverted, and supplanted the Holy Bible with books they wrote? Explain. For example, “The Book of Mormon” was written by Joseph Smith, who claimed that God revealed to him “truths” inconsistent with Scripture via a seer stone. Similarly, despite several of Ellen White’s false prophecies having failed to come to fruition, still she and her books [“The Desire of Ages” as an example] are venerated by both clergy and congregations in the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Now that the SDA denomination has ordained members of the GLBT community as elders, could such a ministry score touchdowns for Heaven’s Head Coach? Antithetically, could such a ministry score touchdowns for Hell’s Head Coach? What does the Holy Bible teach us to do regarding false prophets? Explain. Charles T. Russell, who for a brief time attended Adventist Bible study groups, later became the founder of Jehovah’s Witnesses. According to Russell, Jesus already had returned to Earth in 1874. Moreover, another one of his false prophecies stated that the dead in Christ shall rise before the end of 1878, which obviously never came to fruition. Moreover, Russell’s successor, Joseph Rutherford, abandoned his wife and son and lived with Berta Peale [who also had abandoned her husband] at Beth-Sarim in San Diego until his death. Prior to his death, Delilah bewitched Samson, which cost him his hair, his physical strength, his favor with God, and his life. Today, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that Delilah has digital clippers? Throughout the New Testament, Peter, Paul, and other apostles warned and reminded Christians not to be deceived or bewitched by false teachers or wolves in sheep’s clothing. Countless pastors, bishops, presiding elders, and other Christian leaders, both past and present, have personal lives that blatantly contravene the tenets of Biblical Christianity. Thus, to avoid New Age heresy and apostasy, obeying the Holy Bible always will be the right thing to do. Ergo, before you drink bleach from a golden goblet or otherwise disobey God's "thou shalt" and "thou shalt not" commandments, always ask yourself, "What does the Bible say?" to discern IF Satan is offering you forbidden fruit. WE can't fix it IF we can't face it, inconsequential to whatever "it" is.

FEMINIST STUDIES: THE TROJAN HORSE

There is a clear bias in America against masculinity and an Alpha male's virile leadership as a husband and a warrior protecting and providing for his family. Sigmund Freud described phallic envy as a developmental stage among females wherein they covet having a penis. Perhaps, the Feminist Movement's Psychological Penis Complex is the glue that empowers women to supplant, feminize, and castrate males. On the one hand, women claim they are equal to men. Yet, on the other hand they are livid that transgender females win in virtually all women's sports categories. IF women are equal to men, then why penalize males for being swifter, stronger, and more assertive? As an example, Planet Fitness prohibits men from grunting or banging weights during their workouts because it's offensive to female patrons. Failure to comply can result in cancellation of a man's membership. What the truck...F-150! Is it I alone who sees feminism's attempts to castrate men?

Ladies and gentlemen, before we delve further into the spiritual versus the political impact of feminism and gender dysphoria, please remember God commanded Eve to submit to Adam's authority. In my lifetime, however, the United States government banned studying the Bible in school and vacated Christianity as our nation's moral compass. Ever since then, our moral standards have been sinking faster than the Titanic. Any society that vacates God's Commandments, by default, will become more ungodly and more evil. Yet, that society might try hiding behind a false flag, a facade, or a proverbial fig leaf of inclusion or diversity to obscure the extent to which its evil hidden agenda operates behind the scenes. Perhaps, the Iraq War based upon a litany of lies about weapons of mass destruction that never even existed is a salient illustration that Satan is our nation's real Commander in Chief hiding in plain sight. Hypothetically, IF your son's first grade teacher proclaimed, "The kat klimbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten," then would you nominate him or her for Teacher of the Year or teach Junior how to ferret for the truth by using the dictionary? If a prominent professor, politician, or college president pontificated that "cat" is evil, intolerant, bigoted, anti-Semitic, and condemned owning a dictionary as a hate crime, then would you acquiesce to the devil in disguise? Is it possible that political correctness is the embodiment of such a nefarious professor, politician, or college president? Taking this vignette to its natural conclusion, future generations will be completely ignorant of the fact that “The cat climbed the tree while carefully carrying her kitten,” ever existed!! Capish...or is it kapish? Senior citizens have a world view that well remembers “cat” while teenagers are completely unaware and ignorant of the paradigm shift and political changes in the matrix that took place before they were born. Therefore, IF senior citizens failed to teach their children and younger generations the truth, then “cat” will be extirpated from society as if it never existed. Instead, “kat” will become the world view of an entire nation! VICE uses this allegory quite often to illustrate how important it is for grandparents and other senior citizens to inculcate and to demonstrate their superior knowledge and wisdom to the next generation, lest political correctness extirpates “cat” from our national psyche. A similar analysis can be made regarding feminism, lesbianism, transgender surgery, the Psychological Penis Complex, homosexuality, child molestation, so-called “gay marriage”, and even incest eventually supplanting God’s Divine plan if we dare to compare and contrast the before and after in our nation’s history. God bless you!

In Matthew, the Bible discusses a woman who had “an issue of blood” for twelve years and spending all of her financial resources with several doctors to no avail. Her faith in Jesus Christ, however, miraculously healed the bleeding posthaste upon merely touching the hem of His garment. When a girl first menstruates or reaches adolescence, her mother usually will coach her regarding tampons, heavy bleeding, sanitary napkins, hormonal changes, tenderness in her breasts, mood swings, etc. Yet, rarely does an unwed mother encourage her to remain a virgin until her wedding. In some cases, her maternal grandmother and even great-grandmother were not virgins when they said, “I do”, IF they bothered getting married at all. Of course, single mothers and other feminists feel as if there’s no need to have faith in God or to follow His moral compass. Such a spiritually blind parent does not realize how “women’s liberation” begets generational curses in her bloodline. Naturally, non-Christians think only in terms of women no longer needing men to provide their children with food, clothing, shelter, and other things pecuniary assets can provide. Yet, in the spiritual realm that child is “cut off” from God’s blessings the same way King David’s bastard son was cut off from the bloodline and lineage of Abraham and died the day before the sacred circumcision would have been performed. Similarly, spiritually blind Americans can not see the relationship between sexual expression in the physical realm and the consequences in the astral realm. Instead, most men and women will defer to whatever political position appeals to them – all at the expense of obeying God’s commandments that remain the same yesterday, today, and forevermore. Never forget that anytime a church elder, preacher, pastor, or bishop, teaches a “new thing” predicated upon cultural relevance, he [or she] does so at the behest of Lucifer. In fact, many pastors surreptitiously engage in Satanic rituals within the secret societies to which they belong. Gnosticism within Judaism and Christianity, as an example, promotes sodomy as a portal for demonic powers.

IF you were born after 1984, then you probably never have seen a black and white TV, replete with rabbit ears. Similarly, you probably never prayed or studied the Bible at school. Indeed, millions of adults have lived their entire lives under the umbrella of demonic spiritual energy. Albeit invisible, Satan’s demons actively engage in recruiting new members who will lie, steal, kill, and impose a plethora of evil and wickedness throughout the United States. Yet, IF you were born into a Christian family wherein your father routinely led his wife and children in prayer and Bible study, then consider yourselves blessed by his quality time and his spiritual covering under the umbrella of God’s protection. The Feminist Movement teaches women that male domination truncates their freedom; thus, both girls and grown women of all ages should liberate themselves from patriarchy and being subordinate to the authority of men. Thus, our government provides preferential treatment in the form of housing, food, clothing, and medical care for unwed mothers and their children. At the risk of being redundant, our government provides preferential treatment in the form of housing, food, clothing, and medical care for unwed mothers and their children. Consequently, today’s feminists see nothing wrong with fornicating, frequenting bars, smoking, body piercing, tattoos, expensive wardrobes, dressing provocatively, strip clubs, extra-marital affairs, and having children out of wedlock. Antithetically, the Bible teaches that a bastard is cursed for ten generations and should not enter God’s House, lest he defiles the sanctuary of worship. Thus, is it possible that prostitution, human trafficking, drug addiction, mental illness, lesbianism, feminism, pederasty, homosexuality, bisexuality, AIDS, alcoholism, child molestation, incest, rape and murder are clear evidence of the ubiquity of demonic spiritual energy in the United States? Meanwhile, in a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on our money, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically. Over time, these generational curses from parents to their offspring create bloodlines to Lucifer’s demonic powers that members of occult societies summon in their geo-political crusade to conquer the entire world. Needless to say, only an exiguous number of families still study God's dictionary and teach their children "cat" instead of "kat". VICE challenges Americans born under demonic spiritual energy to decode Satan's matrix by developing a personal relationship with God. Once you bend the spoon and gain mastery over temptation, evil thoughts, and sinful behavior, then you will be able to dodge enemy agents and their bullets like Trinity and Neo. As the BIBLE affirms, no weapon formed against you shall prosper. Despite non-religious teenagers' youthful tendency to embrace a sinful, hedonistic, ratchet, nihilistic, and Satanic world view, VICE is fully committed to proffering them a holistic alternative to forbidden fruits via pontificating what the BIBLE teaches -- without adding to or subtracting from sacred Scripture. We all have a choice to make between the red pill or the blue pill. Yet, are any of us smarter than or wiser than God?

Toward being more efficacious in decoding demonic spiritual energy and political correctness, VICE encourages its members to study basic psychology to see how our minds so easily are manipulated by social engineering without duress or leaving fingerprints. Obviously, I am not a scholar; so this Rhema word is written just for the average person at the grocery store, gym, barber shop, in college, in the military, and even in prison. Examining my own life, I am grateful that Jesus said, "They that be whole needth not a physician, but they that are sick." Thus, real Christianity is not about being "holier than thou". Instead, it is about devout Christians inviting other sinners to find salvation and deliverance through believing in Jesus Christ. Stated differently, His Holy Spirit can empower sinners to be born again and change F's on their moral report cards into A's. Generally speaking, people repeat behaviors for which they are either rewarded or at least not punished. As an illustration, once Pres. Obama successfully made so-called "gay marriage" the law of the land, same-sex couples rushed out of their closets to have public weddings, even in some liberal, unorthodox churches. Protected by this unprecedented legal shield for tolerance and inclusion, public colleges and universities commenced a campaign of exclusion via either denying admission or expelling devout Christians who expressed their Biblically correct objections to lesbianism, anal sex, and Satan's overall GLBT agenda. Public schools prohibit any discussions of probity and sexual morality based upon the Quran, the Tripitaka, the Torah, the Bible, or any other legitimate moral compass. Instead, a sex education curriculum embracing atheism, fornication, feminism, homosexuality, and gender reassignment surgery is mandatory in K-12 classrooms as if God no longer exists. What's wrong with this picture of separation of church and state?

Almost overnight, Satan's sons and the Devil's daughters came out of the closet. Moreover, perverted sexual expression isn't just a physical act of hedonistic pleasure. Au contraire, mon frere! It also affirms spiritual allegiance to Lucifer through occult sex magic and his other pagan rituals that open portals for "more light" and more demonic powers. Gil Scott-Heron, Freddie Mercury, Rock Hudson, James Dean, Raymond Burr, Sylvester, Richard Pryor, Keith Haring, Max Robinson, Elvis Presley, J. Edgar Hoover, Malcolm X, Montgomery Cliff and Marlon Brando are among celebrated icons known to have engaged in homosexuality and bisexuality. During the 1980's pandemic first associated with buggery, some of these famous men died from AIDS. Millennials and teenagers would be well-advised to read "After the Ball" and to revisit the before and after legacy of the AIDS Quilt prior to the invention of Biktarvi. While they extend the life of men and women who are HIV positive, antiretroviral medication can not cure AIDS. Despite his heterosexual public image of being a good husband and father, former Pres. Obama was a life-time member of Chicago's infamous gay bath house, "Man's Country". Perhaps, that's the real reason for his come from behind [no pun intended] victory over Hillary in 2008. It also might explain why Bradley Manning, unlike Edward Snowden, was granted a Presidential pardon. Once the Invisible Empire vetted him as a more desirable presidential candidate than Hillary, then the legalization of so-called "gay marriage" became a foregone conclusion. Of course, the GLBT community sees him as their Moses leading them to the Promised Land of pride in perversion. In retrospect, the Democratic Party skillfully protected Senator Obama's image in order for him to be elected to the Oval Office. Yet, had that information been made public during his campaign, would he still have become President of the United States? I rest my case. Martin Luther King, Jr. perspicaciously advised all Americans to judge a man by the content of his character. In that context of rectitude, did Pres. Obama score a touchdown for Heaven's Head Coach or Hell's Head Coach? Moreover, his administration even withheld humanitarian aid from poor African and Caribbean countries that refused to legalize same sex unions, as he put it, "in violation of their human rights." Does Buddhism condone anal sex? Does Judaism condone anal sex? Does Islam condone anal sex? Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think Barack Obama is wiser than or smarter than Allah, Buddha, the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Jesus Christ? Today, preachers and pastors who neither revere nor fear God inculcate tolerance and inclusion of gay marriages and anal sex as “human rights”. Ergo, in addition to being the only African-American to become President of the United States, Pres. Obama’s legacy includes redefining “marriage” to include what the BIBLE condemns as an “abomination”. On Judgment Day, what percentage of men [and women] who take pride in sexual perversion will spend Eternity in Heaven instead of in Hell’s lake of fire? 25%, 50%, 75%, 100%, or none of the above? Explain.

As “After School Satan Clubs” and Common Core’s mandatory sex education gain traction in elementary schools, perhaps, Satan is the real Commander in Chief hiding in plain sight in Washington, D.C. Meanwhile, Republicans and Democrats alike work in tandem to block, tackle, clip, and run devout Christians out of public office and out of any public discourse circumscribing sexual immorality. Again, this is why grandparents and other seniors must inculcate to their progeny that “kat” is not correct via sharing the dictionary with them. Perhaps, federal prosecutors, judges, courts and politicians are mere puppets on a string criminalizing “cat” while legalizing “kat”. Democrat and Republican members of Congress and our Supreme Court Justices unabashedly inveigh against Bible Clubs in school as a violation of our Constitution’s legal separation of church and state. Yet, IF public schools offered electives in Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, and Judaism for religious students to ameliorate their faith, then would the Supreme Court rule against our Constitution’s protection of freedom of religion? IF the Court’s primary objective or endgame was total deconstruction of moral standards, then that mission was accomplished and the SCOTUS scored a touchdown for Hell’s Head Coach. Hip, hip, hooray! Meanwhile, can you see Satan rolling on the floor laughing hysterically as our morals sink faster than the Titanic sank on its maiden voyage? In the context of “Separation of Church and State”, what’s wrong with this picture? History has proven that any nation that vacates God’s commandments, by default, will become more ungodly and more evil – bar none. Yet, most Americans born after 1984 fail to realize how political correctness rationalizes a paradigm shift toward feminization of America’s Youths hiding behind a Satanic fig leaf of diversity, equity and inclusion [DEI]. Would any real Christian condone his son following the examples of Will Smith’s son, Magic Johnson’s son, and Dwayne Wade’s son for gender expression and sexual identity? Is gender merely a political issue or a moral issue? Stated differently, does the Bible teach inclusion of gender dysphoria, cross dressing, gender reassignment surgery, female pastors, lesbianism or any immoral lifestyles? Does the Bible teach tolerance for replacing God's moral standards to include pegging, pederasty, child molestation, human trafficking, adultery, fornication, fisting, scating, tattoos, body piercing, incest, bestiality, or any immoral lifestyles? WE can't fix it IF we can't face it.

In a nation wherein "In God We Trust" has become a mere creed, is feminism compatible with Christianity? Is political correctness compatible with Christianity? The Bible is God's inerrant moral compass that can keep us out of danger, out of court, out of prison, and out of an early grave. Transgender surgery, for example, often results in depression, regret, and even suicide. Are today's psychologists and physicians suddenly smarter than or wiser than God? IF you are an agnostic or a lukewarm Christian, please hold in abeyance reading this book until you have read the entire Holy Bible. Doing so will transform your understanding of VICE's discussion of the relentless spiritual contest between Heaven's Head Coach and Hell's Head Coach. There are no spectators in Life's Super Bowl as each of us scores for one team or the other as we cross the end zone. The majority of us age 65+ or older well-remember when our federal government's Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Branches of government enshrined Christian moral values. Until recently, these ethical standards were the barometer and foundation of the United States' legal system that honored only two genders. Even a blind atheist can see the hypocrisy of the GLBT Movement's and Feminist Movement's proclamations affirming more than fifty different gender expressions. Is it possible that gender is a moral issue Satan wants to supplant with a world view requiring that we live in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty? On the one hand, feminism clamors for "equal treatment" between males and females. On the other hand, female athletes protest vehemently against "transgender females" who were born with a penis and a scrotum dominating their collegiate and professional sports competitions. To convince women that patriarchy is unfair to them, feminism now describes assertive male leadership as "toxic masculinity". Yet, when faced with a crisis or real danger, the damsel in distress yells, "Help," hoping that a gallant knight in shining armor will come to the rescue with the same "toxic masculinity". Make it make sense. Because erstwhile virile images of men fist fighting, repairing the car, patching the roof, playing basketball with his son, chopping fire wood for winter, and taking his son deer hunting, etc., have all but vanished from movies, television, and social media, many boys lack a close paternal bond with their fathers to emulate later in life as a competent head of household leading the family.

Males naturally enjoy competing in sports, even from an early age. This innate desire to become stronger and faster than their peers can be interpreted as preparing them for the role of provider and protector of their families and communities in adulthood. Yet, females are hardwired from birth to avoid fights, to enhance their pulchritude, and to cherish physical safety from danger. Thus, the advent of females on the front lines in the military and dodging bullets in law enforcement are perversions of their femininity. One could argue that these expressions of “femininity” are, de facto, prosthetic masculinity. Eureka! Much of the ideology inculcated by Feminist Studies in academia is as ludicrous as expecting ice to boil water. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at the success of feminism’s Trojan horse. Fathers, never cease to fight to protect your “family jewels”, lest Delilah will try to castrate your sons, your grandsons, your nephews, your cousins, and you as well.

AGE IS NOT JUST A NUMBER

A typical four-year-old lacks the cognitive wherewithal not to touch a hot stove. A typical fourteen-year-old lacks the cognitive wherewithal not to have sex prior to marriage. In both examples, age is not just a number as their parents and guardians shoulder the responsibility to protect the innocence of childhood. However, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think today's college presidents, politicians, pundits, and even some pastors are pushing political correctness to ensure that America's children and teenagers lose their innocence as well as their virginity either during childhood or during college? We hold these truths to be self-evident among those who are members of the Committee of 300, Skull and Bones, Freemasonry, and other secret societies. Any institution or individual that vacates God's commandments, by default, will become more ungodly and more evil via a paradigm shift away from probity and moral accountability. Those of us age 65+ and older realize that before the Supreme Court banned praying and studying the Bible in public schools, there were much better behavioral outcomes at school, at home, and throughout society. Because of Christian moral values, most students simply did not cheat on tests, steal from their peers, smoke or use drugs in the bathroom, disobey their teachers, or disrupt the learning environment in the classroom. On those rare occasions wherein a teenager got pregnant, she brought shame upon her father's family name and had to withdraw from attending regular high school. Even in her neighborhood, parents instructed their children to shun this bad example. The behavioral problems teachers face today did not even exist in the 1960's and 1970's. Children said, "Yes Sir," as well as "Yes ma'am" to show respect for their parents, teachers, and other adults in authority. Today, among adults of all ages, there is a conspicuous lack of multi-generational family unity, legacy, tradition, paternal wisdom, life lessons and accountability at family reunions, family picnics, and other family gatherings. After four generations, any language, culture, religion, and family legacy can be vaporized as if it never existed. Ergo, is it possible that the Supreme Court made a crucial mistake by banning religious education at school? Explain.

Age is not just a number since it indicates the extent to which a society is moving to maintain or to abandon high moral standards for socially acceptable decorum. In the context of age, most people born after 1984 have no recollection of a black and white television with a cathode ray tube in the living room, replete with rabbit ears. Similarly, they have no recollection of when a gallon of gasoline costed only 50¢ and popular candy bars [Almond Joy, Baby Ruth, Butterfinger, Nestle Crunch, Mr. Goodbar, Snickers, Hershey's Milk Chocolate, etc.] costed only 25¢. A quarter was my weekly allowance when I was in elementary school. IF I found a penny on the ground, I could dash to the corner store after school to buy two coconut cookies, two oatmeal cookies, a piece of peppermint candy or Bazooka bubble gum with a cartoon inside. Thus, many senior citizens my age consider the 1960's and 1970's to have been "the good old days".

Teenagers may not realize that not only was the cost of living much lower than it is today, the moral standards of living definitely were much higher than they are today. For example, millions of Americans born after 1984 have no recollection of listening to Christian sermons on the radio, dressing up before attending Sunday School, reading the Bible, memorizing the name of all the books of the Bible in correct order, singing hymns in Sabbath School, or listening to their pastor's weekly sermons during a Sunday worship service. Millions of Americans are too young to have heard Jesus' Sermon on the Mount and other Biblical parables taught in Children's Church or in Youth Ministry. Millions of church folks today are too young to remember when the pastor dressed "appropriately" either in his clerical robe or in his Sunday suit, dress shirt, and tie. Similarly, millions of church folks are too young to remember when men or women wearing tattered jeans, sandals, sneakers, shorts, or short dresses were not allowed in the sanctuary. Age is not just a number since it circumscribes your core values and your world view. Most church folks today are too young to remember when pastors held an 11:00 a.m. Sunday morning worship service and a 6:00 p.m. evening service that were well-attended. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when churches hosted an annual revival for two weeks to encourage sinners to repent of their sins and to give their lives to Jesus Christ. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when there were no drummers, lead guitarists, bass players, saxophonists, or contemporary praise teams leading contemporary praise and worship services. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when the entire congregation sang 3 or 4 traditional hymns while holding a hymnal provided in the pews. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when known lesbians and homosexuals were not ever allowed to preach, to work in the Youth Department, to teach Sunday School, or to lead any type of worship. When the Bible and the belt were standard classroom supplies, politically correct terms such as gay marriage, gender dysphoria, and transgender surgery did not even exist.

Millions of Americans are too young to remember when people in small towns did not lock their automobiles when they went shopping downtown. Unlike Boston or New York, many provincial families did not bother even to lock their front doors at night because the community respected what the Holy Bible teaches about coveting or stealing. Judeo-Christian morality was the template or standard for acceptable conduct, even for people who did not regularly attend any synagogue or church. Thus, the erstwhile spiritual energy in a community reminded citizens of the Ten Commandments and God's other instructions they had heard at one time or another. Prayer was common in the classroom, in school assemblies, at high school graduations, at football games, before a meal in public restaurants, and at bedtime while on our knees with our hands clasped together in reverence to God. Millions of teenagers are too young to remember when fathers [not unwed mothers] were the head of households while their wives were homemakers who cooked, cleaned, and didn't even consider putting their children in a nursery or preschool. Millions of Americans are too young to remember when sagging pants and profanity were frowned upon as a symbol of immoral behavior and inept parental home training. I could go on and on; yet, hopefully, you recognize a dramatic contrast in family structure before versus after the Supreme Court criminalized studying God's Word and praying at school. Your age affirms whether or not you were a student when praying and reading the Bible were normal in virtually every classroom. At the risk of being redundant, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that the U.S. Supreme Court made a crucial mistake by banning religious instruction at school? Explain.

In the context of how Satanism and moral corruption have infiltrated the church in the Last Days, one's age is not just a number. As an illustration, Church elders in their 70's see the danger in contemporary worship while it draws young Christians away from holiness to a church that makes them feel good. Yet, IF a

New Age pastor is not leading the flock to a closer relationship with God, then is he [or she] a counterfeit Christian? Explain. IF a teenager attended a church that rebuked, shunned, or disfellowshipped members who questioned that denomination's dogma, then more disillusioned teenagers and young adults probably would leave. Again, someone's age implies the traditions, spiritual energy, atmosphere, and expectations of the society into which he or she was born. Therefore, several denominations now are scrambling to become relevant to young adults in order to assuage today's mass exodus. Once again, is it possible that the Supreme Court made a crucial mistake by banning religious instruction at school? Although our nation is experiencing a decline in church attendance, should any denomination's leadership team change the music and the message to accommodate young adults? Does watering down the gospel ameliorate or truncate obedience to God's "thou shalt" and "thou shalt not" commandments? Despite the increase in popularity among young pastors who are good performers and entertainers, the Bible admonishes pastors and their church boards never to put a novice in a position of leadership until after he has waxed strong in the things of God. Thus, to prepare for leadership over the congregation, any novice should spend many years, if not a decade, as an apprentice praying, fasting, learning, and studying the Scripture under the tutelage and vigilance of a senior pastor, deacon, elder, or overseer. Paradoxically, countless pastors now earn seminary degrees from liberal institutions that promote "cultural relevance", including gays and lesbians in the clergy. Yet, God's moral standards remain the same: yesterday, today, and forevermore. Thus, the road of salvation is straight and narrow, lest we forget that God decries homosexuality as an abomination. Therefore, according to the Bible any lesbian or gay pastor – bar none -- will spend Eternity in Hell along with any gay or lesbian so-called "christian". Stated differently, spiritually blind Americans have fallen prey to the idea of moral neutrality, which does not even exist. IF ever you attend one of VICE's workshops, then be sure to ask me how I know. Otherwise, just read "The Myths of Sex Education" by Josh McDowell. Meanwhile Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at this politically correct oxymoron. Following Pres. Obama's push to make gay marriage the law of the land, Satan's sons and the Devil's daughters began to perform so-called "gay weddings" in God's House! While it is true that free will allows us to "do as thou wilt", rest assured that Hell will be sufficiently hot for everyone who has earned the right to spend Eternity therein. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because he knows millions of GLBTQ+ Americans soon will be joining him in the lake of fire.

Naturally, young people tend to rebel against erstwhile orthodoxy and require firm guidance from parents, pastors and elders to ensure that they do not stray from what the Bible teaches. Thanks to Adam and Eve's original sin, now all of us are hardwired from birth to disobey God's commandments. Thus, in the context of Jesus' parable of how some seed fell on good ground and bore much fruit, fertile ground implies that a person was reared in a family or church that pontificated and practiced godly virtue. Thus, your age is not just a number. Rather than a vocation from God, charismatic young pastors simply graduated from a seminary and started their own churches without any oversight or accountability to any ecclesiastical hierarchy. As the CEO of their 501(c)(3) corporation, non-denominational pastors have total control over how the tithes and offerings will be allocated, including their salary and whether their wife, son, or daughter also should be on the payroll. In so doing, are they scoring a touchdown for Heaven's Head Coach or Hell's Head Coach? Millennials are too young to recall when only a handful of mega-churches existed and their devout pastors practiced what they preached. Pastor Geronimo Aguilar, Bishop Eddie Long, Rev. David Loveless, Bishop T. D. Jakes, Pastor Bob Coy, and even Billy Graham's grandson, Rev. Tullian Tchividjian, are just a few pastors now infamous for scandals involving adultery, pederasty, child molestation, drug abuse, homosexuality, drunkenness and other ungodly behavior. Generally speaking, even IF they are caught "with their pants down", how do these wolves in sheep's clothing get a mere slap on the wrist and remain in ministry? Is it possible that Freemasons on the bench and in law enforcement are obligated to help their brothers in our pulpits avoid prosecution or prison despite blatant wrongdoing? IF you are incredulous, then please read "33 Degrees of Deception", "The Secret Teachings of the Masonic Lodge: A Christian Perspective", and be sure to read "Lucifer Dethroned" by William Schnoebelen. Both he and Henry Makow proffer unapologetic and enlightening information on YouTube and their websites to better connect the dots between demons from the astral realm and spiritual wickedness on earth. Few churches ever attract more than 500 members without an endorsement from the same Brotherhood that supports its invisible empire in banking, business, education, real estate, transportation, manufacturing, the military, politics, and pastoral leadership. Upon reading these books, you may conclude that the Brotherhood makes “good men” better servants of Lucifer. Needless to say, that’s an opinion not shared by the brothers themselves. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when only “good men” were allowed to attend seminary and later serve as the pastor of a church. Meanwhile women were not allowed to read the Scripture, baptize converts, or preach the morning message. Millions of church folks are too young to remember when the adults in their church were allowed to criticize, correct, and even spank disrespectful and obstreperous children. Instead of ever defending their children’s unacceptable conduct, most parents would thank them for their discipline and administer another spanking [2 for the price of 1] once they got home. Thus, someone’s age is not just a number. It also is a very important litmus test or barometer of whether they have developed a politically correct or a Biblically correct world view.

Other social factors also are important to consider in any legitimate analysis of before political correctness and our nation’s now “inclusive” moral compass after the fact. Nevertheless, in the context of the United States’ paradigm shift away from Biblical morals, one’s age is not just a number. In terms of a family’s traditions and legacy, it takes just four generations to vaporize any recollection of one’s progenitors as if they never even existed. Who, what, when, and where that particular family tree was planted can be permanently erased from history. Once perspicacious senior citizens pass away, will the legacy of devout Christian morals be vaporized? By default, will politically correct immorality become the unanimous plat du jour for an entire citizenry? IF so, then miscreants merely masquerading as “the man of God” will not find even one dissident to “kat” in their church pews. The Bible affirms that in the Last Days, many false prophets shall arise, men’s hearts shall wax cold, and iniquity shall abound. “But he that shall endure until the end shall be saved.” [Matthew 24:11-13]. Despite our sinful nature at birth, the Holy Bible teaches God’s requirements and His expectations regarding how to repent of our sins and be born again. Once upon a time, Roman emperors persecuted, tortured, and even fed Christians to hungry lions in the Colosseum for refusing to worship Bacchus, Minerva, Diana, Venus, Mercury and other pagan gods. However, after the Roman Empire embraced Christianity, emperors and popes imprisoned undesirable sinners, and even burned infidels at the stake for heresy. One could argue that throughout its existence, the Roman Catholic Church has coveted political power and pecuniary assets more than it coveted piety. In our nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, has the pendulum swung in the direction of unabashed relativism, capitalism, nihilism, hedonism, and pagan worship once again? Explain.

Social engineers, anthropologists, and psychologists fully understand that immigrants from any country can be totally disconnected from their family legacy, religion, culture, language, and their identity group’s history after four generations of isolation. Black slaves brought from Africa to the United States are a quintessential illustration of this axiom. The slaves who survived the Middle Passage deliberately were sold to different plantation owners in order to deconstruct and destroy their family bonds, religions, native languages, oral traditions, and any other cultural roots to their Motherland. Under the brutality of 250 years of slavery, black people were denied human dignity and the ability to learn to read and write. After four generations in the New World, illiterate black Americans had no idea of their indigenous languages, religions, or ancestry. Concomitantly, they also lacked the ability to read newspapers, the Bible, and other books to decode the matrix that deliberately denied and dared not to allow “liberty and justice for all”. The biography of Frederick Douglas quintessentially illustrates the “danger” of allowing slaves to learn to read. Similarly, throughout its history, the Roman Catholic Church well understood the “danger” of allowing parishioners to read the Bible for themselves rather than trusting their priests. Why? The Pope and Catholicism’s Ecclesiastical hierarchy well-understood that it is impossible to engage in hypocrisy, papal heresy, profiteering, and centuries of barbaric savagery in the name of Jesus Christ. Therefore, counterfeit Christianity was the plat du jour during the Colonial Era and remains as such throughout churches in Europe and the United States. The psychological exploitation, subjugation, and manipulation of any identity group is successful - IF and only IF – the vanquished population is illiterate or totally ignorant of the chess game that controls them. Checkmate!

Hypothetically, is it possible that Orthodox Christianity will be utterly destroyed after four generations of counterfeit Christian doctrine and watered down “feel good” theology? Explain. Popular church trends such as pageants, concerts, bounce houses, picnics, Halloween costumes, parties, youth retreats, women’s conferences, millionaire pastors, women pastors, gay pastors, lesbian pastors, and husband and wife “co-pastors” are antithetical to God’s Biblical instructions. Jesus Himself said it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of Heaven. Yet, millionaire pastors and mega-pastors are becoming “normal” because the love of money still is the root of all evil. Rich pastors with a private jet, a multi-million dollar mansion, and a Lamborgini while wearing tee shirts, sneakers, tight pants, and tattered jeans are pontificating prosperity and “feel good” theology rather than preaching sermons about moral conviction, sin, repentance, God’s “thou shalt” and “thou shalt not” commandments, and the spiritual power in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ to save sinners, break generational curses, and release soul ties to Satan!! IF young and old Christians alike would read the entire Bible several times afresh, then God would manumit them from spiritual blindness and change their Spiritual DNA. In the Last Days, church folks would discover that the Bible already has warned the sheep about tolerance, inclusion, diversity, social engineering, and the psychological manipulation of the flock via so-called political correctness. Yet, the alarm doesn’t go off in the hearts and minds of “church folks” IF they never have been born again. The alarm doesn’t go off in the hearts and minds of “church folks” IF they never have received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Despite Jesus knocking on the door of their hearts, millions of “counterfeit Christians” prefer to settle for a beautiful building and contemporary music where they will be entertained but not convicted of the ungodliness in their lives. Biblical eschatology addresses how clergy and congregations will have itching ears, turn away from the truth, and embrace fables instead of God’s inerrant Word. Perhaps, the Roman Catholic Church was the first to introduce false or “counterfeit Christianity”, replete with all of its pageantry, pederasty, ornate Gothic cathedrals, pipe organs, confessional boxes, church doctrine and dogma about the infallibility of the Pope. Yet, in a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, “counterfeit Christianity” now is ubiquitous among Protestant denominations as well. If your son’s first grade teacher proclaimed, “The kat klimbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten,” then would you nominate him or her for Teacher of the Year? Why are today’s Christians ignoring the signs and still nominate miscreants and wolves in sheep’s clothing for “Pastor of the Year”? As a result of this cognitive dissonance and Biblical ignorance, young Christians seldomly recognize the extent to which the spiritual atmosphere in many contemporary churches is Satanic. Never forget [with few exceptions] that Americans born after 1984 have spent their entire lives under demonic spiritual energy. Thus, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think Satan's sons and the Devil's daughters surreptitiously have vacated Scripture to seduce our entire citizenry to eat forbidden fruit? WE can't fix it IF we can't face it.

Your chronological age affirms whether or not you were allowed to pray and read the Bible in school during your formative years. Otherwise, you may develop a secular, hedonistic, or nihilistic world view. As a parent born after 1984, you may see nothing wrong with ratchet profanity, pornographic cartoons, music videos, and TV shows on your children's laptops celebrating hedonism, crime, violence, and sexual perversion. Why are elementary schools encouraging students to experiment and make sexual mistakes they later will regret? Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically. Why should any school expose children to graphic sexual images at the expense of exposing them to God's textbook in sex education? Satan realizes that grooming kids early will circumvent the formation of a moral compass in their psyche to avoid such vices. Any institution bereft of an ethical point of reference begets tolerance, acceptance, and inclusion of GLBT perversion at school, on college campuses, on military bases, in court rooms, and now in churches throughout America. Again, I urge seniors age 65+ and older to remind your children and grandchildren of the true meaning of "In God We Trust". The Bible warns: "As it was in the days of Lot, they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold...it rained fire and brimstone from Heaven and destroyed them all." That prophesy about Sodom and Gomorrah came true the nanosecond the Obama Administration legalized protection for lesbianism, homosexuality, bisexuality, bestiality, and even atheist chaplains! Satan still is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at our nation's rebellion against God. WE can't fix it IF we can't face it.

YOUR PATERNITY TEST RESULTS

One thing that makes Victory in Christ Ensemble [VICE] enigmatic is its reliance solely upon God's Word to determine what is morally right and morally wrong Christian conduct. The mission statement on most church websites pontificates that "We believe that the Bible is God's inerrant Word." Yet, in practice, many churches actually do just the opposite via mandating their pastors' collective obedience to that denomination's doctrine and Ecclesiastical hierarchy. With more than one hundred different Christian denominations, can all of them be correct according to God's inerrant Word? Theoretically, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous for any mainstream, Evangelical, or Pentecostal denomination to condone bisexual pastors, pederasty pastors, adulterer pastors, women pastors, gay pastors, lesbian pastors, transgender pastors, or even child molesting pastors and remain loyal to the inerrant Word of God? In the United States, most preachers and pastors are ordained for ministry after they have graduated from a seminary or at least completed some course of theological study. Their denomination's Ecclesiastical hierarchy has well-established procedures, rules, rituals, doctrine, and church policy that each member of the clergy must follow. Catholic priests, as an example, must follow the doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church or risk disciplinary actions, including excommunication. Thus, the Pope is the final authority on all matters within the Roman Catholic Church. Protestant preachers, however, have more freedom to interpret Scripture, implement policy, and establish church doctrine, which may not be Biblical, within the boundaries and limits established by that particular denomination's hierarchy. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think devout Christians should take a break from attending any church until they have studied the entire Bible vis-a-vis following the pied piper over a spiritual cliff? For example, Calvary Chapel is an "association" that forbids speaking in tongues during any worship service. Some denominations even teach that laying on of hands, casting out devils, healing the sick, and other gifts of the Holy Spirit no longer operate within the Body of Christ. The founder of the Calvary Chapel Movement, Rev. Chuck Smith, and Pastor Bob Coy have very interesting personal backgrounds well-worth reading to understand Biblical truths regarding wheat and tares. Rev. Bob Coy resigned from his 20,000 member church amid scandalous allegations of adultery, child molestation, and porn addiction. Did you know that the Bible neither condemns nor condones masturbation? Did you know that the Holy Bible neither condemns nor condones abortion? That may come as a surprise to anyone who has not studied the entire Bible at least seven times. It also proves that most “church folks” base their entire theology upon church doctrine, commentaries, best sellers, inspirational sermons, workshops, and traditions rather than a personal understanding of the Bible. Because many “church folks” embrace the dogma of their denominations, they may be guilty of idolatry by reverence to a man at the expense of Biblical literacy and a personal relationship wherein they fear and revere God. The Apostle Paul’s letters to the Romans, Ephesians, Galatians, Corinthians, and Thessalonians, etc. are replete with a common theme: remain steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in the Word, the Work, and the Will of God. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, Christianity has fallen away from Paul’s perspicacious warning. Similarly, IF your son’s first grade teacher proclaimed, “The kat klimbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten,” then would you nominate him or her for Teacher of the Year or teach Junior how to ferret for the truth by using a Webster or Oxford dictionary? Explain. Unfortunately, this kind of toxic counterfeit Christianity has become “normal” in countless church pulpits ever since the US Supreme Court banned the BIBLE and praying for God’s Divine protection over innocent children at school. Is it possible that most congregations are following men who never were called or anointed by God? Prior to his death, Bishop Eddie Long of New Birth in Atlanta was one of the most infamous cases of pederasty since Penn State’s Coach Jerry Sandusky’s trial. Unlike Bishop Carlton Pearson, Bishop Eddie Long’s church never fired him or asked for his resignation following the civil cases that were quietly settled out of court. Instead, Bishop Long was a revered member of the Divine 9, as is his current successor at New Birth Atlanta. Yet, is it possible that the Divine 9 and the Demonic 9 are two wings on the same bird? Enough said. Compare and contrast the Biblical teaching [or lack thereof] at New Birth Atlanta to that of Rev. Loran Livingston in Charlotte. The Gay Community in Atlanta, Chicago, San Francisco and other large cities is attempting to get more pastors to capitulate to the sin of homosexuality. Before and after the Obama Presidency, many liberal church denominations have ordained bisexual, gay and lesbian members of the clergy. Such apostasy is tantamount to telling God, “I don’t fear you and I don’t care what the Bible teaches. It’s a new day for queers and lesbians and you can't stop us now from doing things our way!" In the context of political strategy, the GLBT Movement and the Feminist Movement have become so powerful that our government is considering criminalizing religious "discrimination" and free speech against their nefarious agenda to extirpate Biblical morals from the American psyche. None of this could have happened IF we had taught children born after 1984 how to be Biblically correct instead of politically correct. Now, we know that political correctness is tantamount to a Trojan horse that is pleasant to the eye until you see who and what's hidden inside. "As it was in the days of Sodom and Gomorrah..." is a Biblical sign that the Second Coming of Jesus Christ is close at hand. "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be." [Matthew 24] Therefore, sooner than we expect, devout Christian pastors like Loran Livingston may be captured, arrested, interrogated, threatened, beaten, imprisoned or martyred just like the Apostle Paul, Stephen, and Jesus Christ by Satan's sons and the Devil's daughters. Will they threaten to do the same to professional athletes like Stephen Curry who publicly proclaim Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior? Will athletes capitulate to political correctness like when Peter denied Jesus three times? Explain.

Unlike Pastor Loran Livingston or Voddie Baucham, Rev. Robert Morris of Gateway Church in Texas fell from grace in 2024 after it was disclosed that he had molested a 12-year-old girl several decades prior. Paradoxically, that same year, Executive Pastor Kental Glasgow also was terminated from all ministry duties at Gateway Church. Meanwhile, can you see Satan rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at these "moral failings" in the pulpit? Nobody's perfect; but is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think these preachers are wolves in sheep's clothing masquerading as "the man of God" while coveting pecuniary assets and physical pleasure more than probity or piety? At the risk of being redundant, is Satan the real Commander in Chief in Washington hidden in plain sight? Are most politicians, preachers, and pastors members of the Invisible Empire that wants us not to talk about politics, religion, the Bible, and the baptism of the Holy Ghost? Typically, non-denominational churches are completely independent of any Ecclesiastical hierarchy. As a single body, the individual church determines its creed, order of service, version of the Bible, dress code, style of music, and sacraments for establishing its unique style of worship. Therefore, the leadership team within a typical a non-denominational church has the absolute authority to hire, evaluate, discipline, or terminate its senior pastor and other staff members without accountability to anyone outside of that congregation. IF the “leadership team” consists of (1) the pastor, (2) the pastor, and (3) the pastor, then he is, de facto, an autocrat with absolute control over the entire operations of that church body.

Amid these divergent political structures within contemporary Christianity, it is important to recognize that many preachers look upon ministry as a career choice vis-a-vis a vocation akin to Jesus Christ calling Saul on the Damascus Road. Similar to other men graduating from trade school, college, vocational school, or exiting the military, preachers also are looking for “job opportunities” to put food on the table and provide for their young families. As such, the popularity, size of the congregation, pastor’s salary, benefit package, legacy, and material prosperity offered by his employer determine whether he will or will not accept the job offer. In post-modern Christendom, we hold these truths to be self-evident today as obscenely rich pastors have supplanted foundational Biblical instructions regarding holiness with hedonism. As 3rd degree members of the Brotherhood, or even 33rd degree Freemasons, Lucifer has granted them more light [demonic powers] within their brand and their style of “feel good theology” and entertainment including concerts, staging, lighting, praise teams, rock bands, rappers, praise dancers, pageants, and even gospel comedians in God’s House. Marvel not that they quickly attract followers with “itching ears” for feel good sermons that don’t step on their toes and convict them for their sinful lifestyles. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at how successful counterfeit Christianity has become. A young, devout Jewish man asked Jesus what must he do to inherit Eternal life. Jesus’ response applies equally as well today as it did during His earthly ministry: “IF thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven: and come and follow me.” But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. Then said Jesus unto his Disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.” [Matthew 19]. Yet, why is prosperity gospel among the most popular doctrines in the United States? You can not serve God and mammon. Is it possible that these pastors and their parishioners love money more than they love the Lord? Recently, several Christian leaders like Josh McDowell and Joseph Solomon seem to have “rebranded” themselves with an entirely different world view versus God’s unchanging requirements for salvation.” Similarly, Joshua Harris became lead pastor of Covenant Life Church at just age 30; but resigned a decade later. His handling of child sexual abuse internally instead of reporting it to child protective services or to the police was one of the reasons for his departure from the church. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because he knows Hell will be sufficiently hot for many pastors and everyone else who have earned the right to spend Eternity therein.

A Masonic cliché in America that I have heard since childhood, yet, never understood, is “Don’t talk about politics and religion.” Anyone who knows me knows that I am willing to “talk about” the Invisible Empire, Zionism, White Christian Nationalism, and almost anything with the disclaimer that I am speaking only for myself. I find intelligent, informal discussions about life to be vivifying and most rewarding whenever facts and well-informed opinions different from my own are expressed rationally. Moreover, these intelligent discussions with people far more intelligent than I am lead me down the rabbit hole ferreting for truths I never knew existed. For example, “From JFK to 911: Everything is a Rich Man’s Trick” is a DVD well worth the three and a half hours I spent watching it. “Judaism, Freemasonry, and Buggery” completely changed my world view of geo-politics. So did “Freemasonry’s Best Kept Secret: Ritual Sodomy”, both of which are articles on Henry Makow’s enlightening website. Of course, the Brotherhood of Freemasons is well-respected all over the world. Yet, there are concerns about Freemasonry now accepting transgender members. When you connect the dots, is it possible that the Brotherhood of Death and the most influential men in the UK and the US actually are Satanic sodomites? Explain.

Biblical eschatology affirms that in the Last Days, homosexuality will be as open as it was in Sodom and Gomorrah. Undoubtedly, we are living in the Last Days before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Despite the legalization of so-called “gay marriage”, the Holy Bible clearly warns men and women that same sex attraction is an abomination. Scripture also says that iniquity shall abound and men’s hearts will wax cold in rebellion against God [Matthew 24] in the Last Days. Therefore, does the Brotherhood make good men better servants of the Lord or servants of Lucifer? On the day of judgment, will the Great Architect of the Universe rescue sexual deviants from Hell’s flames and carry them to a Celestial Lodge above? Explain. Unlike most Christian zealots, I do not have the expectation that any adult would change his or her world view based upon my limited knowledge, experience, and understanding. Instead, I urge people to read the entire Bible and other enlightening books instead of believing and being deceived by whatever the Orwellian Thought Police present as the truth on television. As the perspicacious Apostle Paul said, “Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.” [Romans 14]. Yet, many churches have vacated Scripture and embraced the very things God hates. Thus, speaking only for myself, the rigid Ecclesiastical hierarchy within the Holy See as well as today’s Protestant denominations seems to be a set of religious rules, rituals, regulations and restrictions that are non-Biblical. Yet, to those “church folks” who think of this as a loophole to legitimize sin and unrighteousness, the Apostle Paul reminds us all, “Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.” [Romans 12]. Is the GLBT agenda good or acceptable to God? I rest my case.

After you read the entire Bible at least seven times, it will become obvious and self-evident that Jesus was disfellowshipped from the synagogue by Jewish scribes, Sadducees and Pharisees for not being a team player with their agenda. Early in His ministry, whenever Jesus spoke in the synagogue, the chief priests and other Jews were astonished [Matthew 13] by His religious acumen and pragmatic wisdom. Yet, spiritually blind and totally ignorant of His Divinity they asked, “Is not this the carpenter’s son?” However, when Jesus contradicted Jewish rituals and doctrine concerning the Sabbath, then the chief priest and scribes sought how they might kill Him. Needless to say, the anti-Christs cried out, “Crucify Him! Crucify Him!” and demanded that Pilate release Barabbas. The rest is history. Because of my own personal experiences as a catamite, I wonder if the Roman soldiers who nailed Jesus to the cross had a penchant for pederasty with one or even several adolescent males in a Roman public bath. Prior to the AIDS pandemic during the 1980’s, gay bath houses were popular on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean among bachelors and married men. The Brotherhood of Death at Yale University obviates homosexual rituals are inextricable from “straight men” being initiated and “illuminated” by demonic spiritual energy. Why do these men gain tremendous power in Washington, London, and Rome? Both Rahm Emanuel and Barack Obama were members of Chicago’s gay bath house I mentioned earlier. Is it a mere coincidence that the Vatican owned the building and was landlord to the largest gay bathhouse in all of Europe? Following the embarrassment of the connection between the Holy See and unabashed homosexuality, that bath house eventually closed its doors. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think sodomy is an occult ritual symbolizing the devil’s penis opening a young male’s “Third Eye” as a portal for demons? Is a soul tie to Satan created when “straight men” are “impregnated” by the Devil’s penis and “illuminated” by demonic spiritual energy? Speaking of sodomy among so-called “straight” soldiers, back in 1993, top brass at Camp Pendleton scrambled to cover up the pornography scandal involving “straight” Marines posing nude for Dirk Yates. Apparently, nearly 200 Marines were photographed and filmed having sex with each other or with underage catamites in San Diego. IF your son or nephew is a veteran or still in the Marine Corps, then don’t take my word for it. Here is the URL and the article in “The Independent” so that you can test the veracity of what I am saying about sodomy: <https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/gay-porn-scandal-hits-us-marines-1462200.html> [August 19, 1993]

“The United States Marines Corps is having a terrible summer. First, there was the row over gays in the military. Then there was the muck-up over the corps’ attempt to stop recruiting married soldiers. And now - mother of all nightmares - a scandal suggesting that male-bonding in the elite corps has perhaps got somewhat out of hand. Military investigators at Camp Pendleton, in California, have confirmed that an inquiry is under way into whether US marines have been indulging in some unauthorised skirmishes, namely taking part in mail-order homosexual pornographic films. The allegations came to light after the local police received a tip-off that up to 200 soldiers were photographed and videotaped having sex with teenage boys at a Californian home. Detectives claim they unearthed dozens of magazines, photographs and videos depicting marines, some wearing items of uniform, having sex with other men.”

These revelations may be shocking to your “typical” bachelor, husband, father, or any other man who never has been in the military, a collegiate fraternity, or in Freemasonry. Yet, veterans who are members of the Brotherhood are protective of their secret rituals and activities. Police officers, mayors, fire chiefs, county commissioners, politicians, pastors, pundits, professional athletes, coaches, entrepreneurs, stock brokers, college presidents, college professors, musicians, actors, and former US Presidents never will discuss in public bisexual members of their fraternal organizations having anal sex to gain more “light” or demonic powers from Lucifer. Yet, is it possible that Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock, George Washington, and other Founding Fathers possessed this demonic spiritual energy while establishing laws for the new nation? Perhaps, the answer to this query is hidden in plain sight in the alignment of the streets, obelisks, and buildings in Washington, D.C. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” now has become a mere creed, the Executive, Judicial, and Legislative branches of government are vigorously and permanently dismantling Biblically correct morals. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed, the NFL, the NBA and other sports industries that once banned homosexuality now roll out the red carpet to celebrate Gay Pride Month. Of course, money may be the motivation since boycotts could hurt their brand and their bottom line. Yet, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because all of “them” will spend Eternity with “him” in the lake of fire.

Albert Pike, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, U.S.A., probably never expected the general public to gain access to and to read “Morals and Dogma”. In 1872, nearly 8,000,000 Americans still were illiterate and public libraries were rare. Yet, Pike’s book is full of demonic energy and even describes secret semen rituals and how Freemasons deliberately lie to and deceive fellow Masons outside of those illuminated brothers at the top of the Brotherhood's pyramid and tracing boards. Dating back to ancient mystery religions, The Knights Templar, Odd Fellows, Hermetic Adepts, the Brotherhood of Freemasons, and the Rosicrucians are skilled in the occult craft of sex magic. As the term "adept" implies, a secret society will reveal secret knowledge only to those they feel are worthy to possess it. Throughout Europe, these powerful men have controlled provinces, kingdoms, and empires for centuries. Upon their advent in America, the Brotherhood continuously has operated from behind the scenes to destroy Biblical morals while also controlling the nation's laws, courts, manufacturing, transportation, real estate, private industry, banking, education, medicine, military, media, and geo-politics on a global stage. Therefore, what is the connection between Baphomet and ancient mystery religious practices, including Gnosticism and Kabbalah? During occult sex magic, do human sacrifices extract the life force from children at the point of male orgasm? Is it possible that prominent members of secret societies, including the North American Man Boy Love Association [NAMBLA], are hiding in plain sight while they surreptitiously participate in murdering children? Explain. While the Obama Presidency legalized sodomy in the Marine Corps and all branches of the military, anal sex has been a part of male bonding among men in the military ever since antiquity. Yet, only a reprobate nation ever would normalize sodomy as a so-called "human right".

Approximately 500 years after the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ, the Babylonian Talmud bastardized Judaism by condoning Orthodox males having sex with young children. Unbeknown to outsiders, Orthodox rabbis in Crown Heights and Borough Park who had sexual contact with underage male students can move unobtrusively from New York to Israel to escape possible criminal prosecution here in the United States.

<https://www.haaretz.com/israel-news/2016-03-22/ty-article/.premium/israel-becoming-a-refuge-for-pedophiles/0000017f-e11d-df7c-a5ff-e37f5a370000>

<https://www.jpost.com/israel-news/article-741881>

Not only does Israel's legal system protect American-born pedophiles from extradition, the Knesset is [or was] considering legalizing pederasty!! The Talmud literally condones Jewish men engaging in sex with young children. Talmudic Jewish rabbis also teach that all Gentiles are "subhuman", akin to livestock, and that Jews should treat them as such. Does this religious hatred of goyim explain Benjamin Netanyahu's nefarious, genocidal ethnic cleansing of Palestinians in Gaza and on the West Bank while hiding behind a canard of "the right to self-defense"? Explain. That false narrative and trite cliché also was stated after the IDF attacked strategic targets in IRAN, LEBANON, SYRIA, QATAR, and YEMEN. The Israeli government, backed by rabid Zionists, is living in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty as if ice can make water boil. The Talmud also teaches Orthodox Jews that Jesus Christ is in Hell boiling in his own excrement. Whereas, these protocols were written by scholars centuries after God gave Moses the Torah on Mt. Sinai, is it possible, probable, or preposterous to think the Talmud is not "God's Word"? No devout Christian ever would deny that Jews are God's "chosen people". Yet, throughout Jewish History, they incessantly rebelled and disobeyed His commandments. Having rejected Jesus Christ as the Messiah, He even described His adversaries as "the synagogue of Satan". Needless to say, within both religions, "follow the script," is a sine qua non for acceptance by the Ecclesiastical hierarchy and religious authority lest ye be ostracized by your Orthodox community. Inasmuch as I am neither a seminary graduate nor a preacher, I am not loyal to the Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Calvinist, Baptist, Berean, Adventist, Mormon, Methodist, Scientologist or Jehovah's Witness denominational hierarchy. There is no "P", "H", or "D" after my name; so, feel free to vilify VICE's pedagogy. Instead, I am just a plain "nobody important" who is a loyal and humble disciple of Jesus Christ sitting next to His Father in Heaven.

Sacred Scripture reminds pastors and parishioners alike that the love of money is the root of all evil. When you look at any tree, you can not see the roots that anchor it in the ground. IF you cut the tree down, why does it sprout new branches in an attempt to preserve its life? Similarly, when one of Satan's sons dies, a new branch will grow within “The Brotherhood” to replace it, thereby, sustaining the mission of Satan’s Invisible Empire. However, Biblical illiteracy renders most Americans incapable of seeing Satan’s hidden footprints and hidden fingerprints in so-called “political correctness”. Whenever we see prominent pastors fall from grace, i.e., Rev. Jimmy Swaggart, Rev. Marvin Gorman, Pastor Bob Coy, Bishop Carlton Pearson, Pastor Geronimo Aguilar, Bishop Eddie Long, Rev. David Loveless, Bishop T. D. Jakes, and even Billy Graham’s grandson, Rev. Tullian Tchividjian, are they victims of bad publicity or wolves in sheep’s clothing finally being exposed? Explain. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that TBN’s legendary founder, Paul Crouch, was sexually involved with a convicted felon, a crack addict, and a man convicted of child molestation? TBN’s official 1997 statement continued, “Although the accuser fell back into drug abuse on more than one occasion during his employment, TBN extended grace to this man and kept him employed while he continued to seek rehabilitation and counseling.”

<https://www.nexttv.com/news/tbn-s-crouch-rebuts-sexual-harassment-story-372079>]. IF famous pastors and preachers are anointed by God and filled with His Holy Ghost, then make it make sense. The news report goes on to say that TBN paid hush money to Enoch Lonnie Ford to avert any scandal or public disclosure of Crouch’s bisexuality. Nevertheless, by no means is Paul Crouch the only married public figure who has engaged in sex with male and female partners. To the contrary, former Pres. Obama was a life-time member of Chicago’s infamous gay bath house, “Man’s Country”. Likewise, IF you read my testimony in my first book or posted on my website [God Loves U 2] at www.victoryNchrist.net, then you will see that I also am guilty of having had sex with both male and female partners after years of child molestation and incest! Therefore, the much bigger issue beyond who sleeps with whom is whether we are counterfeit Christians or devout Christians. Stated differently, who is your spiritual father: Lucifer or the Lord? In both black and white churches, have Satanic ventriloquists brainwashed the congregation regarding politics and sexual immorality while hiding in plain sight behind the puppet master’s curtain? Once again, is it possible that Satan is the real Commander in Chief in Washington, D.C.? I am convinced that the fallacy of Eurocentrism would implode like a house of cards IF our citizenry was better educated and cognizant of the hidden relationships between the Church, the State, and Satan.

Lamentably, the “average” American is engrossed in the watching soap operas, the Super Bowl, reality TV, the NBA playoffs, and other distractions that the emperor’s bread and circus provide to circumvent reading books and critical thinking. Meanwhile, the Jewish Mafia and the Gentile Mafia work in tandem to control education, the media, both chambers of Congress, the SCOTUS, the White House, and even the church, thereby controlling public opinion throughout the United States. On a global stage, the US military relentlessly uses propaganda to justify our unprovoked attacks in Afghanistan, Libya, Iraq, Somalia, Sudan, et al., and most recently Venezuela. Why must the United States relentlessly attack and topple foreign leaders who are protecting their national interests from American neo-colonialism and hegemony? All of these sovereign nations have uranium, oil, gold, natural gas, bauxite, and other valuable natural resources coveted by the Billionaire Club. World History affirms that ever since the Berlin Conference of 1884, Europeans incessantly scramble to exploit the four corners of the globe via using NATO’s military superiority. In 1929, Sigmund Freud’s nephew, Edward Bernays, perfected the art of propaganda via group psychology and mind control using his uncle’s research as a point of reference. Bernays’ successful “Torch of Freedom” campaign persuaded women to smoke publicly in defiance of Judeo-Christian moral standards, which already had declined throughout the Roaring Twenties. Mind control techniques underwent protracted research under the CIA’s MK ULTRA experiments and other techniques still used today in video games, movies, advertising, textbooks, and virtually all forms of social media.

<https://nsarchive.gwu.edu/briefing-book/dnsa-intelligence/2024-12-23/cia-behavior-control-experiments-focus-new-scholarly>

Yet, high school teachers never inform their students about the Berlin Conference, AFRICOM, Operation Paper Clip, MK Ultra, or COINTELPRO. Perhaps, Satan is the real Commander in Chief orchestrating US domestic policy and US foreign policy that coincide with “The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion”. To keep him from exposing the CIA’s illegal experiments, did Frank Olson pay the ultimate price to keep his mouth shut? On the Dark Continent, did the CIA orchestrate the assassination of Patrice Lumumba in the Congo? In Africa’s various civil wars, does the CIA routinely train and supply weapons to both sides to “divide and conquer” according to Sun

Tzu's "The Art of War"? In the context of politics, religion, and sexuality, VICE is an unorthodox ministry that ferrets for moral truths without disclosing any secrets that threaten national security. All of the names VICE mentions, including former Pres. Obama's membership in Chicago's infamous gay bathhouse, already have been reported in at least three various news reports now in the public domain. Yet, VICE's attempt to be transparent while discussing the politically correct GLBT Movement would be remiss IF we failed to examine the "secret" connection between sodomy and Satanism in virtually all branches of the United States armed forces. Perhaps, "Don't ask don't tell," is the reason why 99% of veterans are deafeningly silent about their long-standing male bonding rituals. Beyond sexual harassment, hazing, and top brass covering up blatant sexual assault of females by fellow male troops, Uncle Sam has other dirty laundry. The wife of a Marine Corps Colonel, Kay Griggs, boldly described what transpires in the US military during a series of interviews in 1998. Thus, here is the link so that you can hear her in her own words and connect the dots:

Often, I mention "The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion" in anything I post about Israel's genocidal war crimes in Gaza. This century-old book that is vilified by members of AIPAC, the Anti-Defamation League, and the Zionist Organization of America reads like an official playbook for what Netanyahu and the IDF have done to Palestinians for well over seventy years. Equally as disturbing about the matrix of geo-politics in the Middle East is a recent post on www.henrymakow.com, which does not follow the official narrative about the Holocaust. Here's an abridged version of Dr. Makow's article, entitled "Zionists Sacrifice Jews to Satan":

"Rudolf Kastner (1906-1957,) the Zionist leader in Hungary, made a deal with Adolf Eichmann. For allowing 1700 hand-picked Zionists to go to Palestine, he would help transfer 460,000 Hungarian Jews to death camps. Kastner acted with the approval of the World Zionist Organization. He was murdered in 1957 to suppress the scandal. Details Here. Zionist bankers funded the Nazi Party. Israel claims to represent Jews and accuses its opponents of "anti-Semitism." This is outrageous. The Jewish Holocaust was a Nazi-Zionist Collaboration designed to justify the State of Israel. Zionists have a long history of sacrificing ordinary Jews to advance their occult goal, a worldwide Communist dystopia. Gaza is no exception. The IDF killed Israelis on 10/7/2023 in order to better justify their ethnic cleansing of Gaza."

Is it possible that the IDF is as nefarious as this article implies? Is it possible that the great-grandchildren of Hitler's evil soldiers now run the IDF and Mossad? Moreover, is it possible that Israeli Intelligence played a crucial role in the 9/11 debacle in order to get US troops on the ground in IRAQ? One thing is certain: the media does not want the public to know the truth about who the players were who orchestrated 9/11's "inside job" via surreptitiously planting thermite in the Twin Towers the weekend prior to the following Tuesday's main event. Perhaps, America's teenagers are insouciant regarding world events, religion, and important moral issues. One of the reasons why millennials and teenagers so readily embrace the Feminist Movement and the GLBT Movement is they have no BIBLICAL understanding of Satan or sin. How can any spiritually blind man determine what is morally right or wrong? Stated differently, most Americans born after 1984 lack any experiential point of reference or even an intellectual point of reference acquired after having studied history to compare and contrast when our nation's moral standards agreed with the Bible vis-a-vis after we vacated sacred Scripture.

<https://www.theguardian.com/world/2010/jul/24/pentagon-us-staff-downloaded-child-pornography>

IF military units, lodges, college fraternities, and similar secret societies have engaged in sodomy rituals for centuries, then should we expect them to openly admit their occult blood and semen rituals? Nevertheless, is it possible that millions of married civilians, veterans, and active servicemen are bisexual? How is it possible that countless Pentagon employees with high-level security clearances engaged in watching or downloading child pornography with barely a slap on the wrist? Is it possible that Satan is the real Commander in Chief in Washington, D.C.? IF ever you wrap your brain around that axiom, then everything in US domestic policy and US foreign policy will make sense. Hopefully, their penchant for homosexuality and other forms of sexual deviance does not include innocent children or under age teenagers! I pray for God to manumit all of them from spiritual blindness, oaths they took, sexual perversion, and Satanic soul ties to the Brotherhood. Akin to VICE's I.Q. Tests, this Spiritual Paternity Test provides you an opportunity to criticize and correct any vices you discover in your life and in the broad matrix called political correctness. Unlike women, men are responsible for criticizing and correcting social problems that harm society. Unlike women, men tend to think rationally rather than allowing fear and their other emotions to control their conduct. Unlike women, men are responsible for creating wars, genocide, ethnic cleansing, and much of the chaos we see all over the world. Therefore, gentlemen, we have an obligation to analyze the matrix and implement pragmatic solutions to mitigate a plethora of social, economic, and political problems.

There is no "P", "H", or "D" after my name; so, feel free to disregard anything with which you disagree. I could be wrong. Yet, just a basic understanding of psychology helps humans better to understand the behavior patterns of others as well as the motives for our own behavior. For example, when you attend a basketball or a football game, you will see the crowd stand up and cheer for one team but not the other. I'm sure it can happen; but almost never will you see someone cheering for both teams when they score. Why? An underlying assumption of group psychology is that fans throughout the arena are there to support their team's effort to score and to win the game. If someone sitting on the side of the home team cheers for their opponent, then the fans proximal to them might become irritated and even suggest that they move to the other side of the stadium to join that team's fan base. In church, people stand up and sit down as indicated by the order of service or in response to the usher's or pastor's commands. In elementary schools, students first line up and then walk to the cafeteria, to art class, or to the library holding their classmates' hands to ensure no one strays or gets left behind. Now, take group psychology a step further in terms of recent wars in the Middle East. Pres. Bush deliberately lied on a global stage about IRAQ hiding weapons of mass destruction that never even existed. Yet, did the United Nations or the International Court of Justice hold Colin Powell, Condoleezza Rice, Paul Wolfowitz, Dick Cheney or Pres. Bush accountable for blatant war crimes and crimes against humanity? Is it possible that Lady Justice is not blind; but she functions as a puppet placating the agenda of a ventriloquist hiding behind her puppet master's curtain? Explain.

Similarly, Israel's Prime Minister Netanyahu got away with blatant genocidal war crimes against Palestinians without even a slap on the wrist from Pres. Trump. Even IF the United States had not exercised veto power regarding a cease fire in Palestine, the United Nations has no authority to enforce any of its resolutions in Israel or anywhere else on the global stage. Remember, Israeli Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu's paternal grandfather, Nathan Mileikowsky, was a Russian-born Talmudic rabbi and Zionist. Netanyahu's father, Benzion Mileikowsky, was a Polish-born Talmudic rabbi and Zionist who lobbied assiduously for the creation of the State of Israel. The following year, 1949, Netanyahu was born in Tel Aviv. Yet, Ashkenazi Jews in Israel are not descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Au contraire, mon frere! Perhaps, this is why it is illegal for Jews in Israel to take a DNA test and publicly disclose their test results. Ashkenazi Jews are descendants of the Khazars who converted to Judaism almost 1,000 years ago. Eureka! Therefore, members of the Thirteenth Tribe have no legitimate birthright, as they fallaciously have claimed, to the Holy Land. As mentioned earlier, the Talmud considers goyim to be less than human. Thus, the IDF's crimes against humanity in Gaza continue unabated with the United States' unconditional support. Perhaps, this explains the "unbreakable bond" between Israel and the US that recent Presidents have affirmed at AIPAC Conventions. It also explains why the US vetoed a United Nation's resolution calling for an immediate cease fire in Gaza. Never forget that after WW II, Operation Paper Clip smuggled nearly 1,500 Nazi war criminals into the United States to avert their prosecution at the Nuremberg Trials. Is it possible that the great-grandchildren of Adolph Hitler's wicked soldiers, scientists, and scholars now control academia, Wall Street, the International Monetary Fund, Hollywood, the Trilateral Commission, the World Bank, the Committee of 300, the Bilderberg Group, and the Council on Foreign Relations? Is it possible or preposterous to think that the Rothschilds are rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at our naivety and lack of critical thinking? Explain.

At the precipice of World War III, it is important for Americans to understand the back story and underlying, hidden agenda of a "global bully" that our US war machine has become. In the context of scoring touchdowns for Hell's Head Coach, NONE of our recent military operations were protecting our nation. Instead, at the behest of Zionists embedded within the State Department and the Pentagon, we destabilized Muslim countries to benefit Israel. Thanks to a well-orchestrated propaganda campaign, after 9/11 millions of American cheered for our military invasion of Iraq the same way fans cheer for their favorite sports teams. I lament that our obtuse citizenry took the bait and failed to realize that the destruction of NYC's Twin Towers was not a Muslim terrorist attack. Au contraire, mon frere! After the crime scene investigation, structural engineers from MIT and other researchers determined that 9/11 was a carefully choreographed controlled demolition, a/k/a "inside job", replete with thermite found throughout the debris at ground zero. Never forget that before a thorough forensic investigation could be conducted, the Twin Tower debris was sold and shipped to China as scrap metal posthaste. Remember that World Trade Center Building 7 never was struck by any airplane. Yet, the official narrative claims that Building 7's collapse was attributable to "uncontrolled fires", which would make that an unprecedented event that never has happened before in any tall steel frame building...never. Americans born after 1984 may believe this skullduggery as it was reported in the media. However, many of us seniors age 65+ and older remember the Warren Commission's ludicrous claim that a single magic bullet did a U-turn, thereby defying the laws of physics, in the assassination of Pres. Kennedy. Any educated American should allow the facts concerning JFK, as well as the World Trade Center debacle, to speak for themselves. However, a “typical” American will stand up and cheer, “Thank you for your service!” as if war is a mere video game or a sporting event. Bereft of any desire for peace or international diplomacy, one must question whether US foreign policy and our troops protect our national interest or protect the One Percent Club’s avaricious financial interest in controlling OPEC’s oil and other natural resources on a global scale. Professor Noam Chomsky has written extensively about the extent to which Americans tend to ignore history and geo-political facts while living in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty. Yet, this YouTube video explains manipulation of the mind far better than I ever could.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M-Ahyy6_aS8

As Morpheus so stated to Neo in The Matrix, “Welcome to the real world.” IF you read “The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion”, then you will see the geo-political endgame for Israel and the entire Middle East unfolding in plain sight. In 1982, Oded Yinon published a Greater Israel Plan he envisioned extending from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. Meanwhile, US military intervention in the Middle East following 9/11 was as disingenuous as the Gulf of Tonkin incident off the coast of Vietnam. “The ends justify the means,” is Uncle Sam’s mantra that assuages any remorse or guilt for crimes against humanity. Meanwhile, Hell’s Head Coach is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at the carnage created by his offensive team on the field.

IF I may ask, who is your father? Despite what your mother may have told you, are you certain that he is your biological father? Are you willing to take a DNA paternity test to make sure? All jokes aside, VICE challenges Americans born after 1984 to take a “spiritual paternity test” because, with few exceptions, you have spent your entire life under demonic spiritual energy. Once the US Supreme Court banned prayer and the Bible, our society no longer has a moral compass. A classic illustration would be students bearing arms and shooting their teachers in retribution for some disciplinary action. VICE does not condone violence, pandemonium, or embarrassment inveterately associated with paternity tests on the Jerry Springer Show. Instead, this Spiritual Paternity Test will facilitate learning whether your spiritual father is Hell’s Head Coach [Lucifer] or Heaven’s Head Coach [the Lord, Jesus Christ]. Millions of Americans who say that they are not “religious”, never should forget that they are scoring touchdowns for one head coach or the other as they cross the end zone. Everybody is on the field since there are no bleachers and no spectators in life’s Spiritual Super Bowl. In today’s “Age of Fatherlessness”, there is a dire need for MALE police officers, judges, attorneys, bus drivers, teachers, athletes, coaches, custodians, pastors, physicians, mechanics, convicted felons, construction workers, cooks, college administrators, farmers, correctional officers, electricians, probation officers, psychologists, and psychiatrists over the age of 55+ to mentor and to engage in candid, intelligent discourse with teenagers and grown men half our age. Why? Elderly men possess moral wisdom and intellectual knowledge that males born after 1984 may never have experienced in a father son dyad. Thus, these conversations can be game changers for the manchild. VICE hopes men will revisit your core values, your world view, and your purpose in life while training the next generation in God’s Word and God’s Will.

Regrettably, millions of men never will bother to read the Bible, this book, or any books about the formation of Christian morals. More often than not, they will fall for Satan’s “treats”, hook, line, and sinker, like bait on an angler’s fishing rod. For example, millennials tend to look up to rappers like Drake, Jay-Z, Lil Wayne, Snoop Dogg, and Nicki Minaj or to athletes such as Kobe Bryant, LeBron James, Aaron Hernandez, Tiger Woods, Shannon Sharpe, Rae Carruth, or Sherrone Moore as their role models. Who among them do you think love the Lord more than they love Lucifer’s treats such as pecuniary assets and physical pleasure? “What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul”? [Mark 8] One thing Satan successfully has accomplished since the SCOTUS banned studying the Bible in school is the replacement of men with women in leadership positions. As gate keepers and policy makers, the “weaker vessel” lacks the courage, stamina, and strength necessary to maintain, preserve and enforce God’s moral standards. Thus, feminism is inextricable from the reprise of hedonism, nihilism, and Satanism that have swept across our nation. Consequently, Americans born after 1984 [not all] lack any Biblical understanding of God’s “thou shalt” or “thou shalt not” commandments. As a result, Lucifer now can create a society that vacates biological reality regarding male and female. You are what you eat physically, intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually. Thus, gender is fluid and can be corrected via surgery IF you have been brainwashed and programmed by politically correct ideology. What disconcerts me is the extent to which many senior citizens are not protesting and making their voices heard in Congress and other legislative bodies. We are the last generation that grew up studying the Bible and praying for God's blessings before we recited the Pledge of Allegiance in school. Once we are gone, IF Satan says "kat" is correct, then millions of younger Americans will have forgotten and deny that "cat" is correct. Among pastors and preachers alike, many will go along to get along because their hearts covet mo' members and mo' money instead of ministering to God's sheep. Young members of their flock also yearn for a hedonistic lifestyle of ungodliness. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing. Yet, is spending Eternity in Hell worth it?

Gentlemen, IF Heaven's Head Coach is your Spiritual Father, then let's see you put six points on the scoreboard by mentoring your sons, brothers, cousins, nephews, grandsons, and fatherless males in your community. In the Last Days, we must stand boldly against the total corruption of our society and our nation. May God reward you for every touchdown they make in the Spiritual Super Bowl scoring for His team!

This “test” is an over-simplified diagnostic tool for members to examine the extent to which your core values and your actions score touchdowns in the Spiritual Super Bowl. There are no spectators in life. While we enjoyed playing sports and video games as teenagers, many females had their “eyes on the prize” of a college degree that provided them both financial security and independence from any husband’s authority over them. This is a feminist template or secular world view that works! Yet, is it implicitly challenging teenage males intellectually to aspire to higher education after high school and ensure they acquire the skill set necessary to be in the same league as today’s successful women? Explain. As a recently retired educator, I believe that girls are outpacing boys in terms of erudition in middle school as well as in high school and later earning their post-secondary degree or certification. Married fathers already are monitoring and mentoring their sons’ progress in life as well as in school when they get home. Fatherless males, however, tend to blunder throughout the rites of passage by listening to their peers’ advice about sex, sports, shoplifting, smoking, vaping, drinking, drugs, pornography, dating and other vices that circumvent obeying God. There are no virtuous male role models with whom to develop emotional, intellectual, and spiritual intimacy to honor and obey God. Generally speaking, fatherless females have a much larger and well-structured support system. The majority of the positive images of “success” on television and in social media are female. This may explain why some fatherless males question their masculinity and develop gender dysphoria. School psychologists are eager to facilitate the demonic feminization of middle school and even elementary school males. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing as the legal system in Canada and Great Britain vilify and criminalize Christian parents who object to the idea of GLBT human rights or surgical transgender therapy. GLBT affirming books, movies, and social media are brainwashing young people to believe God made a mistake in the delivery room. Much of that brainwashing in our schools is directly responsible for students’ inability to comprehend history, philosophy, science, psychology, and other enlightening books at grade level. This easily can create a distorted world view and a paradigm shift away from “normal” human sexual development. Today, countless students graduate from high school, despite being functionally illiterate. As they get jobs, buy cars, rent apartments, start voting, and start young families, it becomes quite obvious that what you don’t know can hurt you. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing. Why? By pushing incompetent students along the assembly line without teaching them foundational math and reading skills requisite for any society to thrive, we are creating a nation of obedient Orwellian proles akin to those in “Nineteen Eighty-Four”. In any school system wherein Christian morals, formal logic, debate teams and critical thinking are banned, the students will embrace the GLBT identity -- totally unaware that it is Satanic. Jocks especially need responsible and reliable father figures to shift the paradigm away from a passion for sports in order to develop a sense of academic and cognitive collaboration, camaraderie, and cooperation among their “intellectual teammates” in the classroom. Can society afford to allow the jock mentality to curse the future of millions of fatherless males? While dumb jocks may be popular, are they a curse rather than a blessing to their family and their community via the desuetude of intellectualism? Explain.

“A Hope in the Unseen” by Ron Suskind is a quintessential example of how males can become their own worst enemy by marginalizing scholarly students who develop their brains more than their biceps. Slaves had muscles; yet, they could neither read nor write. Capish? Thus, are black males who are functionally illiterate spitting on the graves of their ancestors? We can’t fix functional illiteracy

IF older men celebrate younger men's athletic success in a sport – at the expense of academic success in the classroom. We can't fix functional illiteracy IF teenagers and young men refuse to submit to the wisdom of older men who genuinely want to coach them to become more successful. The same way a coach criticizes his athletes' weaknesses and poor performance, perspicacious "life coaches" or mentors must criticize and correct bad behaviors and academic weaknesses among those they mentor. Otherwise, today's rapid increase in functional illiteracy creates malleable mental slaves who will believe, "The kat climbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten." Yet, coaches, surrogate fathers, pastors and other mentors must not forget to inculcate irreproachable moral standards and public decorum that millions of fatherless "dumb jocks" and other males born after 1984 clearly lack. At the same time, we can't teach what we don't know. While many of us refuse to look up unfamiliar words in the dictionary when reading, how can we comprehend a novel or a textbook without clear understanding of all the black ink on a white page? Can we understand the Bible's life lessons without disciplining ourselves to study them? With no respect of person, God requires Christian men and women to remain steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in obedience to His Word and His will. Otherwise, they will not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Since, gender is a moral issue, feminism vicariously is challenging males to step up academically IF they want wives to be submissive to their leadership in marriage and in the family. Males must step up just to be able to put a roof over their heads when their parents tell them it's time to move out on your own and start your own family. College is only one of several strategies to empower males to break the cycle of family dysfunction and become reliable providers and protectors. Realistically, men can not expect professional women to marry or to submit to a "dumb jock" as her significant other. Today's women no longer need to assume the role of being barefoot and pregnant in order to be a good wife and mother to her kids. Hypothetically, can Americans born after 1984 obey the Bible IF their schools, parents, and their pastors never instructed them in holiness? Explain. Already, four generations of black males have grown up fatherless and have filled many of the prisons and cemeteries in the United States. While prominent members of the Black KKK may have been paid and programmed to go along with the status quo, God requires that men criticize and correct the desuetude of black male intellectualism and critical thinking. Guys, IF the score at half time during the Super Bowl is 42 to 6, then should the losing head coach complain to the officials or admonish his defense to stop their opponent's quarterback and running back? Does complaining to the officials change the outcome of the game? Should black pastors relentlessly clamor for social justice or teach parishioners how to fight spiritual warfare and to lay aside the sins and weight in their lives? How can any oppressed people "stand still and see the salvation of the Lord" IF they lack faith in God and lean unto their own understanding? Are feminism and fatherlessness rapidly turning MLK's dream into a nightmare? Explain. Gentlemen, we can not blame today's pandemic of poverty, drug addiction, crime, dysfunctional families, illegitimate and illiterate offspring, etc. on "baby's mommas". Premature fatherhood is equally as culpable as unwed motherhood for 80% of black babies being bastards. WE can't fix it IF we can't face it. Despite pastors who either are deafeningly silent about masturbation or who vilify me for saying so, brothers, the Bible does not condemn a horny teenager or grown man for using the safety on "the pistol in his pocket" to flee fornication, adultery, homosexuality, AIDS, incest, rape, bestiality, and child molestation. Stated differently, the solution to avoiding these sexual mistakes is right there in your hands...pun intended! Ergo, I challenge teenagers and grown men in any church to ask the Senior Pastor and Youth Pastor to impeach VICE's ministry of sexual healing with God's instructions vis-a-vis your denomination's long-standing doctrine and dogma. Study the entire Bible for yourself and then share with me what God's Word revealed to you. Fair enough? I could be wrong; but I also could be right. So, as the Scripture saith, "Come let us reason together." WE can't fix it IF we can't face it, inconsequential to whatever "it" is! Since Delilah has digital clippers, how else can both males and females sustain their sexual purity, moral virtue, and godly obedience before and after marriage? Again, VICE challenges you to stop attending your church and embark upon a Bible Boot Camp at home because far too many spiritually blind Christians have acclimated to a so-called "politically correct" lifestyle of ungodliness in today's churches. Can anyone in church pulpits or church pews be Biblically correct and politically correct at the same time? This is a moral issue "church folks" of all ages should explore.

Satanic wizards and witches not only are real, they also operate with demonic powers to destroy God's plan for marriages, families, and for all of humanity. At the behest of Lucifer, men in fraternities, lodges, and other secret societies surreptitiously fight to subvert and destroy God's Divine plan. Invariably, these men occupy positions of wealth, popularity, and power as a signing bonus to join Hell's Head Coach in life's Spiritual Super Bowl. Often following in their father's footsteps, indeed, soul ties to Satan and generational curses are real. Brothers, you can not serve two masters because you will love one and loathe the other. Therefore, you can not score a touchdown for Heaven's Head Coach until you become an unrestricted free agent, surrender your life to Jesus Christ, and commit your body, mind, and soul to righteous living. Nobody's perfect; but IF you are seeking a wife, then you can not attract what the Bible describes as a virtuous woman until you relinquish fornication, smoking, drinking, drugs, and other vices that circumvent the Holy Spirit from dwelling in an unclean vessel. The choice of who will be your "baby's momma" requires parental guidance and discernment from God, lest you make a costly and a crucial mistake. Thus, spiritual maturity and wisdom accrue to men who diligently study God's Word for themselves. Salvation from our sinful nature is an act of individual repentance. Therefore, God will not hold you accountable for what someone else does or fails to do. Yet, you are responsible for your actions as well as the things you fail to do. WE can't fix it IF we can't face it, inconsequential to whatever it "is".

UNPLUG FROM THE MATRIX

In the original 1999 classic film, “The Matrix”, I was impressed by the special effects. Yet, I was far more impressed by countless existential truths the movie portrayed via symbolism. For starters, when you invert 999, you get the number the Bible describes as “the mark of the beast”. [Revelation 13] Similarly, Morpheus searched for “The One” the same way that Biblical prophets yearned for centuries for the coming of the promised Messiah. Similar to Neo having to choose the red pill or the blue pill, each one of us must choose between signing a contract with Heaven’s Head Coach or Hell’s Head Coach and then joining our teammates to defeat our opponents. The extent to which enemy agents and sentinels relentlessly sought to find and to destroy “The One” and Morpheus’s disciples remind me of Herod’s attempts to kill the Messiah by having babies and children in Bethlehem under the age of two murdered. The heroine’s name [Trinity] is a reference to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost throughout the Bible. Even the name given to Morpheus’ vessel [Nebuchadnezzar] refers to the king of Babylon in the Old Testament. Cypher’s betrayal of his fellow crew members aboard the Nebuchadnezzar was similar to one of the Disciples [Judas] who betrayed Christ for thirty pieces of silver. As faithful Christians, John the Baptist, Stephen, and James were martyred. Apoc and Switch were martyred in “The Matrix” when Cypher pulled the plug on both of them. The heroic way in which Morpheus trained Neo for battle against enemy agents is symbolic of how the Holy Ghost empowers devout Christians to fight Satan and his army of demons by exercising faith in God’s supernatural power. Neo’s spiritual transformation was not instantaneous. It took both time and hard work under Morpheus’ stringent instructions for Neo to develop his supernatural strength to dodge and even stop bullets. Likewise, for Christians to overcome the fiery darts of the wicked, [Ephesians 6], it will take time for us to meditate upon God’s Word day and night [Psalms 1] and then wax strong in the things of God. David went on to say that sinners will not stand in the congregation of the righteous, but will perish. Does this admonition include lukewarm Christians, who have no inheritance in the kingdom of Heaven? Thus, devout Christians must take the time to become steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in the Word, the Work, and the Will of God. For most Americans born after 1984, spiritual wickedness in high places already has blocked, tackled, clipped, and run GOD completely out of your hearts and minds. As an example, the idea of “gay marriage” was unconscionable when the Bible was studied in public schools. America’s youths now believe that transgender surgery is a “human right”. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because they have become spiritually blind adults who are incapable of recognizing his many “tricks”. Therefore, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that today’s younger mayors, teachers, principals, school board members, college presidents, professors, city councilmen, county commissioners, and governors who support the Feminist Movement and the GLBTQ+ agenda are Satan’s sons and the Devil’s daughters? Yet, devout Christians like Barronelle Stutzman and Kelvin Cochran will stand up for Jesus and fight against enemy agents -- despite being outnumbered and having nowhere safe to escape from this evil matrix. Notice that both of them are age 65+ and older and grew up prior to 1984. Thus, it is no coincident that most younger local school board members, teachers, and principals don’t see anything wrong with feminism or gay marriage. Are any of them saved and filled with the Holy Ghost? I rest my case! In the Last Days, Jesus said, “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.” [Matthew 24]

IF you have studied the entire Bible at least seven times, then you already see the evil matrix and how the *anti-Christ*s are trying to eliminate devout Christians from participating in politics and any decisions governing our nation’s citizenry. Satan is especially vigilant in developing a strategy to corrupt the morals of children as early as kindergarten. Meanwhile, human trafficking, child molestation, anal sex, fornication, adultery, incest, lesbianism, and transgender surgery are no longer punished in court. To the contrary, what we saw happen to Muslims in Guantanamo Bay may repeat itself – but with Christians arrested and tortured the next time around. This may sound like a dystopian novel or a conspiracy theory. Yet, even a blind atheist can see the handwriting on the wall as dissent, contrasting points of view, critical thinking, debates, and freedom of speech about what is moral and immoral are banned. Is it possible that the political climate under the Bush Administration bears similarities to Germany’s Kristallnacht [night of broken glass]? IF your son’s first grade teacher proclaimed, “The kat climbed the tree while karefully karrying her kitten,” then would you nominate him or her for Teacher of the Year? History affirms that totalitarian regimes must extirpate religious leaders and intellectuals in order to brainwash the public into believing “kat” is correct. Throughout “The Matrix”, Morpheus and his crew incessantly had to fight enemy agents just for survival. Likewise, during the Great Tribulation, devout Christians will have to fight just to survive. Yet, when we are beheaded or otherwise perish, Jesus Christ has promised us a crown of Eternal Life in Heaven for having had the courage to proclaim Biblical truths to a stiff-necked and reprobate nation.

Recently, I read where both the United Kingdom and Canada passed laws protecting a child’s right to be transgender, as if God made a mistake in the delivery room. Political pressure in both countries wants to monitor what home school parents teach their children about GLBT so-called “human rights”. Here in California, some school districts have assisted with transgender procedures without the school administration apprising the parents their child had gender dysphoria. Are any of us smarter than or wiser than God? Is it I alone who sees Satan rolling on the floor laughing at the absurdity of it all? Nevertheless, in the Last Days, demons are casting a spirit of perversion and ungodliness throughout Western countries while setting the stage for totalitarianism to ensue. It’s quite clear that by brainwashing children about GLBT “human rights”, Christian morals can be completely eliminated from the psyche of future generations. Therefore, devout Christians must emphasize Bible study and a personal relationship with God during their children’s formative years. Parents are not off the hook in terms of being responsible for providing their children with a moral compass. Devout Buddhists, Christians, Jews, and Muslims need to inoculate their offspring from being brainwashed in the matrix of political correctness. Hypothetically, IF you allow a five-year-old to make important decisions and to do what he or she wants, then he may touch a hot stove out of curiosity. At the same time, the parents were negligent by not protecting and warning their children about the danger hot stoves present. Parents, a child’s cell phone and other electronic devices are far more dangerous than the hot stove in your kitchen. Why? They are portals for Satan to enter the hearts and minds of America’s youths who spend hours being entertained by them on a daily basis. Similarly, pastors can be agents of evil if they neglect to provide parishioners with spiritually sound Biblical teaching about sin. Satan already has an army of miscreants merely masquerading as “the man of God” pastoring many churches, both large and small. Therefore, akin to a paternity test, one can judge the spiritual tree by the fruit it bears. Invariably, these wolves in sheep’s clothing will devour their flock by condoning lukewarm theology and the ungodliness it begets. As a result, many members in these churches will make sexual mistakes and other poor choices they later will regret. IF devout parents exercise their superior knowledge, wisdom, and spiritual insight by having prayer before family meals and a daily family Bible Study at home, then doing so will protect their offspring from most vices. Thus, paternal tough love, moral guidance, instructions, strict rules, and firm accountability to those rules are a wise investment in rearing emotionally secure and morally upright offspring. Otherwise, mothers catering to the capriciousness of “tweens and teens” always will beget much lower moral standards. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing as each generation becomes more dissolute in its thinking and in its behavior as a consequence of demonic feminine spiritual DNA.

California has a long-standing reputation for being on the “leading edge” of innovation and pushing the envelope on social, academic, and political issues. Silicon Valley’s pioneering tech companies positively affirm that reputation. However, San Francisco’s AIDS pandemic stands out as a casualty of too much freedom from moral restraints. As a substitute teacher in California’s capitol city, there is far more “cultural diversity” in Sacramento than I ever experienced living in Florida. In one elementary school, I met a Chinese American student in first grade who already knew his multiplication tables. He proudly shared with me that he plays chess with his father at home, who also teaches him Mandarin and computer technology. Boys in the hood, are you paying attention? In another school, their Asian American kindergarten teacher had such a highly structured system for getting water, group activities, individual study, going to the bathroom, taking a brain break, etc. that I was superfluous: apart from facilitating the transitions for recess and lunch according to her lesson plan. Unlike black, Hispanic, and white students, I never have observed a Chinese American student fail to turn in assignments, disrespect my authority, or misbehave in the classroom. Even when given free time for socialization in the classroom, many Asian American students prefer to pull out a book to read quietly. Meanwhile, many black, Hispanic, and white seniors in high school are incompetent in MATH and READING. If you are incredulous, then please watch “Waiting for Superman” on DVD and compare that to YouTube videos demonstrating what students learn in Chinese and Japanese primary schools.

Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that public education in the United States gives children too much freedom to disobey, disrespect, and defy adult authority? Speaking only for myself, the Chinese American students that I have encountered have demonstrated a comportment of self-discipline, academic excellence, and self-mastery that far exceeds that of any other identity group in my classroom. Perhaps, the United States is not the “greatest country in the world”. Yet, American pundits, politicians, and media propaganda portray the Chinese as “the bad guys” the same way Islamophobia portrayed Muslims as “the bad guys” prior to attacking IRAQ and stealing their oil. The fact that Pres. Bush’s so-called “weapons of mass destruction” never even existed has not prompted our government to apologize to Iraq and pay reparations for the destruction of an entire Muslim nation. Correction: make that a half-dozen Muslim countries in the Middle East and Africa. Equally disconcerting is how gullible our citizenry has become akin to Orwellian proles in the novel, “Nineteen Eighty-Four”. With its tremendous oil deposits, the US military already has begun attacking Venezuela without any justification according to the standards of international law. Meanwhile, American hubris and a reprise of Colonialism continue unabated on a global stage. Speaking only for myself, the United States is not nearly as civilized as China, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, India, Japan, the Philippines, and most Asian cultures. While we gloat on a global stage about “freedom”, Westerners are far more disrespectful, violent, arrogant, avaricious, dishonest, destructive, and irreverent toward Asians’ long-standing modesty and moral standards. Our President and Pentagon use propaganda and group psychology to vaporize critical thinking and rational dissent regarding a very narrow-minded Eurocentric world view. With troops stationed in all four corners of the globe, I pray that US aggression has not already passed the point of no return. Otherwise, sooner than we expect, American hegemony could completely extirpate morality, probity, and diplomacy on Planet Earth.

We the People of the United States elect Presidents without vetting their moral rectitude, intellectual acumen, or their previous voting record in public office. For example, Pres. Trump had neither a law degree nor prior experience in public service before his first term. Prior to becoming governor of California, Pres.

Reagan was a movie star who earned his B.A. from Eureka College, which had a student enrollment of less than 500 students. Prior to his admission to Georgia Southwestern College, Pres. Carter graduated from high school after 11th grade because that school didn't even offer a 12th grade education. In so doing, he was the first member of his family to graduate from high school. In the context of a nation with such military power and global influence, what qualifies anyone to be President? Speaking only for myself, our so-called "Presidential debates" affirm that WE the People of the United States are a citizenry of obtuse Orwellian proles who can't think critically beyond the candidates' rhetoric and their scripted skullduggery. Imagine having six candidates running for President, all of whom must have a law degree [and have successfully passed their bar exam] and at least four years of prior experience in public office to qualify as a legitimate candidate. Instead of the current bifurcated system, imagine a well-educated citizenry carefully examining their education credentials, their public service records, and their positions on current national issues. I am vexed by the general public's lack of concern about global hegemony, war crimes, and our constitutional republic vanishing before our eyes in plain sight. Clearly, the Bill of Rights is in ICU on life support and according to the attending physician, Dr. Totalitarianism, M.D., is not expected to live beyond 2030. Meanwhile, is it possible that in the not too distant future, dissidents may end up in one of 800 FEMA internment camps and wonder, "What happened?" Explain. In our current political system, why is the USA the only democracy in the world that does not declare a winner based upon popular votes? At the behest of the Godfather, is it possible that the Jewish Mafia and the Gentile Mafia work in tandem sub rosa to manipulate the Electoral College – at the expense of the government of the people, by the people, and for the people of the United States? Meanwhile, devout Christians such as Kelvin Cochran are accused of spreading hate speech via affirming in his book that God ordained marriage as a sacred vow between one man and one woman. Soon thereafter, Mr. Cochran was fired from his prominent position as Fire Chief for the City of Atlanta. Currently, is it even possible for devout Christians not to be terminated as policemen, firemen, teachers, principals, tenured professors, college presidents, librarians, city councilmen, county commissioners, state legislators, Supreme Court Justices, or Congressmen? Stated differently, is Satan the real Commander in Chief on Capitol Hill? Perhaps, the government Pres. Lincoln described in his Gettysburg Address already has vanished from the Earth. With After School Satan Clubs gaining traction in elementary schools from California to Connecticut, how deep does the rabbit hole go? Indeed, Satanism has become one of the fastest growing religions in the United States. The IRS even granted equal legal status to the Church of Satan to that of mainstream Christian churches. Concomitantly, the Supreme Court has ruled against churches and Christian colleges for policies that discriminate against GLBT employees and students, even when compliance is the antithesis of what the Bible teaches devout Christians to do. The legal battles waged against steadfast Christians such as Kelvin Cochran and Barronelle Stutzman are Satan's way of warning Americans to "go along to get along" in the Last Days. Pogroms either to sentence Christians to indefinite detention in a FEMA internment camp or to exterminate Christians altogether may occur sooner than we expect. Perhaps, our nation's Founding Fathers, who wrote the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution to protect religious freedom, are rolling over in their graves. In terms of eschatology, this is only the tip of the iceberg of persecution of devout Christians that certainly will come to pass in the Last Days. Since Christians now are being blocked, tackled, clipped, and run out of bounds for the crime of obeying the Bible, perhaps, Satan truly is the real Commander in Chief in Washington, D.C. IF ever you wrap your brain around that axiom, then everything in US domestic policy will make sense. Most pastors and preachers are deafeningly silent on moral issues like the GLBT and Feminist agendas, especially IF their church is a 501(c)(3) organization. Can you see Satan rolling on the floor laughing hysterically whenever WE the People of the United States choose to disobey God, yet, still expect God to bless America? Make it make sense. Salvation is a gift from God none of us can earn by works or good deeds. Yet, millions of church folks unabashedly will embrace vices, at the expense of godly virtues. Such ungodliness is tantamount to their moral compass on autopilot for eventual self-destruction. When the Spiritual Super Bowl finally ends, Hell will be sufficiently hot for everyone who has earned the right to spend Eternity therein. The Bible reminds us that there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth; yet, it will be too late to repent. The red pill or the blue pill? The choice is yours.

FATHER DAUGHTER DYAD: DADDY'S LITTLE GIRL

If nothing else, VICE hopes this book well-illustrates that the GLBT Movement and the Feminist Movement pontificate the antithesis of what the Bible teaches. Despite gaining traction in Western countries, this new philosophy called “political correctness” requires blind loyalty from those who embrace the Luciferian idea of “gay marriage”. With no factual basis whatsoever, this movement pontificates there are more than fifty different genders and forbids anyone debating or testing the veracity of that tenet. For example, despite clear evidence of depression, regret, and attempted suicide after transgender surgery, the GLBT Movement clamors for legal protection of their human rights while totally disregarding the psychological and the physical harm. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing. Why? When public schools inculcate GLBT ideology in K - 12th grade classrooms, when colleges expel devout Christians for expressing dissent about lesbianism, anal sex, and the evil gay agenda, when premarital sex and bastard children become the norm, that society is on the road to self-destruct. Yet, whenever transgender people renounce this sexual mistake and subsequently repent, the politically powerful GLBT Movement vilifies them as traitors to their cause. “After the Ball” by Hunter Madsen and Marshall Kirk proffers the official script for empowering members of the gay community. I consider it to be a must read for anyone embracing the Feminist Movement or the GLBT Movement. Since the public library in Sacramento didn’t carry the book, I attempted to borrow it via LINK+ from the San Francisco Public Library System. To my chagrin, their website stated the San Francisco Library has only one copy of the book and it has been classified as a reference book that can not be checked out. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think this book has been “banned” to obfuscate the brilliant political strategy it proffered during the 1980’s for overcoming the stigma surrounding homosexuality and the AIDS crisis in San Francisco? IF Americans born after 1984 can’t read about the history of AIDS, the Center for Disease Control [CDC] and the countless lives lost in the “Gay Movement”, as it was called back then, then how will they recognize the extent to which they have been brainwashed by a subversive “politically correct”, yet, distorted world view? Nationwide, why have our public libraries extirpated more than 100,000 classic books on religion, ethics, psychology, philosophy, history, and political science, etc.? Mind control via banning books and intellectualism begets a docile citizenry of Orwellian proles that Big Brother easily can manipulate. I already placed a link for “After the Ball” in the Introduction so that readers can peruse the eBook and unplug from “The Matrix”. Also, be sure to review VICE’s I.Q. Test for “After the Ball” in the Appendix.

While most Catholic priests and Protestant preachers are deafeningly silent on the moral implications of feminism and same sex attraction, Loran Livingston and Voddie Baucham are among an exiguous number of born-again preachers still standing firmly against the GLBT agenda. When liberal Christian seminaries capitulate by admitting and ordaining homosexuals and lesbians for “ministry”, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically because these “ministries” unabashedly vacate the Bible in affirmation that his sons and daughters neither fear nor revere God. Similarly, the legacy of Virginia Mollenkott and Madelyn O’Hair affirms that lesbians and other feminists have shifted the paradigm away from the Holy Bible in our core beliefs and our national psyche. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on our money, Americans have drawn the line in the sand as if these are just political issues rather than moral issues that will lead to spending Eternity in Hell. Biblical eschatology clearly warns devout Christians about the persecution that already has begun. For obvious reasons, Satan is not attacking backsliders, lukewarm, or even his counterfeit Christians. Yet, the Holy Bible reminds born-again Christians that we must remain steadfast, unmovable, and always abounding in the Word, the Work, and the Will of Almighty God. Jesus Christ proclaimed that His followers would be blocked, tackled, clipped, and run out of bounds until the Spiritual Super Bowl has ended. Yet, even a blind atheist can see that these false beliefs about “equality” contradict nature as much as bicycles naturally are not “equal” to motorcycles. Despite clear evidence of female police officers’ and prison guards’ inability to restore law and order after a riot, the Feminist Movement still clamors for “equality” with men as a so-called “human right”. Feminist Studies in colleges and universities have inculcated this illogical ideology for the past fifty years. Thus, a large number of women born after 1984 see the “Me Too Movement” as a bastion of hope for gender equality. Despite clear evidence that women need longer and more frequent breaks during any 8 or 12 hour work day, the Feminist Movement clamors for “equal pay” with men as their “human right”. Despite clear evidence that stern fathers subdue the spirit of defiance and rebellion among teens far better than mothers, still the Feminist Movement does not clamor for “equality”, but for preferential treatment in family court during a divorce. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think dad should have had a prenuptial agreement to protect his “human rights”? Gender is a moral issue, despite feminists and their supporters living in 3-D: namely delusion, duplicity, and dishonesty. Despite God’s instructions for wives to submit to the leadership and authority of their husbands, the Feminist Movement’s Psychological Penis Complex clamors for “equality” with men in the church’s leadership roles. Among women born since 1984, feminism’s political success has supplanted men as primary “gatekeepers” in the political arena and in the church. Edward Bernays and other social engineers clearly understand how to manipulate the behavior of large groups of people, based upon their hidden agendas and desired outcomes. Psychological research remains fully committed to the axiom: IF we can control the mind, then the body will follow without ever asking questions. Bernays well understood this truism and was so successful at manipulating group behavior that he is considered to be the Father of Advertising and Public Relations. However, after you have read the entire Bible, you will see that Satan successfully advertised a forbidden fruit and manipulated both Adam and Eve. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think Satan uses his same “trick or treat” advertising techniques today? Explain.

Feminist Studies in many colleges and universities have manipulated women into believing that male leadership, male authority, and superior male strength are tantamount to “toxic masculinity”. With the exception of devoutly religious women, many women embrace the idea that their having children out of wedlock is inconsequential to effective parenting. Whenever pundits and young pastors pontificate that “cat” is obsolete and claim that “kat” is correct, invariably they will hide or even ban God’s Dictionary to circumvent a spell check that would expose their lies. Thus, Biblical illiteracy is a weapon of mass destruction that Lucifer often uses to achieve his desired outcome of increasing the number of people who will obey him, yet, disobey God. Within secret societies, the Satanic endgame is the same. Powerful pastors, politicians and other members of the Brotherhood regale in “the light” of Lucifer and their demonic powers used to conjure “more light” to fulfill whatever evil agenda was assigned to them. Once again, is it possible that Satan is the real Commander in Chief in Washington, D.C.? Undaunted, devout Christians must continue to worship the Messiah, God's only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, as the true "light of the world". Thus, the yen and yang within Christianity can be described as a Spiritual Super Bowl between Heaven's Head Coach and Hell's Head Coach. On which team are you? Explain.

In this Age of Fatherlessness and Feminism, which are two wings on the same bird, daughters typically will develop more self-confidence via close relationships with their mothers. Yet, daddy's little girl can not develop a holistic relationship with him – physical, emotional, intellectual, or spiritual – IF mothers continue using their children as pawns in a game of chess. Similarly, millions of teenage boys and grown men never experienced a holistic father son dyad during their formative years anywhere comparable to Junior's in "Child Molestation, Incest, or Neither?" [ISBN 978-1-4675-5868-6]. Thus, the morals, virile confidence, wisdom, religious values, cohesion, common sense, and life lessons males need regarding a good education, parenting, financial literacy, libido, masturbation, porn, marriage, monogamy, sexually transmitted diseases, job skills, drugs, alcohol, and spiritual warfare were not passed down. Perhaps, millions of convicted felons would have made better choices IF a strong father, uncle, grandfather, pastor, teacher, or father figure had mentored them during those turbulent years. Perhaps, millions of "daddy's little girls" would not be nearly as insecure and incapable of nurturing their sons IF a healthy father daughter dyad had circumscribed their formative years. While many female teachers cater to and coddle young female students, they also vilify boys for their horseplay and restlessness in the classroom. Unlike their virile male counterparts, female teachers disapprove of arm wrestling or push up contests on the playground, especially when girls want to participate and get involved in their rambunctious activities. Co-educational or "gender neutral" schools are a relatively new phenomenon since students traditionally were segregated by gender throughout their formal education, including the college level. Ergo, is gender merely a social construct or is biological gender also a physical, emotional, and a moral issue? In the context of the Feminist Movement, how can we apply critical thinking to ameliorate synergy in gender roles and sexual expression in the twenty-first century?

Of course, we can't change the past and nobody's perfect. Yet, WE can't fix it IF we can't face it, inconsequential to whatever "it" is. In this Age of Fatherlessness and Feminism, is there a level playing field between the sexes in terms of support for male self-actualization? Hypothetically, do government agencies and non-profits provide more benefits and social services to men or to women? To test my hypothesis, I contrasted and compared quantity of assistance proffered for females vis-a-vis males in a local community resources guide. Union Gospel Mission caught my attention via "men only" next to the brief description. Listings for women included: Maternal Support Line, Crisis Nursery, Community Against Sexual Harm, My Sister's House, St. John's Shelter Program, Wellspring Women's Center, Women's Empowerment, Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home, and St. John's Shelter for Women. Today, there is a pandemic of single mothers and their children struggling just to survive. Thus, society provides them a safety net, replete with health care, housing, food, child care, clothing, and job training in programs exclusively for females. Is it possible that think tanks sponsored by the Feminist Movement clamor for both inclusive and exclusive privileges, depending upon their political strategy's desired outcomes? Fifty years ago, many married women stayed at home to cook and take care of their children while her husband went to work to provide a stable income and comfort for his family. Ladies, was that construct a form of repression? Today, housewives are far less common via economic necessity, an ever-increasing number of unwed mothers having illegitimate children, a feminist mindset of liberation from the drudgery of home economics, and freedom from male dominance. Unlike fifty years ago, now boys are encouraged to be effeminate as if gender is not a moral issue. Political correctness incessantly attempts to convince Americans to believe that so-called "gender fluidity", "moral neutrality" and being "inclusive" are somehow beneficial to society. Meanwhile, the conspicuous absence of a virile Men's Movement relentlessly pushing back against today's disproportional empowerment of women may portend the Psychological Penis Complex's eventual success in castrating and feminizing an entire society.

Millennials are too young to recall a time when men were in charge of churches, patriarchal families, public schools, colleges, sports teams, police departments, military bases, prisons, banks, retail stores, construction sites, and other institutions. Is gender no longer a moral issue for our society? Under the fallacious, yet, politically correct banner of equality, men no longer are the dominant providers and protectors within these institutions that excluded females from most positions of leadership and authority. Instead, we seem to have acclimated to females, who the Bible describes as the “weaker vessel”, stepping up to rebuild the house and the society with straw instead of with bricks!! In 1976, federal law gave women the legal right to enter military academies in all branches of the armed forces. However, to accommodate women in the military, Uncle Sam had to lower the physical requirements of basic training in order for female recruits to pass. Otherwise, virtually all females [along with weak males] simply flunked basic training. As a result of so-called “gender equality”, the young men who pass basic training today are not nearly as strong, physically fit, or mentally tough as their grandfathers, fathers and uncles were prior to Uncle Sam’s paradigm shift. Stated differently, the notion of equality between men and women is as ludicrous as arguing that bicycles are “equal” to motorcycles. Whenever confronted with real danger and violence, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think the weaker vessel can quell a revolution? As previously was mentioned, might the weaker vessel transform into a “damsel in distress” screaming for a brave man to save her by using his so-called “toxic masculinity” to restore law and order? I rest my case. For women who grew up in a paternal household, this seems obvious. Women who grew up in a dysfunctional household under a single mother may be incredulous. Nevertheless, disrespect, aggression, defiance, lawlessness, crime, violence, and chaos increase whenever women are gatekeepers. The Bible mandate is for men to be the head while the weaker vessel is to be subordinate to his authority. Are we wiser than or smarter than God? Moreover, since many women feel threatened by male authority, perhaps, the Feminist Movement will continue to give preferential treatment to women in health care, child care, public services, business loans, mortgages, and hiring practices. Women managers and supervisors often fail to hold women employees accountable for being late to work or for their lack of productivity as measured by company’s metrics. This feminist perspective also tends to justify or rationalize women requesting permission to leave the job early to pick up their children, thus, not having to perform by the same standards as their male counterparts. Those of us over age 65+ well remember when management roles in the work place were occupied by strong men who insisted upon conformity and everyone being held accountable to the same rules. To protect today’s gender inequity in the work place, there is a trend to withhold valuable information from male co-workers, clients, and customers in order to give women a competitive advantage. Is it possible that feminism is so thoroughly entrenched in their psyche that many women have a visceral fear of being around male strangers in public? In public education, the discipline problems school teachers face today did not even exist when the BIBLE and the BELT were standard classroom supplies. While many feminists believe that spanking is tantamount to child abuse, stern fathers made certain that their children and teenagers obeyed both parents or suffered appropriate punishment. Generally speaking, women still feel safer and want the protection of a “knight in shining armor” working hard to protect his home, his family, and his community.

Needless to say, America was a much safer society than it is today under the aegis of feminism and fatherlessness. Perhaps, many women born after 1984 will disagree with that statement. Yet, is our nation now much stronger or much weaker as a direct consequence of Phase III of the “Women’s Liberation Movement” that began in the late 1960s? In retrospect, women were underrepresented in high paying positions in medicine, law, engineering, construction management, civil service, college administration, corporate management, and our federal government. Gone are the days wherein most women are content with domestic careers as mothers and home makers. For women who never experienced a stay-at-home mom during childhood and being “daddy’s little girl”, have Feminist Studies convinced them to loathe the idea of being “just a housewife”, especially if they have a marketable college degree? So-called “women’s liberation” views male dominance as a form of oppression that needs to be deconstructed throughout American society. Books, blogs, popular podcasts, politicians, movies, TV shows, college professors, student organizations, athletes, actresses, female pastors, and many celebrities continue to champion for women’s equality. Feminism’s cohesive political clout permeates virtually every aspect of American society, even to the extent that mothers no longer want their daughters to be “daddy’s little girl” during the formative years. Instead, images in the media incessantly portray women as being as brave and as competent as men. In reality, there are certain things strong, self-confident men can do that strong, self-confident women simply can’t accomplish as efficaciously – IF at all. Obviously, sons need to experience their father’s virility and strength interacting with their mother’s softer comportment.

This does not mean that fatherless boys will become sissies. Yet, sons can develop a proclivity for gender dysphoria when there is no father living in the home. Daddy's little girl also will benefit from an experiential point of reference in observing both parents in a loving family relationship. To compensate for being weaker, the Feminist Movement strategically has executed a litany of chess moves that shifted the gender paradigm in the American psyche. Think tanks and social engineers introduced new terminology, such as "toxic masculinity", wherein virile men are viewed as being potentially violent and a threat to a woman's safety, happiness and success. Careers in business, medicine, engineering, and law were the fast track to earning sufficient income to buy their own homes and cars without a husband. Needless to say, this paradigm shift drastically changed the relationship between men and women in dating and in marriage. Liberation from marriage, a/k/a fatherlessness, severely handicaps boys emotionally and physically via the absence of daily interacting with their fathers. To circumvent young males ever waking up and resuming their dominance and leadership roles within the nuclear family, do our public schools, social media, and movie producers showcase things single women can do as well as men such as running a business, managing a bank and driving a city bus, etc.? Yet, those obvious exceptions requiring masculine energy, i.e., apprehending criminals, fighting fires, patching the roof, replacing a tile or parquet floor, chopping wood for winter, setting posts for a perimeter fence, building a gazebo, changing the timing belt in your vehicle, or just changing a flat tire have vanished from most TV shows, commercials, movies, and other visual images on a 55-inch flat screen TV both children and teenagers incessantly are watching. Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing hysterically at just how spiritually blind America's youths have become. Because classic virile images have been supplanted by feminism, the gender paradigm in defining manhood has shifted as many boys no longer see themselves as strong fathers leading his family, his church, or his company a decade from now. Prominent fathers such as Magic Johnson, Dwayne Wade, and Will Smith apparently don't see gender as a moral issue. Instead, they seem to support society's feminization of their sons. In televised interviews, each of these fathers encouraged their son to live their best life and "be who you are" with dad's full support. Is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that feminism's Psychological Penis Complex has been even more efficacious than social engineers anticipated in feminizing both teenagers and grown men? Is this growing trend of gender fluidity or “trading places” scoring a touchdown for Heaven’s Head Coach or Hell’s Head Coach? Are effeminate men a sign of progress or a sign of perversion? Daddy’s little girl he will walk down the aisle on her wedding day no longer exists in the psyche of daughters reared by moms trying to be both parents.

Let’s vacate our emotions to examine rationally how feminism has impacted the quality of life in the United States. Do women stop to change the tire or otherwise help stranded motorists? Do women offer to take an invalid stranger to get medical attention. Do women stop to offer a homeless person a ride or a meal? Do women intervene to rescue an elderly woman being robbed by thugs? Yet, feminism wants us to believe that strictly defined male and female roles are intolerant, obsolete, oppressive, discriminatory, and non-inclusive. Is it I alone who recognizes this to be the same methodology previously implemented by the Gay Movement in the 1980’s? Is it possible that members of NAMBLA could clone this “inclusive” strategy to legalize pederasty in the near future? Explain.

Typically, men yearn to work hard in order to impress a potential spouse and later provide for their family. Successful feminists, on the other hand, are dismissive toward men as potential mates when they earn substantially less income. Men enjoy socializing with both genders at work and after work while females often will segregate themselves for fear of sexual harassment. Thus, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that female vice presidents, business owners, and Human Resource managers often will hold positions of employment in abeyance until the right woman applies to protect feminism’s delicate balance of power? Should more men begin to earn MD’s, MBA’s, PhD’s, JD’s and run for public office to open more doors for men who now are lagging far behind their female counterparts? Successful men teach their sons how to prepare for adulthood as protectors and providers for their families. Feminism teaches career women not to depend upon a man to provide for them or their offspring, other than for child support payments. IF two parents never were married or went through a protracted divorce, then which partner usually walks away with a better deal? In the context of mutual parenting decisions, do sons or daughters suffer the most when their mothers have the upper hand? Does divorce during puberty do irreparable harm to daddy's little girl who begins to look for attention and male affection elsewhere? Explain.

As women continue to supplant male leadership under the banner of inclusion, it is important to recognize that those institutions become weaker via replacing bricks with straw. While some fathers brag about how well daddy's little girl is doing, how does she deal with inevitable conflicts and confrontations? Do children disrespect and disobey women more often than they do men? Do female teachers, coaches, and administrators raise or lower the bar for behavioral expectations at school? Do women have the physical strength or fortitude to enforce consequences whenever their subordinates exhibit violent or otherwise unacceptable behavior? To test such a hypothesis, VICE encourages men and women to visit a juvenile detention center. Visit a county jail or prison. Parents, visit your children's high school or middle school and observe student conduct in real time. Generally speaking, do women tolerate chaos and confusion more than men do? Holistically, gender is a moral issue vis-a-vis merely a politically correct issue about equality in society. WE can't fix it IF we can't face it. Meanwhile, Satan is counting on you to do neither.

According to Scripture, in the Last Days an increasing number of pastors, preachers, priests, pundits, and politicians will embrace ungodliness, perversion, and other vices in their sermons and in their personal lives. John wrote, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us." [I John 2] Perhaps, the anti-christs already have infiltrated both church pulpits and church pews. How else can you explain "inclusive" and "tolerant" congregations now condoning adulterer pastors, female pastors, lesbian pastors, gay pastors, pedophile pastors, bastard pastors and even transgender pastors? Jesus came to save sinners, not to acquiesce to their ungodliness. Meanwhile, miscreants in the pulpit merely masquerading as “the man of God” or even “a woman of God” accommodate GLBT couples and unashamedly desecrate God’s house by performing so-called “gay marriages”. Gender is a moral issue we can not ignore. VICE believes that any individual or any society that denies God’s existence or willfully disobeys His commandments immediately becomes an enemy of Jesus Christ. For example, Christian content creators who pontificate godliness and obeying the Bible risk their accounts being defunded and even terminated from that platform as a violation of the “terms of service”. Are social media companies revising and upgrading their terms of service and so-called “community standards” to block candid discussions about God and the Bible’s moral standards? Meanwhile, Satan is rolling on the floor laughing at the naivety of spiritually blind Christians who can’t discern “kat” from “cat”. Again, is it possible that Satan is our nation’s real Commander in Chief hiding in plain sight in Washington, D.C.? Perhaps, our nation’s loyalty to Lucifer was permanently enshrined when the Supreme Court banned praying and studying the Bible in public schools.

Ever since the Supreme Court’s 1962 decision in Engel v. Vitale, which was a watershed moment, our nation has moved swiftly to divest itself of “In God We Trust” and Christian morals. Toward this nefarious endgame, Satan’s sons and the Devil’s daughters surreptitiously work for think tanks we never will see. Concomitantly, they may hold key government positions to control the chess board. The plaintiff in that Supreme Court case, Frank Engel of New Hyde Park, was a founding member of New York Civil Liberties Union/Nassau Chapter. Similarly, Steve Engel was born in 1974 in New Hyde Park. Perhaps, another autodidact will ferret for a paternal family connection and apprise all of us. Fair enough? Nevertheless, Mr. Engel served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General under Pres. George W. Bush. Engel went on to become Assistant Attorney General under Pres. Trump. IF you are incredulous of the spiritual connections between homosexuality, lesbianism, Satanism, Feminism, political correctness and a dramatic increase in political corruption, human trafficking, child sacrifice, and occult sex magic rituals to pagan gods, then you would be well-advised to read “Pedophilia and Empire: Satan, Sodomy, and the Deep State” by Joachim Hagopian and “The Franklin Cover-Up” by John DeCamp. IF our nation’s most powerful politicians [not all] molest and murder children in demonic pagan rituals behind closed doors, then is “political correctness” the fig leaf behind which Satan hides in plain sight? Don't be surprised if your public library does not have either of these books on its shelves. Another banned book connecting the dots between sodomy and Satan is "The Rite of Sodomy" by Randy Engel. Paradoxically, in 2024 "The Rite of Sodomy: Homosexuality and the Roman Catholic Church" by Randy Engel was priced on Amazon at $4995.00. For the record, that Amazon price of "$4,995" is not a typographical error. Therefore, is it possible, plausible, probable, or preposterous to think that Satan banned studying the Bible and other perspicacious books to ensure that our citizenry will remain servile, spiritually blind, Orwellian proles incapable of scoring a single touchdown for Heaven's Head Coach? Explain.

A flippant or spiritually blind "hippie" might ask, "Who cares?" The Sexual Revolution of the 1960's shifted the moral paradigm for millions of young people who vacated "virginity until marriage" in favor of "If it feels good, then do it." In youthful defiance of Biblical morals, nudist colonies, recreational drugs, bisexuality, homosexuality, lesbianism, and sexual orgies among "the hippy generation" spread across the United States for the next two decades. Concomitant with this Sexual Revolution, Women's Liberation, Civil Rights, witchcraft, sorcery, drug abuse, paganism, animal sacrifice, Satanism, Gnosticism, idolatry, atheism, Wicca, nihilism, and hedonism gained traction from California to Connecticut. Instead of obeying the Bible, modern-day hippies might run to the mall, to the beach, to the bar, or to the local park for a picnic or softball game on Sunday. IF they go to church, today's hippies prefer to hear contemporary music instead of anthems and sacred hymns. They have itching ears and an insatiable lust for culturally relevant "feel good theology" about prosperity and happiness rather than holiness. Young pastors dressed in sneakers, ripped jeans, tight jeans, casual unbuttoned shirts, and garish necklaces even look like classic hippies from the 1970's. Erstwhile reverent men of God dared not to stand in any church pulpit without a clerical robe or his suit, replete with his white dress shirt and necktie. "Don't judge a book by its cover" is quite true. Yet, how we dress and our comportment can indicate whether we serve Hell's Head Coach or Heaven's Head Coach. Ergo, by any means necessary, Satan's sons and the Devil's daughters will distract lukewarm church folks from studying their Bible from Genesis to Revelation. IF the United States continues to "dumb down" students in public schools, then it won't be necessary to ban the Bible or to burn books like the plot in Ray Bradbury's dystopian “Fahrenheit 451”. Instead, our citizenry will become the anti-Christ by default. In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, will Americans born after 1984 recognize the ubiquity of Lucifer’s forbidden fruit? Never forget that everything Satan promotes is contrary to God’s “thou shalt not” instructions. Yet, despite all of us being hardwired from birth to obey Satan, IF we repent, then Jesus Christ can break generational curses, sever Satanic soul ties, cast out devils and demons, forgive our sins, and save our souls from Eternity in Hell.

In a nation wherein “In God We Trust” has become a mere creed, VICE acknowledges Buddhists, Christians, Muslims, and Jews have the right to coexistence, disparate core values, and freedom of religious expression without being marginalized, maligned, or molested by others who do not share the same world view. Otherwise, personal “freedom of religion” would no longer exist. While freedom of religion no longer is a Constitutionally protected right, we must protect innocent children from GLBT brainwashing in public schools. Children need very little instruction in telling lies, stealing, or coveting another child’s toys. However, parents who fail to instruct their children in obeying God may be creating incorrigible juvenile delinquents and future criminals. Akin to software downloaded to your operating systems, parents either will program your progeny to worship God or to worship Lucifer. Akin to a computer, schools encourage teens and even younger students to download perversion on their “operating systems”. Just as motorists will disobey the speed limit if police officers never pull them over, teenagers will disobey God’s limits for sexual expression if parents and responsible adults fail to inculcate sexual purity. Yet, if they lose control of the vehicle, then they could cause great bodily harm and even cost them their lives. Speeding along the path of sexual activity during puberty also provides sexual excitement for many teenagers. Yet, if that teenager gets pregnant or contracts a venereal disease, then the ephemeral excitement can become a life-changing nightmare. Naive teens often fail to realize a religious education protects them from making costly mistakes throughout their lives! Contrary to any moral compass, political correctness advocates having the personal freedom to touch a hot stove if that’s what you desire to do. Adam and Eve also failed to count the cost of disobeying God until after their banishment. That’s one mistake that neither you nor I can afford. God bless you!

Prince Hall Masons in the News

“It is our sad duty to report, that Bro. Rev. Henry J. Lyons of St. Petersburg, Lodge No. 1, Florida, the embattled leader of the 'National Baptist Convention USA, was found guilty of swindling millions of dollars from companies that sought to do business with his followers, one of the most influential Black denominations.

Bro. Lyons was found guilty of grand theft in the disappearance of almost $250,000 from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith money intended to rebuild burned Black churches in the South. Prosecutors accused Lyons of stealing more than $4 million from corporations that wanted to sell cemetery products, life insurance policies and credit cards to the convention's so called 8.5 million Black members. A convention aide described making up a membership list for the Globe Life Insurance Co., at Lyons direction, using a computerized telephone directory and eliminating names ending with "ski" or clear indication of other ethnic groups. Company executives testified that they paid Lyons $400,000 for the list. The company realized it had been duped when it received complaints from a grand dragon for the Ku Klux Klan, a Catholic priest and a member of its own board of directors, who each received sales letters with Lyon's endorsement. Bro. Joseph L. Clayton MPS of Doric Chapter of the Phylaxis Society in Baltimore, Maryland was one of the recipients of the Church Leadership Award given by the Fullwood Foundation presented for exemplification of Christian conduct in word, thought and deed. Winners of the Dr. James D. Singletary FPS Literary Contest sponsored by the Phylaxis Foundation was Bro's Anthony T. Stafford MPS First Place for "A Living Schism" and Edward R. Taitt MPS for "Prince Hall Alasons Dilemma." A total of $150 was shared by both. The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons of Ireland, reported at its St. John's Day Communication, 28 Dec. 98 at Freemasons Hall in Dublin, that, "R. W. Brother Herbert Meek, being in attendance and having produced his Patent of Appointment, the Grand Director of Ceremonies formed a procession and presented him to the Grand Master to be invested as the Representative of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Connecticut. R.W. Brother Meeke was conducted to his seat and saluted with the Representatives of all Sister Grand Lodges with which the Grand Lodge of Ireland is in amity." At its Quarterly Communication held Thursday, 3 Dec 98 the Grand Lodge of Ireland reported that there was a vacancy in the Representative of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. Xavier University trustee emeritus and Jazz legend Bro. Lionel Hampton of Boyer Lodge No. 1, New York City, and the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra will appear in a March 12 concert to celebrate the school's 75th anniversary, Rev. Al Sharpton New York Jurisdiction spearheaded a rally in Bronx, NY for Amadou "Ahmed" Diallo, the unarmed African immigrant who was fatally shot 41 times by White police officers in New York recently, the NAACP called for an investigation by U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno. After 117 years, Lt. Henry O. Flipper, the first Black graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, was granted a posthumous pardon by President Bill Clinton at a prestigious ceremony in the Roosevelt Room of the White House. Bro Jack Hadley MPS of Joppa Lodge No. 43, Thomasville, Georgia and owner of the Jack Hadley's Black History Memorabilia, Inc., was one of the driving forces to have a Post Office located at Tall Timbers Village Square, U.S. 19 South for Lt. Flipper and is now attempting to have a postage stamp named in his honor. Bro. Hadley, on 8 Jun 97, presented a Pictorial Masonic Wall of Fame Exhibit to the Thomasville Masonic Prince Hall Lodge. This permanent exhibit culminates the complete researching and locating of photographs of more than seventy current and past Masonic heads of houses in the Thomasville Masonic Prince Hall Lodges, OES Chapters and other Masonic bodies from 1901 to 1997."

Prince Hall Masonry in Ontario 1852-1933

"The following book review is taken from Harashim the Quarterly Newsletter of the Australian & New Zealand Masonic Research Council, issue 9, January 1999. The book review was written by Phylaxis Society Fellow Tony Pope FPS, concerning the book written by Phyllis Chapter member the late Arlie C. Robbins and published in 1980 by the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Ontario & Jurisdiction (hardcover, xii + 139 pages, illustrated, no index). " This book is remarkable because the Grand Master and Grand Lodge concerned took the unusual step of selecting as historian the best person available for the task, regardless of the fact that their choice was not a Mason. It is equally remarkable because the author, a member of the Order of the Eastern Star (PHA) undertook the task with a professionalism seldom encountered among Grand Lodge historians. Sister Robbins had already demonstrated her exceptional ability, in researching the history of her own Order and in presenting it in a manner that captured the interest of Brothers and Sisters alike, when she was commissioned in 1973/74 to 'compile' and 'coordinate'. She was not content to work with the material supplied, but made inquiries far and wide, always seeking original documents, querying established beliefs, consulting librarians and historians (Masonic and otherwise), questioning, and clearly indicating that which she surmised or concluded from the facts revealed. Mrs. Robbins realized that the brethren for whom she was writing, like Masons everywhere, had myths and legends which were dear to them. In the opening chapters of the book, her summary of the general history of Freemasonry and of the beginnings of Prince Hall Masonry, she tactfully leaves those beliefs undisturbed, although the observant reader may discern tongue in cheek. But when it comes to the beginning of Prince Hall Freemasonry in Ontario, in 1852, and its subsequent development up to 1933 - the history she has been commissioned to discover and record - she is unswerving true to her task. While occasionally expressing sadness and sometimes bewilderment at the foibles and follies of the brethren concerned, she faithfully records developments and setbacks, undeterred by the sorry picture they sometimes portray.

In fairness to the brethren and Grand Lodges concerned, the skeletons thus revealed are no worse than those of other brethren and Grand Lodges around the world but. whereas many Grand Lodge histories, particularly those published with the Grand Lodge approval, seek to hide their skeletons, the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Ontario and its candid historian are insistent upon publishing the unvarnished truth. In this they are to be highly commended. Not only does this book present the historical events in a logical, coherent and interesting form, it also provides fascinating insight into the social conditions under which Prince

Hall Masonry was established in Canada. We learn that the first three Lodges were established by the National Compact from New Jersey, but that they were formed into a Grand Lodge by the Grand Master of the National Compact Grand Lodge in New York, and that, even so, the National Compact itself refused to recognize the fledgling Grand Lodge. This problem was compounded by the resignation of their Grand Master, who returned to the US: the establishment of the Dominion of Canada and consequent division into Provinces, the conclusion of the American Civil War, with some Blacks returning to the US but others, Canadian-born, refusing to go, and consequent racial ill-feeling, the refusal of mainstream Grand Lodges to countenance Prince Hall Masonry, the incursion into Canada of several Prince Hall Grand Lodges from the US, and internal troubles. Nevertheless, the Grand Lodge survived and grew, maintaining lodges in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and at last achieving recognition from at least some mainstream Canadian Grand Lodges - all junior to it. It is not clear why the title of this book limits the history to the year 1933 (it may have been the author's decision, or the Grand Lodge), but Mrs. Robins continues the history beyond this point to 1980, by which time she had completed her task. She writes "This, my Brothers, is the history of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the Province of Ontario and, Jurisdiction as I saw it. And what I saw, I wrote in a book. (A quotation from Revelation 1: 11, "at thou seest, write in a book) I have written your history with the sincere hope that somehow I have been able to bring its years alive for you as they have come alive for me." In this, she has succeeded. Those interested in purchasing the book should contact Bro. John W. Robinson at 128 Wellington Street East, Chatham, Ontario, Canada N7M 3P3."
