The Intermountain Ski Council has zero tolerance for the use of illicit drugs or consumption of alcohol by members under age 21 on Council trips.

"I understand that I will be responsible for my behavior and will not participate in any of these illegal activities on Council trips. Failure to follow this policy will result in my removal from the trip without any refund, my return home at my own expense, and I will not be allowed to participate in future Council trips.

I have read, understand, and agree to be bound by the above."
