To All Concerned:

PLEASE TAKE IMMEDIATE NOTICE RE: Shyla Billy (foster child)

That on April 09, 2014 while in the care of Playtime Childcare Centers at the Kwaleen Daycare and After School Program facility on a drop-in basis, Shyla Billy divulged during the course of the day several acts and occurrences of abuse perpetrated on her and possibly other children while in the care of the Batke/Shaw family which I hereafter report as is my duty as a licensed Early Childhood Educator.

Background: Shyla Billy and siblings Cassius Billy and Matias Halverson have been attending Playtime Childcare Center's Kwaleen After School/ Out-of-School Program since October 2012 up until or about October 2013 at which time they discontinued attending unannounced. Ms. Heather Batke, foster mother, informed Subsidy of the discontinuance while at the same time not informing Playtime.

At all times material during providing care to said children, I, Suzanne Hegedus have never had a problem with said children, have never found Shyla to lie or exaggerate or make up stories, have never found Shyla to be aggressive toward staff or other children nor have I found Shyla to be a difficult child. On the contrary I have found Shyla to be a very pleasant student who cares deeply about others, eager and willing to help out when she can and rational, reasonable and a joy to be around not only by teachers but by other children alike.

Incident 1: Shyla said that Tom Batke, foster dad, grabbed Shyla by the throat and demanded she tell her what was wrong with her.

Incident 2: Shyla said that Heather Batke, foster mother told Shyla on the day she was moving to her foster grandmother's house, Ruth Shaw, of the Child Development Center that, "I could have beaten you up".

Incident 3: Shyla said regarding Ruth Shaw that, "You don't want to hear that woman yelling at you!"

Incident 4: Shyla stated that, "Everytime I tell someone about what they do to me they say they [Batke/Shaw] had never said that or they have never touched me and they believe them, not me."

Incident 5: Shyla said that, "They blame me for breaking up the family but I just can't take it anymore."

Incident 6: Shyla said that the Batkes told her that, "If someone would try to take the children away from them anytime then either Angela Batke, or the aunt would adopt them."

Incident 7: Shyla told me that, "I wish I could stay with you," and "You are the first person who believes me." I told Shyla that she and her brothers are always welcome to stay with me and I can take them on respite care immediately.

Incident 8: Shyla said that the Batkes screened birthing mom's calls and would not answer the phone at times, other times she was only allowed to speak to her birthing mother on speaker phone with the Batkes listening to the conversation. Shyla stated that a letter sent from her birthing mom was ripped up and never given to her, along with photographs.

Incident 9: Shyla said she was forced against her will by the Batkes to change schools in September 2013 whereat the new school she was sexually abused.

Incident 10: Shyla said that she wanted to commit suicide to get away from the Batke/Shaw family and that, "If I ran away, they [MCF] would just bring me back."

Incident 11: Shyla said that, "Sometimes I do bad things just to see if they would even notice, they just don't care about me."

Incident 12: Shyla said, "They [Batke/Shaw] call me a liar."

Incident 13: Ruth Shaw phoned me at 9:30pm, April 9, 2014 and said that, "Shyla is a very troubled little girl. She lies about everything." I told her that that is a very broad statement. Ms Shaw stated, "She is a typical FAS child".

Incident 14: During the aforesaid call Ms. Shaw angrily demanded to know why I let Shyla speak to a birthing relative on the phone and demanded to know what was said. Ms. Shaw also said that Shyla was not permitted to ever speak with any birthing relatives. I then informed Ms. Shaw I have never been told of or had documentation regarding such an order. I also informed Ms. Shaw that a parent called me regarding their child whom Shyla recognized as her birthing relative and wished to say hello. I also informed Ms. Shaw that visitors/parents speak with other children at our center on a regular basis.

Incident 15: Shyla said that Batkes are really angry that, "We believe in God and want us to believe in evolution like they do."

Incident 16: Shyla said that her foster grandmother, Ruth Shaw had left 4 other children in Shyla's care ranging from under 1 yr, 2 yrs, 4 yrs and 6 yrs while Ms. Shaw went to town. [These children also attend Playtime Childcare Centers and parent has been so informed.] [It is Ms. Shaw who believes Shyla "to be a troubled little girl" with "FAS".]

Incident 17: Shyla said she had always thought that the locks outside the children's doors at the Shaw residence were there just to scare the children but she said, "They actually use them." "Once Damian (6yrs) was locked up for 2 hours crying and saying he needed to pee but was not let out so he peed himself and then got into trouble for that."

Incident 18: Shyla said that she was bullied at her 2nd new school this school year, Marie Sharpe, after the other children found out about her recent sexual abuse. She also told me she was removed from the same school for a week (which is why Ms. Shaw brought her back to Playtime Childcare Centers on a drop-in basis) because she was cutting herself with a razor. In Shyla's words, "They [Shaw] brought me here [Playtime Childcare Centers] to 'punish' me for cutting myself."

Incident 19: When I asked her how Mr. Shaw was treating her Shyla responded by saying, "He dropped me off this morning without saying a word."

Incident 20: Shyla said she told the Batkes, "Am I just a pay check to you?"

I, Suzanne Hegedus, head manager for Playtime Childcare Centers do hereby offer my home/daycare on a respite basis to take in Shyla Billy and possible foster siblings, Cassius Billy and Matias Halverson effective immediately.

Please be advised that Playtime Childcare Centers hereby requests and expects immediate action to be taken on behalf of Shyla Billy for her physical, psychological and emotional protection , and Playtime Childcare Centers be informed of the action taken. The RCMP will be contacted later today.
