The Caregiver Pathway

The Medicare Binder Every Caregiver Should Have

Being organized can save time, reduce stress, and help you make informed decisions when it matters most. A simple Medicare binder can make caregiving easier and keep important information in one place.

WHAT TO INCLUDE

Insurance cards (Medicare, Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage, and Part D)

Current medication list

Doctors and specialists

Pharmacy information

Recent lab results and medical history

Advance directives and legal documents

Important contacts and passwords

HELPFUL TIPS

Keep the binder in an easy-to-find place

Update it after appointments or medication changes

Let trusted family members know where it is

When everything is in one place, organizing becomes a little less overwhelming.”
