Georgia Rose's Sophomore Single:

WHERE DID
WE GO?

...

About Georgia Rose

“I feel like this song is something everyone can relate to in one way or another. In the most basic terms it is about loss, which is a very universal experience. When you lose someone, whether it is a physical or emotional loss, you become wrapped in a spiral of reminiscence. Essentially this song is a compilation of nostalgic memories, begging the question “Where Did We Go?”
