

CONCLUSION

Gentlemen, I realize that very few of you ever have read a sexually explicit parable such as this one in your Bible Study, Sunday School, Men's Conference, or any other Christian context! Yet, have not we, our pastors, and even our own teenage sons surreptitiously consumed the secular world's sexually explicit music, magazines, cartoons, pornography, or other hedonistic adult entertainment? When our grandparents were young, songs like "Meat Balls" by Lil Johnson were sexually implicit rather than the explicit lyrics we hear today. Thus, human sexuality is not something from which we should cower. Having made it thus far in our workbook, hopefully you see just how candid VICE's ministry of sexual healing is! Unlike the church you may attend each week, we are totally honest in discussing the ubiquitous sexual vices inveterately associated with hedonism before, during, and after high school. Kudos to you for being among an exiguous number of Christian fathers, mentors, sons, etc., who possess the presence of mind or the "balls" requisite to teaching horny adolescent males these Biblically correct truths about sexuality! Can our progeny consistently reach adulthood unscathed by sexual mistakes, lest we teach them the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about masturbation and male concupiscence? In this Age of Feminism, Heaven's Head Coach needs more righteous men to stand in the gap for their own sons and for countless fatherless youths at the precipice of puberty, pederasty, and so called "politically correct" forms of sexual perversion. For example, although condoned by both the US Supreme Court and by Hell's Head Coach, gay marriage is not an option for any real Christian. IF Adam marries Steve and Eve marries Evelyn, then both couples are cursed according to the Holy Bible. Albeit atheists, agnostics, feminists, and counterfeit Christians will argue otherwise, Victory In Christ Ensemble's clarion voice declares that GOD's WORD is infallibly the same yesterday, today, and forevermore!

Assuredly, such a Biblically correct pedagogy as this is antagonistic – if not antithetical – to the agendas of the Feminist Movement, the Horny Heterosexual Movement, and the Gay Movement in the United States! In a nation wherein "In God We Trust" has become a mere creed on the money upon which it is printed, is not rampant immorality to be expected? Ergo, most Americans will block, tackle, clip, and run VICE's moral truths out of bounds rather than to free themselves from the shameful sexual secrets hidden in their closets. A Christian sage once argued that the misnomer of "politically correct" is tantamount to very subtle deception by Hell's Head Coach in order to make vice appear to be more pleasant to the eye than virtue. With that in mind, was this father and son erotic experience tantamount to child molestation, incest, or neither? Explain. Gentlemen, you may not realize it now; but your discussions of this sexual parable will richly bless your sons and your entire Christian coterie. IF you dare to be honest men, then VICE encourages you to share anonymous responses to the Sexual Survey at the end of this workbook with us. IF you have any additional comments or criticisms of this unique Ministry of Sexual Healing, then by all means, please "keep it real" as you anonymously share them via e-mail or US mail. Unless you want a personal reply, I don't need that you disclose your name or return address. Just a pseudonym, your relative age [i.e., I'm in my teens, 20's, 40's, 50's, etc.], and your candid thoughts will suffice. May God copiously bless each of you – and especially your children!

25. FINAL QUESTION: IF you could go back and erase just one sexual mistake you made before reaching the age of twenty-one, then what would it be [i.e., having fathered a bastard child, not having told when you were seduced or molested by an older guy, having fondled or seduced a young girl or boy when you were a teenager, having a STD, etc.]? Explain.

VICE created this unique sexual survey in order to get fathers, teenagers, attorneys, correctional officers, coaches, teachers, mentors, etc., to talk more candidly about sexual morality, masculinity, masturbation, molestation, date rape, abortion, family values, etc.

Gentlemen, having completed both the IQ Exam and Essay Questions, presumably you have begun an ineffably cathartic spiritual and emotional male bonding experience, which is not available at many churches. IF you are honest with your peers in answering this survey, then please do so wherever you may reside. IF you lack such a coterie, then VICE also invites you to register and to attend a men's workshop conducive to your getting physically, emotionally, intellectually, and spiritually naked. However, unlike this Army officer, most guys are just like Junior's grandfather – attempting to outrun your own sexual shadows rather than to confront ubiquitous truths with your sons, nephews, brothers, etc. Brethren, such denial and discomfort discussing male sexuality can contribute to pederasty, promiscuity, bisexuality, bend over boyfriend, and a plethora of other untoward consequences for your sons, nephews, and their peers. Ergo, VICE challenges every Christian teenager and man to peruse the Holy Bible seeking to find anything on God's "not to do" list of commandments wherein your life would be better off doing it. Conversely, find anything on God's "thou shalt" list wherein your life would be better off disobeying or not following His instructions. Stated differently, in the context of defining virtue, vice, and morality, are we smarter or wiser than God? Explain. What parents wouldn't want their sons and daughters to reach adulthood unscathed by many of the same vices that plagued them during adolescence? Then, why do we refuse to teach our progeny how to study and to obey God's Word? Contrary to the statistics quoted in government and academic publications, VICE speculates that 79% - 97% of boys in any city in the United States will be propositioned by another male prior to age twenty-one! Moreover, we believe that fatherlessness is a primary cause of inappropriate touching and other sexual behavior in the rites of passage into manhood. The double-edged sword, however, is that fatherlessness also truncates these males ever discerning appropriate touching and healthy sexual behaviors in the rites of passage. In this Age of Feminism and single parenting, virtuous fathers, uncles, pastors, teachers, coaches, etc., have a moral and intellectual responsibility to cogitate and to explicate those permutations differentiating among heteroerotic, heterosexual, homosexual, homoerotic, homophobic, and homophilic male behaviors.

This is precisely what VICE does at our workshops. We hold these truths to be self-evident that most of you will discover sexual baggage hidden under your own fig leaves in this process. Yet, remember, WE can't fix it IF we can't face it. Shall we begin?
