dear brother Will,

By the grace of God we are in His care. All hope is in Him. Glory Hallelu Yah!

I've read your 7-30 letter several times. I pray your grandmother's arm is mending and you are all blessed as the Lord ~~cares for us.~~ your helping each other through this is an opportunity for serving the Lord. Let patience have its perfect work, James 1:3.

My heart warmly relates to your Guinea hens. Dana and I had around 30 of them at our home at 315 Coats Road near Four Oaks, North Carolina. Better than a watch dog. They would warn us of trespassers faster than our nearby neighbor's Doberman Pinscher dogs. ^{is} your idea for the hen's help controlling Hopety bugs sounds right to me. I'm not sure about the fence keeping them in. Birds would roost high in our Pecan trees. The Guinea hens should be able to evade the cat. They are not as vulnerable as young birds once they are grown. The Guinea's are wonderful, alot like pheasants on your table. Of course you can control your appetite, right? ^{is} Are all making it?

Our Creator created His sun for providing us so many of our needs. It is so wonderful! ~~the~~ ^{as} the last two evenings she showed us "The Ten Commandments" with Charlton Heston as Moses. I first saw that 60 years ago. We never saw movies in those days, but my parents took me and my two younger sisters to the drive-in. I was about 7. Today I been re-viewing in "Exodus". How time flies - Then my mother was 32 and my father 39... Wow!

God is so good! He's impressed our daughter Amy for canceling all TV in her home. I've been praying for this for a long time. We should not let their smut into ours' and our childrens' hearts minds and souls. Smut has been SO destructive PLUS that provides time for scripture study and ~~for~~ prayer. Thank, an answer for my prayers.

Will, have you received my e-mail answers for your e-mails? I tend to answer shortly, as yours come in. You are constantly in my heart and prayers as Yod He Voh He is great and He will never forsake us!

The Lord's judgment is on these united States.

Not-so-fruited plains

The United States once fed the world, but now it is falling behind Russia and even Brazil in agricultural output. Typically, agriculture has been one industry where America exports more than it imports, helping reduce its trade deficit. However, this year's crop numbers show that "America's agricultural dominance has eroded," the Wall Street Journal reported on April 20.

This year, Brazil is expected to harvest a record soybean crop, producing 43 percent of world soybean exports. Thus, Brazil "can sway global prices with a weather hiccup or transportation snarl," the Journal continued. Brazil is also the second-largest corn producer. Last year, Russia outperformed America's amber waves of grain, exporting more wheat than the U.S.

American farming peaked at a record $123 billion in 2013 but has since faced a three-year decline, the first such decline since the 1970s. American farming also depends heavily on federal government subsidies. From 2015 to 2027, the U.S. Department of Agriculture is expected to spend nearly $87 billion protecting and propping up U.S. agriculture. This year, the department predicts net farm income will fall to $62 billion, half of what it was in 2013.

President Donald Trump's pledges to restore American industry to greatness seem to exclude the farming sector. He withdrew the U.S. from the Trans-Pacific Partnership, which was heavily supported by the agricultural community. He has also threatened the North American Free Trade Agreement, another trade deal that boosts U.S. agricultural sales.

He is not mocked. We know what we are called to do 2d Chronicles 7:14-16. Surely we MUST obey our Heavenly Father. ~~✕~~ ← Falling behind is the result of our turning our backs on The Word (Jn 1:1, 14).

In 1900 50% of The People on America lived on productive land. Today it's down to 1%. It's reduced most by corporate or gov't acres. Like the Soviet's corporate farming. This, horrible practices and failures on the increase

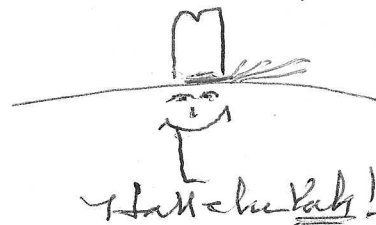

I am joyful as you share such as your potatoe harvest. My daughter and her family are enjoying plum, raspberry, blackberry; tomato and such harvests. These are all witness of our Lord's blessings. I pray for these good harvests with thanksgiving. Further, prayerfully consider 2d Chronicles 7:14-16.

I pray the golden crops you add with good irrigation are a blessing as well.

Joining you, dear brother, in rejoicing in the word, surely goodness and mercy shall follow us all the days of our lives. Make a joyful noise unto The Lord!

with love; courage; and,
thanksgiving,
In His service,
Rex-Russell-Dean
