MANAGING ACTIVE SHOOTING EVENTS

PREPARATION EMPOWERS. AWARENESS KEEPS YOU READY.
MOVEMENT, TEAMWORK, AND DECISIVE ACTION SAVE LIVES.

YOUR GOAL: SURVIVE, HELP OTHERS, AND REUNITE WITH LOVED ONES.

BE AWARE

MAKE DECISIONS

TAKE ACTION

ESCAPE

MOVE INTELLIGENTLY
THROUGH DANGER.

- ✓ Move quickly and decisively.
- ✓ Use routes not commonly traveled.
- ✓ Avoid bottlenecks and obvious exits.
- ✓ Small groups move faster and communicate better.
- ✓ Hand on shoulder or back to maintain cohesion.
- ✓ Check corners and maintain awareness.
- ✓ Keep moving until safely beyond danger.

ESCAPE CONSIDERATIONS

- Is the path clear?
- Are there alternate routes?
- Can we move as a small group?
- Where are exits, cover, and safe areas?
- What is the safest direction right now?

EVASIVE

FIND COVER.
CREATE DISTANCE.

- ✓ Cover stops bullets.
- ✓ Concealment hides movement.
- ✓ Use barriers to create time and distance.
- ✓ Temporary safety should lead to greater safety.
- ✓ Continue moving farther from danger whenever possible.
- ✓ Silence phones and reduce noise/light.
- ✓ Stay mentally prepared to move again.

EXAMPLES OF COVER

EXAMPLES OF CONCEALMENT

ENGAGE

LAST RESORT SURVIVAL ACTION.

- ✓ Only when escape or evasion are not possible.
- ✓ Commit to decisive action.
- ✓ Use whatever is available (improvised weapons).
- ✓ Target vulnerable areas (eyes, throat, groin, etc.).
- ✓ Work together if others are with you.
- ✓ Be aggressive, relentless, and do not stop.
- ✓ Yond the threat and create an opportunity to escape.

WORST CASE SCENARIO

THE SAME RESPONSE HAPPENS AT ALL RANGES.
INSIDE 6 FEET IS ONE EXAMPLE OF CLOSE RANGE.

THE 6-STEP RESPONSE

THE SAME PRINCIPLES APPLY AT ALL DISTANCES.

1

MOVE

Explode off the line of attack.

2

FLANK

Move quickly to a 45° angle to the outside.

3

GUARD & CONTROL

Hands up in strong guard. Wrap and control the attacker's arms.

4

OFF-BALANCE

Redirect and off-balance through movement.

5

ATTACK CRITICAL TARGETS

Strike vulnerable areas of the Central Nervous System to stop the threat.

6

END & ESCAPE

Create space and escape as soon as possible.

CORE PRINCIPLE: ACTION BEATS PARALYSIS.

END THE THREAT AND MOVE TO SAFETY.

AFTERMATH

STAY ALERT. HELP SAVE LIVES.

CHECK FOR INJURIES
Check yourself and others.

APPLY FIRST AID IF POSSIBLE
Use training and available supplies.

CALL 911 WHEN SAFE
Give clear information.

FOLLOW DIRECTIONS OF FIRST RESPONDERS
Keep hands visible. Follow all commands.

REUNITE WHEN INSTRUCTED
Move to the designated reunification area.
