Dear Rudy & Erin,

Thank you for the card and your letters and thoughts. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate it. Letters while someone is locked up mean so much.

I was supposed to have been released on Dec 7th, but I was told due to budgetary issues my release date was changed until Jan 8, 2018. Then I got in trouble for having cigarettes (I'm a 40yr smoker) and I am currently in the hole for 90 days and they took away my visits until my sentence is over which is in June 2018. So I am not sure when I'll be released but I do know I won't have phone, commissary or visits anytime soon. I would love to meet you guys though! I will keep your phone number and when I'm released you will get a call from me for sure.

Thank you again for your letters and thoughts, it really means a lot to me. May God bless you all and may the peace only God can grant is upon you and your family.

Sincerely
KC
