

In my prior incarnation as Dr. John Dee, I asserted in The Monas Hieroglyphica:

SHAKE-SPEARES

To the same point, there be not one superfluous dot/point—and,

for the signification of those things

SONNETS

which we have said (and even far greater things):

← Point 1
(Dot 1)

← Point 2
(Dot 2)

there be not one dot / point lacking .

Neuer before Imprinted.

Eodem, ne Superfluum Punctum Unum; et ad hæc quæ diximus significanda, (Longéque MAIO-RA) ne unum deficiat Punctum;

To the same point, there be not one superfluous dot/point—and, for the signification of those things which we have said (and even far greater things):
there be not one dot / point lacking.

8. Et hæc, Ita, LONDINENSI nostro HERMETIS
SIGILLO (ad sempiternam Hominum memoriam) Con-signari; Ut, in eodem, ne Superfluum Punctum Unum; & ad hæc quæ diximus significanda, (longéque maio-
ra) ne unum deficiat Punctum; Omnes cogentur, ma-ximè fateri Rarum. At præ ceteris, Illi, qui in Philosophiæ Sapientiæque profundioribus Disquisitionibus, Nomen possunt profiteri suum. Sic enim Testificabuntur 1.

8. We seal those things we have just discussed (and things far greater yet to come) with our HERMETIC SEAL
of LONDON declaring that there is not one superfluous point included and (even more significantly) that there is not one point <sup>"i am"</sup>missing. Everyone, especially those who profess to be serious <sup>"i am"</sup>investigators of philosophy and wisdom
will be forced to authenticate the great Rarity of this work (for the everlasting memory of mankind).
