

File No: U-4:17-cr-03038-18;
Hearing Date: January 30, 2018

IN THE UNIVERSAL SUPREME COURT OF THE TSILHQOT'IN

Between:

Ambassador and USCT ACJ,
Michael Wayne Parsons

Appellant

And:

United States of America

Appellee

EX PARTE ORDER

Coming on appeal before me in the sovereign and independent Country of the Chilcotin under the Constitution of the Tsilhqot'in Nation, is the matter of the United States of America continues to proceed against, prosecute and illegally hold in custody Ambassador and USCT ACJ M. Parsons, in violation of his diplomatic immunities and prior exoneration and acquittal by this court and provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, therefore:

THIS INTERNATIONAL, ABORIGINAL COURT ORDERS THAT:

[1] Case 4:17-cr-03038 filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Nebraska is hereby dismissed in its entirety against appellant Michael Wayne Parsons, Chilcotin Ambassador to the USA and USCT ACJ.

[2] Ambassador, ACJ and diplomat Michael Wayne Parsons is to be released from custody on his own recognisance forthwith and at the time of release, all of his and any Chilcotin belongings in his possession are to be returned to him.

[3] If any lower court, such as the U.S. District Court of the District of Nebraska fails to uphold this order, the U.S. District Court of the District of Nebraska or any lower court will be indicted for war crimes, as well as fined one million dollars per day for each day the appellant spent in custody for case 4:17-cr-03038 to be paid to the appellant and one million dollars per day for each day the appellant spent in custody for case 4:17-cr-03038 to be paid to the Chilcotin National Congress, the government of the Chilcotin.

[4] At the time the President of the United States of America, President Donald J. Trump, Sr. formally responds to the application from the new Country of the Chilcotin to initiate foreign relations with the USA by recognizing the sovereignty and independence of the new Country of the Chilcotin, as per the Declaration of a new Country called the “Chilcotin upon sovereign Tsilhqot’in territory” dated June 20th, 2016, not needing to secede from Canada as the Chilcotin was technically never part of Canada, by recognizing the authority of the Chilcotin National Congress as the true ruling governing body of the new Country of the Chilcotin, by recognizing the authority of the Universal Supreme Court of the Tsilhqot’in as the first international aboriginal court created by the Chilcotin National Congress for all people with jurisdiction wherever aboriginal people dwell, as the highest court in North America from which there is no appeal, by recognizing the Chilcotin embassy in Tennessee, by recognizing the diplomatic immunity of, and ambassadorship of appellant, Chilcotin Ambassador and USCT ACJ, Michael Wayne Parsons, as well as the diplomatic immunity of his family in accordance with Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, by recognizing Ambassador Parsons prior USCT exoneration and acquittal; then, all or any prosecution, proceedings, investigations, inquiries against the President of the United States, President Donald J. Trump, Sr., his family and his colleagues during the time the President was in office or during former presidential election campaign brought by the senate intelligence committee, the senate judiciary committee, the house intelligence committee, the house judiciary committee, the house foreign affairs committee, the house oversight committee, the FBI special counsel committee, or any other authority with respect to any possible obstruction of justice, conspiracy or collusion, related to Russia’s possible meddling in the USA’s 2016 federal elections, shall cease and desist immediately.

[5] Reasons for Judgement to follow this here order when Canada is compelled to release currently held hostage political prisoner, USCT CJ Zsuzsanna Hegedus-Holland in accordance with prior USCT order File No. U-CA44726-17 dated November 21st, 2017.

By the Court: Zsuzsanna Holland

The Honourable Chief Justice of the Universal Supreme Court

By the Court: Fannie Stump

The Honourable Minister of Justice

