Prayer to bring your Akashic Records around you

Mother Father God within me, around me and everywhere transcendent,

Today I ask permission to bring my records to me, the records of (your name)

For my highest good and the highest good of all

I bow in Reverence to Mother Earth, I bow in Reverence to the Fire,

I bow in Reverence to the Rain, I bow in Reverence to the Wind,

I know that, as I let go of old beliefs I create space to change what I see in my experience

I bow in reverence the forces of nature, to the universe and its possibilities, and to everyone who contributed to my story in my Records

I bow in reverence to myself, (your name)

honouring my bravery, honouring my choices, honouring my trajectories.

I understand that there are no wrong choices, just experiences; and these experiences are here to shape my beliefs and allow my growth.

It is with unconditional love in my heart, my head in the present time, and a clear intention to be a messenger and instrument of healing and growth that I ask the guardian of my Akashic Records to bring my Akashic Records around me

Records The Records are now here... The Records are now here... The Records are now here...
