This book, HANNIGAN FAMILY HISTORY, has been written by the Reverend George A. Burns. Valuable assistance was given by his wife Ruth Hannigan Burns, and by hundreds of members of the Hannigan Family who have sent in material and data. Without the help of everyone, it would not have been possible to compile the family records. The base of our Hannigan history was the book produced in 1940 by Catherine Gotwalt, "Descendants of William Hannigan" which has been used by members of the family through the years. The family will always be indebted to Catherine for her years of research. This present book HANNIGAN FAMILY HISTORY, includes all of the 1434 names in Catherine's book and more than 2000 additional names.

All of the biographies are retained and enlarged, and many additional biographies have been added. The Hannigan Family is also grateful to Elmer Orwig who permitted us to use data from his History of the Orwig Family. Since the data is now in a computer, every edition of the HANNIGAN FAMILY HISTORY will be edited and updated.

We hope, dear member of the family, that as you read this book you will have a renewed pride in being a descendant of William Hannigan. Please remember that the task of preserving our family history is an ongoing one. Additional names and dates, corrections, and biographical information are of great importance, and we do hope you will continue your valuable assistance.

1940 FORWARD

From "The History of William Hannigan's Descendants" by Catherine Gotwalt

Within the covers of this book you will find interesting data and statistics pertaining to the members of the Hannigan family. These recordings deal principally with the descendants of William Hannigan, although there is some data concerning other descendants.

In spite of the disappointment that is ours in not being able to issue a complete account of this family genealogy you will however note that all the most important factors have been recorded. Our zealous effort to give you a biographical outline of the Hannigan family has definitely not been fruitless. In place of the complete record we offer you an accurate and interesting book.

Relatives have been very considerate and sincere in donating their services and they have given us complete co-operation. Without this assistance our work would have been in vain, for there were many facts that were known only to the members of one individual family. So to each member we offer our thanks and trust that you will consider this book as yours, since your help and knowledge were deemed necessary to make it a success.

We sincerely hope that anyone regardless of name will enjoy these writings, but to the ones blessed with Hannigan blood it should be a privilege to own and read these facts pertaining to their kinfolks.

This is not a book of fiction, neither is it guesswork, as every statistic was obtained either from private or historical records, which your historican states may be examined by any person desiring verification of these facts.

Our humble thanks to all of you for your patience in waiting for this publication, and we hereby offer a logical reason for the delay. Many miles were travelled and numerous private calls made, likewise several out-of-town historical centers visited in the effort to collect positive information. Hence you can readily see that time and patience were needed.

May we suggest that you carefully read and concentrate upon these facts, then preserve and safeguard this book as a heritage for the future generations of Hannigans. Some day, somewhere, another group may continue this history, adding the data of newer generations, those that will long survive us.

Our kindest thoughts stray unto you as you read this; may your own be as pleasant. If after reading this, you personally feel better acquainted with your relatives and the history of those deceased, we will be amply rewarded for all our work, since the aim of the publishers of this history was only to give the readers a sense of family loyalty.

The members of the Hannigan family all possess a staunch family pride; so they should, for each one has tried to live an honest, and righteous life, constantly doing only what they deemed right, inspiring others to condone not condemn their actions.

ANCESTRY from "The History of William Hannigan's Descendants", by Catherine Gotwalt. 1940

Approximately two hundred years ago our forefather emigrated from Ireland to America. It is stated that his three brothers made the journey with him, so to these four young men who so courageously endured the hardships of early travel across an ocean, the thousands of Hannigans now residing in the United States owe their privilege of having America for a homeland. May their descendants never forget them and always strive to uphold and honor their memory, likewise cherish this land that they so bravely chose for us.

They bequeathed to us a legacy far more valuable than gold or rare jewels; our honorable name was their gift and what is more valuable than a name that one can be gloriously proud of?

You as a descendant of this honorable pioneer family should realize and be impressed by this fine heritage you possess. We can safely ignore class distinction that is governed by money, as we are aware of the fact that our heritage is of the best---something that even money cannot acquire when it is desired.

For one to analyze and print all concerning this vast multitude of descendants would be too difficult a task, since there can be no positive proof of all that has occurred in the past two centuries. Some branches would be untraceable, for repeated changes of names taken by the generations of Hannigan women place one at a loss.

Yet, proud are we to have our genealogy composed, for to us it is something to be proud of, and to feel thus about one's ancestors is an admirable trait. Every one possesses a deep-rooted instinct to know just how strong and substantial his family tree is. He seeks to learn where and how the root is embedded; the longing to possess these facts is common and mutual among all.

It is an acknowledged fact that whenever a person ignores his ancestry and refrains from commenting about them there can only be one reason, which is safely defined as this: they have no ancestor whom they can be justified in discussing. Since this does not apply to us, we are putting our history in the limelight by publishing it and offering the printed version to anyone who may be interested in reading about our ancestors.

We are inclined to believe that we Hannigan descendants possess the same pride that enabled a poet to compose these lines:

"Proud was he of his name and race, of old Sir William and Sir Hugh,
And in the parlor full in view
His coat-of-arms, well framed and glazed,
Upon the wall in color blazed."
--Longfellow.

Individual biographical text for William Hannigan #1

William Hannigan's parents are unknown. A William Hannigan from Pennsylvania, who could have been the father of William Hannigan of York County, PA, was listed as a prisoner of War during the American Revolution but no record remains of his military service. He is listed as a British Prisoner of War, held at New York, and from the State of Pennsylvania. His record is in the PA Archives, 6th Series, Vol 2, Pages 855 and 856.

Our first record of William Hannigan of York County is when he enlisted in the U. S. Army in 1814. He enlisted in Captain Colvin's Company and served in the War of 1812. Our next record of William is in the Orphan's Court of York County on 16 September 1817. William declared his age to be 20, and John Bortner was appointed his legal guardian. This would indicate that William's parents were both deceased. Three years later the York Gazette carried his marriage to Anna Fishel on 7 March 1820. Later that year their first child, Jacob, was born. The History of York County, page 604, says that William and his son Jacob, who was about 19 went on a fishing trip and drank contaminated water. They both died of Typhoid Fever. The disease must have been brought to their home because four members of the family died within one month. First little Mary Jane died on 3 Ausust. The father, William, died on 6 August. Their son Diamond died on 9 August and finally their oldest son Jacob died on 1 September. It was not uncommon for Typhoid Fever to move through the country side killing hundreds of people in the same community. It is not known where these four members of the Hannigan Family are buried. It is possible that they are buried in Sadler's Cemetery for many of the old stones are missing. The early graves in Sadler's Cemetery were located at random and there were no rows or walks. Some years ago the Cemetery Association took up the remaining stones and arranged them in rows with a cement foundation. All of the people whose stones were so arranged are buried somewhere on the side of the hill beside the Church, but the actual grave sites are not known. In addition many people are buried on the hillside of which there is no record and no monument.

Cousin Helen Lutz Orwig supplied many of the early dates for William Hannigan and his family, all taken from a Family Bible, which was in the possession of Hazel Montgomery. Following Hazel's death the Bible was kept by Bruce Lutz.

The family name is spelled "Hannegan" and also lists two additional children who died at an early age, Diamond and Mary Jane, who were not listed in Catherine Gotwalt's book of Hannigan History.

In 1994, Gregory Burns made a gift to the Ellis Island Foundation entering the name of William Hannigan in the Immigrant Wall of Honor. He made this gift in honor of Ruth Hannigan Burns.

THE HANNIGAN NAME. In the early days of our country, spelling was not considered to be important, and many people did not attend school and could barely read and write. Hence, it is not surprising to find many different spellings of the names of members of the family.

The War Records of William Hannigan spell his name as just written, and his wife is listed as Ann. However, the York Gazette of 21 March 1820 tells of the marriage of William Hanagan to Anna Fishel. Ann Fishel Hannigan could not write and on the application for Pension for her husband she made her "mark". The Census of 1820 and 1830 list William Hanagen as the spelling of the name, while the Census of 1840 lists Ann Hannegan, and the Census of 1860 lists Ann Hanigan. The History of York County, pages 603, 604, spell the name Hanigan. Most of the children of William Hannigan are buried in the St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery at Rinely, York Co. PA. In this Cemetery the name Hannigan is spelled four different ways by members of the same family. When Roscoe S. K. Hannigan attended medical school he spelled his name Hannigan, and it was spelled in this way when he entered the U. S. Army as a Division Surgeon. However his daughter, Doris Hannigan Hayes, wrote from Rhode Island that when her father started his practice in Boston after the war he spelled his name "Hanigan".

In the records of the Logan General Store of Cross Roads, John Hannigan and Oliver Hannigan are both listed in the records as early as 1868 and the name is spelled Hannigan. The Census records of 1850 spell the name of John and his brother Oliver in the same way.

Because of the many spellings of the name Hannigan, and the impossible task of recording all of the variations, for the purposes of this HANNIGAN FAMILY HISTORY, the name will be spelled as in the title.

Ann's father, John Fishel, served as Second Lieutenant, 4th Company, Third Battalion of the York County Militia in the Revolutionary War. John's father, John Michael Fishel and grand father Johannes Fishel, were both born in Germany. The family records were kept in German in the family Bible and the records of Sadler's Lutheran Church were also in German. The family Bible lists Ann as the seventh of fourteen children. Her name is given in the family Bible as "Anna Leise". When Ann's father died in 1834 he did not leave a will but the Orphans Court Document R-580 lists all of the children and lists Ann as the wife of William Hannigan. With the untimely death of William, Ann was left with the task of raising six children. The Census of 1840 lists her as the head of the family. She worked as a housekeeper and in the Census of 1850 is listed with that occupation at the farm of Daniel Grimm in Hopewell Township, York County. Ann was granted a Pension by the government for the service of William during the War of 1812. She spent the final years of her life living at the home of her daughter Barbara Ann on the Mitzel Farm on Mitzel's Hill near Cross Roads. She died 1 May 1869 and is buried beside her daughter at St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery (Mt. Pleasant) Rinely, PA.

David attended local schools in York County and the Mt. Zion School in Springfield. He was attending school when his father returned home on leave to recover from a battle injury. David asked for permission to enlist but his father refused, saying that David was too young. When his father returned to active duty, David went to York and tried to enlist under Capt. Murray Cross. He was turned down because of his age. He then went to Harrisburg and again was refused. Finally he went to the Carlisle barracks and succeeded in being enlisted 4 March 1865, Company C 102 Reg. PA Vol. When he was discharged he held the rank of 2nd Lieutenant. He went with his Company to North Carolina and then to Petersburg, Virginia, where he participated in the final battles of the War. After his return from the War David was ill for many months due to drinking polluted water while in the army. He went to Hannibal, Missouri, where he obtained employment in a steam sawmill. He became ill in Missouri and returned to Pennsylvania where he married Anna Snyder. He then purchased a farm in Hopewell Township of York County where he remained until 1880. He was buried with military honors in France. His brother Captain Roscoe Hannigan wrote of him, "I stopped over in Paris and visited the American Military Cemetery at Suresnes, on the slope of Mont Valerien, where our dear brother Chester is sleeping beneath the sod. Beautiful flowers are growing on his grave and beautiful green grass, and the cemetery is well kept. I enquired from some of the boys as to who was so kind and thoughtful in planting the beautiful flowers on the graves of our fallen heroes, but no one seemed to know. A few days ago while reading the New York Herald, Paris Edition, the puzzle was solved. It gave a beautiful description of how the good French mothers of Suresnes go daily to the cemetery and care for the graves of those who have died that France and civilization might live. It impressed me so much that I immediately wrote to Mme. Quention, who instigated the plan of taking care of the graves of the boys who sacrificed their lives on the field of honor, thanking her and the good mothers of Suresnes for their kindness and generosity. I also enclosed a check for her to purchase a floral design to place on brother's grave, a token of remembrance and devotion to our dear departed brother from his sisters and brothers. I also requested her to take several views of the grave, and will send them home when I receive them."

After attending a local college Roscoe taught school for several years in Pennsylvania. He then entered Medical School in Baltimore. When World War I began he entered the Army and served in France as Captain in the 115th Infantry, 29th Division Medical Corp. In the book "York County and the World War", pages 265-267 he is featured in an article called "Roscoe Hannigan Describes the Action In Which He Was Disabled" . He also tells of visiting the grave of his brother Chester Garfield Hannigan, U. S. Navy, who is buried in France. Soon after the War, Roscoe and his bride Irene Sitler went to Boston where he opened a practice in Quincy, MA. At this time he changed the spelling of his name to one "N". His army records and records in Medical School all spell Hannigan with two Ns. He was practicing medicine in Wollaston, MA at the time of his death. He was active in the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

Here is a portion of the letter he wrote to his brother Birchard Hannigan from the Riviera, France, 2 November 1918.

Dear Brother,

During my sojourn in France I have done very little corresponding, practically all of my writing has been in the form of little notes, which I mailed to the folks at home whenever the opportunity presented itself, just merely stating conditions in a rather indefinite manner, for I was afraid to go into details owing to the censorship which existed in our division; then again during the months of July and August my regiment was continually in the trenches and my position as battalion surgeon kept me extremely busy; then following my misfortune the last week of August, which I never gave you the full details of more than that I was sick in the hospital and physically unable to write.

However, since kind Providence spared my life and I am away down here along the Riviera convalescing, I will give you a short synopsis of how it happened. It was one bright morning just as dawn was breaking, the birds in the trees singing their beautiful morning melodies, the entire front peaceful and quiet, everybody fully clothed and at their post for stand too--suddenly like a bolt out of the beautiful blue sky the Boche opened with their big guns. It was a perfect barrage and accurately laid down. Prior to this we had daily combats with the Boche artillery and I had sort of become accustomed to the howling and bursting of their shells. However, during my stay in the front, I never experienced such a terrific bombardment as we had that morning--the whole earth apparently shook and the noise was indescribable, bits of shrapnel and missiles flying in all directions. The air became foul smelling and extremely pungent. Ah! gas phosgene and mustard. I was busily engaged administering to some of the poor boys who had been hit. Assisting me was my sergeant and several stretcher bearers; neither one of us detected the gas until we all inhaled some of the poisonous substance.

Immediately we adjusted our masks but the damage had already been done, at least for me, for at that time I was a bit out with the Spanish Flu and my respiratory organs were not in a very receptive mood for gas. We did not adjust our masks immediately at the first sound of the thrombus horn and gongs. My aid station was located a short distance in the rear and consequently we did not hear the signal, the noise was so great. My little band of M.C. boys and I continued to work until we had all of our casualties for the morning disposed of--went to my dugout extremely tired and feeling none too good from the gas which I inhaled. I continued to grow worse and by night was violently ill. In a little while found myself on a stretcher, carrying me out of my dugout and gently placing the stretcher and its contents in an ambulance, rushed off to a field hospital about nine or ten kilometers in the rear. Oh! I was some sick boy--with each breath it felt like someone was sticking a dagger into my back and chest. The following day my attending physician told me that I had pneumonia. Long about the sixth or seventh day of my sojourn at the field hospital the Boche decided that I remained there long enough and immediately began to shell the small town in which the hospital was located. It was a damp and foggy night, and at the most critical period of my illness. Nevertheless the order came through to move all patients.

Once again I was placed on a stretcher and in an ambulance and then began the wild ride midst bursting shells over shell-hole roads to a French hospital base, located in a city of about 75,000, twenty kilometers in the rear. For excitement I don't think that Sheridan's ride up the Shenandoah or Paul Revere's famous ride had anything on it, not saying anything about a trip to Baltimore on the Maryland and Pennsylvania. However, I was too sick to enjoy it. Arrived O.K. at the French hospital, but I thought it was finish for Ross. The next few days were extremely hazardous ones for me. On several occasions I had visions of going West, but fortunately I received excellent treatment from the French doctors and in a few days began to show signs of improvement. I might say that the Boche followed me here for I was only here about a week when one night motors were heard buzzing in the heavens, which gradually became louder. Anti-aircraft guns opened fire on them. We then knew that they were Hun planes bombing the city.

They flew directly over the hospital but fortunately did not drop any bombs on us. It was rather thrilling and exciting, nevertheless. Of course, I did not see them as I was confined to bed. Several of the patients who were able to be up and around told me that they were flying low and could easily see them with the naked eye in the dark. I remained in this hospital about four weeks and then was taken still further back, about fifty miles, to a large American base. I am now able to be out of bed and tottering about a bit. Remained here just twenty days when the C. O. wished a sick leave of thirty days on me, and sent me down here along the Mediterranean to convalesce.

...My convalescent leave has about come to an end; the day of departure is not far off. I am sorry in a sense to go, for I realize the sadness and heartaches which will welcome me at the end of my journey. My regiment has been in the thick of the recent big drive, and I know that many of my friends that bade me good-bye and good luck will not be present to greet me. Many have fallen on the field of honor since I left my organization, and are now sleeping beneath the sacred soil of France with a little cross at their head, signifying that they died for world democracy.

Oh, yes, it will be a sad day when I return to my regiment and glance over the roll. However, such are the fortunes of war. No doubt that ere you receive this I will again be with the boys on our way to Berlin. Hoping this will find you all well and happy, I remain lovingly, your brother,

ROSCOE

John Hannigan was born on his father's farm in Hopewell Township of York County and soon after his marriage in 1847 settled on a farm in the same township. The farm was located near Winterstown and he purchased it jointly with his older brother Ramsey. The record of this purchase is a part of this book.

He served in the Union Army, and was wounded in battle. He was a private in Company B, 209th Regiment, of the Pennsylvania Infantry. The record of his military service and wound are a part of this book. After he returned from the war, he continued to farm near Winterstown. In 1875 he purchased a large farm near Cross Roads where his children were raised to maturity. The house was built in the late 1700s. Ruth Hannigan Burns remembers her grandmother, Ellen Jemima Hannigan, tell of her early life in this stone house.

This house then passed to the ownership of Ulysses Grant Hannigan, one of the sons of John and Lydia. Later it was owned by the Stitely family and Ione Stitely Hersey was born there. The house was later owned for many years by Maynard Hersey, also a Hannigan descendant. The present owners of the house are Larry and Claudia Collins who have restored it to its former beauty. In 1991, and again in 1995, the Hannigan Reunion Association toured the house at the invitation of the Collins family.

John Hannigan was one of six charter members of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Rinely and signed the Charter, 16 December 1862. A stained glass window in the Church is a memorial to John Hannigan. A record of these Church honors is a part of this book.

Following the death of his wife Lydia, John had one leg removed because of an old war injury. The leg was buried with Lydia at St, Paul's Church, Rinely.

John then married Henrietta Meade Carman and moved from the family farm to Stewartstown. He was then 66 and his new wife was 64. John died 22 July 1896 and Henrietta had him buried in the Meade family lot in Stewartstown. The Hannigan family disapproved of this action very much, believing that John should properly be buried with his first wife, Lydia, in the cemetery at Rinely. Henrietta then married Henry Kunkle. When she died 17 December 1906 she was buried between John Hannigan and her first husband Nathan Carman at Stewartstown Cemetery.

Warren was born in Hannigan House while his grandfather operated the hotel and tavern. He was fond of telling the stories of sitting at the bar when a boy and listening to the travelling salesmen tell of their adventures. On one such occasion, in 1898, when he was ten, a salesman carved a crucifixion scene in a small bottle. Warren later gave the bottle to his niece, Ruth Hannigan.

Warren and his brother Melvin were outstanding sand lot baseball players in the Cross Roads community, and both continued to enjoy the sport throughout their lives.

His marrige to Sally was a festive occasion. The bride wore a white princess costume. Following the ceremony, the bride's patrents gave a reception. Later that night the newly married couple were given a callithumpian serenade.

After his marriage to Sally Lehman, they bought a log house next to Hannigan House in Cross Roads. It had been one of the original dwelling places in Cross Roads. Previous owners of this historic house were Dr. Thomas M. Curran and his wife Alice who sold it 21 March 1883 to Henry Eckert and his wife Eliza. After Henry's death she sold it to Sarah Meads 30 March 1895. Sarah sold it to Warren Hannigan 22 March 1911. Today the house is owned by Howard L. Swartz and Elizabeth Fishel Swartz. Elizabeth is the granddaughter of David F. Hannigan.

Warren worked for the Department of Highways until retirement. He served for 30 years on the Cross Roads Borough Council, and as President of that body. He was a member of the Cross Roads Methodist Church. He was an avid fisherman, especialy for brook trout, and also enjoyed hunting. He was an excellent gardener and delighted in trying to produce larger vegetables than his brother Melvin who lived next door in Hannigan House. The only automobile he ever owned was a Model T Ford. For many years he did not use the car and it was parked in his garage. He will be remembered as a kind and thoughtful person whose greatest delight was in helping others.

Nathan Warren Hannigan and Sarah L. (Sally) Lehman had the following children:

181 i. Hilda[4] Hannigan was born in Cross Roads, PA 28 Jun 1911. Hilda died 29 Jul 1965 in York, PA 17403, at age 54. Her body was interred 1 Aug 1965 in Cross Roads, PA., Cem.. She married Charles W. Lutton circa 1940. Charles was born 21 Sep 1903 in Brownsville, PA. He was the son of Harry C. Lutton and Charlotte Watkins. Charles died 9 Apr 1978 in Cross Roads, PA, at home., at age 74. His body was interred 12 Apr 1978 in Cross Roads, PA, Cem.. Charles entered the Pennsylvania State Police as a young man and had a distinguished career with that organization. His first assignment was to patrol the road from Bedford to Hyndman in Bedford County, PA. Years later Charles and George Burns compared notes on Burns family farms along his patrol route. When Edward Martin became Governor of Pennsylvania he asked that all of his drivers be Masons. He said he intended to travel throughout the State and wanted his driver to be able to sit in lodge with him. Charles Lutton was one of the men chosen for the staff of the Governor. Later Charles entered the finger print division of the State Police, and when he retired he held the rank of lieutenant. Charles Lutton was an active Mason and a member of the Scottish Rite and the York Rite, and a member of the Shrine. He was a member of the Borough Council of Cross Roads and for sixteen years a member of the School Board, serving as its president. His burial Service was held in the Cross Roads Methodist Church and he was buried beside his first wife, Hilda Hannigan, in the adjoining cemetery.

Hilda was born in her parents home in Cross Roads. She attended Cross Roads grade school and then went to live with her Aunt Florence Hannigan Stabley in Dallastown so she could attend high school in that town. After graduation from Dallastown High School she attended Thompson's Business College in York. After graduation from this school she was employed in the Office of the Clerk of Courts in York. The Clerk at that time was Walter Trout, her neighbor in Cross Roads. After marrying Charles Lutton, a State Police Officer, they moved to Harrisburg. When Charles retired they returned to their home in Cross Roads. Hilda was stricken with cancer and died at the age of 54. Her smile and loving personality will always be remembered by those whose lives she graced.

182 ii. Infant Hannigan was born 1918. Infant died 1918 at age unknown. His body was interred 1918 in Cross Roads. PA., Cem..

58. Melvin Forest[3] Hannigan (Ellen Jemima[2], John[1]) was born in Cross Roads, PA 3 Jun 1890. Melvin died 22 Mar 1969 in York, PA., (Saturday, York Hosp), at age 78. His body was interred 25 Mar 1969 in Cross Roads, PA Cem..

He married twice. He married Effie Esther Lutz 28 May 1921 in York, PA.. Effie was born 10 Mar 1897 in York Co., PA. She was the daughter of John Henry Lutz and Minnie Rebecca Chalfant. Effie died 24 Nov 1947 in Hannigan House, Cross Roads, PA (Monday), at age 50. Her body was interred 26 Nov 1947 in Cross Roads, PA Cem..

Effie was born near Cross Roads on the farm of her grandfather Reuben Chalfant. She was educated in Cross Roads School, graduating from the High School in the class of 1914. For the next seven years she taught school at Fulton School and at St. James School. She married Melvin Hannigan when he returned from the Navy at the end of World War I. They moved into Hannigan House on the square in Cross Roads. Since married women could not teach school at that time, Effie worked for a few years at the Cross Roads Cigar Factory which was located just across the road from Hannigan House. She was active in many areas of the Cross Roads Methodist Church. She taught Sunday School and was Youth Director. When she died, a plaque was placed on the fireplace in the new Social Hall of the Church in her honor. Her entire life was devoted to helping other people. She was always helping people with personal problems and running errands to help people who were shut in. Her loving personality blessed everyone with whom she came in contact. Her daughter Ruth continued to receive letters 40 years after her death telling how much Effie had contributed to their lives. Her untimely death from cancer at the age of 50 was a shock to the community which loved her so much. On the day of her funeral the mourners met outside Hannigan House and marched in a procession through Cross Roads to the Methodist Church where services were conducted by the pastor Rev. Robert V. Laidig, assisted by the Rev. D. Frederick Wertz, a former pastor, who later became the Bishop of Washington.

He married Margaret Bartenslager 1949. Margaret was born 1897. Margaret died 1984 in New Oxford, PA, at age unknown. Her body was interred 1984 in Jacobus, PA.

In order to have more room for his growing family, Peter Hannigan moved out of Hannigan House to a farm of his own nearby. Melvin was born on this farm in 1890. He was educated in the Cross Roads School, and Red Lion Academy. He taught school in various locations, Fairview, between York and Harrisburg, Stewartstown, Cross Roads, and Felton. He entered the U. S. Navy in World War I and was stationed at the St. Helena Naval Training Station, Berkley, VA. He served for several months loading mine anchors on freighters which were to be used to mine the North Sea. He then entered the Naval Post Office, and finally went to Pellam Bay as Chief Store Keeper. He had attained the rank of Chief Petty Officer.

After the war he obtained a position as Teller at the Peoples National Bank in Stewartstown. He worked for the bank his entire life, holding the positions of Cashier, Vice President and President. Upon retirement he continued on the Board of Directors. He was also a Director of two fire insurance companies, one located in Stewartstown and one in Hanover. He belonged to the Masons and Elks in Red Lion, and was active in many Masonic bodies: The Tall Cedars of Lebanon, the Harrisburg Consistory, the Knights Templar of York, Zembo Temple Shrine in Harrisburg, and the York County Shrine Club. He was a Past President of the Lions Club of Stewartstown and had a record 45 years of perfect attendance. He was an active member of the Cross Roads Methodist Church and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. He was a member of the York County Republican Committee, which presented the family a plaque in his honor when he died. Melvin was always interested in the Hannigan Family, and when the family reunions were resumed in 1936 he served as the first President. Melvin was interested in fishing and was an excellent brook trout fisherman. He never missed the first day of fishing or of hunting in York County. He never returned from hunting rabbits or squirrel without a good supply of game for dinner. Effie would always prepare the game and fish for dinner and a delicious treat it was. After he retired Melvin decided to go deer hunting for the first time. He went to the country store in Cross Roads to buy a "pumpkin ball" shell. The clerk said, "Mr. Hannigan, I can not sell you a single shell, you will have to buy an entire box." Melvin did so, but remarked that he would only need one shell. He loaded his favorite shotgun and only needed one shell to bring down the deer in Rambo Hollow near Cross Roads. He gave his son-in-law, George A. Burns, a pair of gloves made from the hide of the deer. Melvin had been Justice of the Peace for Cross Roads Borough for most of his life, and of course, resided in Hannigan House. Hannigan House had been sold to Dr. Curran after the death of Oliver Hannigan and, when Melvin married Effie Lutz, he purchased the old hotel and made it his residence. It is now a residence of his daughter Ruth.

Melvin Forest Hannigan and Effie Esther Lutz had the following child:

\+ 183 i. Ruth[4] Hannigan was born 26 Mar 1924.

60. Zella Mabel[3] Hannigan (Joseph James[2], John[1]) was born in Cardington, OH 19 Feb 1892. Zella died 5 Dec 1982 in Memphis, TN., Home of Rose, and Charles Wood, at age 90. Her body was interred 8 Dec 1982 in West View Cem., Atlanta, GA.

Zella and her husband Sam travelled from Atlanta to Pennsylvania for the Hannigan Reunions. They stayed at Hannigan House in Cross Roads. She told Melvin Hannigan that they would not come unless Sam could have his accustomed southern cooking, and his grits. Melvin went to the store in Stewartstown and tried to purchase some grits. The storekeeper told him he would have to buy an entire case because there was no demand for them. Melvin did so and Ruth Hannigan Burns remembers that they had grits for months after the visit by Zella and Sam. Effie and Melvin Hannigan also obtained recipes and the ingredients to make Brunswick Stew as a special incentive for the Griffins to attend the Reunion.

Zella wrote a letter to her nephew James Hannigan and his wife Peggy just a few months before her death:

Dear Peggy and Jim,

Hope you can read this- my hands are stiff this AM. I am sure Marie Smith can send you some data on the "Curren" side of the family. Her brother, Gayland, was doing some work on their family history before he died and I am sure Marie has it now.

Then Melvin Hannigan helped Catherine a lot with her family information. If you write Mrs. Margaret Hannigan, RD 1, Felton, PA., she will surely have some of the data that Melvin had. If not, maybe Melvin's daughter will have it. Margaret can give you that address. The daughter lives somewhere in Ohio.

We are having some winter weather here now. Hope it will go above freezing tomorrow. The snow is about gone now, but our apartment was torn up with a bursted water pipe in the apartment over us. The flooring in our kitchen will be replaced Monday.

I am so sick and tired of this rain and these dark cloudy days. You live with the lights on twenty-four hours.

Let us hear again-soon.
Love to the family,
AUNT ZELLA

One of her special interests was the Learning Tree Pre-School Center at San Jose Baptist Church.

In 1973 Marian had a stroke which confined her to a wheel chair for the remainder of her life. She spent some time in a nursing home and then went to live with her daughter Sarah. Sarah continued to work while caring for her mother until her death.

She died at home 7147 Old Kings Road in Jacksonville, Florida at the age of 81. Her burial Service was conducted by three clergy from the Baptist Church, Dr. Ray C. Melton, Dr. Paul Meigs, and Rev. Terry

Gore.

Marian's great great grandfather, John White, was born in Ireland in 1798 and came to South Carolina in 1810. John White married Clara Keith, who descends from Robert the Bruce of Scotland. Marian's son, James Edward Hannigan, is a member of the Keith Clan Society.

When Edward was born, his father was employed by the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and the family lived in Ohio. During his early years the family moved to Illinois and then to Florida as his father followed his career with several railroads. When his mother died in 1915, he went to Atlanta to live with his older sister Zella and her husband Sam Griffin. It was from their home that he left to join the U. S. Army to serve in World War I. During the War he served in Atlanta and part of his duty was hauling dead victoms of the big flu epidemic in wagons to the funeral pyre. Following the war, Edward married Marian Hardwick and they made their home with her parents in Atlanta for several years. They then moved to Jacksonville, Florida where two of their children were born. The family then moved to Miami in 1931 where two children were added to the family. They returned to Jacksonville in 1939.

Edward quit school at the eighth grade to assist in the support of the family. When he was discharged from the Army, he joined Proctor and Gamble Company and later worked for Washburn Crosby Company as a flour salesman in Atlanta. This company later became part of General Mills, Inc. He was a salesman of grocery products selling such items as Gold Medal flour, Wheaties, Cheerios, Kix, Softasilk Cake flour, and Betty Crocker cake mixes. He was with the company for 37 years and when he retired he was Florida District Manager and his territory also included south Georgia. Under his leadership his district for years led the nation in sales. He was accorded many awards for his outstanding leadership and managerial ability, and the company recognized him with a large retirement banquet. He was well known for his dedication to the company, cultivation of new employees, personality and friendship. He was a tireless worker.

After his retirement, his wife Marian experienced a massive stroke and was never able to walk again. Their home was sold and their children, primarily Sarah, cared for them. Edward was confined to a nursing home in Jacksonville, where he died at the age of 77.

When he married Annie Shaull in 1918 they engaged in farming near Collinsville, Chanceford Township. In 1926 they moved to a farm along route 74 in southern York County. Walter and Annie enjoyed 75 years of married life, and received the care and affection of their children, and the love of the entire Hannigan family.

On the occasion of their 75th wedding anniversary a celebration was held at their home by the entire family. Walter noted that he still tends cattle and does barn work every day, and Annie reads magazines, the Church paper and the Daily Record. Several years earlier Annie had cataracts removed and had perfect vision. They both recalled that they met at Church at the age of 12, but did not start dating until they were 16. When Walter was 87 he was hospitalized because of a farm accident and Annie was in the same hospital because of a broken hip. They were on separate floors, but each evening Walter was permitted to visit Annie and they would sit holding hands. Their love endured for more than 75 years. When Walter died suddenly on 8 October 1993, he was in his 99th year. He was interred in St. James Lutheran Cemetery near the Church he had attended throughout his life. George Andrew Burns was born in a large yellow brick house on Grant Avenue in Bellevue, a suburb on the north side of Pittsburgh, PA. He was born at home with the family doctor in attendance and also a private nurse. His father, Harvey Elwood Burns, was Purchasing Agent for the West Penn Power Company which had its headquarters in Pittsburgh. His mother, the former Fannie Leah Brown was an accomplished pianist. The family into which George was born also included his sister Lillian Marguerite who was ten years old when he was born. When George was two, the family moved into a new home which his father built in Dormont, a new suburb in the South Hills section of Pittsburgh. This new area was made available for housing because of the opening of a tunnel, called the Liberty Tubes, through Mt. Washington.

George attended Kelton School and Dormont High School where he was graduated in 1939. His interests included Church activities, Sunday School and Church Services at the Methodist Church, and also youth meetings at local Churches. He was active in the Boy Scouts where he played the bugle and drum in the Drum and Bugle Corp. He attended the first World Jamboree at Washington, D.C. in 1937, and was bugler for the Boy Scout Service Troop at the New York World's Fair in 1939. He was an Eagle Scout and held every rank to that of Scoutmaster. After high school, George entered Penn State University where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, and a member of the Varsity Debating Team. He was active in Church work while at Penn State and was preparing to enter the ministry. He was graduated in 1942 with a BA degree in Arts and Letters. George then entered the Theology School of Drew University from which he received a Master of Divinity Degree in 1945. Later he would receive a Master of Arts Degree from West Virginia University majoring in Education and Economics. He was a member of Phi Delta Kappa honorary fraternity.

At Penn State George met Ruth Hannigan, his future bride, at Church. They were married in the Methodist Church in Cross Roads, PA in 1944 and Ruth joined him for his last year at Drew University. That year George also served as a student pastor of a Methodist Church near Hudson, NY. George was ordained in the Methodist Church in 1945, but had decided to change to the Episcopal Church while in Theological School. He served the Schenley Heights Methodist Church in Pittsburgh, PA while making arrangements to change denominations. He became the rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Episcopal, in 1947. The following year he was ordained a priest by the Bishop of Pittsburgh. Other pastorates included Holy Trinity Church, Logan, WV; Trinity Church, Anderson, IN; St. Luke's Church, Shawnee, KS; and Christ Church, Wellsburg, WV. While in Pittsburgh he served three years as Chaplain of the Allegheny County Juvenile Court, and in Indiana served seven years as Chaplain at the Indiana State Prison at Pendleton. His Church offices included Dean of his Deanery, Chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations, Dean of the West Virginia School of Religion, and Examiner in Church History and Ecclesiastical Polity on the Board of Examining Chaplains. While in West Virginia George also taught Math and Economics at Brooke High School and served as Chairman of the Social Studies Department.

He retired from teaching and the active ministry in 1980 and he and Ruth spent two years travelling through the United States and Canada. In 1982 they moved into Hannigan House, Ruth's ancestral home which had been left to her by her father, Melvin F. Hannigan. They continue to reside there in the summer months. In 1985 they purchased a home near the beach and golf course at Fernandina Beach, Florida which is their residence from Labor Day until after Easter.

George has had several articles published in the Philalethes Magazine, and assisted Dr. Robert Hall in the background for his book "Teaching Moral Values in the Public School". Recently he has prepared for publication the "History of the Burns Family" and the "History of the Hannigan Family".

George was raised a Mason in 1943 and has been active in Masonic bodies throughout his life. He is a 32nd degree Mason in the Scottish Rite and a Knight Templar in the York Rite. He has served as Prelate for the Commandery and in 1991 was serving as assistant Chaplain for Morocco Temple Shrine in Jacksonville, Florida. He is an Honorary Life Member of Murat Temple in Indianapolis and an Honary Life Member of the Anderson Shrine Club. He is a member of the St, Andrew's Society in Jacksonville, Florida, and in 1991 served as President of the Jacksonville Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution. In 1992 he was elected State Chaplain of the Florida Society Sons of the American Revolution.

In 1988 and 1989 he came out of retirement to serve as Interim Rector of St. Peter's Parish in Fernandina Beach, Florida.

Ruth was born in Hannigan House, Cross Roads, PA as members of her family had been for generations. It was a cold night with heavy snow and Dr. Evans Free had ridden his horse from Stewartstown. He spent the night at Hannigan House and Ruth was born in the early morning, the only child of Melvin Hannigan and Effie Lutz. Ruth began her education in the one room Cross Roads School where her father had been a teacher. The school had no electricity and was quite dark on cloudy days. There was no running water and each day a boy in the class would be sent by the teacher next door to the house of Ruth's grandmother, Minnie Lutz, for a bucket of water from her pump. The rest room facilities were in a house behind the school. In the winter, heat was provided by a Franklin stove which burned wood. The school library consisted of one small bookcase containing a few dozen books. Ruth started school at the age of five because Melvin and Effie wanted her to be taught by Miss Jennie Cross. She had been in the 1914 graduation class of Cross Roads High School with Effie, and it was believed that she would not be teaching at Cross Roads after a few years. As it turned out, Miss Cross taught there for many years until the school was closed about 1960. Ruth was an excellent student and later skipped a grade and entered Red Lion High School at the age of 12. Melvin sent Ruth to Red Lion High School on a special bus because he thought it to be a better school than the one in Stewartstown. In high school Ruth was active in all girls sports and earned a boys varsity letter for her outstanding athletic participation. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Glee Club, Concert Sextet, and in the Class Plays. She entered Penn State University at the age of 16 and was graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics just four months after her 19th birthday. At Penn State she was a member of Phi Mu Sorority, the Ellen H. Richards honorary fraternity, and the University Choir. She was active in the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church where she met George.

After graduation from Penn State, Ruth taught at Biglerville High School in Pennsylvania. In 1944 she married George and they lived at Drew University for his final year in Theological School. Ruth took several courses at Drew and also taught school at Madison Academy. Later she would take courses at the University of Pittsburgh and receive a Masters Degree in Education and Botany at West Virginia University. Ruth studied music for eight years and is an excellent pianist. For her Masters work in Botany she did research in wild flowers of West Virginia and has over 3000 slides on the subject.

Ruth is the mother of three children, Jo Ann, born in Pittsburgh, and George Andrew Jr, and Peter Forest both born in Logan, West Virginia.

Ruth inherited Hannigan House after the death of her father and resides there in the summer months. In the winter she and George reside at their home in Fernandina Beach, Florida. Ruth enjoys golf and swimming in the ocean. She is active in the Daughters of the King, the Episcopal Women, and the Choir at St. Peter's Parish in Fernandina Beach, and also the adult Bible Class. She founded Ruth Chapter of the Daughters of the King at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Pittsburgh.

When the children reached Junior High age, Ruth again entered the teaching profession and taught Biology and Earth Science until both she and George retired in 1980.

Ruth assists each year with the Burns Reunion in Bedford and played a leading role in re-starting the Hannigan Reunions held each year in Cross Roads. In 1990 and 1991 she served as President of the Hannigan Reunion Association.

In 1991 Ruth received the Martha Washington medal from the Sons of the American Revolution, and in 1992 she became a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Fort San Nicholas Chapter, Jacksonville, FL. In 1993 Ruth became an Organizing Member and first Treasurer of the Amelia Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Amelia Island, Florida.

Army Reserves and served for six months at an Army base in Missouri. He then went to Washington, DC. and was accepted in the Metropolitan Police Department. He attended the Police Academy and started his career as a police officer. He operated a Patrol Car in District Six of Washington for several years and then was transferred to an undercover division. For this work he wore old clothes and travelled in his old Falcon car not to attract attention. He then worked for several years in the maintenance department of District Six, repairing Patrol Cars, and installing equipment in the cars. His main hobby was motorcycles and he had about six, many of vintage make. He especially enjoyed working on these cycles and they were restored to their original beauty. It was while taking a ride on one of his prize cycles that he met his death when his cycle was struck by a van. His burial office was conducted in St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Annapolis, MD., and burial with a full police honor guard was held at the Cross Roads, PA Cemetery. Andy continued his career also with the U.S.Army Reserve, re-enlisting and having served eight years at the time of his death.

In high school he had been a member of the track team, concert choir and was trombonist in a local dance band. He had been a member of the De Molay, Boy Scouts and served as an Acolyte in the Episcopal Church. He had a genuine love for people and his work in the Police Department was an expression of that love. Andy had earned sharpshooter medals in the army and was given a trophy upon graduation from the Police Academy as the outstanding marksman in his class. He received numerous citations for service and bravery from the Metropolitan Police Department.

Sharon enjoys helping with both the Hannigan and Burns family reunions and currently serves on a number of committees. She also excells in food preparation and her buffet luncheons are a delight to the entire family.

Peter was born in Logan General Hospital while his father was rector of Holy Trinity Church in Logan, WV. He was Baptized in that Church by his father, his Godparents being Peg Gould, Godfrey M. Treschow, Norman Hagan and Paul Bottome. He attended schools in Anderson, IN; Shawnee, KS; and Wellsburg WV. Peter was a Cub Scout and Boy Scout and an Acolyte in the Episcopal Church. He attended Lindsley Military Academy in Wheeling, WV his first year in High School and in 1971 was graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, WV. He played the drum in the band. After high school he went to Vale Technical Institute in Blairsville, PA and was graduated with a degree in Automotive Techniques and Management. He worked as a mechanic in several locations in West Virginia and with the City Water Department. He then went to Arnold MD to look for business opportunities. He was employed for a number of years at the Sparrows Point plant of Bethlehem Steel Corporation at Baltimore, MD. He then accepted employment at the maintenance department of Anne Arundel County, MD where he is currently employed.

Peter met Sharon Anthony and after a courtship of several years they were married in Holy Cross Church, Street, MD by Peter's father, and by fr. Carroll Eads the rector of the parish. They purchased a home on Kent Island in the Chesapeake Bay across from Annapolis, MD. Peter is especially interested in old radios and has a collection of thousands of old tubes and testing equipment. He restores old radios to their original beauty and working condition. Peter and Sharon also have another hobby, that of caring for Hannigan House, the ancestral home of Peter's mother in Cross Roads, PA. They travel almost two hours every other week throughout the year to cut grass, rake leaves and shovel snow, and to do what is necessary to maintain the house. Such care can only be described as a work of love. In 1991 Peter became a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Jacksonville, FL Chapter. In 1992 he became a member of the Society of the Descendants of Washington's Army at Valley Forge and in 1994 Peter and Sharon attended the National Encampment at the Valley Forge Hilton.

Ruth had gone to Church and had entertained the Choirmaster, James Wallace James, for dinner. Father had conducted the two Services at the Church of the Good Shepherd, where he was Rector, and the Service at the Detention Center of the Allegheny Juvenile Court, where he was Chaplain. Ruth was rushed to the Episcopal Hospital, St. Margaret's, late Sunday afternoon and taken immediately to the delivery room. Her physician, Dr. Taffel, was away for the weekend. The nurses called on the intercom for a doctor to come to the delivery room. A doctor, who was just visiting at St. Margaret's, and who had one arm in a sling, responded to the call. In spite of this confusion, all went well and soon a bright eyed girl joined the Burns and Hannigan families.

At Wellsburg High School in West Virginia, she was a member of the marching Band, Editor of the School Paper, President of the Latin Club, and active in youth work at the Episcopal Church. After two years she transferred to Ohio Northern University where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Drama. At the University she was on the Dean's List of honor students and a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. While at Ohio Northern she continued her interest in horses. She had her own horse while in high school and also while at the university where she rode daily. She met Bob Welker at Ohio Northern and in order to be with Jan, he sold his van and bought a horse so they could ride together. They were married a few months before graduation at the Lawrencefield Chapel Episcopal Church in Wheeling, West Virginia by the Rt. Rev. Wilburn C. Campbell, Bishop of West Virginia.

They made their home in Mt. Blanchard, Ohio where they built a home on a 40 acre estate. Jan is employed by the Findlay City Schools as work study coordinator. They continue to enjoy their horses and also train and show dogs.

Barbara Ann was born on her father's farm in southern York county. She married Henry Mitzel and they purchased a farm on a hill near Cross Roads, PA. which became known as Mitzel's Hill. Here their thirteen children were born. Eleven of the children grew to maturity and had families. Barbara's mother, Ann Hannigan, worked for a number of years following the death of her husband William, as a housekeeper. Later in life she lived with her daughter Barbara. Barbara and her husband Henry are buried in the St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery in Rinely, PA., beside her mother Ann.

The Mitzel family were leading members of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Rinely. George Mitzel was one of the six founding fathers and a stained glass window in the Church is in memory of Henry and Barbara Ann Hannigan Mitzel. A record of these Church honors is a part of this book.

Both the Hannigan and Mitzel families were pioneer families in York County and on numerous occasions marriages occurred between the families. Two of William Hannigan's children married Mitzels. John Hannigan married Lydia Mitzel. John's sister Barbara Ann Hannigan married Lydia's brother, Henry Mitzel. In a later generation Benjamin Hannigan married Annie Mitzel.

Ralph was born in Cross Roads and was employed most of his life with the York Safe and Lock Company in York. This company later was known as Diebold Company. Ralph soon became an expert locksmith and went all over the country working on bank vaults and company safes. On Christmas Eve 1949, a great fire burned about eight blocks of the business area of Hyndman, PA. The only part of the Hoblitzel National Bank remaining was the bank vault standing in the center of an ash covered field. The Bank Cashier was Charles O. Burns, a cousin of George A. Burns, the husband of Ruth Hannigan. Charles Burns sent to the York Safe and Lock Company for a lock expert to come and open the bank vault. Ralph Reachard was sent by the company. When he opened the vault the contents were in perfect order, so Charles Burns opened the Bank for business the following day. The event received full coverage in Life Magazine and all newspapers. Shown together were the Hannigan cousin Ralph Reachard beside the Burns cousin, Charles Burns.

Later in life, Ralph was called to Gettysburg to the home of President Dwight Eisenhour. It seems that Ike had locked his family safe and misplaced the combination. Ralph opened the safe and had a visit with the President.

Hannigan House 1891, Cross Roads, PA
Oliver Hannigan and Elizabeth Sentz Hannigan

Lillie was buried with Services at the Hannigan Home, 21 Dewey Street, North York, and interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery in York.

Jim was born on his father's farm near Cross Roads and grew up at the hotel, Hannigan House. He was always well dressed and at Logan's General Store, across the road from Hannigan House, the ledger listed numerous items of clothing for his well stocked wardrobe. After his marriage to Lillie Hershinger they continued to live in Cross Roads until after 1900. They then moved to York and resided at 1006 North George Street. Jim died in York Hospital at the age of 82. His Burial Service was conducted by the Rev. Howard O. Walker of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. The six pall bearers were all his nephews. Ralph, Albert, James and Harry Hershner all children of Barbara Hannigan and James Hershner. The other two pall bearers were Melvin and Warren Hannigan, children of John Peter Hannigan.

Jim was married to Lillie Hershinger in 1891. She died in 1933 at the age of 63 and Jim continued to live in York at his home at 1006 North George Street. He employed a housekeeper who was involved in a tragic event at his home. Jim always kept large sums of money about the house and his nephew Melvin F. Hannigan, who was Cashier at that time of the People's National Bank in Stewartstown, told his uncle that it was dangerous to leave large sums of money about the house. It should be placed in the safe keeping of a bank. Uncle Jim had a distrust of banks, however, and did not take his nephew's advice. Instead, he placed a large sum of money, Ruth Hannigan Burns remembers the amount as several thousand dollars, in the bag of an old carpet sweeper that was not in use. He kept the sweeper in the back of a closet and thought the money to be perfectly safe. One day he came home and went to the closet and noticed that it had been cleaned out and that the sweeper was missing. He summoned the housekeeper and she admitted that she had cleaned the closet. She said that since the sweeper had not been used in some years, she thought it wise to remove it, so she gave it to the Salvation Army. The money was never recovered.

In sad but loving remembrance of my wife, Kate A. McDowell, who died 3 years ago today, 26 July 1924.

'Tis lonesome here without you and sad and weary day,
For life is not the same to us since you were called away.

We never shall forget the day when you left us alone,
It seems that when you went away the sunshine left our home.

We did not know the pain she had, we did not see her die,
We only knew she passed away and never said good-bye.

If we had only seen you to the last and held your dying hand, and heard the last sigh from your heart we would not feel so sad.

Warren was born in Hannigan House while his grandfather operated the hotel and tavern. He was fond of telling the stories of sitting at the bar when a boy and listening to the travelling salesmen tell of their adventures. On one such occasion, in 1898, when he was ten, a salesman carved a crucifixion scene in a small bottle. Warren later gave the bottle to his niece, Ruth Hannigan.

Warren and his brother Melvin were outstanding sand lot baseball players in the Cross Roads community, and both continued to enjoy the sport throughout their lives.

His marrige to Sally was a festive occasion. The bride wore a white princess costume. Following the ceremony, the bride's patrents gave a reception. Later that night the newly married couple were given a callithumpian serenade.

After his marriage to Sally Lehman, they bought a log house next to Hannigan House in Cross Roads. It had been one of the original dwelling places in Cross Roads. Previous owners of this historic house were Dr. Thomas M. Curran and his wife Alice who sold it 21 March 1883 to Henry Eckert and his wife Eliza. After Henry's death she sold it to Sarah Meads 30 March 1895. Sarah sold it to Warren Hannigan 22 March 1911. Today the house is owned by Howard L. Swartz and Elizabeth Fishel Swartz. Elizabeth is the granddaughter of David F. Hannigan.

Warren worked for the Department of Highways until retirement. He served for 30 years on the Cross Roads Borough Council, and as President of that body. He was a member of the Cross Roads Methodist Church. He was an avid fisherman, especialy for brook trout, and also enjoyed hunting. He was an excellent gardener and delighted in trying to produce larger vegetables than his brother Melvin who lived next door in Hannigan House. The only automobile he ever owned was a Model T Ford. When Edward Martin became Governor of Pennsylvania he asked that all of his drivers be Masons. He said he intended to travel throughout the State and wanted his driver to be able to sit in lodge with him. Charles Lutton was one of the men chosen for the staff of the Governor. Later Charles entered the finger print division of the State Police, and when he retired he held the rank of lieutenant. Charles Lutton was an active Mason and a member of the Scottish Rite and the York Rite, and a member of the Shrine. He was a member of the Borough Council of Cross Roads and for sixteen years a member of the School Board, serving as its president. Hilda was born in her parents home in Cross Roads. She attended Cross Roads grade school and then went to live with her Aunt Florence Hannigan Stabley in Dallastown so she could attend high school in that town. After graduation from Dallastown High School she attended Thompson's Business College in York. After graduation from this school she was employed in the Office of the Clerk of Courts in York. The Clerk at that time was Walter Trout, her neighbor in Cross Roads. After marrying Charles Lutton, a State Police Officer, they moved to Harrisburg. Cross Roads Methodist Church. She taught Sunday School and was Youth Director. When she died, a plaque was placed on the fireplace in the new Social Hall of the Church in her honor. Her entire life was devoted to helping other people. She was always helping people with personal problems and running errands to help people who were shut in. Her loving personality blessed everyone with whom she came in contact. Her daughter Ruth continued to receive letters 40 years after her death telling how much Effie had contributed to their lives. Her untimely death from cancer at the age of 50 was a shock to the community which loved her so much. On the day of her funeral the mourners met outside Hannigan House and marched in a procession through Cross Roads to the Methodist Church where services were conducted by the pastor Rev. Robert V. Laidig, assisted by the Rev. D. Frederick Wertz, a former pastor, who later became the Bishop of Washington.

He was educated in the Cross Roads School, and Red Lion Academy. He taught school in various locations, Fairview, between York and Harrisburg, Stewartstown, Cross Roads, and Felton. He entered the U. S. Navy in World War I and was stationed at the St. Helena Naval Training Station, Berkley, VA. He served for several months loading mine anchors on freighters which were to be used to mine the North Sea. He then entered the Naval Post Office, and finally went to Pellam Bay as Chief Store Keeper. He had attained the rank of Chief Petty Officer.

After the war he obtained a position as Teller at the Peoples National Bank in Stewartstown. He worked for the bank his entire life, holding the positions of Cashier, Vice President and President. Upon retirement he continued on the Board of Directors. He was also a Director of two fire insurance companies, one located in Stewartstown and one in Hanover. He belonged to the Masons and Elks in Red Lion, and was active in many Masonic bodies: The Tall Cedars of Lebanon, the Harrisburg Consistory, the Knights Templar of York, Zembo Temple Shrine in Harrisburg, and the York County Shrine Club. He was a Past President of the Lions Club of Stewartstown and had a record 45 years of perfect attendance. He was an active member of the Cross Roads Methodist Church and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. He was a member of the York County Republican Committee, which presented the family a plaque in his honor when he died. Melvin was always interested in the Hannigan Family, and when the family reunions were resumed in 1936 he served as the first President. Melvin was interested in fishing and was an excellent brook trout fisherman. He never missed the first day of fishing or of hunting in York County. He never returned from hunting rabbits or squirrel without a good supply of game for dinner. Effie would always prepare the game and fish for dinner and a delicious treat it was. After he retired Melvin decided to go deer hunting for the first time. He went to the country store in Cross Roads to buy a "pumpkin ball" shell. The clerk said, "Mr. Hannigan, I can not sell you a single shell, you will have to buy an entire box." Melvin did so, but remarked that he would only need one shell. He loaded his favorite shotgun and only needed one shell to bring down the deer in Rambo Hollow near Cross Roads. He gave his son-in-law, George A. Burns, a pair of gloves made from the hide of the deer. Melvin had been Justice of the Peace for Cross Roads Borough for most of his life, and of course, resided in Hannigan House. Hannigan House had been sold to Dr. Curran after the death of Oliver Hannigan and, when Melvin married Effie Lutz, he purchased the old hotel and made it his residence. Fourth Generation

40. Ruth[4] Hannigan (Melvin Forest[3], John Peter[2], Oliver[1]) was born in Hannigan House, Cross Roads, PA 26 Mar 1924.

She married George Andrew Burns Sr 15 Jul 1944 in Cross Roads, PA.. George was born 13 Apr 1921 in Bellevue, Pittsburgh, PA. He is the son of Harvey Elwood Burns and Fannie Leah Brown.

George Andrew Burns was born in a large yellow brick house on Grant Avenue in Bellevue, a suburb on the north side of Pittsburgh, PA. He was born at home with the family doctor in attendance and also a private nurse. His father, Harvey Elwood Burns, was Purchasing Agent for the West Penn Power Company which had its headquarters in Pittsburgh. His mother, the former Fannie Leah Brown was an accomplished pianist. The family into which George was born also included his sister Lillian Marguerite who was ten years old when he was born. When George was two, the family moved into a new home which his father built in Dormont, a new suburb in the South Hills section of Pittsburgh. This new area was made available for housing because of the opening of a tunnel, called the Liberty Tubes, through Mt. Washington.

George attended Kelton School and Dormont High School where he was graduated in 1939. His interests included Church activities, Sunday School and Church Services at the Methodist Church, and also youth meetings at local Churches. He was active in the Boy Scouts where he played the bugle and drum in the Drum and Bugle Corp. He attended the first World Jamboree at Washington, D.C. in 1937, and was bugler for the Boy Scout Service Troop at the New York World's Fair in 1939. He was an Eagle Scout and held every rank to that of Scoutmaster. After high school, George entered Penn State University where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, and a member of the Varsity Debating Team. He was active in Church work while at Penn State and was preparing to enter the ministry. He was graduated in 1942 with a BA degree in Arts and Letters. George then entered the Theology School of Drew University from which he received a Master of Divinity Degree in 1945. Later he would receive a Master of Arts Degree from West Virginia University majoring in Education and Economics. He was a member of Phi Delta Kappa honorary fraternity.

At Penn State George met Ruth Hannigan, his future bride, at Church. They were married in the Methodist Church in Cross Roads, PA in 1944 and Ruth joined him for his last year at Drew University. That year George also served as a student pastor of a Methodist Church near Hudson, NY. George was ordained in the Methodist Church in 1945, but had decided to change to the Episcopal Church while in Theological School. He served the Schenley Heights Methodist Church in Pittsburgh, PA while making arrangements to change denominations. He became the rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Episcopal, in 1947. The following year he was ordained a priest by the Bishop of Pittsburgh. Other pastorates included Holy Trinity Church, Logan, WV; Trinity Church, Anderson, IN; St. Luke's Church, Shawnee, KS; and Christ Church, Wellsburg, WV. While in Pittsburgh he served three years as Chaplain of the Allegheny County Juvenile Court, and in Indiana served seven years as Chaplain at the Indiana State Prison at Pendleton. His Church offices included Dean of his Deanery, Chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations, Dean of the West Virginia School of Religion, and Examiner in Church History and Ecclesiastical Polity on the Board of Examining Chaplains. While in West Virginia George also taught Math and Economics at Brooke High School and served as Chairman of the Social Studies Department.

He retired from teaching and the active ministry in 1980 and he and Ruth spent two years travelling through the United States and Canada. In 1982 they moved into Hannigan House, Ruth's ancestral home which had been left to her by her father, Melvin F. Hannigan. They continue to reside there in the summer months. In 1985 they purchased a home near the beach and golf course at Fernandina Beach, Florida which is their residence from Labor Day until after Easter.

George has had several articles published in the Philalethes Magazine, and assisted Dr. Robert Hall in the background for his book "Teaching Moral Values in the Public School". Recently he has prepared for publication the "History of the Burns Family" and the "History of the Hannigan Family".

George was raised a Mason in 1943 and has been active in Masonic bodies throughout his life. He is a 32nd degree Mason in the Scottish Rite and a Knight Templar in the York Rite. He has served as Prelate for the Commandery and in 1991 was serving as assistant Chaplain for Morocco Temple Shrine in Jacksonville, Florida. He is an Honorary Life Member of Murat Temple in Indianapolis and an Honary Life Member of the Anderson Shrine Club. He is a member of the St, Andrew's Society in Jacksonville, Florida, and in 1991 served as President of the Jacksonville Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution. In 1992 he was elected State Chaplain of the Florida Society Sons of the American Revolution.

In 1988 and 1989 he came out of retirement to serve as Interim Rector of St. Peter's Parish in Fernandina Beach, Florida.

Ruth was born in Hannigan House, Cross Roads, PA as members of her family had been for generations. It was a cold night with heavy snow and Dr. Evans Free had ridden his horse from Stewartstown. He spent the night at Hannigan House and Ruth was born in the early morning, the only child of Melvin Hannigan and Effie Lutz. Ruth began her education in the one room Cross Roads School where her father had been a teacher. The school had no electricity and was quite dark on cloudy days. There was no running water and each day a boy in the class would be sent by the teacher next door to the house of Ruth's grandmother, Minnie Lutz, for a bucket of water from her pump. The rest room facilities were in a house behind the school. In the winter, heat was provided by a Franklin stove which burned wood. The school library consisted of one small bookcase containing a few dozen books. Ruth started school at the age of five because Melvin and Effie wanted her to be taught by Miss Jennie Cross. She had been in the 1914 graduation class of Cross Roads High School with Effie, and it was believed that she would not be teaching at Cross Roads after a few years. As it turned out, Miss Cross taught there for many years until the school was closed about 1960. Ruth was an excellent student and later skipped a grade and entered Red Lion High School at the age of 12. Melvin sent Ruth to Red Lion High School on a special bus because he thought it to be a better school than the one in Stewartstown. In high school Ruth was active in all girls sports and earned a boys varsity letter for her outstanding athletic participation. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Glee Club, Concert Sextet, and in the Class Plays. She entered Penn State University at the age of 16 and was graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics just four months after her 19th birthday. At Penn State she was a member of Phi Mu Sorority, the Ellen H. Richards honorary fraternity, and the University Choir. She was active in the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church where she met George.

After graduation from Penn State, Ruth taught at Biglerville High School in Pennsylvania. In 1944 she married George and they lived at Drew University for his final year in Theological School. Ruth took several courses at Drew and also taught school at Madison Academy. Later she would take courses at the University of Pittsburgh and receive a Masters Degree in Education and Botany at West Virginia University. Ruth studied music for eight years and is an excellent pianist. For her Masters work in Botany she did research in wild flowers of West Virginia and has over 3000 slides on the subject.

Ruth is the mother of three children, Jo Ann, born in Pittsburgh, and George Andrew Jr, and Peter Forest both born in Logan, West Virginia.

Ruth inherited Hannigan House after the death of her father and resides there in the summer months. In the winter she and George reside at their home in Fernandina Beach, Florida. Ruth enjoys golf and swimming in the ocean. She is active in the Daughters of the King, the Episcopal Women, and the Choir at St. Peter's Parish in Fernandina Beach, and also the adult Bible Class. She founded Ruth Chapter of the Daughters of the King at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Pittsburgh.

When the children reached Junior High age, Ruth again entered the teaching profession and taught Biology and Earth Science until both she and George retired in 1980.

Ruth assists each year with the Burns Reunion in Bedford and played a leading role in re-starting the Hannigan Reunions held each year in Cross Roads. In 1990 and 1991 she served as President of the Hannigan Reunion Association.

In 1991 Ruth received the Martha Washington medal from the Sons of the American Revolution, and in 1992 she became a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Fort San Nicholas Chapter, Jacksonville, FL. In 1993 Ruth became an Organizing Member and first Treasurer of the Amelia Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Amelia Island, Florida.

The nation was in the Vietnam War and he decided to end his education at the University after two years to enter military service. He enlisted in the U. S. Army Reserves and served for six months at an Army base in Missouri. He then went to Washington, DC. and was accepted in the Metropolitan Police Department. He attended the Police Academy and started his career as a police officer. He operated a Patrol Car in District Six of Washington for several years and then was transferred to an undercover division. For this work he wore old clothes and travelled in his old Falcon car not to attract attention. He then worked for several years in the maintenance department of District Six, repairing Patrol Cars, and installing equipment in the cars. His main hobby was motorcycles and he had about six, many of vintage make. He especially enjoyed working on these cycles and they were restored to their original beauty. It was while taking a ride on one of his prize cycles that he met his death when his cycle was struck by a van. His burial office was conducted in St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Annapolis, MD., and burial with a full police honor guard was held at the Cross Roads, PA

Cemetery. Andy continued his career also with the U.S.Army Reserve, re-enlisting and having served eight years at the time of his death.

In high school he had been a member of the track team, concert choir and was trombonist in a local dance band. He had been a member of the De Molay, Boy Scouts and served as an Acolyte in the Episcopal Church. He had a genuine love for people and his work in the Police Department was an expression of that love. Andy had earned sharpshooter medals in the army and was given a trophy upon graduation from the Police Academy as the outstanding marksman in his class. He received numerous citations for service and bravery from the Metropolitan Police Department.

Sharon enjoys helping with both the Hannigan and Burns family reunions and currently serves on a number of committees. She also excells in food preparation and her buffet luncheons are a delight to the entire family.

Peter was born in Logan General Hospital while his father was rector of Holy Trinity Church in Logan, WV. He was Baptized in that Church by his father, his Godparents being Peg Gould, Godfrey M. Treschow, Norman Hagan and Paul Bottome. He attended schools in Anderson, IN; Shawnee, KS; and Wellsburg WV. Peter was a Cub Scout and Boy Scout and an Acolyte in the Episcopal Church. He attended Lindsley Military Academy in Wheeling, WV his first year in High School and in 1971 was graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, WV. He played the drum in the band. After high school he went to Vale Technical Institute in Blairsville, PA and was graduated with a degree in Automotive Techniques and Management. He worked as a mechanic in several locations in West Virginia and with the City Water Department. He then went to Arnold MD to look for business opportunities. He was employed for a number of years at the Sparrows Point plant of Bethlehem Steel Corporation at Baltimore, MD. He then accepted employment at the maintenance department of Anne Arundel County, MD where he is currently employed.

Peter met Sharon Anthony and after a courtship of several years they were married in Holy Cross Church, Street, MD by Peter's father, and by fr. Carroll Eads the rector of the parish. They purchased a home on Kent Island in the Chesapeake Bay across from Annapolis, MD. Peter is especially interested in old radios and has a collection of thousands of old tubes and testing equipment. He restores old radios to their original beauty and working condition. Peter and Sharon also have another hobby, that of caring for Hannigan House, the ancestral home of Peter's mother in Cross Roads, PA. They travel almost two hours every other week throughout the year to cut grass, rake leaves and shovel snow, and to do what is necessary to maintain the house. Such care can only be described as a work of love.

She married Robert Arthur Welker 20 Mar 1971 in Wheeling, WV., Lawrencefield, Chapel. Robert was born 16 Jan 1949 in Cleveland, OH. He is the son of Arthur Edward Welker and Eleanor Higgs. Jo ann was born about 5:00 P.M. on Sunday, 11 April 1948. Ruth had gone to Church and had entertained the Choirmaster, James Wallace James, for dinner. Father had conducted the two Services at the Church of the Good Shepherd, where he was Rector, and the Service at the Detention Center of the Allegheny Juvenile Court, where he was Chaplain. Ruth was rushed to the Episcopal Hospital, St. Margaret's, late Sunday afternoon and taken immediately to the delivery room. Her physician, Dr. Taffel, was away for the weekend. The nurses called on the intercom for a doctor to come to the delivery room. A doctor, who was just visiting at St. Margaret's, and who had one arm in a sling, responded to the call. In spite of this confusion, all went well and soon a bright eyed girl joined the Burns and Hannigan families.

Jo Ann, or Jan as she is often called, was educated in the schools of Anderson, Indiana; Shawnee, Kansas; and Wellsburg, West Virginia. At Wellsburg High School in West Virginia, she was a member of the marching Band, Editor of the School Paper, President of the Latin Club, and active in youth work at the Episcopal Church. Following graduation from High School she entered West Virginia University to study drama. After two years she transferred to Ohio Northern University where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Drama. At the University she was on the Dean's List of honor students and a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. While at Ohio Northern she continued her interest in horses. She had her own horse while in high school and also while at the university where she rode daily. She met Bob Welker at Ohio Northern and in order to be with Jan, he sold his van and bought a horse so they could ride together. They were married a few months before graduation at the Lawrencefield Chapel Episcopal Church in Wheeling, West Virginia by the Rt. Rev. Wilburn C. Campbell, Bishop of West Virginia.

They made their home in Mt. Blanchard, Ohio where they built a home on a 40 acre estate. Jan is employed by the Findlay City Schools as work study coordinator. They continue to enjoy their horses and also train and show dogs.

In the 1980s their two daughters arrived to complete the Welker family. They are active in the Episcopal Church in Findlay where Jan has served on the Vestry and as a Sunday School teacher.
