Dear Rudy,

11-6-17

Your letter postmarked 10/23 came in the mail the other day. Both documents in there were very well done. The Father's Love Letter is pretty creative and touching. And the "Truth About Real Christians 2017" is not only well-written but impressive in the writer's knowledge of the Bible. Good stuff.

As I mentioned earlier I began The Pilgrim's Progress. It is a very good story thus far (about $\frac{1}{3}$ of the way through it). Puts all the text of the Bible into a better context as you travel with him to the Celestial City. Wonder if it would be best to read it before jumping into the Bible.

Thank you for the additional copy of Geocentrism ~~101~~ 101. It is out and about now circulating. Also thank you for your prayers. It would be nice if Dimaya works out but either way I'm content. Guess that sounds crazy, but no point in stressing about it. Plus, who wants to miss BOP meatloaf?

Take care Rudy and send my best regards to your wife.

God bless,

Jason
