Private Meditation at the Feast of the Assumption

August 15, 2019

My beloved children, thank you for responding to my call. It is a day of celebration, and so when your goal of reaching heaven is finally met, we too will be rejoicing your presence with us.

There is great rejoicing today because you have said yes to the calling of God.

¹My son's, my daughters: I have sent you my daughter to bring you mercy, to bring you hope, to instruct you in the ways of my son, to direct you and bring light to my words of mercy. To tell you of the great love I have for you: the great and immense joy my instructions even when you think you fail, know that to me it is not failure but learning and understanding of who I AM.

My sons and daughters, the creator of all heaven and of all earth speaks to you today to confirm that you are my children, to confirm that you are never neglected or forgotten. Your faith and trust in me are the formulations of the staying firm in the resolve of your love.

My Beloveds – I am a Father of mercy and compassion, but also a Father that disciplines his children. Many of you mistake punishment for discipline. My children receive discipline as the direction to my kingdom. Punishment comes for a sinner who refuses my discipline: to those who have not me as their Father and refuse to accept my son as their Redeemer.

This day is filled and overflowing of graces that you each need. This manna that you received today that come from my Son is your answer to your prayers is the grace you need to continue the race: the race to heaven. So, it is written, and so it is done.

My Ambassadors, it is of extreme importance that you remain faithful to mercy, that you seek ways in which you bless each other, in ways you will help each other reach your heavenly reward. Not by criticizing words, not by tough love, but by compassionate words and words that are building up the Body of Christ.

Today my families, I am blessing you with blessings of the Holy Family. Today I am blessing you with abundance and overflowing of joy. Many of you made sacrifices of love, of inconvenience to make this pilgrimage, and nothing is taken for granted. It is all stored for you in the heavenly bank.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you. Thank you, thank you for being here today!!

¹ God the Father.
