

You are invited to the
Association for Christian Economics UK Annual Meeting
9th July 2021 (1pm-4pm BST on Zoom)

Location: Zoom online meeting, please register (required) at

<https://cam-ac-uk.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0scO6hpz4tGdd6sn7g6hxJCl2KbnDrnQlb>

Registration is free to current members of ACE UK*

1pm

Introduction (5 mins): Professor Michael Pollitt (Univ of Cambridge)

Session 1: What does Building Back Better Mean for Christian Economists?

Chair: Professor John Struthers (Univ of West of Scotland)

Reflections (Max 10 mins each) by: Professor Andrew Henley (Cardiff Univ); Professor Paul Oslington (Alphacrucis College, Sydney); Professor Phelista Njeru (Mount Kenya University); Professor Robert Tatum (Univ of North Carolina)

2pm

Chat Room Break Out Groups (15 mins).

Session 2: The economic case for and against Scottish Independence: Christian Perspectives

Chair: Professor Alistair Young (Emeritus Professor, Univ of West of Scotland)

Short Presentations (Max 15 mins each) by: Professor John Struthers (Economics) and Dr Rev Doug Gay (Univ of Glasgow and author of : Honey from the Lion: Christianity and the Ethics of Nationalism (2014) who will speak on the theme of: Faith in an economic case for Scottish Independence.

Discussion (15 mins).

3pm

Session 3: Individual Papers (10 mins each)

Chair: Rowlando Morgan (Department of Transport)

Dr David Burl (Associate Lecturer, Univ of West of Scotland): Global to Local: Domesticating Supply Chains for God's World.

Professor Alistair Young: Protecting the Aged in a Pandemic in the Light of Cost-Utility Analysis.

Discussion (20 mins)

Session 4: ACE UK Annual General Meeting (20 mins)

Close

To join the Association (or check your membership is up to date!) please contact our membership secretary Mark Reader (mark.a.reader58@gmail.com).*