

Go Out into the World

How many Gospels are there? One? Four? Many? The answer to this question depends on your point of view. The word Gospel means Good News, and the Good News is a single event, and so the answer is one: Jesus himself is the Good News that the Kingdom of God is here because Jesus, God himself, is here!

But the answer can also be four! The Bible contains four accounts of Jesus spreading this Good News message: each account, each Gospel, is a different testimony of the evangelist witnessing about Jesus and his mission to spread the Gospel. Also, the answer to the question can be “many Gospels,” for each of us has also been commissioned by our Baptism and Confirmation to go spread the Good News and to be the living manifestation of the Gospel for the world to witness.

In a meditation to Mary Constancio, the Queen of Mercy requested, “I want that you bring about the Good News of the Gospel – that you discover and put into practice the promise of the kingdom.” So, two actions are called for in her request: (1) to discover the promises of the kingdom, and (2) to put into practice the promises of the kingdom. So how does one discover what the promises are, and how do we put them into practice?

Let’s start with the second part of the request from Our Lady, “put them into practice.” To be a Christian means to be a little Christ and disciple of the teacher. We must have Christ in our hearts to reveal Christ, to have the actions of Christ, the primary action being mercy. How do we get Jesus into our hearts and to have a real relationship with him? Our Lady said in another meditation, “My dear children read about His life in the Gospels. Study His life, follow His examples, and know Him. For how can you say He is your Lord and Savior if you don’t know Him?” To bring about the Good News of the Gospel, to allow others to encounter Jesus through us, we must have Jesus in our hearts. Jesus is the Living Word, and that is where we encounter Him: in his word. Again, in another meditation, she said, “Receive Him daily with an open heart. Come to Him every day in every form. Read the Scriptures, pray to Him and receive His Body and Blood as often as possible.” Not only are we called to meet him daily in scripture but to be transformed by him in his true presence, the Eucharist. The Church reminds us that the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life. The Eucharist is truly a deep and intimate encounter with Our Lord. Jesus said, “I am with you always, to the very end of the ‘I am with you always, to the very end of the age’ (Matthew 28:20), and we encounter Our Lord, are taught by Our Lord, and find the comfort we need daily by the Lord’s true presence found in the Scriptures and in the Eucharist.

Where else do we encounter Jesus’ mercy that we may also show mercy? The answer is in the Sacrament of Confession. For it is here that Our Lord takes away our wounds and heals them with the salve of forgiveness and mercy.

I invite you to come to our retreats here at the Ambassadors of the Flame of Mercy. Come and encounter the Holy Spirit’s love in Scripture and the Sacraments. Let us bring the Gospel to you and show you how God the Father wants to make room in your hearts for Him, to remove the blocks to having an encounter with him. This is the Kingdom that Jesus has brought us. Come and discover the promises of the kingdom, then you will be able to go out into the world and spread the Gospel that the Kingdom of God is here.

NEW CENTER - READY TO POUR CONCRETE ON FINAL SECTION

Isidore Martinez, Ralph Mendez along with sons are finishing up the plumbing for the Rest Rooms that will be located next to the new Gift Shop. Ralph's sons can be seen filling in the ditch to cover the plumbing. Go to WWW.flameofmercy.com to see more pictures and current on construction.

The final sections of the building are coming together. In front of the forklift is where the new Gift Shop will be. To the left side of the picture is the front of the building with the Car Port which will allow retreatants to be protected in times of bad weather. Building is targeted to be finished June 30, 2020.
