- Teachers must check in at the teacher registration desk on arrival and you will be allocated your dressing rooms

ADJUDICATOR

Kahlia Sulendra

Kahlia Sulendra holds a passion for performance, artistry and meaningful dance education. With a background spanning from a commercial performer, choreographer and studio dance teacher to later success as a dance educator, program coordinator, adjudicator and arts researcher, Kahlia brings a wealth of experience and expertise to our competition.

Kahlia is actively involved in various facets of the dance community. Her journey in dance began at the age of 5, embarking on a comprehensive training regimen encompassing tap, jazz, ballet, and contemporary styles. As she transitioned into her teenage years, she delved into street styles and hip-hop, quickly establishing herself as a competitor within hip-hop crews.

Her early years as a commercial dancer saw her gracing the stage alongside artists such as Jessica Mauboy, Scribe, and DJ Havana Brown. Beyond her achievements as a performer, Kahlia discovered a passion for teaching, igniting a new chapter in her career. She began sharing their knowledge and expertise as a dance instructor, eventually coaching numerous teams to a national level and earning accolades at various competitions.

In pursuit of her commitment to dance education, Kahlia transitioned into the realm of secondary school education, assuming the role of a dance teacher and later ascending to the position of Head of Schools at the National Ballet School. Currently serving as the Dance Excellence Coordinator at Australia's largest high school, Kahlia continues to inspire and empower the next generation of dancers through her leadership and mentorship.

With over six years of experience as a judge and 19 years as a dance educator, Kahlia brings a discerning eye, expertise, and a profound appreciation for artistic excellence within the educational setting.
