Complaint

- 14) From 2007 to 2008, Francis Schaeffer Cox was an organizer for the Ron Paul for President campaign, a delegate to the Alaskan State Republican Convention, and, a candidate for state legislature in Alaska State House District 7, serving Fairbanks, Alaska.
  - 15) Gene Brokaw, now deceased, was a Republican Party District Chairman who met Cox at the 2008 Alaska State Republican Convention.
  - 16) In November 2009, Brokaw, and, Cox, travelled to Chicago, Illinois to participate in a Continental Congress hosted by We The People, a tax protest group.
  - 17) At the Continental Congress, Cox met Stewart Skrill, and, Terry Dodd.
  - 18) Unbeknownst to Cox at the time, Dodd has a long criminal history of theft by fraud.
  - 19) Cox was arrested March 10, 2011, by the FBI's Joint Terrorism Task Force for his involvement in the Alaskan Peacekeeper Militia. Cox was indicted, and, convicted, of conspiracy to commit murder, weapons, and, explosives, charges. On January 8, 2013, Cox was sentenced to 310 months imprisonment, since vacated.
  - 20) Maria Rensel has been friends with Cox since 2007, when they worked together on the Ron Paul campaign. M Rensel testified on Cox' behalf at trial. M Rensel is married to Bill Rensel.

- 21) Richard Neff has been a friend of Cox since Cox dated Neff's daughter in 2000.
- 22) M Rensel, and, Neff, worked together to obtain letters of support for Cox' sentencing.
- 23) In January 2014, M Rensel reached agreement with Neff to organize support for Cox' ongoing legal defense. M Rensel then contacted Cox to inform him of that agreement. The three reached agreement in principle to work for Cox' legal defense.
- 24) At this time, there were ongoing efforts from multiple parties to assist Cox' legal defense, including websites, Facebook pages, a YouTube channel, and, other efforts.
- 25) In February 2014, Brokaw joined the agreement with Neff, and, M Rensel, to assist with Cox' legal defense.
- 26) In March 2014, unbeknownst to Cox, Skrill, and, Dodd, joined the agreement with Brokaw, and, M Rensel, to assist Cox.
- 27) At this time, unbeknownst to Cox,
Skrill, and, Dodd, had reached agreement to defraud Cox and his supporters,
- 28) In July, and, August, 2014, Cox had a disagreement with his Court-appointed counsel that, ultimately led to her removal. At this time, Skrill, and, Dodd, suggested to Brokaw, Neff, and, M Rensel, that they form a partnership to raise money utilizing Cox' name. This partnership would become known as "Free Schaeffer Cox (a project of Alaskans for Liberty)", or, "the Board". This unincorporated partnership will be referred to as "the Board" herein, and, constituting the core of the RICO enterprise.

- 29) Skrill, and, Dodd's, plan, which eventually involved others, was to pretend that funds raised by the Board would be used to hire counsel for Cox. Instead, Skrill, and, Dodd, at this time, intended to take possession of any funds so collected by fraud,
- 30) At this time, Skrill suggested to the Board that they contract with Eberle, Inc, a direct mail company, to raise money in Cox' name.
- 31) At all times during the events that followed, Cox was resident at USP-Marion in Marion, Illinois.
- 32) Dodd proclaimed himself "Chairman" of the Board. To gain influence over other members, Dodd proclaimed an idiosyncratic religious power where he could contact the "Rua ha-Qodem", Hebrew for "Seers of the Sacred." Dodd would claim to other Board members that the Rua ha-Qodem were guiding his decisions.
- 33) M Rensel particularly fell under Dodd's religious influence. At this time of formation of the Board, M Rensel was designated to communicate with Cox as agent for the Board.
- 34) In August 2014, M Rensel presented Cox with a proposed oral agreement with the Board. According to the terms of the agreement, Cox would authorize the Board to collect money on his behalf, utilize his name, and, likeness, and, author fundraising material. The Board would then contract with Eberle, Inc, to raise money. A bank account, "the legal by the Board would be deposited to that account, and, the Board would disburse the funds in this account at Cox' direction. Cox agreed to these terms for the use of his identity.

- 35) At all times during the following events, Tammy Cali was CEO and President of Eberle, Inc, and, Ryan Mobly was a copy-writer for Eberle, Inc.
- 36) After Cox reached agreement on terms, and, conditions, for the use of his identity with the Board, M Rensel gave Cox Mobly's contact information. Cox then contacted Mobly, and, would have regular contact with Mobly by email, and, telephone until February 2016.
- 37) Mobly informed Cox that Eberle, Inc, had previously raised money for prisoner legal defense funds, and, that Eberle Inc would raise funds for Cox on the following terms and conditions: When mailings would be made, they would return a gross. From this gross Eberle, Inc, would subtract certain expenses. In practice, Eberle, Inc, eventually took approximately 93% of the donations received as "expenses" of various sorts. Exhibit A. After expenses had been subtracted from the gross, Cox would receive the net. Cox understood this to mean that the net would be his property; no mention was made of Eberle, Inc, contracting with the Board on Cox' behalf. The first mailing was to be a "test" mailing. If successful, Mobly stated that Eberle, Inc, would then offer Cox a contract for additional mailings. Based upon these representations, Cox agreed to allow his name, and, identity, to be used to conduct a test mailing, and, to assist in the preparation of that test mailing, which would go to 100,000 people. Cox then prepared, and, sent to Eberle, Inc, Exhibit B, the text of a proposed fundraising letter.

- 38) In January 2015, Mobly informed Cox that the test mailing had been very successful, and, that a contract would be offered.
- 39) On February 25, 2015, Tammy Cali of Eberle, Inc, sent M Rensel Exhibit A, a letter stating that the test mailing had netted over $38,000 for the Board, and, containing a check commemorating an electronic transfer of funds from United Bank account # 0067235752 to the Board, said account belonging to defendant DMP, Inc dba Free Schaeffer Cox, DMP, Inc, is a holding company that Cali, and, Eberle, Inc, set up to receive, and, process, funds associated with the test mailing.
- 40) Cali, Mobly, Eberle, Inc, and, the Board, then agreed that a 501(c)(4) company owned by Brokaw, defendant Alaskans for Liberty, Inc, would be used to collect funds for the mailing in order to use the tax-exempt status to reduce postage costs. At this time, the pretense that Dodd, Skrill, M Rensel, Neff, and, Brokaw, constituted "the Board" of Alaskans for Liberty, Inc, was adopted. However, Dodd, and, Skrill, made it clear to Cali, Mobly, and, Eberle, Inc, that they instead represented an unincorporated, unregistered, entity which they referred to as a "trust" called "Free Schaeffer Cox (a project of Alaskans for Liberty)". M Rensel was also at this time aware of the diversion of funds away from Alaskans for Liberty.

Cox was not aware of said diversion of funds away from their stated goal.

- 41) Mobly contacted Cox, and, despite knowing that Dodd had represented himself as "Chairman" of "Free Schaeffer Cox (a Project of Alaskans for Liberty)", an unincorporated, unregistered, "trust", and, not Alaskans for Liberty, Inc, a Wyoming C-corporation, and, registered 501(c)(4) non-profit, Mobly urged Cox to allow Eberle, Inc, to contract with said unincorporated, unregistered, trust, so that Eberle, Inc, would receive reduced postage rates in their fundraising efforts.
- 42) M Rensel, acting at the instruction of Dodd, and, aware of the untruthfulness of her statements, made similar misrepresentations to Cox in order to obtain for Dodd, and, Skrill, the use of Cox' identity.
- 43) On March 11 2015, Neff, and, M Rensel, on behalf of the Board, entered into contract with Eberle, Inc; Tammy Cali then signed said contract for Eberle, Inc, March 18, 2015..
Exhibit C.
- 44) No later than this date, Dodd, and, Skrill, had reached agreement with Ed Snook, to utilize Snook, and, his confederates, Ron Lee, James E Leuenberger, and, James E Leuenberger, PC, to launder the proceeds of the mail fraud as part of the Board enterprise. Snook, and, his confederates, will be herein referred to as the "US Observer Group." As part of this agreement to launder the proceeds of the fraud, Dodd, and, Skrill, would persuade the Board to retain members of the US Observer Group for the purpose of providing various services. Such services would never actually be provided, though, at various times, members of the US Observer group would make phone calls, or, apperances, to assure Cox, and the other victims, that they were doing important work, everything was going according to plan, and, they could not discuss the work because of its sensitive nature.

- 45) On March 23, 2015, Brokaw, acting as President of Alaskans for Liberty, Inc, contracted with Snook for "investigatory services", paying $500.00. No contract was ever entered into by Cox, or, the unincorporated, unregistered, "trust" which was receiving funds from Eberle, Inc. Exhibit D.
- 46) Despite having no contract, and, receiving no services, over the course of the next year, the Board would transfer, at Dodd's direction, over $100,000 of the proceeds of the fraud to Snook,
- 47) Additionally, Dodd, and, Skrill, disbursed other funds either to themselves, or, entities under their control, including Stitching Trust for Two, Inc,
- 48) On April 12, 2015, in furtherance of the fraud, Cox received Exhibit E, an email authored by Dodd, signed by Brokaw, Dodd Neff, Skrill, and, M Rensel, and, communicated to Cox by M Rensel. The email states that all funds raised would be expended for Cox, urges Cox to be secretive about his business relationships, and, demands that Cox yield total control of his legal defense to the Board. It also incorporates elements of Dodd's pseudo-Hebrew religious ideology, which he was now using to control M Rensel, and, others. Cox did not assent to these terms.

- 49) From April 2015, to February 2016, Cox assisted Eberle, Inc, in preparing mailers. A typical mailer is Exhibit F. Overall, by February 2016, based upon representations made to Cox by Mobly, and, the fact that 93% of the gross was going to Eberle, Inc, in various forms, Cox believes that over $2 million dollars in donations were raised, and, that approximately $144,000 in net was transferred to the legal defense fund account, and/or, the Board.
- 50) During the period April 2015 to February 2016, M Rensel continued to act as Dodd's, Skrill's, and, "the Board's" contact with Cox. M Rensel passed on to Cox Dodd's, and, Skrill's assurances that the money raised was being retained to be used on Cox' behalf. In actuality, this money was being expended for Dodd's, and, Skrill's, benefit, and, being laundered to Snook, and, other entities.
- 51) During the period April 2015 to February 2016, Cox was in intermittent contact with Snook, who assured Cox that things were "perfect", and, that the Us Observer group was on the verge of a "big break".
- 52) In September 2015, Brokaw died. B Rensel replaced Brokaw on "the Board".
- 53) In January 2016, Cox asked M Rensel to disburse about $5000 to an attorney for legal work relating to Cox' defense.
- 54) On February 11, 2016, M Rensel informed Cox via email that the Board had voted against disbursing funds to Cox' attorney because attorneys "were a waste of time", and, that, instead, the Board had voted for money for the US Observer group. This was the first that Cox understood that he was dealing with an entity calling itself "the Board", and, not Alaskans for Liberty, Inc. Still, Cox did not understand that he was being defrauded.

- 55) That same day, Cox notified Mobly, Cali, and, Eberle, Inc, that he believed that he had been defrauded, and, that he was instructing them to stop all mailings. Exhibit F.
- 56) On February 18, 2016, Mobly sent Cox an email from Cali stating the Eberle, Inc, refused to stop the fraudulent mailings, that they had contracted with the Board, that they had only contracted with the Board, and, that they would only take instructions from the Board. Exhibit G. Despite knowing that they were aiding, and, abetting, fraud, deceitful practices, unjust enrichment, and, other torts, Eberle, Inc, then continued to disburse proceeds of the fraud to the Board.
- 57) Between February 18, 2016, and, March 7, 2016, Eberle, Inc, Cali, and, Mobly, did decide to temporarily stop the fraudulent mailings.
- 58) On March 7, 2016, M Rensel sent an email authored by Dodd, Exhibit H, to Cox claiming that Cox had violated his "contract", the April 2015 email, with the Board, and, demanding that Cox continue to allow the fraudulent misuse of his identity while wholly submitting to the Board's authority.
- 59) On March 10, 2016, M Rensel sent an email, Exhibit I, to Cox which refers to Cox as "FF" for reasons unknown. The email also urged Cox to allow the fraud to continue.
- 60) In April 2016, in order to lull Cox back into compliance with the fraud, Dodd, and, Skrill, arranged with Snook for his confederate, Ron Lee, to travel to Fairbanks, Alaska, at

"the Board's" expense, in order to "investigate". No actual investigation occurred. Instead, Lee met with M Rensel to secure M Rensel's further compliance with the fraud,

- 61) In May 2016, in furtherance of the fraud, Dodd, Skrill, and, Snook, arranged for James E Leuenberger, and, James E Leuenberger, PC, Snook's attorney, to contact Cox for the purpose of becoming Cox' "attorney". At this time, Leuenberger was not licensed to practice law in Alaska, or, in Illinois, and was not admitted to any federal bar in either state. Further, Cox was represented by the Alaska Federal Defender's Office on direct appeal, and, said office had agreed, should Cox' direct appeal fail, to prepare a 28 USC §2255 pleading pro bono on Cox' behalf.
- 62) Despite not being potentially able to provide legal services to Cox, Leuenberger, and, Leuenberger, PC, induced Cox to sign an agreement with Cox to prepare for Cox a "post-relief petition." Exhibit J. The contract authorized the Board to pay Leuenberger $10,000, and, "all fees, and, expenses, charged by any ... investigators", a reference to other members of the US Observer group.
- 63) Leuenberger, and, Leuenberger, PC, did receive $10,000. No legal work was performed on Cox' behalf, and, Leuenberger has since demanded additional funds from Cox.
- 64) In June 2016, now fooled by the Board, and, the US Observer Group, Cox agreed to allow Eberle, Inc, Cali, and, Mobly, to resume using his identity in mailings. Despite knowing that they were potentially engaged in deceptive trade practices, fraud, and, unjust enrichment, among other torts, Eberle,

Inc, Cali, and, Mobly, then resumed the fundraising mailings,

65) Based upon information provided by Mobly, and, estimates provided by Cali, and, Eberle, Inc, Cox believes that there was approximately $1 million raised between June 2016, and, November 2016, and, that approximately $60,000 of this is being held currently in account # 0067235752 by DMP, Inc.

66) Before August 9, 2016,

Snook emailed M Rensel to state that he would no longer provide the "services" that he had been paid over $100,000 for, would not show his work product from these services, and, would only deal with Dodd, his confederate in the fraud. Exhibit K.

67) On August 14, 2016, Cox received an email from Ron Lee, Exhibit L, stating Cox would not, for his $100,000, be able to "dictate" what services the Us Observer group would provide him, and, blaming the Board for not providing additional money to the US Observer group for the current problems.

68) That same day, Cox received a second email from Lee, Exhibit M, stating that Cox should stop speaking to M Rensel, and, should place all of his trust in Lee's confederate, Dodd.

69) On September 9, 2016, Cox receive a third, similar, email from Lee, Exhibit N.

70) On October 25, 2016, Cox received an email from Skrill, Exhibit O assuring Cox that funds had only been disbursed in his defense, and, asking Cox to resume lending his identity to the fraud.

fundraising mailings. On December 21, 2016, Cali sent Exhibit P, stating that she was holding all funds until she could "work through this together."

- 72) Efforts to mislead Cox into believing that these issues were being resolved continued throughout 2017.

Ms. Maria Rensel, Project Manager
Free Schaeffer Cox
1676 Taroka Drive
Fairbanks, AK 99709

Dear Ms. Rensel:

As you know, the test mailing created by Eberle Associates (EA) on behalf of Free Schaeffer Cox was very successful. Based on current returns, we expect the final net income amount will exceed $45,000. A check from your caging agent for $38,000 is enclosed with this letter. Additional sums will be forwarded as they are received.

As of today's date, 1,500 individuals have contributed to the test appeal (and we expect that number to grow to 1,700 or more). Why is the number of donors so important? Historical data reveals that each of those donors will provide a minimum of $20 of net income to Free Schaeffer Cox over the next three years. In other words the total amount of net you will receive over the next 36 months from the 1,700 donors who gave to the test appeal (not including test net) will be $34,000. (1,700 donors x $20 per donor = $34,000)

When you consider the fact that EA has completed more than 477 test mailing programs since 1996 and only 40% have been successful, you can begin to appreciate my enthusiasm for the success of your test mailing. Accordingly, Ms. Rensel, I'd like to offer Free Schaeffer Cox an opportunity to utilize direct mail fund raising on an ongoing basis without any financial exposure on your part or any expenditure of funds from the general treasury of your organization. Specifically, I am offering you a program that is...

1. No Cash In. At no time will it be necessary for your organization to take money from your general treasury and put it into the direct mail fund raising program.
2. No Loss. The no-loss provision of the enclosed agreement protects Free Schaeffer Cox from any financial loss under this program for a period of 24 months. If, at the end of that time you are unsatisfied, you can simply cancel the Agreement without any cost or penalty whatsoever.

How much net income should Free Schaeffer Cox expect from a direct mail program over the next few years? While it is difficult to make precise projections from a single test mailing, the test results, combined with our 40+ year history of mailing for similar organizations, make it possible for us to provide you with 36 month performance forecast.

Please keep in mind that strong house appeal performance is critical to the success of the fund raising program. We will have a more accurate picture of net income that can be expected from your program after we see the results of several house appeals.

Based on the test results and historical data, the projected net income from the direct mail program over the next three years is...

1. First 12 Months = $64,000
2. Second 12 Months = $235,000
3. Third 12 Months = $300,000

Note that this 36 month forecast anticipates a slight decline in response rates as a broader selection of lists are used in the donor acquisition process. To be perfectly frank, direct mail is not the right fund raising medium for you if you expect instant results. It simply does not work that way. But as your house list grows, so does net revenue to the organization. That's why net revenue in years three and beyond is dramatically higher than that in years one and two.

Although we are very confident that Free Schaeffer Cox can raise funds through the mail on an ongoing basis, I want to make it clear that direct mail fund raising is not a panacea. It is like putting a heavy flywheel into motion. A flywheel moves very slowly at first, but with continued exertion turns faster and faster, gaining power with each revolution. Similarly, a direct mail fund raising program is expensive at the start-up stage, but as the house list grows, it becomes more productive, efficient, and powerful with each new donor added.

A direct mail program starts by trying to find individuals who will support the organization on an ongoing basis. These mailings are called donor acquisition appeals and typically they do not net money. They are an investment in the future of Free Schaeffer Cox. The financial investment to find donors must be covered by net from house appeals (mailings to individuals who have previously donated to your organization).

While you are building your house file the cost to raise a dollar will be higher. However, as the program matures, the cost to raise a dollar will decline significantly.

The enclosed chart shows that on average (for our current clients) 31% of all donations are net income available to the client. Of course, some client's net revenue percentages are significantly higher, while others are lower. It all depends on the public's response to your appeals. Please note that although Eberle Associates is paid on a flat fee basis, EA mailing fees typically amount to just 8% of the all revenues collected.

Is direct mail fundraising the right fundraising medium for Free Schaeffer Cox? That's something only you and your board of directors can decide. As noted when the pro bono test was conducted, you are under absolutely no obligation whatsoever to proceed. The enclosed FAQs should help to answer other questions you may have regarding the fundraising process, including information on vendor services, postage, and the transfer of net income to your organization.

When should you expect to start receiving net revenue from an ongoing direct mail program? The answer: Free Schaeffer Cox will begin receiving a monthly transfer based on net revenue after your third house mailing. By the time we have revenue in from the third house appeal the net revenue from monthly house appeals should not only cover the cost of the donor acquisition program, but also provide a reliable monthly net revenue stream to the organization. And, as the house list continues to grow, the net revenue stream will grow as the projections indicate.

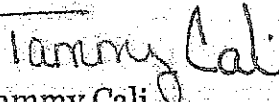

For your review, I have enclosed two copies of our standard direct mail fund raising agreement. If, you wish to proceed, please do the following:

1. Date and sign both copies of the enclosed Agreement. Please note that various states require the President or Chairman as well as another officer or director of Free Schaeffer Cox to sign the Agreement.
2. Return both copies of the Agreement to Eberle Associates, to the attention of Karen London. Upon receipt, I will sign the Agreement, return one completely executed copy to you for your files, and retain one copy for our records.

Thank you for placing your confidence in us, Maria. We truly are committed to helping raise critical funding to Schaeffer's legal battle.

Sincerely,

Tammy Cali
President

Schaeffer,

Please find the copy below for your edits. Please read through it and copy it down on standard 8.5 x 11 white paper. It would be great if you can keep the paragraphs very short...like 2 to three sentences max. That makes it easy for our donors to read.

Please also remember that I had to summarize a lot of information to keep it simple for the donors. I welcome your edits and changes.

Also, please know that there is more copy including a carrier envelope, a 7x10 2 page lift not from Robert John, and a reply sheet addressed to Robert John for donations. I just cant send those to you obviously. I also just sent them copy to Maria.

With that said, here it is...

September 1st, 2014

Dear Patriotic American,

I m taking a great risk sending this letter to you. If it becomes known, I may be shackled and sent to the "hole" for the rest of my life

But its a risk I am willing to take so I can see my wife and children again.

Here they are in the two pictures I sent you. One is of my sweetheart Marti and me holding our newborn son Seth during happier times.

The other is of Seth all grown up with his little sister my angel, Bri. The last time I held them in my arms was over two years ago, and without your immediate help, I won t hold them for another 24.

That s because I m serving a 26 year sentence in a maximum security prison nicknamed "Little Guantanamo" in Marion, Illinois for crimes I didn t commit!

My name is Francis Schaeffer Cox and I am a twenty nine year old political prisoner of the Obama Administration.

Quick reference

My only crime was believing in the Second Amendment and that the government should obey the Constitution.

That s all it took the feds to take away my freedom, widow my wife, and orphan my children.

Quick Ask

It s my hope and prayer that after reading this and seeing the hell my family and I have been through, that you will help me with this -- my LAST chance to prove my innocence --and return home to my family.

This is my cry for help. Not just for me and my family, but for Americans like you who may be the government s next target.

I have to warn you if they could throw me in prison for 26 years for speaking out in favor of the Second Amendment, they can come for you too.

I would sure up in first paragraph

With that said, here s my story

I ve lived in Alaska almost all my life. It s where my father taught me how to hunt, my godparents taught me to fish, and where I climbed to the summit of Mt. McKinley.

It s also where I met my faithful and loving wife, Marti. To this day I can still smell the perfume she wore on our first date that drove me crazy!

With her help and blessing, I decided to run for the Alaska State House of Representatives in 2010.

It was a tight three way race that I narrowly lost, but it did position me for a strong run in the next election.

But that was two years away, and like you, I m not one to sit back and watch as my country falls apart. So I decided to start campaigning early by hosting town halls and meetings all across Alaska.

Little did I know at the time that the federal government would soon take notice and unleash a hellish nightmare on me and my family.

My platform was simple: the government needs to follow the Constitution and has no right to tread on your or my right to keep and bear arms.

I watched as the crowds of patriots, just like you, grew from dozens, to hundreds, to thousands.

Keep in mind that this was taking place right after the 2010 elections when Obama and the Democrats took a beating. As you can imagine, he was probably quite eager to "retaliate" in any way he could.

That s when the federal government took notice of my rallies and my family s nightmare began.

Looking back as I sit in my prison cell, I now know from court documents that the government looked high and low for reasons to silence or arrest me.

But they found none.

Like you, I am an honest man that fears God and loves his country. I paid my taxes, ran my business ethically, and followed the rule of law.

I guess I was naïve to expect the federal government to do the same.

So with no reason to arrest me, what did the government do? They sent two undercover federal agents wearing wires to get close to me and convince me to commit a crime.

Now, I know the Obama Administration has a special hatred for the Second Amendment, but I never thought they would go this far to silence someone like me..

just for SPEAKING in favor of it!

But that was their goal. To silence me. And that s why they sent the two undercover federal agents.

Of course I had no idea they were federal agents at the time, but it didn t take long for me to realize something was wrong.

You ll never guess what they told me the first time they met me.

They said, "you need to use your influence to organize a violent attack on the government. That s the only way you can make a difference."

You know what my reaction was? I looked them right in the eyes and told them they were out of their minds.

TRULINCS 16179006 - COX, FRANCIS SCHAEFFE - Unit: MAR-I-A

I am a peaceful man who loves my country. Using my influence to encourage a violent attack on the government would only destroy the peace and stability I was trying to preserve!

From that day forward I did everything I could to stay away from them. And I advised all of my friends to do the same.

But they refused to give up. After several more months of unsuccessful attempts to change my mind, the feds decided to kick it up a notch by targeting what meant the most to me in the world my family.

You'll have to forgive me, but it's difficult for me to write about this. It makes me angry and heartbroken at the same time. But you have to know how far Obama's government went to frame me.

You see, earlier in 2010 I was charged with a misdemeanor weapons offense for carrying a pistol without a permit.

I'm not making excuses for myself, I know I was wrong. But this is Alaska. We all carry around some sort of weapon to protect our families from dangerous animals.

But the feds didn't see it that way. All they saw was an opportunity to get to my son.

So they sent the Office of Children's Services or "OCS" to my home to steal Seth from us!

~~Before delivery~~
But before they could, Marti and I called our wonderful friend and lawyer Robert John the same lawyer who delivered this letter to you today.

That's when he told us that the federal government had convinced a local judge to issue a "use of force" warrant to storm our home with a SWAT TEAM to take Seth by force!

Robert John advised us that this was not normal and that we should leave our home immediately while he sorted it out. So we did.

Explain a STING
That's when we received a call from one of the undercover agents and remember I still didn't know these were feds who were wearing wires and trying to set me up.

"See! I told you so!" he screamed into the phone.

"Now the feds are attacking your children. That's a line in the sand we can't let them cross! If they do anything, I'm going to attack them! And if you refuse to help, I'll kill you and your family for being a coward!"

When Marti and I heard that our hearts sank.

Not only was the government coming after our child, but now our lives were being threatened for refusing to commit a crime!

You know what I did at that point? I took my family and packed up to leave the state. I had to get them as far away from these madmen as possible.

Wouldn't you do the same in my position?

But before we could get away, the two undercover agents confronted me one last time talking about some plan they said I came up with called "241", or two for one.

Of course, I had no idea what they were talking about. But they kept talking as if I had arranged the whole plan that called for killing two government agents for every one citizen they harassed.

They even asked me for my hit list.

All I could manage to say, in my complete confusion and horror, was that "I would never, under any circumstances, harm anyone."

TRULINCS 16179006 - COX, FRANCIS SCHAEFFER - Unit: MAR-I-A

Handwritten: "Humbly"

Looking back I feel foolish that I didn't realize these were feds trying to entrap me. But how could I have known?

They reminded me that they had weapons, that I supposedly ordered, to take these government "bastards" out.

Oh, and they reminded me of their promise to kill me and my family if I didn't use my influence to help them.

All I could say was "No, and stay the hell away from me and my family."

But you know what? My response didn't matter. The feds were listening in to the conversation and figured they had enough to frame me and send me to prison.

So moments later as my family and I were getting into our car, an FBI "take down" swarmed us and arrested me.

As my arms were handcuffed, an FBI agent told me that they were informed I had given orders to "shoot federal agents on sight."

You've got to be kidding me! That's the most ridiculous thing I ever heard!

But it didn't matter. Off to jail I went.

The government then proceeded to raid my home, break my windows, and traumatize my wife and children while looking for evidence that didn't exist.

After they found nothing, the feds moved my trial hundreds of miles away to Anchorage.

I'm convinced that was a deliberate move to make sure I didn't have easy access to my lawyer and had to fly in all of my witnesses on my own dime.

Marti had to sell our home, all of our possessions, and eventually declare bankruptcy to help pay my legal bills.

But we held on to hope. We were absolutely convinced I would be home soon and this nightmare would be over.

After all, we still had the secret recordings that would prove my innocence. But you know what?

The judge REFUSED to allow them to be played to the jury! I couldn't believe it!

Even the prosecution admitted that I refused to commit a crime, but they argued it didn't matter.

Why? Because they said that at some point, in the distant future, I MAY, POSSIBLY, harm a government official.

And the judge agreed.

So I was convicted of conspiring to kill government officials even though there were no victims, and no crime was ever committed.

But that didn't stop the Judge from sentencing me to 26 years in prison and taking an early lunch.

All of this because I spoke in front of thousands of people supporting your and my right to keep and bear arms!

I thank God it wasn't life, but it was enough to widow my wife, orphan my kids, and send me to this maximum security hell-hole for political prisoners of the Obama Administration.

And that's where I am writing you from today.

As I look around these cracked white walls - decorated with pictures Seth and Bri drew to remind me how much they love daddy -- I can't help but feel defeated.

TRULINCS 16179006 - COX, FRANCIS SCHAEFFE - Unit: MAR-I-A

I am no longer a man. I am a crushed prisoner. I am no longer Schaeffer Cox, I am prisoner #16179-006

But there is some really good news today, thanks to my friend and attorney Robert John. You see, I have a one-time opportunity to appeal my conviction to a three judge panel on the ninth Circuit Court of Appeals based on the fact that the prosecution withheld evidence the same wiretap evidence I told you about earlier that proves me innocent!

Good attorneys aren't cheap, but Robert John is the best and he is willing to do this appeal for next to nothing.

Ask

The problem is that it costs $74,000 and we only have until Thursday October 30th to raise the money to file it.

I know the kind of man Robert is, and I'm sure he would pay this fee out of his own pocket if he could, just to help a friend.

But he's already set aside his law practice and took on over $34K in debt trying to free me. I can't ask him to sacrifice any more than he's already done.

Ask

If we are going to get this appeal filed and reverse my conviction, we have to raise the $74,000 right now.

I know this is my last chance. That's why I desperately need your help.

Because of I can't take advantage of this one last opportunity, I may spend the next 24 years in this dark cell instead of raising my son and daughter.

This is important because while Justice is blind, she's not deaf! And the NRA can make some noise.

As I told you earlier, my family has lost everything. We don't have a cent left to our name.

That's why I am praying to God that you will find it in your heart to support my appeal with a gift of $26 one dollar for every year I was unjustly convicted to serve in this prison simply for believing in the Constitution and the Second Amendment!

Every dollar you send could mean the difference between me rotting in Obama's secret prison for the next 24 years or going home to hold my kids.

Please Seth doesn't understand why daddy had to leave.

Bri doesn't understand why daddy isn't there to kiss her goodnight.

I am praying that my story has touched your heart and you will help in this -my last chance to prove my innocence.

But no matter what you do, please pray for my wife and kids. Pray for their safety and that God will watch over them while daddy is gone. Most of all, please pray that God sheds light on the truth and brings me home to be with my family.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart,

Francis Schaeffer Cox

W Compassion

P.S. Please remember I only have one last chance to prove my innocence and return home to my family or else I will spend the next 24 years in this 6x9 dark cell while my kids grow up without their daddy.

Ask, Urgent

Your $26 gift today will help make sure my lawyer Robert John can raise the $74,000 he needs to file my appeal with the 9th Circuit Court by October 30th.

Remember this appeal is much bigger than me. If the Obama Administration can target me for speaking out against his attacks on the Second Amendment, they can come for you too. Thank you and God Bless.

- 15. Claims. The Client specifically agrees to hold Agency, their officers, directors, and employees harmless from any and all claims of third parties, of any nature whatsoever, arising out of materials, including copy, or direct mail fund raising projects, letters and/or packages reviewed and approved by the Client. In the event any payment due Agency and/or direct mail fund raising creditors is not made in accord with the terms of this Agreement and the obligation(s) is referred to any attorney for collection, the Client agrees to pay all costs of collection, including an attorney's fee of twenty percent of the sum due.
- 16. Conflicting Agreements. The Client certifies to Agency that there is no conflicting agreement with other fund raising counsel or with a direct mail fund raiser or list broker currently in existence as of the effective date of this Agreement which conflicts with the terms hereof. The Client further agrees not to enter into any subsequent agreement which conflicts with the terms of this Agreement.

The addresses set forth above for the respective parties shall be the places where notices shall be sent, unless written notice of a change of address is given.

The undersigned do hereby personally warrant and affirm that they are authorized to execute this Agreement and bind the parties hereto.

SUBJECT: AFL Letter From April 2015 Redacted - Agreement
DATE: 03/07/2016 08:54:18 AM

April 12, 2015

Hello Schaeffer,

We thank YHWH for sustaining you and anticipate the soon coming day that He walks you out of your bondage.

As the Board of Directors of AFL, we have humbly endeavored to assist your vindication and restoration to your family. We recognize that you have been forced into a desperate situation. It is most difficult for a courageous man to surrender any control when under attack. For a courageous and intelligent man to function in a desperate circumstance where his natural rights have been violated and effectively removed is especially painful. We credit our Creator for you being able to maintain your wits and energy.

This board is acting as a team with you and has tasked itself to act in a fiduciary manner to restore your liberty. It is paramount that funds are raised and properly managed to maximize the use of those funds in the effort to seek your release. This is not the only purpose of this board, but it is certainly a top priority. The years of cumulative experience assembled in this Board provides you with a gift that allows you to delegate specific responsibilities allowing you to focus on those duties that only you can proficiently fulfill. If you want this Board to effectively exercise its fiduciary capacity, it does require that you voluntarily delegate those responsibilities to this Board and for you to not undermine the actions, negotiations and authority of this Board.

Whenever any person or entity whose services are required is contacted regarding business issues, extreme discretion is mandatory. When information is provided to you by the Board or by any of those contracted by the Board, all business information must be kept confidential and not repeated to any other party. As experienced professionals acting in fiduciary capacities for many years, the one thing we have little remedy for is a principal that negates our ability to negotiate. This is why agents tend to never allow their principals to have any contact with those whom they are negotiating. In this case, it is necessary for you to have contact with most of those that the Board is contracting with for services. It is therefore critical for you to not discuss business issues with those servicers and to direct them to the Board if they have any questions regarding fees, available funds or other business related issues. If we (team including you) need to solicit help from a paid servicer, the business terms cannot be negotiated from a position of desperation. The Board is very pleased with the funds we anticipate being raised. Those funds are going to get spread a bit thin, but will be manageable if we are careful and act as good stewards. Disclosing specifics to servicers is not only unwise, it undermines the ability of the Board to contract. It also will adversely affect the attitudes of the servicing parties. Information released must be consistent and you are not always privy to what the Board has already stated or how the Board intends to approach a servicer. Telling someone there is a certain amount being paid or there isn't enough funds to pay for a specific service is counterproductive and better left to the Board. It is also not information sensors or your detractors should be seeing or hearing.

If you have a concern that you need to express to someone other than legal counsel, this Board is the perfect place to share any such concern. We forgive you in advance and understand if you need to vent. We also cannot help if we are not aware of what is needed. Note that this letter is coming to you xxxxxx. It is best to be discrete in all emails and phone calls, even with members of this Board. Thus, if you find it absolutely necessary to relate specific business information to the Board, consider doing so through RJ or other current legal counsel. Let us be your ombudsmen. Just as we hope you give us the benefit of doubt, we will do the same for you.

When we meet as a board, prayer is a part of each meeting as a general rule. You and your family are typically the focus of those prayers. The Creator has a purpose for you even where you are. If you are to have your liberty restored, it will be because of Him and to His esteem that you are freed. We seek His assistance and direction in our every effort. Thus far, His desire has been manifest in the results. His timing is perfect. Our resolve is solid and we pray you remain steadfast, knowing you are not alone in this battle.

YHWH bara (bless),

Justice for Schaeffer

An Urgent Demand to Karen Loeffler – Assistant US Attorney for the District of Alaska

Dear Karen Loeffler,

On January 8, 2012, US District Judge Robert Bryan sentenced 27-year-old Francis Schaeffer Cox to 26 years in federal prison.

His crime? Standing up publicly for our inalienable rights like free speech and the right to keep and bear arms.

For that "crime", Obama's Justice Department led by your Assistant US Attorney and employee Steve Skrocki – falsely accused Schaeffer of "conspiracy to commit murder" of federal officials.

There was no crime, no victim, and most important of all, no smoking gun.

There was, however, plenty of evidence proving Schaeffer's Innocence Evidence Obama's DOJ, led by your employee Attorney Steve Skrocki, knowingly hid from the judge and jury at trial.

A blatant 'BRADY' violation established by the US Supreme Court in Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83.

Because of this Schaeffer was convicted and sentenced to 26 years in federal prison.

An injustice that cost him his freedom, widowed his wife, Mary, and orphaned his two young children, Seth and Bri.

The following pages expose the evidence your US Attorney Skrocki hid at trial that proves Schaeffer was innocent and the government knew all along.

Since you are the US Attorney for the District of Alaska and Skrocki's boss, today I call on you to publicly denounce this injustice and call for an immediate evaluation of the new evidence.

Who is Schaeffer COX?

Schaeffer Cox is an example of the tyrannical grip the Federal Government has on the people and their thoughts. There is no injured party, there was no crime.

Larry Pratt - Executive Director
Gun Owners of America (GOA)

Francis Schaeffer Cox: Husband, and Father

First and foremost, Schaeffer is a loving husband and father of two children, Seth and Bri.

The picture you see above is one of the last he took with his wife, Marii and son, Seth before the government framed and arrested him.

Seth was only three years old at the time, but was already Schaeffer's best bud and one of the guys. He'd go to work with Schaeffer and ride along in his backpock when he went hiking and skiing.

Even the time they spent napping on the sailboat was special.

Then there's Schaeffer's daughter, Bri.

She was only a few weeks old when Obama's DOJ tore her family apart.

Now she's five and Schaeffer doesn't even know what she's like. And she has to imagine

What it's like to have a dad. Here she is today all grown up with her big brother, Seth.

Schaeffer has never held Bri and hasn't hugged Seth in over 5 1/2 years.

And if Obama's DOJ has its way, he won't hold either of them for another 22 years.

Francis Schaeffer Cox: Constitutional Conservative

As a Constitutional Conservative and Alaskan, Schaeffer ran for the Alaska State House of Representatives in 2008.

He lost a tight three way race with 38% of the vote, but that positioned him for a strong run in the next election.

Still, like all patriotic Americans, Schaeffer was not one to sit back and watch as the country he loves falls apart.

So as a talented speaker and 2nd Amendment advocate, Schaeffer started hosting town hall meetings in Alaska and across America warning Americans in fiery speeches about the tyrannical path of the federal government.

His speeches captivated Americans but also got the attention of the Obama Administration and his corrupt Department of Justice (DOJ).

These tyrants hate the 1st and 2nd Amendments and anyone who supports them.

They knew they had to find (or make) a way to silence Schaeffer.

So on February 16, 2010, the FBI initiated their preliminary investigation.

That's when Schaeffer's nightmare began...

Part 2

The Federal Framing of Schaeffer Cox

"When governments fear the people, there is liberty. When the people fear the government, there is tyranny."

President Thomas Jefferson

If the Government Wants You Guilty, They'll Make You Guilty

The government's plan was simple:

Attempt to entrap Schaeffer into cooperating with the government.

To do that, the government needed to enlist the aid of confidential informants.

These are usually individuals facing criminal charges of their own who, in exchange for greatly reduced or dismissed charges, agree to act on behalf of the government.

These people are often evil in their own right and have usually been involved in crime before.

You know — the perfect type of person you'd want to be a witness against you. Nothing to lose and everything to gain by framing you.

These people are known as Confidential Informants (CIs) or Confidential Human Sources.

And in Cox's case there were two main CIs:

Gerald "JR" Olson and William "Bill" Fulton.

Government CI: Gerald "JR" Olson

Olson is a serial criminal who first ran drugs as a trucker then later took advantage of people as a contractor.

According to the Alaska Dispatch,

"Gerald R. Olson, known as "J.R." and as "Jerry," first made headlines in 2005 when he was convicted for illegally installing septic systems in Peters Creek and Wasilla, most of which never worked. By fall 2009, he was again in trouble with the law, accused of stealing a $69,000 construction tractor."

He faced several felonies and tens, if not hundreds of thousands in restitution.

It has been reported that his felonies have all been dismissed, and he has since disappeared.

Government CI #2 - William "Bill" Fulton

"Bill" Fulton, AKA "Drop Zone Bill" first came to fame in October of 2010 when he falsely arrested a reporter while supposedly providing "security" at a campaign event for U.S. Senate Tea Party candidate Joe Miller.

According to witnesses, he made death threat ultimatums to Schaeffer Cox and others when the Cox group refused to act violently against the government.

Fulton even admitted to saying:

"I am going to slit your f'ing throat and bleed you out at my feet you son of a b...."

while holding a knife to the neck of Schaeffer's friend, Les Zerbe, who stood against Fulton saying they had no plan to act violently.

Fulton attempted to entrap Schaeffer several times by claiming he had men and weapons ready to attack the government.

All Cox needed to do was get on board.

But Schaeffer never did. And that only made the informants and government that much angrier. So angry, they decided to go after the most precious thing in the world to Schaeffer...

I think I told him I was going to slit his throat and bleed him out at my feet. I believe that was the exact term -- slit your fucking throat and bleed you out at my feet you son of a bitch. This is, like, the second time I'd ever met him, and I was literally coming over the counter with a knife. I had a knife. I was going to fucking do it.

- Bill F. FBI Informant

Government Threats Against Schaeffer's Family

When FBI informants Fulton and Olson realized they would not be able to get secret audio recordings of Schaeffer agreeing to "use violence against the government", they decided to go after the most precious thing in the world to him...

...his family.

Soon after, to Schaeffer and Marti's surprise, the feds filed a child neglect complaint with the Office of Child Services and convinced a local judge to issue a "Writ of Assistance" to seize then one year old Seth.

Schaeffer's good friend and lawyer, Robert John, advised him to lay low while he sorted it out. That's when Schaeffer decided the best thing he could do for himself and his family was to stay as far away from these instigators as possible.

That's when Fulton caught up with him one last time and said,

"See, I told you so! Now the feds are attacking your children. That's a line in the sand we can't let them cross. If they do anything, I'm going to attack them to defend you. And if you refuse to stand up and help, I'll kill you for being a coward."

That's when Schaeffer decided the only way to get away from these men was to leave the country.

Anything to get as far away from Fulton and Olson – the men he still had no idea were working for the FBI.

But it was too late...

Almost immediately after Schaeffer and his family began to flee the state of Alaska, the government ambushed and arrested him.

Soon he was sitting in a secret jail cell charged with conspiracy to murder federal officials and several other bogus weapons charges.

There was no crime, no victim, and no smoking gun.

All the government had were secret audio recordings.

The same recordings captured by CI's Olson and Fulton. Recordings that, ironically, proved Schaeffer's innocence...

Not Guilty On All State Charges

In October 2011, Schaeffer's friend and lawyer Robert John, got the state of Alaska to drop all charges against Cox.

This was largely due to the fact that the secret FBI recordings gathered by Olson and Fulton clearly showed Schaeffer's innocence.

Nevertheless, the government still did not play these recordings in full.

Because the government wasn't interested in telling the full story.

And they certainly weren't going to stop until Schaeffer was in federal prison.

Guilty in Federal Court

Shortly after Cox was proven innocent on all state charges, the Obama Justice Department brought similar charges in Federal Court.

Only this time, the prosecution blocked Cox's lawyers from admitting dozens of pieces of crucial evidence proving his innocence. Including the most important evidence of all:

The secret audio recordings.

Because of this, Obama's DOJ was able to frame Schaeffer and falsely imprison him for 26 years in a federal prison nicknamed "Little Guantanamo."

And for nearly 5 1/2 years the federal government has kept the same evidence hidden from the public.

Until now....

Hidden U.S. Attorney Testimonies

On February 16, 2010, the government first took notice of Schaeffer's fiery speeches.

That's when they opened their preliminary investigation.

The next month, on March 25, 2010, an Assistant U.S. Attorney named Joe Bottini determined that:

"Schaeffer had not crossed the line between protected speech and actionable threat."

And on April 4, 2010, that opinion was independently confirmed by another Assistant U.S. Attorney, Stephen Cooper, who agreed...

"Legal action was inappropriate."

This evidence never made it to court.

PART 3:

No Smoking Gun: Hidden Evidence Exposed

"This case is by far the worst travesty of justice I have encountered in my 25-year legal career."

Robert John = Schaeffer's Cox's lawyer on state charges

CT William "Bill" Fulton's Illicit Affair

William "Bill" Fulton – confidential informant and the same man who threatened Schaeffer's family and life – allegedly had an illicit affair with FBI Agent Sandi Klein.

One of the same agents who helped take Schaeffer down.

This is key evidence the jury and judge needed to see.

But like the dozens of other pieces of evidence, it never made it to trial.

The Federal Government Secret Recordings Never Admitted to Trial

Schaeffer's defense team had possession of numerous audio recordings not only proving his innocence, but also proving the government was actively attempting to frame him.

Here are some of those recordings that were never admitted as evidence into trial:

- An FBI Agent was secretly audio taped saying they [the government] was seeking to jail Schaeffer because he was

"Talking smack about the government"

- FBI recordings showing how Schaeffer desperately tried to get his family away from Bill Fulton = one of the CI's = after he threatened Schaeffer's family.

FBI Dispatch Friday, March 04, 2011

5:33:00 PM

SC/Schaeffer Cox is not willing to meet with GHS-2 [Fulton]. Does not want him [Fulton] to know he is still in Fairbanks.

= Special Agent Rick Sutherland

But the most important piece of audio evidence was Schaeffer's response to the CI's that he would never attack the government.

These recordings prove his innocence and we're not admitted in trial due to the prosecution.

Now, for the first time ever, we've sharing them with the American public.

Rhainbo, Ghandi, and a Corrupt Prosecutor

For the prosecution to prove the conspiracy, the jury had to be convinced that Cox wanted to kill someone, sometime in the future, without any real, or actual threats.

A non-specific threat was exactly what Skrocki - the government's prosecutor - deceitfully sold to the jury.

He did so by hiding a large majority of its own recordings from being heard, and reports written by its own investigating special agents.

Schaeffer sums up the issue when he says:

"At my trial, the prosecution just told a scary story about what I might have done some day if they hadn't taken me out. Then they tried to block the jury from seeing the truth about what I ACTUALLY DID DO in real life, i.e. told the agent provocateurs NO, then packed up my family to move out of the country to get away from the coercive CIs and their death threat ultimatums."

The government never allowed the actual voice recordings proving Schaeffer's innocence to be played at trial. This is the first time they've been shown publicly.

When threatened by the CIs that he must attack the government, Schaeffer repeatedly responded:

"We're not doing a Rambo, we're pulling a Gandhi."

"I'm not motivated by wanting to see their heads roll. I'm motivated by wanting my family to live free and prosperous and happy."

Guilty Until Proven Innocent

Here's the bottom line:

The jury didn't hear the majority of the audio recordings in Cox's case.

Just like the DOJ and prosecutor Skrocki intended.

They only heard a few cherry-picked moments that painted Schaeffer in a bad light.

No wonder the judge and jury convicted him for 26 years.

But in order for Skrocki and the government to get away with this, they had to hide evidence.

An act that is highly illegal...

Brady v. Maryland 373 U.S. 83

This landmark Supreme Court case ruled that the prosecution may not suppress evidence that is favorable to the defendant.

This is now known as a Brady Violation.

And that's exactly what happened in Schaeffer's case.

The prosecution led by Skrocki withheld the same audio recordings mentioned previously that proved Schaeffer's innocence.

Plus dozens of other pieces of evidence.

But the same BRADY violation that helped lock Schaeffer up for 26 years may now be the key to getting him back home to his family...

How You Can Help Free Schaeffer Cox Today

Now that you've read through this booklet and understand how the government systematically hunted down and entrapped a young and charismatic patriot who dared to stand up to their overreach, I'm hoping you'll do three things to help bring Schaeffer home today:

- 1.) Sign and return this booklet so we can deliver it to Karen Loeffler—US Attorney for the District of Alaska.

Loeffler is (AUSA) Steve Skrocki's boss and ultimately responsible for Schaeffer's incarceration. It was under her watch that this case took place and falls on her to correct it. Additionally, she can be reached at (907) 271-5071. You can also e-mail her at Karen.Loeffler@usdoj.gov

2.) Go to USObserver.com to read Schaeffer's story and see more of the evidence the government hid at trial.

3.) Send a gift of at least $26 – one dollar for every year Schaeffer was unjustly sentenced to serve – to help him appeal his case using this new evidence.

Please remember, Schaeffer was not the only one to have his life destroyed by the government. His wife Marti is now a widow at 27 and his kids, Seth and Bri, have to grow up without their dad.

Please... their lives are in your hands...

As one of Schaeffer's close friends, I know Schaeffer is an innocent man. I've witnessed firsthand how the Obama Administration made an example of him and have heard the audio tapes that prove his innocence.

That's why I'm heading the Free Schaeffer Cox Liberty Fund. I won't rest until we expose this corruption and get Schaeffer out of his jail cell and back with his family where he belongs.

I pray you'll take a moment to read these testimonials from Americans just like you who support Schaeffer and his fight for liberty. Thank you and God Bless!

Schaeffer Cox is an example of the tyrannical grip the Federal Government has on the people and their thoughts. There is no injured party; there was no crime. At what point has the overreaching grip of the Federal Government gone too far? If someone does not think the way the Federal Government wants them to or challenges the policies, the person is considered a threat.

The importance of this case is critical for the whole of humanity. When a government decides what we can eat, what we must buy and what we are allowed to think, we no longer have life. - "When Justice is Blind - The Story of Francis Schaeffer Cox" September 8th, 2014.

Larry Pratt - Executive Director, Gun Owners of America (GOA)

To put Schaeffer in jail for a crime he did not commit is improper. All he is guilty of is trying to protect his family against police actions by the FBI and State Troopers. Why ruin this young man's life? His sentence should be to time served, or as short as possible, in a minimum security facility!

Henry Wichmann, Jr., Ph.D, CPA—Professor Emeritus of Accounting, University of Alaska

As an Army Soldier and Officer, I am personally against all terrorists foreign and domestic, and I have great confidence that Schaeffer is not the same individual that the prosecutors portrayed him as. If he was the terrorist they made him look like, I would be on their side.

Raymond Lowdermilk, family friend, US Army

I know of no other 28 year old who has been as active and successful as he has. I say all of this to say that Schaeffer's life has been characterized by action and trying to do what's right. So when his interest turned to our country's issues, and the fall we're headed for, he spoke out with warnings to turn back to God and the Constitution...

Dan Casey, Schaeffer's SCUBA Diving partner

Never, ever have I seen any signal of hostility or violence in Schaeffer and I remain in his defense, certain that he is not guilty of conspiring to murder anyone. Judge Bryan, you don't know the Schaeffer we know, so you don't understand the mistake that the system made by pressing these outrageous charges. The fact that they used guilty felons to capture an innocent man leaves me with a sense of shock at the deformation of the U.S. judicial system.

Kaleah Neff

There was once a time in my life when I was homeless and had almost nothing. Schaeffer let me stay in his house, provided me with food and give me time to find a good place to live. After all he did for me he asked for nothing in return because he believed it was the right thing to do.

Levi Rothe, Schaeffer's close friend for 30 years

I have been very impressed with his sincere concern for his family and community. Seldom have I seen him without his son in his arms, and his wife nearby. During our early morning encounters, Schaeffer continually expressed concern that any organization that might result from his leadership would be focused on maintaining the peace and order of the community and serve only to protect the innocent from possible villain/mob violence – certainly a significant concern of any civilized person of responsibility and particularly of a devout Christian.

Hal Hume, former police chief of the Alaska State Trooper Post in Fairbanks (Schaeffer's home town)

Schaeffer had been a candidate for public office, and we were introduced by mutual friends. As we got to know each other better, I was impressed with his understanding of the principles of American civics and government, and his ability to articulate the principles of good government.

August 2012/Joel Boniek – former Montana House Representative and Schaeffer's hunting buddy

I am Mr. Bryan R Christie. I'm a recent retiree from the Dept. of Defense with four years active duty and another nineteen years working as a civilian with a security clearance... I agree with Schaeffer that the America I grew up in is going away. He is not trying to overthrow the government. We want the country that was laid out to us by the founding fathers and the country countless patriots died for. As far as I'm concerned he is a political prisoner. To me Schaeffer is like Paul Revere warning the citizens of our beloved country...

Bryan Christie

I was struck with how capable and astute he was in the principles of management and fiscal constraints. Schaeffer was quite personable and inquisitive, showing great respect for the wisdom of others. With those type of outstanding qualities, I would have been very happy to have Schaeffer in my engine room crew on a nuclear submarine.

October 5, 2015

Dear Friend of the 2nd Amendment,

My name is Francis Schaeffer Cox and I'm a thirty year old political prisoner of the Obama Administration.

My only crime was believing in the Second Amendment and that the government should obey our Constitution.

That's all it took for Obama's feds to take away my freedom, widow my wife, and orphan my children.

I'm taking a huge risk sending this letter to you. If it becomes known, I may be shackled and sent to the "hole" for years.

But it's a risk I'm willing to take to see my wife and kids again.

Here they are in the two pictures I sent you. One is of my sweetheart Marti and me holding our newborn son Seth during happier times.

The other is of Seth all grown up with his little sister, my angel, Bri. The last time I held them in my arms was over three years ago, and without your immediate help, I won't hold them for another 22.

That's because I'm serving a 26 year sentence in a prison nicknamed "Little Guantanamo" for crimes I didn't commit.

It's my hope and prayer that after reading this and seeing the hell my family and I have been through, you will help me with this — my LAST chance to prove my innocence — and return home to my family.

This is my cry for help. Not just for me and my family, but for Americans like you who may be Obama's next targets.

With that said, here's my story...

I never thought in a million years I'd be in prison.

After all, I was raised in a conservative Christian home in Alaska. It's where my father taught me how to hunt, my godparents taught me to fish, and where I climbed to the summit of Mt. McKinley.

It's also where I met my faithful and loving wife, Marti. Even in my cold 6x9 jail cell I can still smell the lavender perfume she wore on our first date 12 years ago.

With her blessing, I decided to run for the Alaska State House of Representatives in 2008. It was a tight three way race that I narrowly lost with 38% of the vote, but it did position me for a strong run in the next election.

But that was two years away, and like you, I'm not one to sit back and watch as my country falls apart. So I started campaigning early and hosting town hall meetings in Alaska and across America.

My platform was simple:

The government needs to follow the Constitution and stop trampling on our rights. Especially our natural right to keep and bear arms.

And I guess my message struck a nerve. Not just with the tens of thousands of patriots like you that poured into the town halls all across America, but also with Holder, Obama and their gun-grabbing friends.

These tyrants HATE the 2nd Amendment and anyone who supports it. So when my pro-second amendment speeches gained momentum across America, the Obama Administration decided they had to find (or make) a way to silence me.

That's when my family's nightmare began.

Looking back as I sit in my prison cell and pore through Homeland Security documents the government used in my case, I can see that the government looked high and low for some reason to silence or arrest me.

But they found none! Like you, I'm an honest man who fears God and loves his country. I paid my taxes, ran my business ethically, and followed the law.

But Obama wasn't looking for...

criminals. He was targeting conservative patriots who disagree with HIS criminal acts!

So he sent Attorney General Eric Holder and other corrupt Department of Justice Officials to target Alaska's conservatives— conservatives just like me.

Maybe you remember hearing about this several years ago? It was all over the news. The Obama Administration codenamed it "Operation Polar Pen." Go ahead and look it up. You'll be shocked at what they got away with using YOUR tax dollars!

Their plan was simple:

Use undercover FBI informants to create fake charges and sabotage political campaigns of anyone on Obama's enemies list.

They took down our Republican Senator Ted Stevens (who was also an NRA Executive Board Member), three Alaskan State House Reps, and dozens of local patriots.

And since I was the main organizer of the 2nd Amendment lobby in Alaska and represented thousands of conservative voters, I had to go and they didn't care how.

So it didn't take long for Holder's criminals and undercover agents to target and harass me and my family.

They started showing up one by one trying to talk me into committing a crime. Remember I didn't know they were undercover federal agents wearing wires at the time.

Those same audio recordings would later prove my innocence. But I'll get to that soon.

The first time one of the undercover agents came up to me he said... "You need to use your influence to organize a violent attack on the government. That's the only way you can make a difference."

I couldn't believe what I was hearing. I told them they were nuts and to stay away from me. But they didn't like hearing that.

So they got even more pushy and intimidating.

These thugs tried anything and everything to get me to say that I was going to attack the government.

But as soon as they realized that I would never say anything like that, they kicked it up a notch by going after the most important thing to me in the world...

...my Kids.

That's when the Feds filed a bogus child neglect complaint with the Office of Child Services and convinced a local judge to issue a "writ of assistance" to seize our 1 1/2 year old baby, Seth with a SWAT team!

Even writing about this tears me apart. I've never been more heartbroken and furious at the same time.

As soon as Marti and I found out, we called our friend and lawyer, Robert John.

He advised us that we should find a safe place to stay until he got to the bottom of it.

But before we could get far, one of the same undercover agents from before confronted us and said.

"See! I told you so! Now the feds are attacking your children. That's a line in the sand we can't let them cross! If they do anything, I'm going to attack them to defend you! And if you refuse to stand up and help, I'll kill YOU for being a coward!"

When Marti and I heard that our hearts sank.

Not only was the government coming after our son Seth, but now our lives were being threatened for refusing to commit a crime! And remember, I still had no idea these guys were undercover FBI agents.

What would you do at that point? I could only think of doing one thing: getting my family as far away from these thugs as possible.

So we packed up our bags and got ready to leave.

But before we could leave another FBI undercover informant caught

Obama's Feds had set an ambush. Out of nowhere masked agents swarmed in, slammed me to the ground, handcuffed me, and whisked me away in a black SUV.

Before I knew it, I was sitting in a jail cell charged by the Feds in State Court with "conspiracy against the government."

Read that again... CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT!?!?

Can you believe that? I still can't. And neither could my attorney Robert John, when I called him from jail pleading with him to get these ridiculous charges dropped.

And thank God, that's exactly what he did! Here's how:

Remember the audio recordings I told you about earlier? The one's that prove my innocence?

Well, Robert John got them admitted in pre-trial motions and as soon as the state judge heard them, he knew the case was nothing but lies and threw the whole thing out.

So after spending nearly a year in jail, going bankrupt, and missing my daughter Bri's first words, it looked like my family and I would be together again soon. Or so we thought...

That's when Obama and Holder sent their federal prosecutor named Joseph Bottini — the same man who took down Senator Ted Stevens — after me!

And you know the worst part? He charged me in Federal Court with the EXACT same charges!

But it gets worse. Not only was I facing charges I had already been found INNOCENT of in state court, now the prosecutor moved the trial hundreds of miles away so Marti and I couldn't afford to fly in my witnesses.

If that wasn't bad enough, the death blow came when the same prosecutor filed a motion barring us from playing the government's own recordings...

...the same recordings I told you about earlier that prove my INNOCENCE!

The whole thing was a...

sham. Everybody knew I hadn't broken any laws. The prosecution even admitted that I refused to commit a crime, but they argued that didn't matter. Why?

Because the government prosecutors said that my belief in the 2nd Amendment was "DANGEROUS" and "DISLOYAL" to the federal government.

They even argued that I may "POSSIBLY" someday "harm someone with my legal collection of firearms and that I was "plotting against the government."

Here's how it went in the courtroom:

Prosecutor: Are there any circumstances where you would resist the government?

Me: Yes. But only in the sense that my first loyalty is to the Constitution and the Rule of Law.

Prosecutor: You see! He's plotting against the government!
I rest my case!

Judge: GUILTY!

And that's all it took to widow my wife, orphan Seth and Bri, and condemn me to this tiny jail cell for 26 years.

So I have to ask you.

Is this the America you want to live in? One where the federal government can say you are "disloyal" if you support the 2nd Amendment? One where your kids and grandkids can be called terrorists and sent to prison for legally owning a weapon and supporting that right?

That's not the America I grew up in. And it's not the America I want Bri and Seth to grow up in.

And as a fellow 2nd Amendment supporter, I'm sure you feel

The same recorded evidence I told you about earlier that proves my innocence!

Not only would this allow me to possibly REVERSE my 26 year jail sentence and return home to my family it would also overturn a very dangerous precedent Obama set when he locked me up and threw away the key.

My case is the first one like it. If you and I stand by and do nothing, not only will I continue to rot in this tiny cell, Obama will also have all the legal precedent he needs to lock patriots like you and me away for supporting the 2nd Amendment.

And you better believe Hillary would love to inherit that power in 2016. The only way we can stop this is by appealing this landmark case right now.

So I have to ask you, one patriot to another...

Will you help me in this my last chance to overturn this wrongful conviction and return home to Marti, Seth and Bri?

~~I pray your answer is yes because I only have until Monday, December 21st. That's my deadline for filing this appeal.~~

But in order to do that I need a great attorney. And as you know, great attorneys don't come cheap.

I originally planned to have Robert John file the appeal and handle my case the same way he did before...

...but he's already sacrificed so much for me already. He put his law practice on hold, sacrificed his family time, and took on over 30K in debt to defend me.

What a friend! I can't ask him for anything more.

Fortunately, I think I've found the perfect attorney to handle my appeal and get me back home to Marti, Bri, and Seth.

But in order to do that, I desperately need to raise $15,124 by Monday, December 21st. That's the cost of filing my last chance appeal.

That's why I am turning to a select few patriots like you today. Without your immediate help, I'll miss my last chance appeal, Obama will set this dangerous precedent, and I'll spend the next 22 years locked up as a political prisoner away from my family.

As I told you earlier, my family has lost everything. We don't have a cent left to our name.

That's why I'm praying to God that you will find it in your heart to support my appeal with a gift of $26 — one dollar for every year I was unjustly sentenced to serve in prison.

I've even included a reply sheet from my legal team you can use to send back your urgent donation.

If you can send a larger gift of $33, $43, $51, $74, $99, $150, $1776 or even more, it would mean so much to me and my family. My legal team would put it to use right away to get me out of this secret prison.

But, if you can only afford a gift of $26, I won't ask for a penny more. I'm just so thankful for your help.

No matter what amount you can give, will you send it right now? Please, Seth doesn't understand why the men in masks took daddy away.

Bri doesn't understand why daddy isn't there to read her bedtime stories and kiss her goodnight.

And my beautiful wife, Marti doesn't deserve to be a widow at 27.

I have the evidence, I have a lawyer... and I have the truth on my side. I just need you and your urgent gift of at least $26 to help me prove it to the judges on the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

But no matter what you do, please pray for Seth and Bri who are missing their daddy. Pray for my wife who is struggling to make ends meet. And pray for our country.

My life is in your hands.

Francis Schaeffer Cox

P.S. The Obama Administration locked me up for 26 years in a political prison nicknamed "Little Guantanamo", widowed my wife, Marti and orphaned my two kids Seth and Bri because I publicly supported your and

Ryan,

DO NOT SEND OUT ANY MORE FUNDRAISING LETTERS UNTIL WE TALK.

I don't really need to get into the details with you, but The Free Schaeffer Cox Board has lost my confidence.

I'm not willing to let Eberly send out letters in my name asking people to donate money when that money will go to a board controlled by people I don't even know, who won't tell me where they are spending the money. That's just not a responsible way for me to do business.

So, I think what needs to happen is I (myself) need to sign on with Eberly so I can be in control of where the money raised in my name gets spent. I saw this coming. So I already have a trustee with an account set up. He is reliable and will do as I say, like a good accountant should.

Nobody is more qualified to make decisions that effect my life than ME. So that's how we need to quickly restructure this. Hopefully we won't skip a beat. I'd like the half-dollar mailer to be our opening act, rather than the Board's closing act. Can we make that happen?

If Maria and The Board want to keep their account with Eberly active and raise money to spend as they see fit, they are free to do so. They just can't write letters "from me" in the first person. They would have to do letters that say "we are a board that is raising money to be spent as we (The Board) sees fit to help Schaeffer Cox." Who knows? They may do some great things that save the day. I'm just saying I'm not going to ask people to donate to ME when in reality I have no idea at all where the money is actually going. That's reasonable.

I'm just making the smart business move here. It's nothing personal and I don't want to alienate the people on The Board if I can help it. I'm sure you can understand. At any rate, I think I can still be your strongest program. So let's get over this bump and back to work as fast as we can.

Schaeffer,

I want to pass on this message our President Tammy Cali has for you:

Dear Schaeffer,

I asked Ryan to let me respond because I believe that we may not have communicated well with you on this topic. So here goes:

Our contract is with Free Schaeffer Cox, A project of Alaskans for Liberty. We entered into the agreement to raise funds for YOU!

The disagreement you are having with your board is unfortunate, but not unusual. We have agreed to a conference call with them to talk about this and talk about what it means to YOUR program.

All that being said, from the very beginning we were interested in taking on this account to help YOU. To help YOU in your battle. We remain committed.

We will not mail out anything "from you" without your approval. If you do not wish to continue your association with Alaskans for Liberty, that is your decision. For us, we remain committed to YOU and be talking with Alaskans for Liberty to learn of your decision and if you all have worked out your differences. We will keep you informed of what they instruct us to do. We understand that this is a very serious and delicate situation.

If you are unable to not work out your differences, my best guess is that we will be terminating our consulting agreement with Alaskans for Liberty.

Again, my assurances that nothing will be mailed out by Eberle UNDER YOUR NAME without your blessings.

Schaeffer,

Sometimes a man can create his own solitary confinement. Just as your judgment failed to identify the criminal infiltrators/informants in time to protect yourself and family, now your judgment is failing to identify those who are trustworthy. The voices you are apparently listening to, whether internal or external, are deceiving you. To put it bluntly, your reactive behavior is severely self-destructive and has now isolated you from those best able to fight for you. The penitent letter you wrote after being incarcerated showed signs that there was hope for you. Now, you are on the verge of suffering the worst hell a man can ever know and that is being left only with self. Perhaps that is what is required for you to recognize the One you need the most...Yahushua. Only He can silence the deceiving evil voices that have been playing in your head and in your ears.

In April of last year, we sent you a letter (redacted & attached) which you acknowledged and agreed to. It was our reliance upon your commitment that we depended upon to justify the hundreds of hours each of us have dedicated to see the injustice inflicted upon you set right. It appears we may have erred in trusting your commitment.

Here are some straight facts. The fundraising group AFL contracted with has stated they have no desire to work with you in the absence of the AFL Board. The investigative reporter that AFL contracted with stated early on that they had no desire to get involved on this case without the AFL Board. Your own family, who have witnessed your reactive behavior many times, continue to refuse to engage in the fight AFL has undertaken on your behalf. Yet you have decided to breach your commitment to this Board and have launched a frivolous barrage of false accusation and backstabbing, sufficient to stop the momentum we have fought long and hard to achieve. We are at a critical point in the investigation and ready to strike hard. Perfect timing Schaeffer...right when the work is ready to pay off, you self destruct.

Do you remember Na'aman in 2 Kings chapter 5? Old Na'aman, the commander of the army in Syria who came down with leprosy and Elisha, the na i (prophet), wouldn't even come down to see him, he just sent word down. He said, "Tell Na'aman to go into the Yardén (Jordan) River and dip seven times." Na'aman was so puffy and proud; he was about to go home the leper he came, until he was persuaded to go into that river. And when he came up that seventh time, he was cleansed because that was the belief trust response that YHWH mandated. The AFL Board has sought the guidance of the Rua ha'Qodesh in each decision it has made. In order to maintain the momentum, it is required that you get hold of your reactive and destructive actions and allow the AFL Board to continue working with its fundraising group with your full support and assistance. Otherwise, that effort ceases and you will only be able to start from scratch with a different source on your own, if you are able to find one that will work with you.

In the meantime, AFL will complete this phase of the investigative reporting that is already funded. After that, it is up to you. We will not participate further as a Board if you persist with the disruptive actions. We will continue to pray for you Schaeffer.

YHWH bara (bless),

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Alaskans For Liberty

1. Sometime in 2014 the Board contracts with Fundraiser and Investigative Reporter. The three entities are happily working along, unified, having great success with enough anonymity to be effective. We are unified.
2. FF is unhappy because we are not telling him specific numbers.
3. FF asks, even bullies the Project Manager (PM) to give him the numbers. The PM attempts to reason with FF. The unified Board and Fundraiser do not provide specific details because they believe discussing specifics is not in FF's best interest.
4. FF claims to lose confidence in the Board; withdraws consent/effort to raise funds; declares war on the Board; wants to get rid of the Board (whose directors have volunteered their time, energy and effort to benefit FF only); FF wants to replace the Board with Trustee that will do exactly as he wishes, no questions asked.
5. FF makes an unsubstantiated accusation regarding one Director, based on a hunch.. The Board believes this claim to be false.
6. An extremely misguided and inaccurate correspondence from Fundraiser is sent to FF while he is in the CMU which makes FF believe he can disband the Board and contract directly with Fundraiser.
7. The PM responds to FF declaration of war and Fundraiser's misstep by temporarily shutting down all communication with FF in order to reestablish a unified effort to continue to help FF.
8. The Board meets to discuss and pray, agrees to listen to YHWH true will before meeting with Fundraiser.
9. The Board meets with Fundraiser and learns that the Fundraiser has no intention of contracting directly with FF in the absence of the Board. PM asks for the Fundraiser to write a letter making clear Fundraisers position.
10. Fundraiser sends second letter to FF making clear Fundraisers position.
11. The Board sends two letters via CorrLinks: 1)the April 2015 AFL Board letter stating its conditions for working on FF behalf and 2) second letter dated March 7, 2016 with the Board's current conditions for working of FF behalf.
12. The Board wishes FF to declare truce and return to the conditions set forth in April 2015 and continue working in a unified manner with Board, Fundraiser and Investigative Reporter. Anything less than this will result in a catastrophic loss of funds, the disbanding of the Board, the loss of Investigative Reporter, the end of the Fundraising contract and no more help from a highly unified team of people who love and care deeply for FF; in short, a dirty rotten shame, BUT a boon to those who wish to harm FF.

I am the PM and I need you to pull your head out NOW. And I need your help writing an article ASAP. The one that has been written isn't going to help you enough.

he sent this when i asked for proof that the copies we paid for were mailed out in Anchorage:

Maria,

I just had a lengthy conversation with Terry Dodd. Yesterday we also had a lengthy conversation during which I received feedback from him that the Board wanted to see our final draft before making any decisions about publishing. This will NOT happen.

There have been innuendos over the past week from you and 2nd hand from Terry that shows that you and the Board do not trust me or the US-Observer. This isn't okay with me...period. Do you realize how much liability I take on in a case such as Schaeffer's? You obviously don't. Do you think there isn't any push-back from the FBI or others in the Justice Department when I publicly go after their snitches? Who do you think shoulders the burden of making sure you and the Board aren't flagged for conspiring to obstruct justice, or whatever trumped up charge any of them would ever dream-up to attack a few more good people? I am. The US-Observer is. Our contract is clear, "Investigator may or may not provide any written statements, reports or billings regarding this case. Client agrees that Section 3-A is solely at the discretion of the Investigator." Can't you see the logical reasons for this?

In Schaeffer's case, I probably made a mistake early on giving you, Schaeffer and the board (but primarily you and Schaeffer) more involvement than I give anyone in any other case. I won't make that mistake again in any future case, as it ties our hands to people who haven't been doing this for years; who don't know how to complete our mission; or who fall for arguments or directions that yield absolutely zero results.

If you feel you know the direction to take Schaeffer Cox's case, then I suggest you run with it and we will step aside. If not then let us do our jobs!

If the answer is to let us do our jobs in attempting to get Schaeffer out, then trust us to do it. To my knowledge, we are the only ones involved who have accomplished this in the past.

If we are to continue, we will not be sending any proposed article to you for approval from here on out. We will send you papers and links when they are completed. When we ask to do a mailing we will expect a timely response so we aren't holding up our whole publication for your one case others are affected by this log-jam.

We have already delayed our next publication one week because of Schaeffer's case and we are at a critical stage. I told the Board long ago how I thought this case would play out and it has played out almost exactly like I predicted.

Bottom line If the Board doesn't trust us they shouldn't be doing business with us. If the Board wants to know if we send papers out then the Board can hire someone to spot-check the routes we send to. I have never opened my books for anyone and I don't intend to do so now (not that I really have any books to open). And, I won't spend many valuable hours explaining our reasons for what we do and what we don't do.

Please let us know by noon tomorrow (Pacific time) if you want to continue and with how many papers the Board will be paying for then have whoever writes the checks contact us and let us know that a check has been sent and for how much.

If we don't hear from you by noon tomorrow, there will be no ill feelings on our part. We will simply send you a final billing and discontinue our work.

Best Regards

Schaeffer,

Ed had a long conversation with Terry on Friday.

After their talk, Ed told me he was convinced that Maria was the only one that had insulted the integrity of the paper that you had nothing to do with it. He hadn't been himself the last few days and I could tell he was very relieved after talking with Dodd.

Dodd was obviously convincing in getting across that everyone finish what was started long ago. Ed agreed as it kills him to drop cases he believes he can win or where he has an innocent client who is legit; and honestly, it just isn't right to desert someone who is sitting in prison.

Ed agreed to finish the fight, with one serious caveat - he will not communicate or deal with Maria again. I can assure you she would be front page for challenging the USO if it weren't for you and Dodd.

I am waiting for directions before I get back into your case.

Best,

Ron

Schaeffer,

Bottom line is we asked to have the boards approval to do another massive mailing that would bluntly outline issues that we could hang on Loeffler in order to put pressure on her.. It was where we were going all along, and the board had agreed. When it came time for the decision on how many to publish and ship to, we were met with silence on the particulars but questions they wanted answers to - questions about receipts from our past mailing, and wanting to see the article we were publishing (which we were publishing a personal letter we had written to Loeffler) before they would consider the specifics.

Ed has never allowed a client to dictate what we can and cannot publish. We are on a tight deadline, and they knew that. Furthermore, he believes wholeheartedly that if the board does not trust us, then they simply shouldn't work with us. Ed gave them a deadline to give us a response to move forward with publishing, that if they did not contact us by we would drop the case - which was noon last Friday. They did not contact us, and they still haven't.

Best to you,

Ron

Schaeffer,

All communication has ceased between us and the Board. We do not know for sure who is in charge, or what their plans for the future of your case are. Ed believes the problem is Maria and from reports he has received, he believes her approach will be more of a common law approach, which will never yield any results as those methods have never gotten anyone out of prison and are ridiculed and harshly punished by the very system that has you in its clutches. We are the only thing that has ever worked (except for groups like The Innocence Project that pretty much exclusively deal in cases where there is DNA evidence of innocence).

Maria is the one who originally told us she refused to speak with you anymore, back when you and the board had a falling out, and according to Ed, she is the one who appeared to control the phone conferences he was on with the Board. She is the person who became demanding with Ed and he simply refused her demands, gave her an ultimatum, and then discontinued his relationship with her (and I presume the Board) when she ignored him.

We had a game plan and the Board knew full well what it was and that it was on schedule. We were right on target when all of this happened, and now Ed is attempting to find other avenues of fundraising in order for us to complete our initial work, which, was carefully thought out and being executed.

We are aware of the sentencing and appeal issues and Ed has pursued every avenue available to affect these issues. While he doesn't place hope in the appeal, he has nonetheless dealt with it.

Terry Dodd is the only one that Ed communicates with and we have been told that Dodd doesn't have a clue about what is going on as "the Board hasn't mentioned the Cox case" to him since the disruption by Maria. I'd like to add that what the Board isn't doing is not okay with Terry Dodd.

Hang in there, Schaeffer.

Best,

Ron

Hi Ron,

What's the situation with The Board? Who's running it? Is it still functioning? Please give me an update.

Just so you know, if the US Attorney dropped counts 12 and 16 (conspiracy and solicitation to murder) that would leave me with 10 years on the other stuff. I'd be out two years from now if we got them to do that. It's not justice, but at least my children would have me home while they are still children.

If they would drop 12 and 16 or even KEEP 12 and 16 but drop my sentence down to 10 years, I'd cut my losses and take the deal. Just so you know where my head is at.

Thanks,

i haven't gone to CorrLinks lately, thanks for the heads up;

here's the draft of the letter:

Dear Schaeffer:

Apparently a misunderstanding exists as to the structure of "Alaskans for Liberty" (AFL) and it's project, "Free Schaeffer Cox" (FSC). For clarity please allow me to define our structure, purpose and focus.

AFL is a relatively small group of concerned friends organized to educate the public on a variety of issues in regards to liberty. FSC came together to raise money for the express purpose to repay the debts resultant from Your defense in hopes of being able to engage the services of Robert John and Rollie Port. We were also motivated by wanting to help take care of Marti and the children. Due to a highly successful fundraising campaign, FSC has been blessed to raise additional funds which are designated to pay for costs such as competent counsel, investigator(s) and a variety of miscellaneous expenses that may arise. Funds raised by the Eberle group may only be expended for Your defense and/or in efforts that contribute to the possibility of Your early release.

Your letter in which you demand to have the authority to add and remove Directors of the AFL Board is outside your perview in that only the FSC project directly involves You. The FSC project uses AFL as it's fiduciary but is a subset of AFL. FSC is managed by Maria, the project manager, the only office currently in use by the project. In order to collect and spend funds the project is associated with the non-profit entity (AFL) which was donated by its President, Gene, before his death in 2015.

AFL is in the process of making some changes to its Board of Directors. We continue to welcome member(s) of Your family to be nominated to the Board and we invite You to nominate Directors of Your choosing, however, AFL is not prepared to agree to give you authority to run the organization. FSC has one position open, the office of Secretary and can add any number of coordinators which will be invited to be present at any Board meetings concerning FSC. We would be happy to hear your suggestions in regards to who you'd like to have join the project and contribute to its success.

AFL can only use funds raised by FSC for Your benefit. FSC is the only active AFL project at this time. Having people you trust join the project will allow the proposals FSC takes to the AFL Board be steered in a particular direction. New project coordinators will have the influence they acquire through the execution of their duties and as a product of their individual efforts on Your behalf. It will take some time and effort on their part but they'll be welcomed by FSC if they are willing to work.

This structure is intended to safeguard the monies FSC has raised.

Maria has recently been in touch with Michael Badnarik and Liz Sarver about joining the Free Schaeffer project and will be in touch with the two Angelas soon; as soon as we receive Your reply Maria will schedule a meeting for the others joining her on the FSC project.

Our deeds have never been self-serving nor have they been intended to manipulate your right to self ownership. We all understand that only you can account for and control your deeds and discretion. It was our honor and respect for you, as the father of two sweet innocent young children to help make possible the opportunity to recently visit with you.

We pray, we will never suffer the pains you have suffered and continue having to endure, in light of this travesty of so-called justice. FSC endeavors to persevere in our quest to provide the wherewithal necessary for you to afford to retain the very best council.

"This is so overwhelming. And I m not really looking forward to running this by our attorney as it will cost us money, but it looks like that is what I need to do. Being close to Christmas, I can t guarantee how fast we can have some answers, but I ll do my best.

That being said, rest assured any money that is in the Free Schaeffer Cox Direct Mail account is staying there until we work through this together.

For the record, as I told Angela earlier, Alaskans for Liberty never provided the paperwork from the IRS certifying that they are indeed a c4, therefore, we never accepted it and we did not utilize and special postal rates given to non-profits.

What a mess!"
