INTRODUCTION

By: Howard A. Huntzinger Jr.

God created the Blessed Virgin Mary to bring Jesus the Christ into the world for all humanity, which gave birth to Mary's mission to bring all of humanity to Jesus. She started the second part of her mission by bringing her son, Jesus, to her cousin Elizabeth and John the Baptist while he was still in the womb. This moment is recorded in the Gospel of Luke with Mary not pointing at herself but to God as she exclaims, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden. For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed; for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name." (Luke 2: 47-49)

If we look at Mary's actions at the Wedding Feast of Cana, found in the Gospel of John (John 2: 1-12), and her interactions throughout history, including the private revelations under the titles of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Our Lady of Fatima, her message can be summed up in one line of holy scripture, "His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." (John 2:5)

So, what about the meditative writings and private revelations presented under the title of the Queen of Mercy found in this book? I believe the Queen of Mercy revelations are not miraculous in origin but have come through the supernatural grace of Christ. Through this grace, the Holy Spirit has revealed to a good person the heart and words of the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title of Queen of Mercy. From 1988 through November 2021, Mary Constancio received meditative writings and private revelations, including the pious meditations in this book, known as the School of Mary.

I hope that the words found in this book will inspire us to ask Our Lady to assist and help us in our daily journey to and with God.

Getting the most out of the messages

By: Howard A. Huntzinger Jr.

I wasn't there on that blessed day in 1988 when the Queen of Mercy first came. I wasn't there to see the large crowds that came to pray the Rosary on Monday nights throughout 1988 and to hear the messengers speak the pious meditations and private revelations they received. I wasn't there on August 15, 1988, when over 20,000 people came to mass at Saint John Neumann to celebrate God and the Feast of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven. I didn't arrive in Lubbock, Texas, until 1994, and like most people who were not there when these meditations were first given, I looked at the meditations given before 1994 as historical events. I felt these earlier meditations were "nice" and not that important, for they were given to the people present at that event and at that time but not directed at me.

In June of 2014, my eyes were opened for the first time by the Holy Spirit concerning all these meditations. The messages were not meant for a handful of people present when these private revelations were first given, but they were meant for the world. I found the keyword that unveiled this new understanding that the private revelations were meant for everyone; that word was "TODAY": a word meaning now or at this moment. When I searched through all the writings from February 1988 to November 2021, I discovered that the word "today" had been used over 290 times. As you read through these pious meditations and private revelations and come across the term "today," understand these words are being presented to you right now. Embrace these writings as the gift they are meant to be: loving words being spoken to your heart for the first time.

To summarize my revelation on the word "today," I wish to present two excerpts from these writings; the first from the Queen of Mercy Message April 4, 1988¹: "Be it known today that my love will spread even to those who are not here." In the second excerpt from the writings of November 21, 1988, we receive, "My dear children, remember I am the Queen of Mercy, your queen, and your mother. I do not only come as your mother, but as a queen who has been given powers; not of my own, but of our Father, for he alone distributes to whom he chooses."² We find in the word "today" a calling to receive the graces of wisdom and blessings, not being presented to people of the past, but being offered to us at this moment, hearing the calling now, to accept the calling now, and to live God's calling with his blessings now. I challenge you to go back and start reading the messages in the light of the grace of today. She is waiting right now to talk to your heart; grab the grace today!

Concerning the Editing of the School of Mary Transcriptions

The pious meditations received by Mary Constancio were written as she received the words. While Mary Constancio added punctuations to the sentences as she was writing them, the punctuations were not always correctly added due to the speed of writing down the words.

Several persons have transcribed Mary Constancio's messages into digital form so they could be printed or made available online. Some of these messages were transcribed directly from the journals with no corrections, and others were transcribed with partial correction.

For this publication, I have prayerfully taken the initiative to carefully edit all these pious meditations to be presented in the same format, correcting punctuations, spelling, and grammar errors where necessary.

The notes and commentaries that Mary Constancio wrote with her original transcription have been added to this book as footnotes to separate them from the main message received.

The Titled Messages

All the School of Mary messages have been titled for quick reference. The original messages did not include these titles.

My sons, My daughters

The question sometimes arises from people reading the messages, who is Our Lady talking to when she uses the phrase "My sons" or "My daughters?"

Starting during the first men's retreat of September 1997, Our Lady began delivering messages at every men's retreat and later to many women's retreats. These messages usually start with the greeting, "My sons," or "My beloved sons. "The women's retreats would also have similar greeting of "My daughters," or "My beloved daughters."

Also, this group of messages was mostly presented to the Ambassadors living in Shallowater, Texas, so the title, "my Ambassadors," along with the previous greetings found above, are throughout these messages.

The bottom line is that Our Lady is talking to all of us.

It Starts with Unity – Unity of Love

February 8, 2020³

My daughter⁴, this is the sound of unity⁵. How beautiful the sound, the great and awesome work that God can do through this united love for me. This⁶ is a true calling of an Ambassador, my daughter. Please, my children, open your hearts to hear God.

When you are united in this way, God moves quickly to answer prayers. My daughter, you see, you hear the sound of love united to do the will of God.

My sons, thank you for being here tonight. There are oceans and oceans of graces being poured out on you this weekend.

Peace, peace, peace of Jesus be with you

³ Men's Retreats

⁴ This message is directed to all the Ambassadors.

⁵ The men at the retreat together prayed the rosary and then united in song (high praise) in the chapel for some twenty minutes.

⁶ Unity of love and mercy.

My Ambassadors, New Defining Grace is Awaiting You

February 28, 2020⁷

My beloved children, new defining grace is awaiting you. Today, I am asking you, my Ambassadors, to relieve yourselves of old wineskins that have held old hurts, old intentions of self-condemnation towards yourself and others...

My children, my beloved children, this is called only for those that have been called for a great and mighty work in this community, family, nation, this world. My children, when the call was sent out to you, it was not without grace. Your names are written, and you are all known here in the heavens: as your names resound here, so everyone rejoices.

My children, I am calling more from you, more than before, so as more is called, more grace is given. So, for those who say “I can’t,” now, with grace, you can say “Yes” to the will of God: I am calling for more forgiveness, more mercy, more love, more prayer, more fasting, more kindness. This Lent, let this be a true change of heart, a more divinely-inspired forgiveness of the heart.

My children invoke on all the graces that are being readied for you to ask for: they are being sent out as gifts, gifts for you to share. These gifts only increase as you give.

Thank you, thank you, my children, for being here today. Peace, peace, peace of Jesus be with you.⁸

⁷ Feast of the Queen of Mercy

⁸ Note from Mary Constancio: She wants to personally thank each and every person for each and every gift of yourself that you have given and that you will give. For nothing, nothing is taken for granted.

Teaching About Pride

March 22, 2020

My daughter, when you cannot admit that there's even a possibility you could be wrong, that is pride. Listen to me as I listen to other hearts that are hurting, that are calling on me.

Lay down first of all your pride at the Altar of Grace where you can pick up the grace of humility, of selflessness, where the spirit of offense is also laid down, so that your will is given over to God, to my son.

My beloved, it is a new dawn that is coming, and the light of this new dawn will shine through you.

My daughter, the reason you cannot feel repentance or experience it is because you have become blind of sight of heart, that you have become accustomed to denial that your heart is crusted with the spirit to be right and self-righteous.

You must ask yourself if you are truly ready to be wrong about how you feel about being entitled to your feelings and how you react to that entitlement. For even the Devil feels entitled to fiercely destroy God's children, for that is what sent him to Hell: his desire to be like God, to be above my son, for pride and arrogance are the roots of entitlement. This is where hurt feelings come from. This is where disobedience comes from!

You see, my daughter, God will lift you up. He will be the one to show his love, his favor when it is time. He will bring you honor. He will bring you the respect you are to have.

My children, you are not as far off as you think and not as close as you think. But you have said "yes," and that will bring you as close as God calls you.

My children, you have become numb: numb because you protect yourself from pain and suffering, but you must allow me to remove that defense you have placed around your heart, soul, and mind.

It is time to write a new book of mercy, where the other one has been received, and this one begins.

Teaching About Worry

April 1, 2020

My beloved children, thank you for being here with me once again. My children, you are living the Lenten season. You are living the Passion of my son.

My children, do not despair, do not worry, for worry is useless and brings about fear. Close the door to worry so that fear will not enter. Worry opens doors to the untrust of God. Worry opens doors of guilt, opens doors to many health issues, and opens doors to the fear of death of many kinds.

Pray, pray, pray that your faith will endure with grace, with exaltation.

Look around. Look to the left and look to the right. There are clouds of darkness wanting to overtake your joy: your view of my son. It wants to impede your faith from being put into action.

My children, your greatest test will be to be patient with one another, to love and serve one another, to forgive one another, and to show mercy to one another. Look ahead of what are the needs of each other without the attitude of entitlement.

Learn to serve as you have been served. Service is the hardest to give when you think the one to serve is not worthy of your kindness.

Kindness, kindness, kindness will remove many sins because you will see things differently afterward.

Q: How can we learn to trust?

A: When you overcome fear with the obedience of God's voice and his word, then you will conquer the fear that you have had to face. When you lack in obedience, you will lack in trust.

Having Daily Spiritual Communion

April 8, 2020

My beloved children, I have chosen you to bring mercy to bring love, to bring forgiveness. This comes at a great cost, but my son has already paid for it. Now claim it as a grace that has been given to you.

My children, I am inviting you to commence having daily Spiritual Communion, for this keeps you in touch with my son's heart, and this keeps you prepared to receive him in the Eucharist.

Now are the graces flowing to you like a stream that is always waiting for you and ready to empower you with the graces you need.

Teaching About Faith

April 15, 2020 ⁹

My children, why do you pray? Do you believe that your prayers are heard? Do you truly believe that God exists and that he answers your prayers? This is faith, to believe.

Today I'm inviting Abraham and Moses. They will spread upon you the seeds of faith to be with us (you), to send this grace of faith. This must be one of the foundations to keep you grounded in the truth, to keep your soul embraced by God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.

My son on the cross and in His resurrection is faith in action. You must be that faith in action for others who do not believe.

⁹ This time began with the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Teaching About Humility

April 22, 2020

My children, I have called you to be set apart. I have called you to live for God. I have called you to live a merciful life, to live love and forgiveness in ACTION.

My children, I have reached down into your heart by the grace of God. I have brought new and everlasting freedom to love the Lord our God with your whole heart and strength.

My children, rejoice because today humility is being showered upon you so that as you are set apart, it will become first nature to love.

My children, the more you are set apart, the more you can be rejected.

Humility

- Humility is the essence of touching the heart of God.
- Humility requires that you submit to the will of God.
- Humility joins the angels to give God his place.
- Humility communicates with your heart and soul to know that God is God and you are made in his image.
- Humility does not reproach you for loving God; it respects God and all of his children with love and mercy!

Today I am asking that you bring my sons (the priests) back to me with your prayers.

Teaching About Unity

April 29, 2020

My beloved children, continue to pray for the meaning of unity: for the meaning is to be of one mind in Christ.

My children, as you seek me, as you seek my son, as you seek the Holy Spirit, as you see our Father's wisdom: when he shows you and gives it to you, then you must live it.

My children, unity is always thinking of someone else's needs and trusting that God will take care of you.

My children, selfishness is enmity to unity.

My children, I pray that today you have already placed the armor of God on you so that you will keep your focus on the prize, the prize of eternal life, the prize and honor of bringing glory to the Almighty and Most Powerful Holy Trinity.

My children, I remind you to call on your Guardian Angel for he has specifically been empowered to watch over you. Thank him, call on him, respect him, and honor him, for he has a great love for you, for this love, was given to him for you. Make this part of your protection daily.

Teaching: Question About Covid-19

April 29, 2020

What is the sickness of the soul that opens the people to have a severe reaction to Covid-19?

The sickness of unlove: where there is deep hurt, where there remains an empty need to be loved, where there has been loneliness that only God can fill and his love. Severe rejection!

Taking the Time to Think

May 6, 2020

My children, my dear children, as the Holy Spirit comes to speak, I also speak that God's Word, my son, the Word, will always be on time; it is never too late and never too early. Kindness is the same way: a kind word and kind act will always be received and always on time.

A criticizing, cruel word and act is always at the wrong time. Always take the time to think and consider what your words and actions will do. Will they bring affirmation and love or condemnation? My children, when you can walk in the sandals of my son, then you can speak the real word of truth that will cut to the depths of the sin you are exposing.

Have You Cooperated with Grace

May 13, 2020

My most beloved children, today I embrace you with my mercy, with my care and compassion. If you could only see the great and mighty graces being sent to you so that heroic virtues will abound in each and every heart.

I wish that you be a light that all could see. I wish that you would be that arm of mercy to pick up those that have fallen, an arm of mercy to embrace those that sorrow, those that need my love. You will be the great sign that I am leaving for all to know that I have come to your humble heart.

Today, I wish you would look back on the teachings I have already sent you and that I have already given grace for.

Have you cooperated with that grace? Have you fought your own flesh to behold those graces of love, those graces of forgiveness, those deadly habits that do not do anything to bring you closer to my son? Are you praying to the point of shedding your old self to allow for your new creation to come to pass? My beloveds, your foundation, your ground, has been tilled; has been fertilized, has been manured where the stench is so strong that you no longer wish to stand the stench of your old self. But then new life comes and bears much fruit.

My children, I have been and will continue to send you graces as I prepare this Sanctuary of Grace to receive those that would become priests and nuns and my children who have been called to live a holy life, the holy calling of matrimony.

My children, I smile as I see your heart so ready to conform to the will of God. For this has been in his will.

Persevere the Attacks of the Enemy Under Armor

May 20, 2020

I am going to teach you how to persevere against the attacks of the enemy: the attacks of Satan.

First, you must believe that Satan does exist, and his main objective is to destroy the children of God by any means possible. He knows all your weaknesses, all of your sins, and he especially knows your strengths.

My children, the true way to defeat these attacks is to keep humble. Humility shines like a candle in a dark room. There is no mistaking it. Satan desires to put out that light, but this light cannot be shut off or turned off.

My children, the next part of your armor is a grateful heart, a heart full of thanksgiving. My Ambassadors, this will be your first lesson.

My Ambassadors, the preparation for the *Great Calling*¹⁰ is continuing to be prepared.

My daughter, the Holy Spirit, will guide you and be the teacher.

My children, my Ambassadors, our Almighty Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, have provided for you a holy priest, many holy priests. Do not fear in asking their direction, for I will also inspire them to bring to you how to prepare for your next steps in the foundation of holiness.

¹⁰ “the great task, a great calling to love how Jesus’ loves, to forgive as Jesus’ forgives, to walk like Jesus walks.” January 6, 2021, Pious Mediations – The Queen of Mercy – Volume 2, The School of Mary, page 43

Teaching About Rejection

May 27, 2020

My beloved children, I am here! I am here to teach you, to lead you, to instruct you, and also to listen to your hearts.

So many of your hearts are crying in the pain of rejection, which leads you to fear: the fear to love, to accept love, and to give love. Open that dark corner of your heart that still has you in that dark place, that still responds to rejection or perceived rejection.

Rejection always makes you a victim unless you give that rejection immediately to my son on the cross.

Rejection always rejects back: it rejects to hurt like you are hurting and many times more.

Rejection does not discriminate, for it rejects not only the one that rejected you but also the one that you think might reject.

You reject the one that does not agree with you. Rejection is an entity of fear: fear that if you are rejected, God also will reject you.

The root of rejection can be burned into the Flames of Love. Many times this flame is in those that you have rejected.

It is a lonely place to live in the Valley of Rejection, where you wait in the darkness, waiting to be rejected again. It is time, my children, that you come out of this valley and walk out into the light where you will be free to love; you will be free to love again.

My children, it will take courage to accept that God loves you. And most important, that he can love you through those that would seem they cannot love you; those that you have rejected for so long that there is a shield to protect you. Now take down this shield and allow the fresh warm love of God to renew you and make you into a new creation, a new wineskin ready to hold more love than you have ever known.

My children, thank you for being here again to receive my motherly instructions.

My children taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Teaching: Continue Striving to Do as I Ask

May 30, 2020

My beloved Ambassadors, it has brought me much joy as your mother, as the Mother of God, that you would respond to my call with an open heart and open mind, ready to become as one.

It takes perseverance, love, and forgiveness to continue striving to do as I ask. To see you struggle, to see you make others first, is indeed a joy to me.

My beloveds, you have been placed and molded for others to follow. My sons called to be in the front, paving the way, the way of my son; to seek God, to follow God, to worship God, and to bring God, our Father, all glory and honor.

My beloveds, I am a mother that is not in any way holding back on trusting you with what is to come to pass.

My daughter¹¹, you too are ever so close to my heart, ready to shower you with any grace that you need for the needs of my children who entrust to me their hearts.

Keep on the path, the way. There will be no mistake about where you should walk, when you should talk, and when to show mercy.

Mercy encompasses the whole world. It wraps its arm around anyone who calls out for it and even those who don't.

¹¹ Daughter: Mary Constancio

Teaching About Suffering

June 03, 2020

My beloveds, today, my lesson and my grace is about suffering, how to persevere through suffering, and how to persevere for the glory of God. My children, suffering has been a product, a fruit, of sin. Before my son's suffering and his death, sin existed as a punishment for disobedience, and its stain could not be removed. Even though forgiveness could come through the sacrifices of bullocks and the sacrifices priests offered up to God for forgiveness, the stain of sin still remained.

Upon my son's suffering and dying, then could suffering be joined with that of my son's, which then redemption of your suffering could be offered, too, for the glory of God.

As you embrace the cross with my son, your sacrifice is accepted and also embraced by God, our Father, and this is an acceptable sacrifice that is jubilation in heaven. Many souls, including yours, are given special graces to complete until the end of time, your time here on earth, your time in heaven with us.

My children, when you do this intentionally and with joy, there remains with you gratitude for the greater glory of God.

My children, my grace for you today is that you discover the treasures, which are many in uniting your sacrifice and suffering to my son for his and our Father.

Each time this happens, it brings my son joy to see our Father's joy. Remember, God will not allow more than you can handle. Persevere, Persevere.

Thank you again for being here today.

Being an Ambassador of Mercy

June 10, 2020

My beloved children, my beloved Ambassadors, I was the teacher for my son, to teach him the ways of grace, to teach him obedience, to teach him humility, to teach him mercy. This is what I have been instructing you. I wish that all the graces that have been given to you, you are using for the glory and honor of God, of the Holy Trinity. My children, my beloved children, I wish as my ambassadors you are using these graces.

My children, in my instructions as an Ambassador of Mercy, I will bring forth these attributes of an ambassador for the Kingdom of God.

My Ambassadors of Mercy, are you being that Ambassador of Mercy where these souls that need mercy are being refreshed or quenched in the rivers of mercy? My children, the graces are here for the asking. All the instruments and tools needed have been given. However, because of distractions, we fail to know they are there.

My children, I am asking of you today to be a living libation for the Lord: a living example, a living warrior for mercy, where your whole being will be for mercy, the mercy of God in action.

Remind my son (Henry) that he is right to say that you are not the Savior. However, you can be the arm of mercy that reaches out to draw those that need it to the river of mercy.

My children, it brings me much joy to be an instrument of teaching you the ways of the Lord.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for coming ready to open your heart, soul, and mind.

The Importance of Your “Yes”

June 17, 2020

My children, today, I want to thank you for your yes!

Today I wish to reveal to you the importance of saying yes, of proclaiming your fiat to God. When you say yes to the will of God, you decide to live a life centered around the Kingdom of God.

Your “yes” to the Creator is completely contrary to Satan’s “no” when he chose to become his own god, whom everything is centered on; him with no concept of love, no concept of forgiveness, and no concept of mercy.

My children, your yes to me is like to the Almighty Father, who in his mercy has sent me to you to instruct you in the ways of the Holy Trinity. You see, my daughter, I too can be an Ambassador sent by God to fulfill what God has ordained for each and every one of you. Each one of you was chosen to participate in this mission of mercy, the calling of the unity of mercy in action.

There are more called, and many who have said no. My children, it is a delight and joy to be on the front line with you, my Ambassadors.

My children, thank you for your yes, your fiat to the Almighty Creator of heaven and earth.

May the peace of our Lord, which surpasses all understanding, be with you, be upon you and your hearts. May this peace lead you and be the Consoler of all that you encompass.

A New and Different Kind of Armor¹²

A New Kind of Warrior, Another Kind of Battle

June 24, 2020

As I awakened this morning to come and pray, as usual, I began to see Our Mother with her armor on, and usually, I send out the warrior angels to go do battle, but today, I was right beside Our Blessed Mother, and I was also in armor and realized I'm also going into this battle. Of course, I, who likes to be in control, asked, "where are we going, Mother?" Then I realized that I would go wherever she takes me.

Then she says, "we are going to fight another kind of battle. The battle is to go to the real victims of injustice, the victims of unlove, the victims where there is no mercy given." So she began to show me the armor¹³ I would need for this kind of battle: the Breastplate of Mercy (note there is a heart on the center of this breastplate¹⁴).

Our arms would have the Sleeves of Comfort, where we would embrace those that are hurting in pain because of lack of love: where up to now, arms have only been to be the strength to destroy God's image in someone.

The hands would wear gloves so soft to bring gentleness and kindness. "I will work great miracles of conversion of the heart through these hands of healing: healing of all kinds.

Eyes of Mercy¹⁵: "Your eyes will melt the stony hearts, will pierce the soul not to be afraid to love again. These souls will be granted the courage to reconcile with God because understanding and compassion will come from those merciful eyes that will plunge into the darkness of sin and death to bring them back to life, and all for the glory of God. You shall make God smile because his child, who was once lost, will return to his father and reconcile.

¹³ The armor of God found in Ephesians 6: 11-17 and is a defensive armor "that you may be able to stand firm against the tactics of the devil." This new armor is "that you would take my son out to others," take the fight to the enemy, to set the captive free, to bring mercy in all its forms. The two armors are to be used together "to fight another kind of battle" for the glory of God and the building up of the Kingdom.

The Mouthpiece of Joy and Praise: “The mouth will wear a Mouthpiece of Joy: a smile that can conquer Dominions¹⁶; that can bring down the ruthless and insincere of heart. This mouthpiece will alone sing praises to God. This Mouthpiece of Joy will reveal all of God’s greatness in which the magnitude of his mercy is unfathomable. This mouthpiece will declare the goodness of the Lord; it will declare upon this earth that Jesus is Lord; it will declare God’s love for his children and call them forth. This mouthpiece shall shout on the mountain tops, “how great is our God,” and how he has shown mercy to those who don’t deserve it. This mouthpiece will tell of the time when God reached out his arms of mercy to show that God is not too far from his children for him to reach. God would be a father to the fatherless.

The Winged Shoes of Mercy: “Your feet will wear shoes that cannot be seen: only in the spirit, for they will take you places where Jesus walks, where Jesus has led, where Jesus brings the Good News: glad tidings of forgiveness of reconciliation. These shoes will have wings that will take you places where only the elect are chosen and taken, to walk among the poor in spirit, to walk among the saints and where they have walked, where angels from God’s throne will allow you to forge¹⁷ through and take the keep¹⁸, to set free the captives from bondages that have been there for 1,000 generations. You will fight a good battle of mercy, coming back victorious where the prize will be to take mercy, to show mercy, to talk mercy, to teach mercy, the mercy of God. These shoes will cause you to always walk humbly before your God. What a privilege! What an honor to have this within our reach where God has sent his son to bring this news, this knowledge of God, and his love for us. What a humble place to be, to know how unworthy a sinner you are, and yet God does not see your weakness and your sin but sees through the holes of Jesus' hands and feet, and he forgives.

¹⁶ Angles (good or fallen) that have sovereignty or control over territory, governments, or governing bodies including organizations. This level of angel is most notably referred to as the Choir of Dominions.

¹⁷ Forge: A hard path to develop a successful relationship, especially in business or politics, with another country, organization, or person. To create things through hard work or toil, to reach the goal by working hard to create a path through defenders.

¹⁸ A keep: the strongest portion of the fortification of a castle, the place of last resort in case of siege or attack.

The Thigh Armor of Stability¹⁹: “The armor on your thighs shall be made of brass, where you will stand firm against the wiles of the enemy. The brass will become as gold to keep you steady on the word of God: gold because you have been tested time and time again, and you have been found worthy through the fires of suffering for God! You shall not veer to the right or to the left but to the goal that God has set.

“You ask, where do I begin? You will begin with your neighbors. The neighbors who you think are unlovable, the neighbors you think you cannot serve.

My children, it is time that you take forth and shower mercy where I am sending you.

My beloveds, I wish that you would take my son out to others. My son will always meet you where you are at. He will give you what you need. As he comes to you now, take him to others.

My children open the windows! Open the doors! Let the flow of mercy go into the byways and the highways.

How to Make Decisions and an Invitation to the School of Mary

June 24, 2020

My daughter choose not to make decisions out of fear but always by the will of God. How will your answer bring glory to God? How will your answer and decision bring others closer to him?

I wish that you extend the invitation to my priests, to my daughters (nuns). You have all been called to speak as prophets, to love as priests do their flocks.

My children, you invite those on your heart, and God's will will be done, for he will bring those he wants, those he knows will respond with love. So, pray, pray, pray, and invite those that the Holy Spirit places in your heart to invite.

My children, my beloveds, those that accept the invitation will receive the first fruits of the School of Mary. Please do not invite out of emotion but by the Holy Spirit.

My children, those that come, will take my graces that day to those that have been left behind so that no one will be left without my love. My embrace of mercy will be sent out to embrace all my children.

A Feast of Graces that Will Allow You to Recognize God’s Will in Your Life

July 1, 2020

My beloved children, I am setting before you a feast, a heavenly feast where your food will be graces needed to continue this calling in the Heavenly Mercy of God. My children, it will be the choicest of virtues, the choicest of delicious flavors that, not only will you be the salt, but those that taste of your fruit will bring glory to God. My children, your lips will drip with the Honey of Mercy. Your love will seem like the Milk of Life.

My children, the Lord, in his vast mercy, is setting before you the grace to recognize the will of God in your life because the taste will be bitter and the milk will sour; where unforgiveness will cause you to repent because of the great turmoil it causes in your soul; where anger will bring about the sickness of your soul to the point of sadness and lack of joy.

Lack of joy causes ungratefulness. Being ungrateful only sees what you do not have and expects the world to give you what you need. This is a total lie of Satan to distract you from seeing God’s plan for your life: God’s plan is much more than you could ever, ever give yourself! When your life is in God’s hands, only expect the most perfect of gifts for your life, for your soul.

Embrace today every good thing in your life, even if it seems to your eyes to be disappointing and painful.

My children, how I wish that you would open your hearts to receive the joy for your journey with us.

The Treasures of Mercy

July 8, 2020

My child, do you not know that your life and what happens in it is also very important to us. You are not alone. You are not abandoned. You are not orphaned. My child, what wounds your heart also wounds mine.

My beloved children, today, I bring you treasure chests of treasures. These are treasures of mercy: treasures that are waiting for you to ask for in order to show mercy. Among these treasures of mercy, there are blessings, virtues, and graces beyond your imagination. Only the Holy Spirit will reveal the great and wondrous deeds of our God, our Creator, our Omnipotent Father, whose love is only for you.

My child, these treasures, many of you have already discovered because only when you show mercy and when you live in mercy, and when you walk in mercy will you discover many of these treasures.

My child, as you walk in mercy, the mercy of my son, your footsteps will leave the scent of that mercy, which is God's love and forgiveness in action.

Ask yourself, "where can I show mercy today?"

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you for your attention today as you strive to live this great and awesome message of mercy.

Receive Enlightenment into Your Soul

July 15, 2020

My beloved children, I wish to bring enlightenment into your soul. Not to discourage you, not to judge you, but that you may truly see how unfathomable the mercy God has for you.

My beloveds, this enlightenment is to bring to a realization that God in his mercy is the one and only Creator and Father of us all. That you must trust in God and be patient with yourself as God continues to mold you and grace you to say yes always to his hand in your heart and soul.

My children, there is woven in you a remnant of the eternal life, of a life filled with God's fullness of the Holy Spirit, a life filled with opportunities to give glory to God with your "yes," and your willingness to reach the goal of every child of God.

Rejoice, for today the heavens are praising and worshipping God for your faithfulness.

Thank you for your "yes" of today once again.

Hearts Joined to Bring You Mercy

August 15, 2020²⁰

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My children, I have been with you, and as I have said before many times, that I am moved by your faith and your prayers, so, my beloveds, [I am moved] today as we celebrate this amazing Feast of the Assumption. As I come to you as the Queen of Mercy, I also bring my son Jesus, the Divine Mercy of God that was sent as God's mercy in action. My son lived, suffered, and died for the sake of God's mercy in action, His love, His forgiveness in action.

From Jesus:

Today I pour out my mercy upon all of you; as water and blood were poured out of me, so it was my mercy. So, I tell you today, be patient with one another as the fulfillment of mercy is taking place. It takes the eyes of mercy, the heart of mercy, to see this in the midst of the chaos and pain in this world. See-through my eyes as I was on the cross and was forgiving all mankind for the evil that they would be used to do in the hands of Satan: who has no mercy.

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My daughter, today, the hearts of my son's mercy and mine are joined²¹ to bring you the graces of mercy needed for the journey as you leave here today. Be confident that the graces you will need to face the unmerciful, unkind, unloving hearts that seek to destroy God's mercy in you. So stand firm in what I have called of you: and that is to live, to breathe, to walk mercy. Be the hands of my son. Bring your minds to Christ to be transformed into thinking mercy.

My children, my beloveds, thank you for your sacrifice. Thank you for your "yes." Thank you for coming to celebrate, to serve, and to love.

Peace, peace, peace of Jesus be with you. Thank you for being here today.

My children, my apostles of mercy, consider yourselves sent by the hearts of Mary and Jesus in mercy.

My son²², you have been given many gifts of wisdom, of knowledge, and you have me, and there are many more who do not want to leave your doorstep until you are no longer here. Do not run when times get hard and unbearable, for those are the times that I am stretching your faith.

Teaching: You have trusted and are entrusted to carry on the legacy of mercy

August 19, 2020

From Jesus, the Divine Mercy:

My children, my cup runneth over with mercy. Allow me to fill your cup, for it will never become empty. As you come to me in the Eucharist, it will never be empty.

My mercy was drawn out of me each time I was beaten, each time I was spat on, each word, curses of every form, and demonic actions against me; mercy was being consumed by me. For each moment of torture, there was recompense in mercy. For each tear that was cried for me, mercy was being drawn to forgive and to love. Every thought of anguish for me was turned for the glory of my father.

So, my beloveds, I pour out this mercy on you for all your anxieties, all of your anguish, all you think is unjust. Make it a well of mercy where you can continue to have unending actions of mercy. Draw from this well, for this well connects to my Fountain of Mercy, my fountain, being the pierced side that was to destroy me, but for mercy, what was meant to cause me harm, is now for the great and magnificent glory to my father.

With great joy, I suffered all, all of the sufferings I went through. But as you join your suffering with mine, then you and I join our sorrows and pains for the everlasting joy that will be when you finally reach your destination.

My child, many of your heart's tribulations are revealed and magnified so that the illumination of your true intent and soul is in the light: not to condemn and judge and cause guilt, but to bring you to the forefront to be among the ones called to be, that Remnant of Mercy.

My children, my beloveds, choose every word and every action for each and every person that presents themselves before you, whether foe or friend: for all will be judged. For those who are given much, much is expected. Where you show mercy, mercy is expected.

My beloveds join with me on this journey. Be my Ambassadors of Mercy.

My children, you have trusted and are entrusted to carry on the legacy of mercy. So it is written, and so it is.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

The Two-Hearts of Mercy, mother and son.

You have been Chosen and Called for Such a Time as This

September 23, 2020

From Jesus:

Amen, amen, I say to you, my Ambassadors of Mercy, you have been chosen and called for such a time as this,²³ that the graces and fruits of mercy are being showered upon you to spread, to shower others as an Ambassador of the Kingdom of God. This is no small calling, no small task that has been asked of you.

The difference that you as Ambassadors are to make upon and in this kingdom, a kingdom that Satan has set up to destroy, to disunify, what I have brought together is his goal only to destroy in unimaginable ways. Take seriously, take to heart that this is a privilege and honor God has bestowed upon you. This is your first calling: to love and serve God where he has placed you. My divinity is yet a mystery to be discovered to its fullness. However, as you continue and commence this calling, my divinity is the main reason forgiveness can happen.

²⁴ My Mary, do not fear! My beloved, do you not understand the amount of faith it has taken for you to sit here today as you come before our mother and me to believe that what you are hearing is not from you but a divine intervention in the spectrum of life. So do not worry but believe.

²³ Mary's note in margin: this meaning is 1000 generations to come

²⁴ Mary Constancio. This part of the message was given to her as she questioned whether these messages were real or just in her mind.

On the Day You Were Born

October 14, 2020

My beloveds, my beloved son^{25 26}: On the day you were born, we surrounded you with kisses of thanksgiving, for we were and are thanking God for the day you were born. My son, you are never alone. You will never be alone, for I will be with you in your coming and your going. My son, it is time that you accept that you are acceptable. That you are and have been selected and called for this great task. Embrace the graces that I have sent you and those I am sending you. My son, on this very special day in time, I wish that you would free yourself from the chains of fear: fear of not having enough, the fear of not being enough. I have placed in your heart my heart: let it lead you. Allow your heart and soul to proclaim the greatness of the Lord, for, on the day that we come for you, you will be free to say yes.

My son, spread your wings, your wings of perseverance, your wings of freedom. To love the freedom, to know that there is no one like you: no one can ever take your place.

Thank you for your yes to me.

My daughter, do not fear the darkness of this time. Be at peace knowing that every step is being counted; every step is being led; every step is leading to the Kingdom of God; every step is a step that has a lamp to show that even what you think are mistakes, God is in charge of even these. Continue to place your total trust in my son for the Glory of God.

²⁶ Important to note that while this first section was written to Henry, it starts off with the words, “My Beloveds”. This message pertains to each Ambassador!

Today call on the Power of the Two Hearts of Mercy

November 4, 2020

From Mary Constancio: As I deal with this fear²⁷, the Lord has shown me how fear distracted me from doing his will, how it closed me off to the possibility that he is really in charge and that he is the King, our Lord, and Savior. If we cannot believe in these small things, how can I believe in his power of resurrection in us, in me?

From Jesus:

Today call on the power of the Two Hearts of Mercy: where mercy is the power of love, love that is unconditional. Love can defeat any other power that is not of God, not of the Holy Spirit.

Keep this as a tool for your doubts of what the Holy Spirit can do and will do through your yes, your acceptance of what God can and will do through you, through anyone who trusts in God and his omnipresence in your life.

My beloveds, be ready to live out this great and fearful love and mercy of God.

My children, as you look upon the Two Hearts, know that the mercy of love and justice will take place. I will not leave you where you are at but will draw you into a place of action.

Our beloved Mother will transform your heart to love and forgive so that you may accept and move into action.

Jesus: the action of Love and Forgiveness.

My beloveds, thank you, my child, for putting your fears aside to behold my words of love.

Remember, this may seem like you are being asked in faith on fire, but this will cleanse and reform you.

²⁷ Fear of “am I really receiving messages”.

Dark Times Will Become Times of Grace

November 07, 2020 ²⁸

My daughter, my most beloved sons: It brings me great joy that you continue to come to my home: a home that has prepared for your coming. My home welcomes you with open arms, ready to receive what you have to give.

My sons, I welcome you like any mother that would welcome her children with food for the soul, and food for your heart, and food for your being. My sons, as your mother, I bring to you counsel with grace: grace to continue seeking the will of God in your life. My guidance in your life is not just when you come here, but when you leave here, to bring this love of mercy to the world that seeks food for their soul. At this time, when there is so much turmoil, calm that turmoil with the peace that's beyond understanding. Call on this peace, this peace that is communicated with your peace and joy.

²⁹My children, who need their mother, asking that I help them on their way, I am invested in your life. My children, thank you, thank you, who have come to seek God's will. What joy it gives me to see them with their faith.

My children do not fear in these dark times that will become times of grace: more grace to bring to pass an openness to the Holy Spirit to be renewed. In order for renewal to happen, the old must pass away, and in this case, not only the old but evil also: the evil that has caused much despair, despair and fear. My children, do not take your eyes off of the magnificence and omnipotence of his power to rule. He is the first king, the first ruler that is just, that is merciful.

My children, there is much, much more I wish to bring you, and it will come.

²⁸ Men's Retreats

²⁹ Given in Spanish: Mis hijos, que necesitan de su madre – que le piden que estoy aqui para ayudarles en tu camino – esta jornada de su vida. Mis hijos, gracias, gracias, que han venido a buscar la voluntad de Dio. Que gozo me da ver los con su fe.

My Love and Graces Continue to Flow into Your Lives

November 8, 2020

My children, as you raise me up in your hearts, as you have pledged your love to me, how can I not do the same? How can I refuse your heartfelt petitions, your petitions that are enfolded in mercy?

Thank you, my beloveds, that even your children call me blessed, call me beloved with their hearts. My love and graces continue to flow into your lives.

Thank you. Thank you for being here. Peace, peace of Jesus be with you.

Do not fear allowing my son, Jesus, to come into your midst.

Teaching: An Undercurrent of Fire

November 11, 2020

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My daughter, my children, you are here because you have trusted me. You have loved me when I called you together to learn and for you to live out mercy all the days of your life. As you live this mercy, others will want and desire it also. What you do not understand is that there is an undercurrent of fire: the fire of mercy that is given to all who want it. This grace comes to each person you speak to; you pray for; you love. So there are flickers and sparks of fire that lite the hearts and souls that you touch. My beloveds, I wish you would open your hearts with love towards my son: the Divinity of all that is divine. My children, remember that my reason for coming is always to draw you closer to my son.

Listen intently and with an open heart to him, the Complete Action of Mercy, whom you need to focus on and follow and imitate.

My beloved, I invite you to make Jesus your beloved. Come Holy Spirit! Come Holy Spirit, fill my children with this great, great love to totally embrace all my son has to give.

From Jesus:

My Father, today I lift up to you, my beloveds. Bless them, Father, for they want to do your will. Fill their minds, transform their minds with only wanting to bring you glory. Fill them with every grace that they are needing to participate with this transformation.

I am your Shepard, and as a Good Shepard, I wish to bring to you the jewels, the treasures of how to reach obedience, how to succumb to the will of our Father. I want to teach you how to walk in my sandals: how to teach and be a good teacher, how to love the unlovable, how to forgive the unforgivable, how to show mercy to the unmerciful. Take hold of what I wish to bring you, my beloveds.

You Will Bring the Light into the Darkness

November 18, 2020

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My beloved children, be it known today in the heavens and the earth that God Our Father has sent forth an army of soldiers to you to protect you, your faith, to guard you, to direct you from the harms and curses that are befalling upon this earth. My children, this is not to bring you fear but awareness of God's plan for your salvation. My children, upon you all, all have a calling of great magnitude to help others to bring hope when there is no hope and where there is no consolation. You will bring the light into the darkness; you will lift the fallen to bring glory to God. My beloveds, this is where the Two Hearts of Mercy will be extremely needed: needed to bring many hope and trust in God.

From the Divine Mercy (Jesus):

Beloved, bring to the Father, to the Throne of Grace, your needs, your trust, your faith. As you bring these pebbles to the altar, the Throne of Grace, the throne where God exists, your pebbles to defeat the great Goliaths of your life, they will be defeated in the Name of the Glory of God. As I am The Way, your way to the truth, I will open truth that no one even suspected. As the Light of Truth brings the darkness to the light, it will be exposed so that new life can begin: a new spring, a new sunrise will begin. Forever may the great almighty, everlasting Glory of God be proclaimed over all the earth!

Be the Mirror of Divine Mercy

December 2, 2020

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My daughter, do you not understand that the arrows of Satan are pointed toward you and toward my Ambassadors? My Child, for such a time as this, I have prepared you with love's mercy. As incomplete as you feel and as many weaknesses as you think you have, they are all for the Glory of God.

My beloveds, as you continue to unite, to unite in the mercy of God, you can never fully understand this divine mercy until you reach your heavenly reward.

My children, as this Great Disunity is happening in this world, in this nation, you are and should be the Mirror of Divine Mercy. The most important part and the completion of love and forgiveness is the action. For mercy to be complete, there must be action.

My children, the spiritual world sees you, my Ambassadors, as a merciful beating heart. The more unity of love there is, the more your heart beats for God; this brings glory to God.

From Jesus:

Do not fear the temptation of being unworthy; the temptation of not being able to be a messenger of mercy. Thank you for making your commitment to your calling, for if you had not been called, you would not be here.

Just as I chose my disciples that were sent, consider yourselves sent by the hand, by the Word no man, no demonic power can remove. Be therefore sent to proclaim my love, my mercy, for my mercy has sent you!

Thank you for being here today.

The Great Task, A Great Calling

January 06, 2021

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

To my beloved children, my graces today are flowing upon you: they are being showered on your every need. My beloved, at these times of persecution, it will be important that you unite for one purpose: this purpose is being revealed and manifested in many different ways, many different paths. But you must remember that I will never abandon you. You are always mentioned at the Throne of Grace, the Throne of Mercy, the Throne of the Holy Spirit: where the glory of God comes from, for my son sits on this throne: He sees all, He knows all, and there is nothing that is hidden.

My beloveds, today, your lesson is to open your hearts to trust in God, the great I Am, the omnipotent and ever-present God, whose only intention is to draw you to himself, to his son, and the Holy Spirit. Hear, hear the words of my mercy that are being shared with you.

My Ambassadors, you have been entrusted with the great task, a great calling³⁰ to love how Jesus loves, to forgive as Jesus forgives, to walk like Jesus walks. So, as you do this, the world will want to destroy you, for they did this to him as they crucified him. So, do not be surprised or lose your peace or calling. Remain steadfast and faithful to what he has called of you. Do not conform yourself to the world's ways, for they are not God's ways. Decide today to be holy: to be set apart³¹.

Thank you, thank you, my children, for being here today.

From Jesus:

My Ambassadors, today more than ever, look at me, focus on me, and stay focused, for the world around you only seeks to turn you away from God. Satan would love that you dwell and focus on him. So today, the grace given from me is to keep your focus.

³⁰ "My Ambassadors, the preparation for the Great Calling is continuing to be prepared." May 20, 2020, Pious Mediations – The Queen of Mercy – Volume 2, The School of Mary, page 18.

³¹ To be set apart is the definition of consecrated.

I Am the Great I Am: so, everything that is needed is faith.

Thank you, my children, my Ambassadors, for your attention today.

The Grace to Keep You Firm on the Path of Your Calling

January 13, 2021

My beloveds, holy and beloved, I come to you again to bless you with all the graces that you need: the grace of perseverance to keep you firm on the path of your calling, where you will find strength when you think you cannot handle anymore. Hang on to this grace, for this leads you to hope: hope is the rope that hangs on to faith. Faith will get you through the fires of the heart, fires of suffering, and sacrifice.

My beloved children, with so much tenderness and joy, I continue to grace you with mercy to look, to see more with the eyes of my son, to recognize God's glory that so many times you cannot see but feel the love: that unconditional love that saves you for the glory of our Almighty Father.

My children bring to me (the Two Hearts of Mercy) those without hope, those that have not responded to the call of love. Bring those that are destitute and alone, that need an embrace of love, an embrace of hope and salvation. Continue to follow the direction to my son. Always, always that is my joy to watch as you follow my son and his Way.

Thank you. Thank you for being here today, and thank you for responding to my call.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.

Learn to Seek, Knock, and the Answer Will be Given

January 27, 2021

My beloved holy children, today, you are encircled with a cloud of witnesses. They are here to rejoice with you, to praise with you, to worship with you: to pray for you for the graces needed to follow this path of holiness. My beloveds, these are the warriors that fought to reach their goal, to reach the promise of salvation. To those who seek and knock, the doors will be open to you by the crucifixion of my son.

My children, you are my beloveds; you have been a part of my heart that aches when your heartaches, that rejoices when you rejoice. My beloveds, if you could only see the great majesty of angels that are being sent for each one of you.

My children, as my son's heart and I were joined, they have never been separated; they continue to be united for the purpose of the Glory of God.

I am empowering you today to seek, knock, and answer your calling. Your calling has been placed in you since the beginning. Learn to seek when you need help. Learn to knock when your heart needs comfort. And learn to answer with your heart open to receive into your life those I have placed in your life. There is no need for loneliness in this journey: to be alone with God is not the same as being lonely.

You are my Ambassador flock to whom I continue to bless so that you can bless others: this is your calling.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you for being here today, and peace of Jesus be with you.

My Son, the Only Way to Salvation

January 30, 2021 ³²

My children, my sons, how I wish you knew how much I love you; how much heaven is cheering you on tonight: especially your beloved families who are with me.

My beloveds, there is no mountain, no ocean, no amount of sin that can keep me from you, for I understand your struggle. You are here because you seek the will of God, you seek his comfort and consolation and direction, but most importantly, you seek his love and mercy for your life.

You have tried many other gods in your life, and there is no possibility of another god, but our Almighty Father, his son, my son, is the only way to salvation: the way to your daily living, one day at a time.

Today, I am pouring out the grace to pray the Rosary, to intercede for your family, for those petitions that I am asking of you today.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you for being here today. Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.

³² Macho Man Retreat

As Ambassadors of this Grace

February 03, 2021

My beloved children, how blessed I am, my beloveds, as God has placed you under my care; as God has given graces of mercy to you, my Ambassadors, to spread these seeds of mercy, these seeds of love of forgiveness. My beloveds, do you not realize because God has bestowed on you these graces that, your prayers and intercessions are heard from on high. Your prayers can hold back God's wrath. They can cover your family with mercy to restore God's patience: his mercy in action. You have not used this grace, for it can open doors to hearts that are closed; it can break chains that are locked. As Ambassadors of this grace, you can be a fortress of hope, compassion, and comfort.

My lesson for you today is to open your hearts and seek the mercy givers, to allow yourself to see why you feel unworthy of this, and accept this great gift without limits. There is an anointing of love, of forgiveness, and of mercy on your hearts. You have been marked for the greater glory of God.

My beloveds, censor your words. Censor your actions. Censor your attitudes, for there is no reason, no excuse to be unmerciful, to be unloving, and unforgiving, for you have been given and taught. If you still cannot, seek help. Do not be too proud to ask so that you can find the door to open to help you with your zealous anger and non-repentance. All graces have been given to you. Use them for the greater glory of God.

My beloveds, I see new and spectacular lights of conversion. Praise the Most High Living God!

Thank you. Thank you for being here today.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.

Seek Him First

February 24, 2021

My children, seek first the Kingdom of God. Seek him and his will for your life. Seek him in your hardships. Seek him in your joys. Thank him for all the things seen and unseen. My children, as you seek him, you will always find him. He will never hide from you. He will always be available to you.

As you seek the Kingdom of God and his kingship over you, your needs are taken care of: your physical needs, your spiritual needs, and your needs of your soul.

Today's lesson is to seek him. To look for him in those places that you have closed off to him, those places in your heart that are so scared that the pain is still very much real and in pain.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you and thank you for being here today.

Seeking After Holiness

March 03, 2021

To God be all the Glory!

My beloved children, my beloved family: My message to you is to continue this path of seeking after holiness. Holiness should be a goal to reach, a goal for the sake of the Kingdom, for the sake of bringing glory to God.

My children, as mothers, as fathers, as sisters, as daughters, as sons, seek the way of holiness for your daily lives. The way for you to find “the way of mercy” in all you do, even in the simple everyday things: in washing dishes, combing your hair, fixing your car, caring for your children, caring for your husband, your wife, your mother, and father. Take each one of these tasks with the greatest fervor and love. Change how you are used to doing things because God wants to change you and convert you into a Flame of Mercy.

Look today. Seek today. Knock today on the doors of change for the greater glory of God.

Thank you, dear family, for being here today. Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.

Know today, with no doubts in your heart, that the Holy Family will and is praying for your holy family.

Listen to My Heart

March 10, 2021

From Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy:

My beloved family, I so wish that you call on me as your mother. My heart burns with a desire to teach you and guide you. To show you my heart of compassion and comfort for you to embrace. For me to embrace you when you cry when you have questions that your heart has. For you to bring me your sorrows and joys that I can be your mother you can turn to when life offers you daily decisions of good and when temptations come, I can share with you graces from the Table of Mercy.

My beloved child, I speak to each one of your hearts. Listen to my heart as it speaks of a love beyond your understanding when it speaks to your greatest needs of your soul. Where it goes beyond feelings but to the depth of your soul's hunger and thirst. Where I can teach you how to abandon to the great I AM, the most omnipotent God of all creation, including you, where he knows every cell in your being.

Think of it, my child, if God has created everything you see and you don't see, everything with life that he instructs when it is time for the trees to dry their leaves, for the waves of the ocean to move, for the sun to rise, and the moon to sleep, how much more does He know what is in your physical being. He knows what is good and the best of what is good for you.

From Jesus:

My beloveds, as I am your Savior, so also I am a brother, a friend that will always lead you to my Father to bring Him glory, my Father that is your Father. As you take me as your beloved Savior and accept that I could and do love you enough to have died for you so that you could forever be with us; so that I can open your hearts to receive, that you would have life to its fullest. I open my arms and heart, my wisdom and understanding of bringing glory to my Father.³³

³³ Note from Mary Constancio: I have been shown the two hearts of mercy; the Blessed Mother as our mother, Jesus as our Savior, our brother, our friend. I saw myself sit in the middle of both of them sitting in a chair and me between them and the Blessed Mother caressing, touching my hair

Authority

March 24, 2021

Mary Constancio wrote this in her diary and then read it to those present at the School of Mary rosary.

Before we began the Rosary, the Blessed mother allowed me to see her in her Queenship attire and Jesus in his Kingship attire. They had just come down from the Ambassador Headquarters in Heaven. They had come to bless us, anoint us, and confirm each of you as one of God's Ambassadors of Mercy.

I asked the Blessed Mother what was her teaching today? She said, "Authority." She said there is no other authority higher than God: there is no other.

and loving on me; just me listening to me, just me, and then they would share their compassion, their mercy, their wisdom, etc., everything that we need.

Choose tonight. Choose life. Choose by Your Yes.

May 01, 2021 ³⁴

My beloved sons, thank you for taking this time to come and learn about God, about my son, about the Holy Spirit, for they all come to bless you with all the gifts, all the graces you need to live close to God, to live a holy life; for you are all called to live a life that gives God the glory.

My sons, choose tonight. Choose life. Choose by your yes to God. Do not worry about how you will fulfill your yes because God will take over; he will be in charge of your yes. You will not be sent out without the graces you will need. Seek first his kingdom, and everything will be provided for you: everything! Trust is what is needed to continue following the path already prepared for you.

My children, my beloved sons, I am always here for you. I am only a prayer away, a thought away for those that believe. My sons, I continue to kneel with my son, pleading for you, bringing your needs to the Father, a father that is ready to embrace you as a father, that is ready to give you all the treasures that are in waiting for you: they have your name on them.

My sons, one of the greatest treasures is my son in the Eucharist, in the treasure of Confession: because my son died for the forgiveness of your sin so that you could be with us in heaven.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you for being here.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.³⁵

³⁶ I'm sending the grace to take courage in living a holy life. Take courage in standing against sin. Take courage in loving: reaching out in love, reach out in forgiveness. Reconcile and unite with those that are hurting and need to be embraced and loved.

³⁴ Macho Man Retreat

³⁵ Our Lady brought the grace to restore graces that were lost. She also brought the grace that calls you in the night: that calls you to give more than what you've given.

Call to Obedience

May 06, 2021

My message to you today is that you pray, pray, pray. Pray in thanksgiving for all the many prayers that have been answered, the many prayers that are still in the Lord's hands: waiting to be answered.

My child, pray that you may stay committed to your “yes.” Pray that your soul will be opened and stay open to do the will of God, for it is in love that I call obedience. Obedience is what comes so that what is beautiful, what is perfect, may continue to manifest in your life. Obedience and joy is a prayer answered.

My children, the deception of evil is that obedience is meant to place you under chains with fetters. But obedience will set you free from the chains that others have placed on you and chains you have placed on yourselves by your own pride and arrogance: this comes from not knowing my love, the love that sets captives free.

Mary, my daughter, you will become a great advocate of obedience: obedience to me and to the Father. For in this, you will live life to its fullest. When you can conquer disobedience and be its owner, you can live for me: live a life without fear, the fear that enslaves you.

My beloveds, thank you, thank you for being here today.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.³⁷

³⁷ Thank you. Thank you, Mother. I have such joy in what you are saying. As I am writing this, joy is springing up inside of me like never before when we talked about obedience.

The Journey of Obedience

May 12, 2021

My children, the grace today continues to fall upon you - the grace of obedience - and I want you to receive it as a gift from God. As you open this gift, many many treasures are attached and connected to this one gift of obedience. Humility is one of these treasures with no price: it is a priceless treasure attached to obedience. Other treasures attached to obedience are trust, faith, joy, peace, and freedom to do the will of God.

When you decide to walk the journey of obedience, you have chosen to open doors of possibilities. You will be showered with the graces that you have needed, but this door was the last one you wanted to open.

Worry can become a problem that is not a problem: Choose obedience so you can live in peace. This journey has many mountains you must climb up and come down. Many oceans of self-denial, many battles to conquer, and wars within yourself that you will win with the grace of God.

As you rise every morning, remember to place everything: everything you worry about, everything you are concerned about, all your fears, all of your plans, all your decisions; place them on the altar of graces where God decides and has decided what is his will and what is not.

My beloveds, continue to seek and honor those in authority over you, those God has placed in authority over you.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for being here with me today.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you.

Please Do Not Leave the Same Way as You Arrived

August 15, 2021 ³⁸

My beloved children, thank you, my beloveds, my beloveds, for joining me today, for you honor me with your presence.

My little children, come to me as your mother, as a child comes to her mother crying, and as a mother, I will console you and embrace even the smallest of hurts and pains, or if you want to bring to me your joys and gratefulness for my son's life for you.

My children, our beloved Father, has sent you graces upon graces this weekend. Take them, embrace them, but most importantly, put them into practice as you feel overwhelmed with my love: mercy. I do not want you to forget this day that, as your mother, I have taken to my heart your heart, and I want to especially thank each daughter and each son that gave of their life to serve this weekend for me.

³⁹Please, my children, do not leave the same way as you arrived, because I am going with you in a very special way, for I fully know what you need; I am here to serve my children. When you serve, I serve through you: your hands are my hands, your love is my love.⁴⁰

Today is a gift to you who believe and a greater gift for those who don't. My children, each of you is a joy to me when you struggle to be holy, and I am there struggling with you to come to a place of peace in your hearts.

Today the graces are abundant. As you receive a flower from me⁴¹, know that the grace you need is there for you, just as each flower is different in many ways: the beauty of its scent, the beauty of how it looks, and how it pleases you pleases me.

My beloveds, my children, be at peace. Stand in trusting Jesus for all of your needs. Please know and remember that my Divine Son is here for you to make you holy if you ask.

⁴¹ The prayer garden at the Ambassadors where this meditation was received was filled with pots of flowers that were later given out to all those who attended.

Peace, peace, peace, peace, peace of my son, Jesus, be with you and follow you all the days of your life. Pray the Rosary daily and connect your heart to me and to my Son in the Holy Trinity. The whole of heaven is praying for you. ⁴²

⁴² A special message for Mary Constancio: My Mary, my daughter, today was 33 years when you gave me your yes, and you have not changed it. You have always been faithful to your yes. Your fidelity is not forgotten. It is passed on.

The Graces that You Will Need in the Battle

September 4, 2021 ⁴³ ⁴⁴

My beloved sons, I am here to love you, to show you mercy, to guide you with the light of mercy. Anywhere mercy is shown, I am there.

My sons, beloveds, there are many wounded hearts here, but as your hearts are wounded, so your souls also. My son is the healer of your soul. My son has already died and resurrected to bring you your healing and to bring about conversion as you are being healed. My sons, pray tonight not only for the healing of your soul but also for the souls you have hurt, those you have wounded with your words, your actions. My son is ready to bring about this renewal of your family.

Today, this moment, I am pouring out on you, showering you with the warmth of graces, the graces that you will need in the battle, the battle against your faith. There is a great battle to steal, to weaken, to decrease, and to stop this precious jewel of faith that has been given to you. From the day of your conception, you have been endowed with faith. Faith, this golden gift from God, that especially during moments of grace, is being given as you open your hearts, minds, and souls to experience and grow; in this grace that can take you through the fiery trials; that purifies you so that you can walk, that you talk when God asks you to talk; where he can ask of you to lay hands on the sick, and you will lay hands on his children to free them from pain and sorrow; so that all may know that God exists and that all is for his glory forever.

Peace. Peace. Peace of Jesus be with you and thank you for being here tonight. ⁴⁵

I see someone who is digging and digging, trying to seek the treasures of God with humility. You will find it.

⁴³ Macho Men Retreat

⁴⁴ From Mary's notes: I see the Blessed Mother with her mantle wide open, and under her mantle, there is light, but it's like there is a ray of light for each son of hers, and it is like she has a specific grace and Word for each of you. It is awesome. Thank you, Blessed Mother.

⁴⁵ From Mary Constancio's notes: Many of you want to see, hear, and feel God, but you are trying to see, hear, and feel with your mind and intelligence instead of through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer for Our Children

September 18, 2021 ⁴⁶

My little daughters, thank you for coming to spend time with us.

Daughters, I bring you a prayer. With this prayer, I promise you that when you say this prayer, my angels of the Blue Army will protect your children from the demons that have been released to destroy God. The prayer is this:

In the name of the Most Holy Trinity, I pray Most Beloved Mother, Queen of Mercy, mother sent by God; I call upon you as my mother to send your loving protection, the protection of your mantle that is covered with the blood and cross of your son, Jesus; that you would protect and hide your children from the wiles of the enemy, more than ever from the traps of this world's empty promises. Allow not the delusions of this world to mock the innocent and the vulnerable into sin. Remove all illusions from the trusting eyes of the faithful ones so that we may see clearly the darkness and the evil plans for the downfall of God's children, the plot that lurks to destroy their purity and their soul. Under your mantle, they will find shelter where no weapon formed against them will prosper, and no harmful armament can penetrate the mercy guarding them.

To you, oh Mother of Mercies, I call and anxiously plead for your help and your protection. Unto your arms, oh mother, I fly to whisper in your heart my gratefulness for answering my petitions. Thank you, mother. Amen.

My Blue Army of Angels has been sent around the world to protect children.

My daughters, thank you for being here today. And may the peace of Jesus be with you. ⁴⁷

⁴⁶ The Women's Retreat

⁴⁷ From Mary's notes: Take this message I am entrusting to you to pray and spread. All of us who need the protection, for all the children must pray that the darkness will disappear from this land. Satan is bathing in the Blood of the Innocent.

Today is No Accident, for it was Planned by God

November 6, 2021 ⁴⁸

My beloved sons, you have been called. You have been chosen to take the word of hope of mercy to those that are brought to you, that surround you with sadness and no hope, no hope of salvation. These, my sons, are crying sorrowful tears that no one can hear, for they cry from their heart; they cry where no one can see them because of their pride; they do not want to seem weak.

My sons, yes, I call you my sons! Will you allow me to be your mother? Will you allow me to plead before you with my son, before the Throne of Grace?

Today is no accident that you are here, for it was planned by God. You were brought here by the Holy Spirit, saved by my son Jesus, and graced with the graces given to me to give you. My sons, with God, all things are possible, for God has everything in his hands, including you.

My sons, you have come seeking the light, seeking the way, seeking the truth, and you have found it. Like gold or silver, or the most precious of gems, this grace and mercy are far and above all the gold and silver of the world.

My sons do not spare the doorstep of my sons here at AFM⁴⁹ or my sons who have not spared their life for our Father's glory. All glory be to God!

My beloved sons, so close to my heart are you. When you pray the Rosary, I am there with you. As you pray the prayer for my children, I have promised that I will fulfill the safety of the children, my children.

Remember, I am only a thought away, a prayer away: keep me close to you.

Mary Constancio wrote: King David⁵⁰ is here today because he sinned. He understands there is hope.

⁴⁸ Macho Men's Retreat

⁴⁹ The Ambassadors of the Flame of Mercy

⁵⁰ Mary Constancio said that this was the first time the Blessed Mother brought King David with her.

My brothers in Christ. You, too, can be a man of God, a man after God's own heart. What is asked is that you repent and admit that you sinned and are truly sorry with all your heart, and you choose to do the will of God no matter the cost! Today, among the graces that are being poured upon you like honey⁵¹ are the graces of true and heartfelt repentance.

⁵¹ Mary Constancio said she felt the term honey was used because honey is sticky.
