2021 Executive Board Meeting

The Alpha Phi Sigma Executive Board meeting was held via zoom on September 25, 2021.

The in-person meeting that was scheduled for September 24-25, 2021 was cancelled due to Covid. Instead, the executive board met via zoom to plan the 2022 annual conference. The board is optimistic that we will be able to have the in-person conference in Las Vegas, Nevada where we will celebrate 80 years of Alpha Phi Sigma excellence.

A great conference is planned for Las Vegas. The board continues to work diligently to bring high caliber speakers, a great crime scene investigation, college bowl, welcome student mixer, and much more. We are also planning in conjunction with the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences to have the Alpha Phi Sigma members join ACJS for the keynote speaker presentation with a special question and answer session.

Although the program for the conference will not be finalized until January 2022, the board continues to work behind the scenes to make sure that the conference has a diverse program.

Please stay tuned to informational emails, conference hotel information, special anniversary merchandise items, and a finalized program in early 2022. Plan ahead for the dates of the conference: March 16-18, 2022 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Executive Student Officers

Sydney Debrick Jalen Spooner Cassandra Engle Joshua Woolfington

Hello from all of our student officers! Sydney Debrick will be returning as Executive Student President and Cassandra Engle will be returning as Executive Student Secretary from Missouri State University’s Sigma Mu Sigma chapter, but we’d like to extend a large welcome to our newest Executive Student Vice President from North Carolina Central University’s Eta Lambda chapter Jalen Spooner, and our newest Executive Student Treasurer also from the Sigma Mu Sigma chapter, Joshua Woolfington!

All of our officers are very excited to see everyone in person for our 2022 conference in Las Vegas! We can’t wait to hear all about our theme, Organized Crime, and to see all the projects everyone has come up with, whether that be an interactive guest speaker visiting from a local police departments’ organized crime unit or a volunteer opportunity with a local organization to keep youth out of gangs.

We hope that everyone enjoys a wonderful Holiday Season!

Alpha Phi Sigma 2021-22 THEME OF THE YEAR

Father Gregory Boyle, Founder and Executive Director of Homeboy Industries

ACJS President and Alpha Phi Sigma Chapter Advisor, Heather Pfeifer, is excited to share with attendees of the ACJS and APS Annual Meeting an important keynote speaker who embodies the ACJS meeting theme, Avenues of Change: Integrating Research, Advocacy, and Education. Please don't miss Gregory Boyle, Founder and Executive Director of Homeboy Industries, the largest gang intervention, rehabilitation, and re-entry program in the world.

A Jesuit priest, from 1986 to 1992 Father Boyle served as pastor of Dolores Mission Church, then the poorest Catholic parish in Los Angeles that also had the highest concentration of gang activity in the city. Father Boyle witnessed the devastating impact of gang violence on his community during the so-called "decade of death" that began in the late 1980s and peaked at 1,000 gang-related killings in 1992.

Father Boyle and parish and community members decided to take a radical approach at the time - treat gang members as human beings – instead of supporting criminal justice policies of suppression and mass incarceration as the means to end gang violence. In 1988 they started what would eventually become Homeboy Industries, which employs and trains former gang members in a range of social enterprises, as well as provides critical services to thousands of men and women who walk through its doors every year seeking a better life.

Please make sure you are preregistered with ACJS for the Annual Meeting before the fast-approaching deadline, January 31, so you can witness this amazing speaker presentation. Remember, ACJS members receive a discount on registration and SAVE on the registration fee BEFORE the deadline. Yes, the price will go up after January 31, for members and non-members!

Alpha Phi Sigma members MUST be registered with ACJS to attend Keynote Speaker session and student luncheon.

Alpha Phi Sigma Chapter Advisor and members at Lewis University offers Peer Mediation Training at Bolingbrook High School

Bolingbrook High School students and teachers recently received Peer Mediation Training August 10-12 from four Lewis University students enrolled in Mediation I and Mediation II courses taught by Dr. Stephen Sherwin, Alpha Phi Sigma Chapter Advisor and assistant professor of Justice, Law and Public Safety Studies.

Alpha Phi Sigma members, Adriane Distor, Katelynn Dunleavy, and Monica Mihes, along with Batool Jafferi, conducted the training to 15 faculty and 20 students at Bolingbrook High School for eight hours each day over a three-day period.

The in-depth presentations and role-playing training provided the Bolingbrook High School students, faculty, and community an exceptional tool for restorative justice practices within the school and community. The training will continue into the upcoming school year. The Lewis University students plan to make regularly-scheduled assessments for oversight as well.

“Teaching is a special honor,” said Sherwin. “It enables opportunities to share information, knowledge, and guidance that develop skills, confidence, and wisdom for students to take their place on the world stage. However, the most gratifying honor is witnessing students confidently applying what they learned by teaching others. This honor was made manifest in the peer mediation training course conducted by four Lewis University students.”

The Mediation class reinforces a variety of techniques, theories, and frameworks for analyzing and resolving conflict. Students will understand the procedure from conflict analysis to exploring techniques, process models, and third-party roles to constructively intervene in conflict.

Lewis University is an innovative and forward-thinking Catholic university offering market-relevant undergraduate and graduate programs to 6,300 students. Sponsored by the De La Salle Christian Brothers, Lewis University is nationally recognized for preparing intellectually engaged, ethically grounded, globally connected and socially responsible graduates.

Heidelberg University

Pi Delta Pi Chapter

My name is Brooke Franz, and I am the president of the Pi Delta Pi chapter at Heidelberg University.

Our chapter is new and small, and we are excited to share the progress we have been making thus far!

We have been very busy these last two semesters. The chapter held a donation drive for the local juvenile detention center in need of shampoo and conditioner for textured hair, deodorant, and toothpaste. The donation boxes were placed around campus, and students were able to donate items they had available.

We also held a Q&A-style criminal justice panel, where we had professionals in the field of CJ meet with students. Occupations were varied and we had panelist such as police officers, attorneys, counselors, and more!

This Fall semester we are having a donut bar fundraiser where students and faculty on campus will be able to design their own donuts by picking the flavor and the toppings they would like. Our chapter is also planning a trip to the Mansfield Reformatory and we will be hosting another criminal justice panel.

Please join us in welcoming our new members!!!

In photos: Photovoice display of Mental Illness Awareness Week posters made by Nu Beta/NAMI students enrolled in Dr. Bratina's CRJ 366-Forensic Mental Health courses. The theme for this year's posters was "resilience".

We welcomed best-selling author and mental wellness advocate, Mr. Pete Earley, for a book-signing with students (photos below with Nu Beta and NAMI students, and adviser, Dr. Bratina), followed by a very engaging/inspiring talk, open to the public, where he shared his son's story and the family journey through the forensic mental health system. Following Pete's talk, Nu Beta/APS and NAMI students (and other sponsors) visited with Pete at a dinner reception.
