

All-Inclusive Resort Packing Checklist

When preparing for a stay at an all-inclusive resort, efficiency and foresight are key. Below is a streamlined list of recommended items to ensure a smooth, comfortable, and enjoyable experience.

1. Travel Essentials

- Valid passport and government-issued ID (with photocopies)
- Flight tickets and accommodation confirmations
- Travel insurance documentation
- Credit/debit cards and a small amount of local currency
- Prescription medications and a basic first-aid kit

2. Clothing & Footwear

- Lightweight, breathable daywear (shorts, t-shirts, sundresses)
- Resort-appropriate evening attire (collared shirts, dresses, slacks)
- Multiple swimsuits and appropriate cover-ups
- Sleepwear and undergarments
- Comfortable sandals, flip-flops, and evening shoes
- Light sweater or jacket for cooler evenings or air-conditioned areas

3. Toiletries & Personal Care

- Toothbrush, toothpaste, floss, deodorant
- Razor, shaving cream, hairbrush or comb
- Reef-safe sunscreen (SPF 30 or higher) and lip balm with SPF
- After-sun lotion or aloe vera
- Insect repellent

- Feminine hygiene products
- Contact lenses and solution (if applicable)

4. Beach & Pool Accessories

- Sunglasses (UV protection)
- Wide-brimmed hat or cap
- Beach tote or day bag
- Reusable water bottle
- Waterproof phone pouch or case
- Lightweight towel or sarong (if preferred over resort-provided options)

5. Electronics

- Mobile phone and charger
- Portable power bank
- E-reader, tablet, or a book
- Camera or action camera (e.g., GoPro)
- Travel power adapter (if traveling internationally)

6. Optional Enhancements

- Snorkeling gear (if not provided by resort)
- Light snacks or protein bars
- Small travel games or playing cards
- Laundry bag or compression packing cubes
- Reusable straw or utensils (eco-conscious travelers)
