Meine Brüder Betul,

Guten Tag! I pray all is well for you! I love you! Please forgive my slow speed. We had a week or so of Flu here and I dare not fall behind or I'm slow in conversation with dear brothers and sisters. So glad for being able for sharing now.

Your verse from James most encouraging.

We are all on this side of eternity being tried in readiness for the Kingdom come. I thank the Lord for His plan and purpose being carried forth in our lives. May His words, His purpose, provision and protection lead us just exactly as He would have us go.

"Blessed is the One who preserves under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love Him."
- James 1:12

Even here, sequestered, we are seeing much justice poured out on the corrupt system. The darkness/lies cannot ~~long~~ long endure in the Flicht of the Word of TRUTH! Here the Potomac Mafia is stumbling and crumbling under the weight of the TRUTH. TRUMP is EXPOSING much corruption and is ² crushing many communist sacred cows that had long become entrenched in the absence of people willing for standing up for the Gospel, TRUTH and a pathway for honoring our Heavenly Father and our Lord Jesus the Christ.

The swage/bust by Bronisch is an exact likeness of my son Ryan Dean who was murdered at 25, 1 Januar 2000. Thus, I share it with you. It is much like my father and my son Michael Dean (35), and not a great deal unlike myself except it does not reflect my cowboy hat (Wa! Ha!). (The likeness from "SS Panzergranadier" by Hans Schmidt)

My son, Michael Dean has been exploring on "Ancestry.com" where he's verified my great grandfather John's birth records are of Hanover and grandmothers of family Gialmeyer recorded in Westphalia/Wine on my father's side. My mother's side of Netherlands and my grandmother Margasite Burroughs-Rodman has ancestry of UK, as well.

In Memoriam

A sculpture by Paul Bronisch. Exhibited in 1941 at an art exhibition in Munich. As with so many "Nazi" art objects it is likely that this sculpture was purposely destroyed by Allied soldiers after the so-called "Liberation".

In California north the Red Wood trees are something to truly "look-up" to.  I'm blessed, having an 8 year old and a 9 year old grand daughter. This young lady reminds me of how they might look way up to see the top of the Red Woods. ~~There was one so big a car could drive the the whole in the trunk. I~~ understand it had come down, but there are still pictures of cars going through it.

Here in southern Indiana winters are mild when compared with northern Iowa and southern Minnesota where I've lived much of my life. Two of our grown loved ones and their families live at Waterloo, Iowa. Just the other morning they received another 8" of snow. More than we will see here all winter. Traveling to pick her mother up at the Cedar Rapids air port (75 miles)

4/ our daughter witness a car crash and the traveler was killed. Winter has its dangers. I have traveled over 4 million miles all over united States - some of those treacherous conditions. The Lord always saw me through safely. There are many wonder ^{ful} things to see.

In Iowa we have 290 acres that our grand parents and parents work all their lives. I have hopes we will one day soon be able to transform them from corn and soy beans to many acres of greenhouse vegetable and fruit production. Foods people really need. Before I grew up we lived almost entirely off gardens and orchards and live stock we raised. Coffee, baking soda, flour and sugar were the only things we had to get from the grocery store. An occasional Hershey bar. ^{is}

Life has a few mountains to move. We have a Mighty King who is able and sure to move them. Jesus was not kidding when He spoke of moving them into the sea. Here we know in every detail what it is going to take to move this mountain and set us free.

The enemy doing all for preventing our liberty will soon find the mountain mover is on our side. Pray with us for setting the captives free.

As I write here I'm watching a WWII documentary of the battle at Remagen, 7 March 1945, men from both sides speaking. The American leader Timmeeman, a German family name. In the United States the largest minority are of German ancestry. They had our people warring against each other at great cost. The RR bridge stayed standing which allowed for crossing the Rhine. Willie Bradet was the German commander of meager defense... in film record he is expressing the horror and frustration. They forfeited under white flag surrender, soldiers and civilians, became POWs. So many white crosses. ^{or} Such documentaries give much food for thought. Pray always for peace.

Health recommendation: Dr. Joel Wallack - several books, CDs, DVDs - 90 essential elements of life... all on www. Books: "EPIGENETICS"; "Dead Doctors Don't Lie"; several others. Every man, woman and child should pay attention! He and his wife are Naturopaths and more. I cannot say enough. This is a quality of life, life changing resource. Also, seek out information on 35% food grade hydrogen peroxide and its use, seek it out, use wisely and benefit. ☺
