

The School of Mary

By Carolyn Huntzinger

Every year during the Feast of the Assumption we have a golden opportunity to learn from our Blessed Mother. You could say she home-schools us. This year was no exception. As she is known here by the title "Queen of Mercy," we learn more and more what mercy means.

Imagine if that were taught in our children's schools! What a different world we might live in!

Of course, her teachings are private revelations which do not enjoy ecclesiastical approval, nor are they intended to replace Biblical or Magisterial teachings. That said, I believe they are worthy of reflection and meditation. Please read in a spirit of prayer and discernment.

Our Mother encourages us to remain faithful to mercy, to seek ways in which we bless each other, ways to help each other reach our heavenly reward; not by criticizing words, not by tough love, but by compassionate words and words that build up the Body of Christ.

On her special day of the Assumption, I ask forgiveness for my lack of mercy and my selfishness blinding me to the needs of others. In encounters with others, I rarely think of how I might help a brother or sister reach heaven, but I have often been consumed by what my interests are in the exchange.

And yes, I have callously used criticizing words and tough love, impatiently pouring out my "knowledge" instead of listening.

So back I go to class. And this was just a small installment toward my ongoing education.

The second morsel to chew on centered on the topic of discipline. Here I learn how I have mistaken punishment for discipline; that I am to receive discipline as the direction to the kingdom of God. So we are to be thankful for discipline. Wow! That is one big bite to chew on! Here is a scripture which also points to this truth: Hebrews 12: 5-8: "My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord or lose heart when reprovved by him; for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines; he scourges every son he acknowledges."

Endure your trials as "discipline"; God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline? If you are without discipline, in which all have shared, you are not sons but bastards."

Somehow this scripture came to life for me in Mama's classroom.

I thank God for all those who came to celebrate this Feast of our Blessed Mother's assumption with us, those who served in the heat without complaint, who smiled even though they were exhausted, who were seeking to please our Mother and our guests, loving them to mercy. Thank you!

Keep watching for Howard's new book, The School of Mary, where many insights and lessons will be shared. And remember to visit our classrooms here in Shallowater, also known as retreats.

We look forward to sharing mercy, love, compassion, grace and joy on our journey together toward heaven.

Queen of Mercy, Pray for Us as we are directed by discipline and remain faithful to mercy! Show us how to help and bless each other to holiness! Amen!

Our Feast of the Assumption Celebration was truly wonderful. A great big hug of a thank you to all who participated! We enjoyed fellowship, prayer, praise and music with a wonderful Mariachi group, as well as celebratory fireworks in the evening by the Ray Lozada family. Thanks to Sandy Embesi, Reyes Castro and the His Disciples team for providing and cooking food for our visitors and workers! We are so grateful for all the donations of time and treasure to beautify the Ambassadors' grounds! Thank you, Brenda and the Garcia family for organizing the event's festivities and the special TLC in the front courtyard. It looks so beautiful!

Thanks to all our Ambassadors who served, provided transportation, and prayer for those visiting. We especially thank the Browns, Eliazer Perez and family, Fr. Ernesto, Fr. Bill and Msgr. James. Thanks, too, to the great guys who helped with whatever was needed; Mark Sundy, and the Martinez family (Isidore & Donna). And, quietly, as though you'd never see, Sylvia Mendez helped our guests with their requests. Thank you, sis!

Of course, we are so thankful for our core family, the Mendez clan, the Gloria family, the Constancio families, the Huntzingers and the Garcia family. We treasure your hard work, donations of flowers, gravel and mulch, and your dedication! Your love was evident for the children of our Blessed Mother to enjoy. Our ministry has never looked so beautiful!

Thanks to the Arce family and the Brown family who welcomed weary travelers and served sno-cones, water and fruit. Thanks to the Herrings, who helped with music and prayer. Thanks to the choir group from San Ramon Church in Woodrow, and Jose Luis Flores from St. John Neumann Church who led song for us. We pray that you enjoyed your visit and will return for a retreat where you can experience a weekend of soaking prayer, praise and growing in your relationship with God!
