Im 1Only!!

Do you know what loneliness is
That hollow feeling Deep in your heart
No matter how many people are around
You feel like you stand out apart •

And do you know how loneliness feels
Late into a very cold night
Pillows and sheets are soaked

From the tears that fall from your eyes •

And do you know how loneliness tastes
Just the word will make you cringe
Your stomach begins to thrash
Everytime that word leaves your lips •

Do you know what loneliness looks like
Standing there by your side
When there just isnt anybody left
Who will take your hand in this life •

Have you ever smelt loneliness
It really smells like nothing at all
Well, maybe a Dead flower
On A wilted Rose in the fall •

Have you ever touched loneliness

Im talking about really holding it close
It's something like fishing

With nothing at the end of your pole •

Have you ever embraced loneliness

Because theres nothing else around

Your heart craves only for that one person
That has left your heart there on the ground •

And what about Kissing loneliness

Because theres nothing other to Kiss

Wishing for nothing but your lover

That lover that deprives you those lips •

!! mhoI mI

what about this loneliness
That's now burning in my chest
nomatter how hard I Discribe it
I'm sure theres something sad I've missed.

This loneliness I feel
I pray, Please Just Go away
But I think this loneliness
May be here to stay.

This is the lonlyest poem
I think I ever had to write
I think at this very moment
This is the lonlyest I've ever been
The lonlyest is my entire Life.

Hello, Rudy.

Thank you tremendously for taking the time to sit and write me a letter, it means more to me than I possibly could explain, and I'll do everything possible to respond quickly so.

I'm doing OK, and "finally" learned that I should be transferred from this spot (soon) to another facility to which I'm greatly thankful for... really.

It seems I've been living behind this closed steel door now for years, but only since 9-11-17, but that's long enough to have this cell closing in on me, and Lord knows that's been the situation these last few days. IT'S GETTING 2-ME!

So, please pray for me as I know you will and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

But over-all, I'm doing well and continuing to work out now and grow straight in my leg and foot to where I can move around a lot more now and that's a very big worry off of my shoulders (Wooo-weee) I can't even tell you, but this left eye, my entire life I've really been nothing other than 3 things, "as bad as it's to admit" and to be honest ^{LOL} I've not even took the time to LOOK at this as I just have, "but a tow truck driver, a tattooist and a prisoner in Sheesh," now I can add to the list "a follower in Christ".

I just rec'd a letter from Germany, from (Betul Kizmaz) umm, Good english I may add, and I'm blessed to have a friend who I plan to write back soon as I'm able to get stamps from canteen here that (Brother William) from Hugoton, KS, blessed me with the means to do this, but our friend in Germany asked me a good question.. "By (what INJUSTICE) landed me in a US prison?"

Now, sure, it would be easy to come up with a story "A Good one that could make ears ring" →

From here to Germany and back ⁴⁰⁶ but the sad sad truth, I'm not here in prison for an "Injustice done to me", no brothers & sisters... I was Guilty of all my burglaries. Indeed... can I justify them?? I guess I could and blame it on not having family, or the ones I did have used me as a punch in the back that landed me in the hospital or on the streets of Ft. Lauderdale with no choice in my mind but to do (unimaginable stuff to eat) or a life of burglaries, which I chose to do.... I've been in prison now for going on 13 years. I have about less than 4 to do, but this time I have somebody on my side that I not ever had before, that's Christ our father.

Listen to this ya'll, not long ago, I had the world it seemed, $3 or $4 hundred dollars in cash, a gang of 185 convicts that ran under me, officers feared me and I moved drugs in 3 major prisons in Florida. I had a visitation every weekend and all the respect & love (Satan could trick me with).

I've done things, and had things done to me that I will keep between me & Jesus, because without his forgiveness I'd probably have to end my life ya'll, but he is the forgiving God!

With all I had, something was not right in my life. I lost the hate and str8-up?? what really? Got my Attorney was at visitation I looked up from eating with my fiancée to this 10-12 year old boy in a wheelchair, wheeled up to me and said "Sir Gator" "my daddy owes you a lotta $ and he's not gonna be able to pay you, but here's my Allowance Sir, please don't hurt him, please."

people. what do ya do? Shoot, I'm the head of one of the most ruthless Street Gangs down South here. I did what any man would. I wiped my eyes and told Shorty that "Shoot son, somebody cleared your daddy's Dept as the way up here" (Go buy you some Ice cream)...

Then, to top it off, I Got it with both Shotgun blasts. they put me in the cell with brother (Shawn Staller) I had no choice but to fold. I couldn't win...

No, that was my turning point, Satan was on me fire-full like, he tormented me every which way possible... He removed my future wife Angela first, and I backed up from the drugs. By that time I was begging God for help and I had no way but the right way...

Now? I'm penniless, stabbed up and I only was Robbed of everything possible. Radio, shoes, food and cloths. Only thing that was left was 3 things in my 4 boxes... toothbrush and tooth past and my bible.

I've not looked back. I've been stabbed twice now over Denouncing the evil Life I left behind. no more will I be feared that way, or hurt or Destroy Somebody's Life with drugs... never will I worship anything but Christ simple.

If it costs me my life, so be it in this life, but it will be known that Rick was a brother in Christ and he stood up to something in life that meant it all and that's the Glory of God...

Anytime I could be approached and questioned about my old partnership in this organization, again I may be tricked to believe it's all fine & well, but Attached!

But, now I walk with the ultimate Gang I could possibly name. no more is bigger or tougher than

You & Me!! that's the real deal!!!

Yes, I may be in this cell now without nothing at all, but you know what? God will provide people for all my love & help along the rest of my journey that he has placed for me.

I'm thankful to be able to sit here and write a letter to ya'll. I'm thrilled.

Rudy, you do amazing things. Can you possibly let everybody know that it's OK to send me 10 # envelopes stamped or not, and 10 # writing papers...? that would be a blessing Sir... really.

Look at the stamp I sent out this envelope LOL that came from Germany LOL I peeled it off and re-used it. I'm still bad. I guess He He

But I'll reach out any way possible. Brother Williams from KS, sent me a way to get everything as far as paper envelopes and stamps, but I feel I should use that on him first, but I'll not be able to order till next Friday. Sheesh... But I'll do so...!!! and then

I can really assist you all. What's the word sit everybody's looking at?

Keep me in your prayers and listen. (I love ya'll) that's real.

your brother in Christ

p.s. please tell

you:

Betul Kizmaz is

(Germany) that I thank them tremendously for the letter and 5 envelopes. Once I obtain postage I'll send a big letter OK...
