

An Academy

- Don't be fooled by the simplicity of the learning academy definition:
  - a collaborative place where employees develop deep skills that align with business needs.
- This definition disrupts the current learning tech marketplace by addressing two key problems:
  - The ever-widening skills gap and talent crisis
  - The misalignment between learning and developing and business goals