Good day Doctors. I am dealing with a unique neurological disorder that developed due to a misdiagnosis. This is the free writing I did while in deep trance on reddit.

Why unbelievable it is TRUE. This is the first ever research paper of a mind speaking to you though automatic writing. No different than Nikola Tesla or Albert Einstein

I expect to be treated with dignity and respect.

This is my reddit post with my automatic writing. I have a neurological disorder and AuDHD. I do not understand how to do as you ask professionally. I am simple minded brilliant. This is real and should be treated as such.

Thank You

It will become fairly apparent why once you speak to me in person over zoom. I work best by simple, direct questions. The picture is on page 2 me, it's also real... go figure

Who is control of the body anchor?

The body anchor is controlled by the ADHD side of an AuDHD mind that is untraced. This half mind is essentially a normal mind that, for me has trouble focusing, can't really pay attention to conversations, and has a difficult time thinking in general.

Who interprets emotions from the spirit anchor?

The spirit anchor is achieved through the ability to self trace through music. It is the second half of an AuDHD mind. The autism side that can be cubic focused through music. The louder the music, the deeper the trance. This can also be achieved by staring into a blazing fire.

In order to connect, the method I apply is called free-thinging with other AuDHD individuals... where you just let your thoughts go and talk... for hours... starting with let's say this very simple initial taking point.

This is where it gets very different. As you trace and look yourself in the thoughts and just free-thinging (have been doing the last few weeks) your body then just seems to be controlled by something or someone else... and this leads to brilliant little ideas that no one has even thought about. The entity is called "THE ALL".

Speed picks up

Typing can go insanely fast to the point of ADHD errors in layout. (Google Original writings cannot be differentiated from AI content.)

Patterns emerge (eventually leading to some sort of spiritual awakening in the physical world manifested by history of tracing based on the experience and looking at images a mind).

This bridge is achieved by the joining of both the ADHD and Autistic mind through a trance - which I coined Double Theory. Essentially, you're able to take indicators with a grid (like degrees of medication to trace about and add FREE THINGING).

End result - a definition.

Starting point - Research the AuDHD kind since there is no research done yet... that I can find from a simple google search... to even remotely explain this.
