Premier Stephen McNeil
Office of the Premier
1700 Granville Street
Halifax, NS
B3J 1X5

Dear Premier McNeil:

Today you and Dr Strang made an announcement that travel into Nova Scotia from New Brunswick is limited for essential reasons and everyone from New Brunswick must self-isolate if they enter for non-essential reasons.

As you aware our border community of Amherst and Cumberland County share a strong relationship with New Brunswick for many reasons including, but not limited to, health care, education, business, family and shared custody.

New Brunswick government has a phone line and an email address that people with travel questions can use to get accurate answers. Here is a link to their website which has been most helpful.

Nova Scotia has an excellent website for NS Coronavirus but there is no place for people to email or call that have questions, specifically related to Border restrictions?

Can your government provide an email and phone contact for persons with unique questions pertaining to NS border?

Thank you for this consideration.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Smith-McCrossin
