Good Things

A PUBLICATION BY THE VOLUNTEER SERVICES COUNCIL

Summertime is rolling in and we are all definitely enjoying the weather. From staff volleyball & football games, Cinco De Mayo Celebrations, home pajama & karaoke parties, interactive story telling, and Prom, the residents have definitely been busy having FUN. As the world starts returning to normal, we are so excited to interact more with the residents and participate in all of the fun activities that will be going on, on campus this summer! As always, we thank you for your continued support, and can't wait to have you for a visit on campus! Happy May!

PROM AT BSSLC

The Active Treatment and Rec departments decorated the gym beautifully for a night the residents will never forget! The theme of the prom was "Enchanted Forest" and residents got to enjoy tons of dancing, laughing, and cotton candy!

CINCO DE MAYO, FLAG FOOTBALL, AND PAJAMA PARTIES!

OH, THE THINGS I SEE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD...

- 🌸 Residents got to come and pick out prom dresses for their prom! As soon as Carla saw herself in the mirror she said "I look so beautiful!" THEY ALL DID!!!
- 🌸 Errell has been picking flowers and putting them in cups of water to decorate around campus!
- 🌸 Maria sang her heart out during karaoke at the pajama party on her home!
- 🌸 Residents enjoyed a hula-hoop contest at the Cinco De Mayo celebrations!
