23. What is the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL)?

The ETPL is a comprehensive list of training providers and training programs that the New Jersey Department of Labor & Workforce Development has determined eligible to receive publicly funded tuition assistance.

The ETPL is mandated by both State and Federal laws. New Jersey State Law (C:34:15C-10.2) states that "[n]o training provider who is not an approved training provider included on the [ETPL] shall receive any federal job training funds or State job training funds."

The ETPL serves as a consumer protection for New Jersey's training seekers. New Jersey's ETPL is made available to NJ residents through the Training Explorer tool.

Training providers on the ETPL must submit their organizational and participant information to the ETPL through the IntelliGrants (IGX) system.
