dearest Therese,

Brrrrr! I'm sure that you have seen Minnesota winter starting off the New Year. Please forgive my SLOW speed to get off this sharing with you. I missed about a week due to the FLU. It went around the entire unit. Most, like me, were confined to bed for 2 or 3 days. Not to worry, the LORD has come thru for me and I am chipper again. This is another reminder: eucharisteo (Greek)/thanksgiving!

I am so very, very thankful! Your generosity is almost overwhelming. I pray your blessings are truly multiplied and that the LORD shows His mercy on all. Thank You!

I received a Christmas card from Shelly Moore of Phillipsburg, Montana. Is she any relation? This causes some confusion, as when there is a generous sharing on on TRULINKS Des Moines, all that I'm shown is a last name. I am sure that you shared with me, but due to her sharing your last name I must ask. (SMILE !)

All of your special efforts for the care of those at your work is, I'm sure, much appreciated. I too am especially moved knowing that you are devoted to that service. You shared how you had served "overnite" for a co-worker and the quiet time that you enjoyed. None-the-less, it is all essential for the care and comfort of those who live there. Lol!

You mention the reaction of those who have come to know that this nightmare has been ongoing for 22 years. It is just like in NAZI Germany where the people did not know what was going on right under everyone's nose.

The recent development that has resulted in all of the people in the Bundy matter. The judge must have gotten cold feet as he noted the VIOLATIONS inclusive of violating due process and the intent for LOCKING up more innocent American people. This is an indication of TRUTH that should alarm everyone. There is NO such thing as federal laws that legitimately arrest, prosecute or imprison We the People. It is ALL violations of Law, not only due process, but every law that is FIRM and supposed to protect the lives, liberty and the property of "We-the-People". The TRAVESTY is beyond comprehension!!!

I pray that your Christmas (Weihnachten) and New Years went well for you, your sister and loved ones. Here it was quiet, and I was blessed with some telephone moments with our family.

I could immediately relate to the "black ice" on the freeway for your co-worker. Before all this, over the 20+ years that I traveled over 4 million miles in every effort for getting it right, there were plenty of run ins with those conditions. Thank God, when we are safe.

subject to the whims of a federal government that wouldn't or couldn't allow the Montana Freemen to live as freemen. He injured no one, he harmed no one, there was no corpus delecti or victim in his case. Yet he has already served 21 years in prison with another 23 years to go. Russell is 65 years old and if he should survive being held captive for another 23 years he will have reached the age of 88. Most of his sentence was held in solitary confinement, he hasn't seen his wife in all of that time, is allowed just one phone call a month to speak with her, which he hasn't been able to do for one reason or another. What the corrupt federal government has done to this man is absolutely an abomination in the eyes of YHVH, our heavenly father. All of the other Montana Freemen have been released and back home with their families except Leroy who died while serving his sentence.

I sincerely hope that you will see that both of these "forgotten men" will no longer be "forgotten" and that you will do what is right and just and Order a complete investigation into their cases and do what is honorable, that being Ordering their immediate release from captivity. In the case of both of these men, there was no injured party, no corpus delecti, no nothing except worthless words on pieces of paper. Under the Laws of YHVH, there has been no crime committed by these men.

May the spirit of YHVH move upon you to bring justice to both of these men. And as YHVH told Pharoah, "Let my people go."

Respectfully yours,

April 14, 1996 DECLARATION on behalf of the Montana Freemen

Truly, all around us we are reminded that we are just visiting here. This temporal life is not our home. Our dominion is in heaven. We are "live" our allegiance to the "soil" of the county where we were born, and the state where we were born, NOT THE UNITED STATES. Myself as an example my allegiance to the "soil" of Floyd county, Iowa state [NOT STATE OF IOWA]. "Details"!!!

The people, duped all of their life are cajoled into waiving all of the protections of the Constitution for the united States of America, the Declaration of Independence, the state Constitution, etc. When one is "presumed" to have waived the protections of law, he/she has then bound themselves as a "debtor" who has NO rights to the agreement, or "bargain of the parties". An example is the signature on an application for a "license" from the STATE, i.e. "Driver's License". Though the "people" by definition will NEVER "drive": transport persons or property for hire, they waive their Right for liberty, in lieu of the "privilege" of "driving". Such "waivers" are repeated throughout the PUBLIC SCHEME. The country has been stolen via "consent" / "assent" and not one in a million realizes how they have been ROBBED.

Your "signature" is the most powerful and valuable thing that one owns and like Esau, most swap our for a bowl of lentils. The public school system has the smallest children putting their "name"/"signature" on everything without any consciousness of what they are doing to their own detriment. RESULT: the average man or woman will sign almost anything without even giving it a thought. The man or woman who is being asked to sign is the "authority", not the other way around. How many get it???

Surely your prayers for our "unsaved" friend who likes black ice is going to be moved by the prayers of those of us who see the Light. That "new-age" scheme has been a stumbling block for many. I have known good friends who are still on my prayer list. The Deceiver is behind it all. The Universalist CRAP that all paths lead to heaven, is of the BIGGEST lies of all.

I have studied "The Doctrine of Faith --- Rest" with interest and benefit from the same. I have shared it with a brother here who is a fellow Christian, and he indicates beneficial results, as well. I am grateful for your sharing and will pass it on for the benefit of the next reader.

Remember AFP's Just for Laughs? "Thanks, But No Thanks"?? It may tickle our funny-bone, but also serves as a reminder as to how foolish so many of our ambitions are. And O' How True it is.

The "Smart Speaker Competition" shared as by Joe Jarvis, is a true representation of a serious privacy problem. But it goes even further. I have a fellow traveller here who experienced a technical

Re: Richard Everett VanHazel and Russell Dean Landers

Most Honorable President Trump,

I took note of your great Inaugural Address speech to our country last Friday. It was like a breath of fresh air for those of us who love our country and our Heavenly Father, the Eternal YHVH.

I paid close attention to your words about "The forgotten men and women of our country will be forgotten no longer." It is for this reason that I am writing you about two of those forgotten men whose names I have posted above. I pray that you will honor your promise that they will be forgotten no longer.

The first man is Richard Everett VanHazel who served his country honorably for many years and became the third highest decorated soldier in our nations history, ranking only behind his second cousin Audi Murphy and retired U.S Marine General Hackworth. I personally wrote to General Joseph F. Dunford regarding Richard Van Hazel and have enclosed copies of that correspondence for your consideration and course of action to be taken on his behalf. Sadly to say, General Dunford never acknowledged my correspondence and appears to have made Richard one of the "forgotten men" that you spoke about. Richard has been a victim of the totally corrupt legal system in Michigan as all of the evidence will show. His release from his incarceration was issued back in September 2015, and yet he is still being held captive at the Oaks Correctional Facility in Manistee, Michigan.

The second man is Russell Dean Landers, the last of the Montana Freeman, still being held captive at the Federal Corrections Facility in Terre Haute, Indiana. Russell has been incarcerated since 1996 and is not scheduled to be released until December 2, 2040. His so-called crime was wanting to live free on the land and not reality that is very unsettling. His acquaintance was a technical wiz who demonstrated that he could reach back through time and retrieve a land-line or any other kind of telephone call or electronic transmission that has ever been initiated. He demonstrated retrieving a telephone call at random that was made 15 years earlier. That I cannot explain, but the man who shared it with me has proven to be an honorable and truthful man to me. On the God line, of course our LORD is privy to "every" word.

The "?Question Evolution!" brochure with the chimp face on the face of it, relating 15 questions for evolutionists, has proven to be a fun, as well as serious reference. I kidded a couple of those who I'm traveling with by stating: "A picture of your grandpa". They are not convicted. Ha!Ha! (SMILE !) I'm keeping it close for future use.

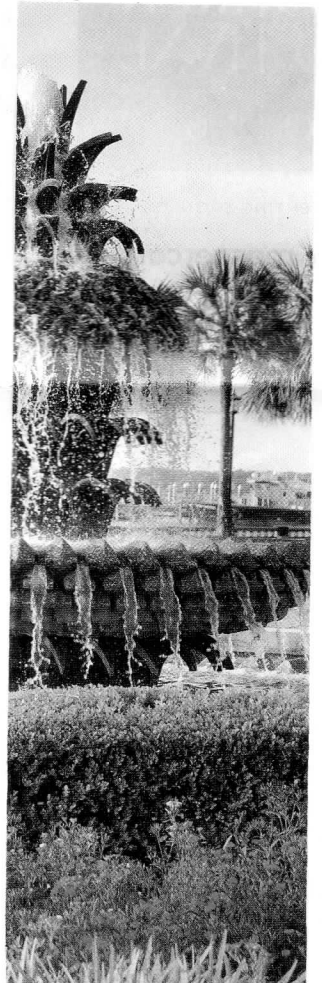

The devil always proding, I've had the experience of our grandson and his young wife having difficulties making good decisions. It is a lack of focus and structure laced with the distractions of the world around them. In high school, people [them to] have structure and objectives, ie. graduation and plans for the future that guide them through their days. But, after, if they do not have established goals and a daily determination for moving structurally forward it is far too easy to get caught up in nonsense that leads to consequences that detract from the life that The LORD would have us live. It is a blessing in this present situation, that our son (35) and his wife are a caring good example for our grandson and his wife. Our Michael (a middle school asst principal and atheletic director) and Katherine his wife (Proverbs 31:10-31) and mother of two are willing for helping and a good example of where the younger would like to be in a few years. We are prayerfully hopeful for good results as we work through this. Mike, is my substitute!

The news from the surrounding world is encouraging, as progress is made for our friends in Texas are on duty and others around the globe are doing their parts in prayer and ambitions for setting the record straight. How can we ever thank them for their courage and prayerful works? The LORD has selected the very best for his work in our present day. "As for me and my household, we shall serve the LORD!" -Joshua.

Here the air has warmed, it is wet and foggy, at times. The snow has come and is for the moment now gone. Here they really do not know what winter is. Temperatures dropped to a couple degrees below zero but nothing like the 30+ degrees below zero that have touched others. Snow was about 1½ inches, so no big-deal.

I've put a little reminder of tropical paradise here so that winter will not get to us so easily. (SMILE !).

On the reverse I share some of the things that have passed me here in the "gulags" of North America. I pray that you find them moving and revealing that we do in fact have matters in need of remedy.

The horror in U.S. prisons

Texas and many other states destroy too many lives with solitary confinement.

"I'M LOSING my sanity," one prisoner wrote.

"You could not tell day from night," another reported. "You were always backward. . . . No light coming in the building. You be lost."

"The depression and self-destructive behaviors I have have intensified consistently," said yet another.

Inmates told of paranoia, hallucinations, bizarre sleep habits, self-mutilation and constant screaming.

These aren't accounts from a prison in some third-world dictatorship. They are stories that the American Civil Liberties Union of Texas collected from those the state warehoused in solitary confinement. The group is set to release a report Thursday detailing the responses it got from inmates it surveyed — and calling for further reform.

We say further because, despite the horrific accounts the ACLU dredged up, Texas is not the worst state in the nation when it comes to imposing the hell of solitary confinement on its prisoners, and its record has improved in recent years. Among other things, Texas has slashed the number of inmates in solitary by 34 percent since 2006.

But its solitary confinement policies still throw away too many lives. The ACLU found that more than 4 percent of Texas's prisoners — more than 6,000 people — are in solitary, spending an average of nearly four years in near-total isolation, locked in 60-square-foot cells for at least 22 hours a day. By contrast, Mississippi knocked down its solitary confinement rate to 1.4 percent after a spate of violence in its solitary units inspired a strong reform program. Rick Raemis, Colorado's reform-minded prison director, has said that only four or five people need to be placed in solitary long-term in his state.

Part of the problem is that Texas, like many other states, throws mentally ill inmates into solitary when instead they need comprehensive, specialized treatment. Their symptoms often get worse. Another part of the problem is that the state commits members of various gangs to isolation cells to tamp down prison violence. But the deeply counterproductive toll solitary takes on inmates has led even the Texas prison guards union to favor a change in policy.

There are plenty of things for these states to do. Marc Levin, a conservative criminal justice advocate in Texas, says it's possible the legislature will end the practice of releasing people immediately from solitary onto the street when their terms are up. That would battle the high recidivism rate among those who emerge from isolation. The system also needs more and better mental health screening. Prisoners who require particular attention or who are somehow at risk should get specialized confinement with well-trained staff, apart from the general population but not in solitary.

No one foresees the end of solitary confinement anytime soon. Just getting Texas down to Mississippi's rate, the ACLU's Terri Burke told us, would make criminal justice reform advocates very happy. But in Texas and elsewhere, reform can't come fast enough for the men and women wasting away.

I can never limit my view of my situation to myself as this CORRUPTION is causing suffering for untold numbers of people. Millions of people have suffered fines, arrests, confiscation of their properties and far worse, all unlawful abuses for sake of the REAL CRIME RING the Potomac Mafia and their accomplices all across America and around the globe. The people so caught up in the complications in the day-to-day grind, and so many without Jesus, it is no wonder the whole scene is such a mess. The BUNDY travesty is a example of just how far from right the whole mess has become.

Clearly when a few states have become bastions as prisons and jails and others do not have such overages, there is something unrelated to crime and punishment going on. The STATES of California, Texas, North Carolina and New York are loaded with prisons and prisoners, and others are not. The writing is on the wall. False imprisonments for profits a travesty that cannot be justified by any legitimate means.

Millions victimized, dragged through the unlawful federal scam in the last 5 decades, their lives destroyed, their reputations CRUSHED, and all done by unlawful, illegal means for GREED and unrighteous dominion. Adolf Hitler never had it so good.

People are so DUMBED down that they actually fall for the idea that so many things that are NOT crime at all are actually crimes. The public FOOLS system has been so effective that all of this is HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT. And it is not some seedy cartel(s) responsible, it is in fact the STATE and federal oath takers who have breached their oaths and are exploiting The People for wrongful gains. Lies, thefts and murder the trade-marks of the so called government(s). It is far worse than anything in the history of mankind. They have made it appear legitimate as they destroy the people.

Conditioned for getting a good education and getting a good job, well meaning people get out of school and go to work for the oppressors and do not even have a clue as to what they are involved in. It does not dawn on them that doing what they are being instructed to do to others is in fact REAL CRIMES against The People. HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT!

It is near impossible for one to describe what we are witness to in these "gulags of America". There are so many aspects to the oppressive experience that one cannot understand until he/she has experienced it for themselves. Before this happened to me I had experience intervening for several people in the system of jails for profits and yet I was not never aware of the very worst and the actual impact of it on people. It is my contention that even prison employees DO NOT GET IT!

HELPING A FRIEND TO APPLY THE WAYS OF GOD IN A DIFFICULT SITUATION

"Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel."

Proverbs 27:9

The full EXPOSURE of all of this is mushrooming all across a spectrum of social media and other platforms that can no longer be covered up. The MESS has reached critical mass. Nearly everyone is aware of several people who are in prisons and jails and are asking why those people have been arrested, fined, robbed, jailed. It is not possible that legitimate prosecution of so many people can be justified. It is obviously a horrid SCAM for profits. Those who go to employment in the SCAM do not last long before they must see the evil that they are MIXED up in.

One of the first things that I became aware of upon being so wrongfully attacked and abused, was that in the jails and in the prisons one is often safer in the jails and prisons than he/ she would be at the mall. The people who are being imprisoned more often than not are NOT criminals. And those who are doing this to the people are NOT innocent!!!

What kind of legislative actors can imagine that they can create CRIME by legislative fiat? The Constitution never allowed for such a SCHEME. Crime is the product of the perpetrator and the victim. NEVER the product of being in violation of legislative acts. Justice cannot be the product of a "business" for profit ran for the common treasury. And that is In Fact exactly what it has been since the "New Deal" SCAM.

Locking up millions of people and raping them with fines and confiscations IS NOT productive. It is in fact COUNTERPRODUCTIVE, a devastating impact on the lives of every man, woman and child in the land. The matter of settling CRIME & PUNISHMENT cannot be the center for profit and employment. It is a COST to society, not the top TAXATION center for supporting the corruption as has become the case in today's so-called Justice System. It is far removed from justice!!!

I look forward for the next time we can enjoy more conversation. May the LORD bless you and keep you dear Therese. These are times that the LORD is teaching us much that will be a blessing in His Kingdom come. Eucharisteo!

God bless! lol!

Is faith a risk? Of course. But failing to step out in faith is to risk missing real life. I have been challenged by the following thought from an unknown author.

R i s k

To laugh is to risk appearing the fool.
To weep is to risk appearing sentimental.
To reach out for another is to risk involvement.
To place our ideas, our dreams, before a crowd is to risk their loss.
To love is to risk not being loved in return.
To live is to risk dying.
To hope is to risk despair.
To try is to risk failure.

Risks must be taken because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing. The person who risks nothing does nothing, has nothing, is nothing. He may avoid suffering and sorrow, but he simply cannot learn, feel, change, grow, love . . . live. Chained by his certitudes, he is a slave; he has forfeited freedom.
