

2023 HOMESCHOOL SERVICE FEES:

Payment - Fees are due at the time of the interview. Cash, checks, or payments through Paypal are the only accepted form of payment. If you are unable to pay these fees, please let me know and other arrangements can be made.

Family Evaluation Discount Policy:

The first child is full price and each additional child is given a $5 discount off of their evaluation.

Peabody Individualized Achievement Test (P.I.A.T.): Standardized Testing, $60 for students I evaluate; $65 for students I don't evaluate. If you are having more than one child tested, there is a $5 discount fee for each additional child.

Short Form Evaluations: For students in grades 1-8. The Short Form is a checklist type evaluation that briefly highlights strengths, opportunities for growth, and/or achievements. This form meets the letter of the law. Short Form Evaluations take thirty minutes.

Basic fee: April through June evaluations - $45
$40 for each additional child.

Short Form with Credit Evaluations: This form is for students in grades 9-12 who require credits on their evaluation. This is recommended for students looking to further their education beyond high school as well as students who might possibly re-enter a private or public school during their high school education.

Basic fee: April through June evaluations - $55
Each additional child - $50

Detailed Evaluations: The Detailed Evaluation, for any student in grades 9-12, has a description of each credited subject and takes approximately one hour.

Basic fee: Grades 9-12 through June 15 - $75
Additional child - $70

Secondary students need the Detailed Evaluation if they are going through the Erie County Home Schoolers Diploma Association. The Susquehanna Valley Homeschool Diploma Program accepts both the detailed form or the short form with credits. Students working with independent diploma programs such as A Beka, Keystone, American Homeschool Diploma, and various colleges, etc. may use the Short Form with Credits.

High School Transcripts:

I offer transcripts for the Susquehanna Valley Diploma Homeschool Program, The Erie County Homeschool Diploma Association, and the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Parent Issued Diploma. If you would like me to complete a yearly transcript, I will need a list of courses and grades your high school student completes and achieves each year. If you would like me to generate a highschool transcript, there is a one-time $20 fee for the student transcript.

Special Education Objective Approval Letter

If your child has been identified by the district as needing special education services, the homeschool objectives must be 'approved' by a special education teacher. I offer this service for $20. There is an additional fee if you are interested in special education consulting and or help with writing the objectives. The consulting fee is $25. Contact me for more information.
