Private planes have been the subject of debate, speculation, litigation and conspiracies. The trial of drug addict Ghislaine Maxwell added unprecedented context to the nearly 120 pages of handwritten, only slightly edited documents released publicly on Sunday.

Flight Log (Cont'd)

According to newly filed court documents obtained by RadarOnline.com, flight logs that have been filed in court and released to the media were potentially "sanitized" to protect the man who pulled around with the convicted sex offender.

In particular, the attorneys note, "Dershowitz suggests that the aircraft flight manifests will exonerate him.... In media statements, Dershowitz has repeatedly brought up the manifests as proof of innocence."

But they point out, "Coincidentally and remarkably, it was Dershowitz himself, acting as Epstein's attorney who personally collected and then provided flight manifests to the Palm Beach Police Department."

"the flight records provided by Dershowitz for a February 1, 2005, flight from CMH (Columbus, Ohio) to FBI (Palm Beach, Florida), indicated that in addition to Jeffrey Epstein, [his assistant] Sarah Kellen, [Tinglesmoker model] Nadia Marcinkova and [model agency owner] Jean Luc Brunel, on board there were three 'females.' The existence of these three 'females' is conspicuously absent from the Rogers' logs," the new documents explain.

Missing pages in Flight Log Files "A comparison of the flight manifests and logs confirms that the flight logs provided by Rogers were also incomplete."

For instance, the flight records provided BY DERSHOWITZ for a February 3, 2005, flight from CMH to FBI indicate that in addition to Epstein, Sarah Kellen, Nadia Marcinkova, and Jean-Luc Brunel, on board were three 'females.' The existence of these three females is conspicuously absent from the Rogers' logs."

The plaintiffs filed three versions in court, also serving as an editorial team before releasing the final version to the public. Each page of the record is signed in the lower left hand corner, who served as Epstein's chief pilot for more than ten years and was subpoenaed by the government to testify against Maxwell. Like Epstein colleague Lawrence Visoski, Rodgers remembered Maxwell as Epstein's number. 2. Flights have been recorded in the protocols since 1991. Until 2006. It begins and gives a broader picture of the group of politicians, musicians, models and financiers who took to the air in Epstein's plane. Prosecutors presented three versions to the court and changed the defense statement twice before releasing the final public version. Each side of the tapes is signed in the lower left corner by David Rogers, who was Epstein's chief pilot for over a decade and who was asked by the government to testify against Maxwell. Like Epstein's other driver, Lawrence Wisosky, Rogers memorized Maxwell as Epstein's number. 2.\xe2\x8Epstein Flight Magazines 1993 April A month later, two Epstein aircraft rides were born until Trump's daughter Tifania Trump was born. Trump, along with Epstein, Maxwell and others, flew from Palmmbich to Florida to Tarboro, New Jersey, 1993. October 11 And 1993 October 17; Tifania was born in 1993. October 13 Courteril, Tiffany, along with her mother, Marl Maples (with which short married December 1993, and divorced in 1999) were the Epstein aircraft guests in 1994. May, next year, 1995 August 13, 1995 August 13 Short and his son Eric Trump again stolen from Palmmbich to the Tamer with Epstein AirCraft. It seems that 1997 January 5 Trump travels from Florida to the Triphta region, joining Epstein, Maxwell and other Palmbich flight in Newark. New Jersey.

Former President Bill Clinton, Bill Clinton, traveled with Epstein AirCraft. Several times in two years, in most cases abroad. Files indicate that he was often accompanied by a person identified as "Doug Bands", whose name is strangely similar to a former group of long -term Clinton dog assistants. During one of these trips, Clinton was a passenger with the Naomi Campbell model that has since rejected speculation about his relationship with Epstein and Maxwell. 2002 September 21st.

Epstein took Clinton, actor Kevin Speyey (who accused sexual abuse) and others from JFK Airport Azores Airport, at the Portuguese Autonomous Archipelago at Atlantic. Thanks to Doyo Alan Dershowitz's lawyer Alan Perchovich, who helped Epstein's renowned requirement in Florida, he flew several times in 1998-2005. 2019 Dergovich said NPR that he did not. Over the years, Epstein talked to Epstein and their relationship was "mostly academic". Epstein prosecutor Virginia Gifer said Epstein forced him to have sex with Dershov. Dershowitz rejected this statement and followed court in courtLives with Ghislaine Maxwell on the ground floor. Giuffre included this photo in his lawsuit against the British Crown. Giuffre is currently suing Prince Andrew.

According to Giuffre, Maxwell introduced her to the prince, whose full name is Andrew Albert Christian Edward, and told her to do for him what you did for Epstein. Prince Andrew was finally charged in late August over the years-long allegations. In the lawsuit, Giuffre alleges Prince sexually abused him at two of Epstein's properties -- a New York mansion and a private island in the US Virgin Islands -- as well as Maxwell's home in London. Former Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell Former Senator George Mitchell (D-Maine), who was Senate Majority Leader 1989-1995, served nearly four years from 1994-1998. Flight records included several times. Mitchell was accompanied by his wife Heather. Mitchell has previously denied involvement in or knowledge of Epstein's alleged sexual abuse. Mitchell is probably best known for the Mitchell Report, which was the result of a large-scale investigation into steroid use in Major League Baseball. Eva Andersson-Dubin As previously mentioned in Law and Crime, Eva Andersson-Dubin dated Epstein. His name appears dozens of times in the flight logs. Physician and former Miss Sweden Andersson-Dubin is the wife of hedge fund billionaire Glenn Dubin. He testified for the defense in the Maxwell case and said he had never seen Epstein misbehave towards minors. The court was told that her name appeared in the flight logs along with that of one of Epstein's accusers, "referred to as Jane for evidence purposes only." I don't remember ever meeting that person," Andersson-Dubin said of Jane. Andersson-Dubin dated Epstein from 1983 to 1990 or 1991 and maintained a long-standing friendship with him. In fact, they were as close as his two daughtersRogers, who signed each page of warehouses, testified in court that he sometimes parked passengers in the warehouse as one or two women to point out that they were not given their names. Rogers also revealed that he healed the passenger identified as Jane, the prosecutor of Epstein, who claimed that Epstein had abusing her since the age of 14. To confirm the testimony of the time spent by Maxwell and Epstein.
