

Rosa's Bus: The Ride to Civil Rights

By Jo S. Kittinger

www.jokittinger.com

Follow-up Questions

Now that you've read the book, let's go back. Here are discussion questions for further exploration. Choose those that fit your time and/or needs.

1. Do you think the title is the best one for the book?
2. Did the cover give you a good idea of what the book was about?
3. If not, why do you think the publisher used this picture for the cover?
4. Look at all the faces in the book. Why do you think the artists drew the faces showing very little emotion?
5. Why was not riding the buses hard for the black people?
6. What do you know about the location where this story took place?
7. How would you describe Rosa Parks?
8. Have you ever decided to stand up against something you thought was wrong?
9. Have you ever been treated differently because of your skin color, gender, or religion?
10. What are civil rights?
11. Have you heard any other stories about the civil rights movement?