Marks of a great marble.

Cat Eyes: 1, 3, 4, 5 or 6 vanes that look like fan blades.

Patches: Solid base with a dab of color on one side.

Baseballs: Two ribbons running side-by-side.

Cut-line Marbles: The ribbons stop at the seams.

Corkscrews: The ribbon spirals from end to end.

Cleary's: The base glass is transparent / see-thru.

Brushed Marbles: Under the colored glass on the surface, the base glass is clear.

Swirls: Lots of ribbons swirling on and sometimes in the marble.

Hand-made Clay Marbles: The surface is rough, compared to smooth glass marbles.
