Rudy,

It brought tears to my eyes to receive your letter.

Shaun, just transferred yesterday, 11th as you know we was roommate and everyday he listen to me, tell him all about me. I can't tell you how i've been praying for some mail, praying that my son who is 17, will be 18 Feb 3, 2018. mother would surprise me and write me back, instead of once a year and send me ~~some~~ <sup>a few</sup> dollar, or my mom would bless me. I've been in prison since 2000, and i dont have a close relationship with my family. i have 5 sisters who have never wrote me since i've been here in prison in Florida. and yes, im lonely and having more problems that a little bit. It made me kind of sad because Shaun, have told me a lot about you, and to receive a letter from you, so fast, and help my own family, that was something "wow"

But, let me ask you something serious Before you wrote me this letter, if you would have known that i was Black would you have wrote to me, and yes, i am a black man and im solid, i've been in prison as i said going on 18 years. here in Florida, i dont know anybody here. I have no family nor <sup>friends</sup> well i take that back, i wont to say that i found a friend when i met Shaun. Believe this or not, i already miss him.

let, him know that he will always be in my prayer. →

Rudy, I truly thank you for writing me
Oh yes, I love that book Beyond The Ray of Hope. :-)

I would love to read that book Black is Beautiful, you would not believe how many years we thought about U.F.O.s

How do you get your picture on one of those cards?

Again, Thank You

I pray that you and your family have a bless Christmas and the best New Year.

My God continue to bless you.

Sincerely,
Keith One

You just got added to my prayer list
