Re: Documents

Dear Rudy,

Greetings and prayers that you are all doing well and are blessed. As I indicated yesterday during our phone conversation, I am enclosing a copy of the March 13, 2025 OPEN LETTER that I sent to President Trump, Vice President Vance, Attorney General Bondi, FBI Director Patel, and FBI Deputy Director Bongino.

That OPEN LETTER goes very well with the documents I delivered to the Parole Commission Hearing Examiner Erick Helenihi on January 23, 2025: i.e., the 7-page "Parole Hearing Representation For Weaponization Investigation" dated January 17, 2025; and the 1-page letter "Re: President Trump's Weaponization Directive" dated January 23, 2025.

As I stated in my previous letter, those two documents supply much information for anyone who wishes to follow up to the five recipients of the OPEN LETTER. A couple of suggestions follow.

The first suggestion, from number 1 on page two, is that they cannot deny that I was attacked without cause on February 13, 1983. It creates an unbearable situation for them: they cannot justify their unlawful attack on me. It simply cannot be disputed, so anyone can confront whoever they choose with that fact.

The second suggestion, from number 8 on page <sup>three</sup> five; is that folks could actually call the United States Attorney at Fargo, North Dakota to demand proof that the jury was instructed that to be guilty of aiding and abetting second degree murder, I would have to have had knowledge of the actual killer's intent to kill another person. Then, any of the five OPEN LETTER recipients can be confronted with authority with the fact that the DOJ has me imprisoned without having been found guilty, because they cannot provide the transcript citation where the jury was so instructed.

Anyone interested in writing to any of the five OPEN LETTER recipients should use their own judgment with the facts I supplied on those two documents and elsewhere in my various pleadings and correspondence.

Finally, I am enclosing to you copies of the habeas corpus I submitted on May 10, 2023. In this mailing, I will be enclosing only 68 pages of that case. More will be sent in a few days as I get them copied.

Sincerely,

Scott William Faul

Re: Scott William Faul case (42 years unlawful imprisonment)

Dear Recipient,

In 1983, some of us ordinary farm folks were wrongfully attacked without warrant or cause by agents of the Department of Justice. The relevant details of the DOJ's politically motivated attack are quite well described in a March 29, 1995 lawmen's report compiled by investigators within the law enforcement community. Their report, titled "Affidavit Of Criminal Justice Professionals (The Gordon W. Kahl Case)," concluded that the attacking marshals instigated a confrontation and were at fault for the mayhem of February 13, 1983 and the subsequent murders of Gordon Kahl and Sheriff Gene Matthews. The full report well establishes the mentality of the weaponized DOJ and its colluding judiciary. That report is on record as Reply Exhibit B in Faul v. Lejeune filed as 22-cv-2993 in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota. The report shows that, in a frantic attempt to control the narrative and to cover up their criminality, all branches of the United States Government immediately joined in an unlawful coalition against those of us who became targets of their deep-state/police-state apparatus.

It is well established that the mayhem of this case was all perpetrated by prior regimes in a concerted effort to silence dissent, murder patriot Gordon Kahl and Sheriff Gene Matthews, and wrongfully imprison the survivors. The BOP and Parole Commission continue in lockstep to keep two of us languishing in prison through the purposeful misapplication of 18 U.S.C. Section 4206(d), with the judiciary turning a blind eye to it all. The murders committed by the DOJ need to be investigated, as does the Government's obstinate behavior to keep me imprisoned in violation of numerous laws. Illustrative, the trial judge in our case undisputedly had promised his favoritism to the prosecutors, and then sat as a judge against us anyway. As Richard E. Flamm unequivocally instructs, it is universally accepted by the public that a judge cannot promise favoritism to one side in any case and thereafter sit as a judge in that case. It is also undisputed that I am presently imprisoned for an offense that I was never found guilty of, a fact that the Parole Commission obstinately ignores. But even if I had been lawfully imprisoned (I was not), the ongoing collusion between a wide swath of Government agencies and branches to keep myself and Yorie Kahl imprisoned beyond the lawful term, in violation of the parole statutes, must be ended anyway.

Although the law officers' injuries and deaths make this a politically sensitive case, you are all wise enough to discern that not all law officers are always right, that they too make mistakes, and that some of them, such as those who attacked me without cause, have been criminally motivated in their actions. We law-upholding Americans applaud the fact that you do NOT support THAT faction of law enforcement.

In conclusion, we encourage this present administration to correct the prior DOJ/Judiciary criminality that was exhibited in this case, and to release Mr. Faul and Mr. Kahl from prison.

Sincerely,

/s/ Scott William Faul
