

Protect Your Legal Rights in Times of Uncertainty

With the global spread of the novel coronavirus, we all must remain vigilant and attentive. LegalShield recognizes that during times of uncertainty, the need for sound legal help is more important than ever. With an average of over 22 years of experience, our knowledgeable law firms stand ready to serve your legal needs and help you navigate potential legal concerns caused by COVID-19.

Legal/Healthcare Documents

- Do you have your estate planning documents (Wills, Trusts, Power of Attorney) complete and up-to-date?
- Should you give someone power of attorney if you become ill?
- What legal documents are needed if you are admitted to the hospital?

Travel and Other Consumer Protection Matters

- Are you obligated to still pay your monthly gym membership and other non-accessible monthly membership-based services?
- Do you have the right to be refunded for travel expenses such as hotel deposits or airline fees if you choose to cancel a trip?
- Can you demand a refund if your travel plans were canceled due to a travel ban or other government action?

Dependent Concerns

- Can college or private school students get a refund for the remainder of the semester if forced to stay home?
- What happens if your college student had to break their lease agreement when they returned home early?
- Can you receive reimbursement for dependent's extracurricular activities and camps?

Know your rights with LegalShield.

With over 48 years in business, LegalShield is dedicated to creating a world where everyone can access and afford legal protection. For a low monthly rate, LegalShield gives you the ability to talk to a lawyer on any personal legal matter.

And as the COVID-19 crisis continues, our provider law firms remain open and ready to support you with answers to your questions and help with any personal legal matter you may encounter.

If you are not currently receiving this benefit, you can enroll during your company's next open enrollment period.
