Re: The Bible you gifted me

Dear Rudy,

I just wanted to write and THANK YOU for the wonderful King James Bible that you sent to me. It is great. It has large print which is very helpful to someone with failing eyesight. I cannot thank you enough for your generosity.

My wife, Kookie, also told me that you had put my Pardon letter to President Trump on You Tube. I thought that was great. I believe that the more Americans that we can show, WITH EVIDENCE, how evil and conniving the alphabet soup agencies are, the better chance we have of turning this ship around. Please feel free to share any of the documents that I give you with anyone that you feel would be interested in looking at them. It would be nice to get a Pardon from Trump, but, to be honest with you, I would rather get out without his help.

If I got a Pardon, people will think that I was just lucky Trump was in a good mood that day. They will not understand that I was illegally imprisoned. They will never know all of the sliight of hand tricks that both the prosecutors and the judges routinely do to EVERYONE that gets caught in their web, at least on the federal level. I have been there 3 times. I have learned, through bitter experience, what they do. Because I am a fighter, I have battled them each time. I have had to do it alone, as I could never find an attorney that wasn't a member of the federal gang. I have accumulated many documents that prove their actions are fraudulent; documents that I have never seen anywhere else.

When I get out of here, Rudy, I will give you those documents ~~with the~~ explanation of how to use them to keep a Trial from ever happening. I know people will say "Well, why didn't it work for you?". The reason it didn't is because you are learning as you go through their system. You are gathering documents that you needed at the first, not at the end, of your entrapment in their web. The further in you get, the harder it is to get out. What would REALLY be good is to have some God fearing legal help from members of the BAR. I was fortunate enough to have that during the 8 years that the organization that I founded, American Rights Litigators, was active. It stymied the IRS. They could not figure out how to get around the attorney and CPA that took our members Power of Attorney and responded on the members behalf to the IRS agents requests for information or money.

Speaking of that, here is a new organization that you might want to check out. (I am including the first page of their website.) It is called Justice For Pro Se's. It is headed by Richard A. Posner. He was an Appellate Court judge for the Seventh Circuit for 37 years. If ANYONE knows how crooked the federal system is, I would say it would be him. It seems that he has set up this non profit organization and is recruiting like minded attorneys to give their time and expertise PRO BONO to assisting litigants that do not have an attorney to represent them. Please let me know what you find out.

However, in my personal situation, I would like to just hire one of those "like minded attorneys" and have him just go meet with judge Royce Lamberth in his chambers and ask him 2 questions:

1. What DATE did you declare the Mistrial?
2. WHY did you declare the Mistrial since that information is not on the Statement of Reasons?

All I really need is for him to admit that he declared a Mistrial. That should get me out of here immediately. My problem: Finding an attorney that would have the courage to do it. Judges intimidate lawyers. I have seen it many times first hand. If you have any suggestions regarding this, I am all ears.

God bless you and yours, Rudy,

Eddie

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Justice for Pro Se's is a nationwide pro bono legal-services organization founded and led by Richard A. Posner, a retired judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Justice for Pro Se's was founded on the belief that pro se litigants are being mistreated by the courts because judges are often indifferent or hostile to them.

Justice for Pro Se's is not a law firm. Instead, it is a 501(c)(3) organization devoted to assisting deserving pro se litigants who need, but cannot afford or don't know how to utilize, legal assistance or guidance. Justice for Pro Se's includes lawyers among its members, but they are in the nature of volunteer helpers; they are not employees.

Justice for Pro Se's refers deserving pro se litigants to outside lawyers and others willing to assist the litigants free of charge in representing themselves in state or federal court. Justice for Pro Se's will then monitor the pro se's cases, publish the results, and thereby bring accountability to the courts.

ABOUT

After 35 years, Judge Richard A. Posner resigned from the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit because he believed that pro se litigants were not getting a fair shake from either his court or any other court. So he decided to quit and do something to change that. Here is why:

As Judge Posner wrote in his dissent in Estate of Miller v. Marberry, 847 F.3d 425, 429-433 (7th Cir. 2017), the Court of Appeals panel's majority decision was "unconscionable" because it allowed a prison to knowingly violate its clear legal duties in such a way as to seriously injure an inmate and thereby hasten his death. As Judge Posner added: "A dog would have deserved better treatment."

As a result, the panel majority let stand the district court's erroneous grant of summary judgment to the prison, which not only denied the inmate's claim, but also took away the inmate's constitutional right to have a jury - not a judge - decide that claim.

Judge Posner also called the appellate panel majority's decision "outrageous" because, like the decision of the district court, it was based on a clear misstatement of the facts. Moreover, even after the factual misstatements were privately acknowledged, a majority of the entire Court of Appeals voted to deny a rehearing of the case on the specious grounds that the errors were those of fact, not law.

Apparently, some judges believe that factual errors in a judicial decision need not be corrected because they are hidden, whereas legal errors are not. Yet, an accurate statement of the facts would have mandated that the inmate be allowed to present his case to a jury, which would have then undoubtedly ruled in the inmate's favor, as discussed in the excerpt below from one of Judge Posner's recent books.
