¹My beloved children, my beloved sons, I chose you by the grace of God. He sent you this weekend so that I could embrace you and love you with the mercy God is showering upon you today.

Response

My sons, do you not know what this mercy means to you? This mercy was gained for you by my son, my son who died for each of you. As he was dying, he saw you here today. This day, he destined that he would shower you with this grace of love, of forgiveness by his actions of suffering for you. There is nothing, nothing that he did not die for you. Do not think that your sin is too big and too grand that the mercy of my son cannot cover. Bring it to him tonight as I bring you the compassion that I am flooding your soul with. Do not resist, for you are resisting God himself.

My beloved sons, there are so many of you who feel lonely and that you are walking alone in this world like an orphan. You are my sons, the sons of God's brothers of my son. So many of you feel lost because you had no guidance from the ones that were your parents.

My sons, tonight it takes much faith to believe that I am here to bless you with my embraces of love. Come under my mantle, as I call your family. There, you will always find protection and confidence that God loves you.

Many are motivated by their flesh, the sins that drive them away from God. Begin to move towards him, not away from him. Always choose his ways. Be aware that the enemy and his arrows of the sins that depart you from the grace of God. Look and choose the graces towards heaven.

My sons, listen to the truth of God and those wiser than you in the way of God.

My beloved sons, peace, peace, peace of Jesus be with you, and thank you for being here tonight.

My sons, I would ask again that you unite to pray the Rosary as soldiers of the Rosary. You will begin to bring down the Kingdom of this world, who is the enemy, the devil who wishes to tear down your faith.

Please, please pray for your children in the prayer I have given you.

Study Guide to the Lesson of September 2, 2023

Summary

By Howard A. Huntzinger Jr.

Please note that though this teaching was given to the men at the men's retreat, this lesson is meant for all God's children.

General Summary: The teaching emphasizes the importance of faith, God's mercy, and the power of prayer in maintaining a strong connection with God and resisting sinful temptations.

Teaching:

This teaching from Our Lady, the Queen of Mercy, addresses the men at the Men's retreat, referring to them as "my beloved children" and "my beloved sons." The central theme is the importance of God's mercy and love, particularly through the sacrifice of Jesus, who died for each of us.

The key points include:

1. Divine Grace: Our Lady emphasizes that the grace of God has chosen us and is showering us with mercy and love.
2. Significance of God's Mercy: Our Lady highlights that this mercy was obtained through the sacrifice of her son, who saw us as he was dying. Jesus' suffering was meant to grant forgiveness and love.
3. Universality of Forgiveness: We are encouraged not to think that our sins are too great for God's mercy to cover. We are urged to bring our sins to God and accept His compassion.
4. Adoption into God's Family: We are reminded that we are not alone in the world but are the children of God, brothers and sisters to Jesus.
5. Faith and Protection: Our Lady asks us to have faith and seek protection under her "mantle." She emphasizes that this is where we will find confidence in God's love.
6. Overcoming Sinful Desires: We are advised to move our hearts toward God and choose His ways, resisting the temptations of sin that can lead us away from grace.
7. Seeking Wisdom: Our Lady encourages us to listen to God's truth and seek guidance from those wiser in matters of faith.
8. Peace and Prayer: Our Lady imparts her peace and asks us to pray the Rosary together to bring down the enemy (the forces of evil) and to strengthen faith.
9. Praying for Children: We are urged to pray for all children using the prayer given by Our Lady. See the following prayer.

Prayer for the Protection of Children

As you pray this prayer, I bring a promise with it. My angels of the Blue Army will go forth to protect our sons and daughters from the demons that have been unleashed to destroy God's children.

In the name of the Most Holy Trinity:

Most Beloved Mother, Queen of Mercy, Mother sent by God, I call upon you as my mother to send your loving protection, the protection of your mantle that is covered with the blood and cross of your son, Jesus; that you would protect and hide your children from the wiles and snares of the enemy, more than ever from the traps of this world's empty promises. Allow not the delusions of this world to mock the innocent and the vulnerable into sin. Remove all illusions from the trusting eyes of the pure and simple ones that we may see clearly the darkness and the evil plans for the downfall of God's children; the plot that lurks to destroy their purity and their soul. Under your mantle they will find shelter where no weapon formed against them will prosper and no harmful armament can penetrate the mercy guarding them.

To you, oh Mother of Mercies, I call and anxiously plead for your help and your protection. Unto your arms, oh Mother, I fly to whisper in your heart my gratefulness for answering my petition. Thank you, Mother. Amen.

I will spread my mantle over all who call on me. The light of the cross of Jesus shines on my mantle, for by my son's cross, those who call and believe in him will be saved. My Blue Army of angels is being sent out unto the world for the protection of all our children. Take this message I am entrusting to you to pray and spread. All of us must pray that the darkness from this land will disappear, for Satan is bathing in the blood of the innocent. Pray, pray, pray.
