"We are blessed now and forever!"

dear bro Truman,

By grace of God, so blessed; Received your 7-1-20, letter on 7 July 2020, Tuesday and have enjoyed reading it 3 or 4 times since.

You are certainly welcome for whatever I can share! ☺

For now am waiting on word. Meantime as they dole out lethal shots to some death row people, we are locked in our 7'x10' concrete and steel multipurpose bunkers, 24 hours every day. No phone, no e-mail. Only God knows why. It is neither the Sheridans nor the Radissons. Thank God I'm blessed with my Bible and writing materials, my watch and radio, so it is better than being in the hole. (Now 4th month in our P.O.W. rooms). ☹

The Lord sure to take care of giving all 25 years and more back.

Consider Job ch. 42. ☺

Wow! Kasloff sounds as though the Russians may have named the beach before it was called Look Inlet. The Lord made certain you have Salmon, even though "they" thought to close the beach early. Clearly the Salmon are in demand. Your grandson is becoming a Salmon tradesman, as he has a good teacher.

You have wild neighbors who like garden produce, as well, it seems. Let's pray they leave plenty for you. In some sense the weeds tend to hide your plants from the pests and the trespassers. I pray the bugs do not succeed in bugging you and yours. ☺

I can relate to your honey bees and swarming. My grandfather Olanders cultured 20 to 30 hives and taught my father and then me. Before this, we always had "raw" honey. Raw honey is perfect food! The pasturizing ruins the real nutrition. The sick wholesalers/retailers should not be allowed to touch "real" food.

Where I grew up we had tall trees so when our bees swarmed we could not reach them. In the alternative, we had to shoot the swarm with no. 8 shot and hope to kill the queen. It always worked. When the swarm dropped we were ready with an open hive, caught them and let them start the new hive. Pc. of cake! ~~is~~ I don't remember a hive that did not thrive.

Wow! your adventure scrimping and witnessing the others sounds like a great time. OK, I'm from the lower 48. What is a "scrimp"? Ha! He! ~~and~~

Here we must do our best to stay as comfortable as possible while temperatures have reached into the 90s some days. We are thankful our prayers for cool temperatures are largely answered.

The COVID is really raising cane with "the system". I pray to be home before it gets a grip on this place. My faith is in Christ alone, as man and their non-sense are never on-point. I've been cut off re word for nearly 2 weeks, but The Lord is surely moving the mountain into the sea. Halleluiah!

The Lord bless you and keep you and yours!

Prayerfully yours,
Rex-Russell-Dean

Standing tall,
in Christ.
