Dear brother Will,

I am so blessed to receive your letter mid-day today (9/4/17). You are in my heart and prayers! I pray that your grandmother's healing is going well. The Lord is ever present and we are surely blessed.

Just a short time ago, before I received your question re "Yad He Voh He" (YHVH) I had sent off an e-mail. As I finish this letter, I will send an e-mail in hopes that you will be informed and knowing that this letter is on the way.

Here, I must admit, I am limited as I answer your question re "YHVH" but I do share in particular the reference as set forth in "The STRONGEST STRONG'S EXHAUSTIVE CONCORDANCE OF THE BIBLE" "NAVE'S TOPICAL BIBLE REFERENCE SYSTEM" listing:

YAHWEH (He who is [I am] or who causes to be). The Hebrew personal name for God. Yahweh, is translated in the KJV and NIV as LORD, and sometimes also in the KJV as GOD. God revealed his name as "I AM WHO I AM," his eternal covenant name implying self-existence and saving presence. Ex 3: 14, 17.

YHWH is often called the "tetragramation," referring to the "four letters" or consonants of Yahweh.

See God, Names of Yahweh; Jehovah.

God, Names of: In the ancient world a name was not merely a label but the meaning of the name was virtually equivalent to whoever or whatever bore it (Isa 25:25). Giving a name to anyone or anything was tantamount to owning or controlling it (Ge 1:5, 8, 10; 2:19-20; 2 Sa 12:28). Changing a name could signify a promotion to a higher status (Ge 17:5; 32:28) or a demotion (2 Ki 23:34-35; 24:17), and blotting out or cutting off the name of a person or thing meant that that person or thing was destroyed (2 Ki 14:27; Isa 14:22; Zep 1:4; Cf. Ps 83:4).

The name Jesus is the Greek for for the Hebrew Joshua or "salvation of Yahweh." As Yahweh's Savior his name accurately describes his work and purpose (Mt 1:21).

In Indo-Germanic languages the "w" is largely pronounced as the "v" is pronounced in English. Thus, we often see it spelled as Yahveh and the consonants "YHVH". In the ancient Hebrew it is transcribed for us in our lettering as, "Yad He Voh He". (cont.)

I of course am not familiar with the ministry of the brother whom you are exposed to in these regards. This recognition of "Yad He Voh He" or "Yad He Vah He" or "Yad He Wah He" or "Yad He Woh He" has a long and ancient history and in the Hebrew tradition was commonly represented without writing or even speaking His name. In modern terms that is reflected in the fact that our English Bible we see LORD or GOD in the Old Testament; and, Lord of God in the New Testament.

It is my understanding that it is most acceptable to pronounce as: [Y ă d H ě V ǒ h H ě] and similar [Y ă d H ě V ă h H ě] and [Y H V H] and [Y H W H] pronounced as the full spelling. Clearly LORD and GOD are not His name; They are titles used to avert having to write His so Holy name.

In my 1611 King James version of the Bible, there are no "j's" as there were none in print at that time; Thus, "Jesus" is spelled "iesus". None the less we are honoring our Lord in either case as was the intent and purpose as the writers expressed the WORD in Greek. It is true that today there are so many efforts to "CHANGE" the WORD by eliminating words, changing meanings and an array of ill meaning efforts. We must be discerning, 2 Timothy 2:15, 16 and avoid that which is a LIE and may mislead ourselves or others. I pray this sharing leads to righteousness, a Crown of Righteousness for us all.

Now for futher insights by reference I share "STRONG'S" historic definition of "JAHOVAH" as it has emerged in the 14th century from ancient Hebrew oral and written foundational sources:

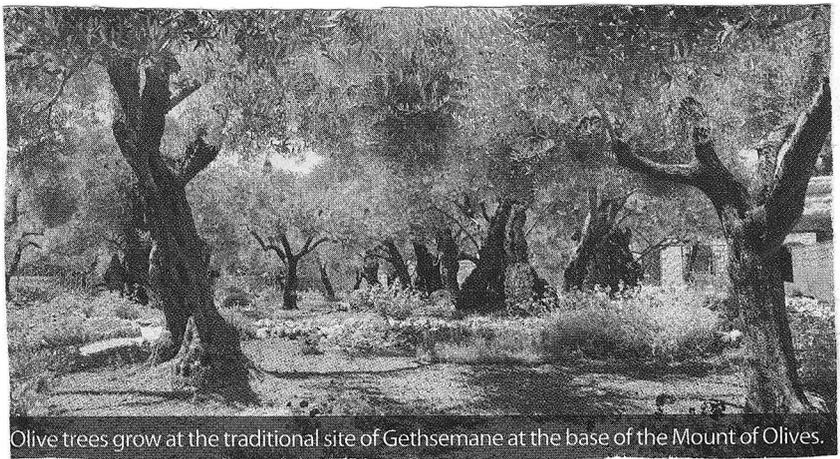

JEHOVAH. A misreading of the name of God, Yahweh[Yahveh]. was originally written using only consonants. The pronunciation (and vowels)of Hebrew Bible was handed down orally. When the vowels were eventually added to the Hebrew text, the name Yahweh was no longer pronounced. Instead, out of reverence, the title Adonay[Lord]was substituted. In keeping with this oral tradition, the Jewish scribes inserted into [YHWH] Yahweh the vowels for Adonay, resulting in the spelling Yahoweh, tho the name was still pronounced Adonay in oral reading. In c. 1520 the Christian scholar Petrus Galatinus introduced the hybred spelling Jehovah, which became widely used in English versions, literature and hymns. In the NIV, [and KJV] Yahweh is represented, by LORD. [See God, Names of Yahweh]

Yahweh[Yahveh] is clearly recognized throughtout time memorial as the "name" of GOD. And has resulted in many present day representations that are not original.

In addition in "NAVE'S" we see the listing for JESUS THE CHRIST [listed as] (Yahweh saves, Anointed One).

AND

JESHUA [listed as] (Yawehe saves).

Throughout the historical oral tradition and the written account of the Hebrew relationship with our LORD the "I AM" is known to be Y[ad] H[e] V[oh] H[e] who the scriptures repeatedly is to be called upon! For example when it says "call upon the name of the LORD" it is infact saying call upon Y[ad] H[e] V[oh] H[e] as has been substituted by "LORD".

Some of these historical references revealed; I, now over 25 years ago had to resolve, "Who or What would want me to DENY his name?" I know of no scriptural references that attribute YHWH/YHVH to the powers of darkness nor any other references. Let us be mindful of this long and detailed reference to His Name, as we consider the "interpretations" shared by, tho well meaning brothers and sisters who may advocate otherwise.

I pray that we are constantly in the wisdom and pure understanding of the WORD (Jn 1:1, 14) and truly are blessed with the Crown of Righteousness. It is in "The Light" filled with the Holy Spirit that we shall find the Way.

Let us always bask in the "Light" of our Lord Jesus, the Christ, as we journey toward that EVERLASTING Kingdom where He has invited us, and has built many mansions for His anointed.

You are each and all in my earnest prayers, affirmed in humility and in the presence of our Redeemer. Surely His goodness and mercy shall be there forever for you, and us all.

The LORD bless and keep,
He Lives!

Re: Russell Dean Landers

Most Honorable President Trump,

I have previously written you on Sunday, January 22, 2017 regarding both Richard Everett VanHazel and Russell Dean Landers with regards to their unlawful imprisonment. I sent copies of my letter written to you in their behalf to both of these outstanding gentlemen. (copy attached for reference)

On Friday, February 10, 2017 I received two letters from Russell Dean Landers with regards to the letter sent to you. I am attaching a copy of the first letter that was written to me before he had received a copy of said letter. And a second letter written right after he received my letter. (copy of first letter attached)

1. Russell is a very extraordinary man by any standard that you apply to him. He has suffered greatly at the hands of the enemies of America as you will see when reading his letter. Seventeen years of not being able to see his wife, one of his sons murdered to get at him for his beliefs, and his wife along with four others involved in preparing legal work for his release all mysteriously disappearing in July 2014 and not heard from again. How can this be happening in our land America??? You will see in the letter written by Russell that he and his wife Dana held seminars lasting 2-1/2 days, the seminars were called "America First: Basics of Law." and a photograph on both he and his wife are at the left top of his letter written to me. He has another son who is the principal of a Middle school academy of 400 students in Iowa and he has a daughter who is the Director of a Women's Shelter, also in Iowa. She has three children ranging in ages from 6, 13, and 21. Russell has never seen or known any of these grandchildren. This daughter of Russell along with his first wife are solid Christians. They attended your very first rally in Iowa while campaigning for the office of President. They had their picture taken with you and got to shake your hand. They both voted for you in the election and support everything that you are doing.

I am urging you to do what is morally right and in accordance with the laws of YHVH and issue an immediate presidential pardon for Russell, a man who loves his country and his heavenly father YHVH. He is the very first man that I know of who coined the phrase "America First" way back in the early 1990's. A phrase that has become your great message for all of our people who thirst after truth and justice. What happened to his wife and four others who disappeared over 2-1/2 years ago? Who is going to investigate into this matter?

In closing I would call your attention to Matthew, Chapter 5, verses 6, 7, 10, 11 and 12, which Russell calls our guidebook for life.

- 6) Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
- 7) Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
- 10) Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
- 11) Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
- 12) Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

May YHVH bless and protect you in your work to make America Great Again.

Respectfully yours,

X The Lighthouse

By its very existence, a ministry center in Rwanda called the “Lighthouse” symbolizes redemption. It sits on land where during the genocide in 1994 the country’s president owned a grand home. This new structure, however, has been erected by Christians as a beacon of light and hope. Housed there is a Bible institute to raise up a new generation of Christian leaders, along with a hotel, restaurant, and other services for the community. Out of the ashes has come new life. Those who built the Lighthouse look to Jesus as their source of hope and redemption.

When Jesus went to the synagogue in Nazareth on the Sabbath, He read from the book of Isaiah and announced that He was the Anointed One to proclaim the Lord’s favor (SEE LUKE 4:14-21). He was the One who came to bind up the brokenhearted and offer redemption and forgiveness. In Jesus we see beauty coming from the ashes (ISA. 61:3).

We find the atrocities of the Rwandan genocide, when intertribal fighting cost more than a half-million lives, mind-boggling and harrowing, and we hardly know what to say about them. And yet we know that the Lord can redeem the atrocities—either here on earth or in heaven. He who bestows the oil of joy instead of mourning gives us hope even in the midst of the darkest of situations. ●

AMY BOUCHER PYE

Lord Jesus Christ, our hearts hurt when we hear about the pain and suffering that some endure. Have mercy, we pray.

Jesus came to bring us hope in the darkest of circumstances.
