Dear Pastor Davis,

I just wanted to take a moment and thank you for your assistance and for your compassion regarding the plight my sister and I are facing. Never in my wildest nightmares would I have thought my family would go to prison! We have always been a close family and were upstanding members of our communities. My mother raised us in the Christian faith and spent her time educating her children and caring for our needs. My father was in the Navy as well as serving as a police officer in the 60s and 70s. My sister spent 20 years practicing as a registered nurse and I spent the same twenty seeing patients every day as an optometrist. The series of events leading up to our arrests, trial, and conviction read like a crime-drama novel.

I appreciate your keeping in touch with Amy and keeping her spirits up. Your prayers and words of comfort are truly God sent! For whatever reason, I have had difficulty getting in touch with you since my sister passed along your contact information. Please let her know if you receive this letter.

I would like to state emphatically, and for the record that I am not guilty of the charges of which I have been convicted. I am the father of three beautiful daughters who I cherish and love dearly. My efforts to ascertain their whereabouts and well-being have been misrepresented at every step. I am absolutely guilty of desiring that my children be raised safely and in the Christian faith and that they be cared for and that I be allowed to participate in their upbringing. What father wants less than that for his children?

I would be happy to discuss with you what has happened in our lives over the past few years if you are available. Please let me know your schedule. I pray every day that my sister and I be allowed to return to society and to participate in the upbringing of our children as God intended. I would like to believe that a nurse and an eye doctor have more to offer this world outside prison bars.

Thank you in advance for your time and for reading this missive. Please keep my family in your prayers.

Yours in Christ,

David Matusiewicz, O.D.
