Thank you

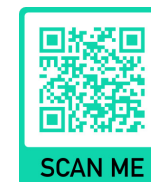

Dear cast, your commitment to developing your craft is a constant source of inspiration for the community. Thank you for dedicating your best efforts in every moment and showing kindness along the way. Your performance was wonderful!

To the staff and volunteers, thank you for the countless hours of creativity, strategy, perseverance and action. Making this year's production a huge success!

Dearest audience, families and friends, thank you for your ongoing support! We wouldn't be able to continue these performances without you!

Lastly, many thanks to the NWPAA board of directors and donors for helping make performing arts dreams come true.

NWPAA is a 501(c)(3) public charity whose mission is providing visual and performing arts education and performance opportunities to everyone in our community. Through scholarships, outreach, and volunteering, our talents will be used to bring our community together and help those in need.

Donate to NWPAA

Your ticket price is a direct contribution to NWPAA's mission to provide arts education scholarships and performances like this. The families who received these opportunities are extremely grateful and extend their thanks to you!
