

One of Anna Maria Island's favorite artists

Robert Johnson

Since 2004 he has been capturing the beauty of the area on canvas. He has lived in all three cities on the island and painted various scenes that locals and visitors alike love. His detailed style whether realistic or whimsical is full of vibrant color and light. Robert is a nature and wildlife lover and spends time studying it while kayaking or riding his bike around town!

ROBERT
THE ARTIST.com