

Illegals

You come here for free land and freedom
You fuckin immigrants fuck it up for everyone
Now they're having kids, now they need a job
Take a look around they're taking everything we got

You think that they're great but they're not Come in the country and move down tyour block
They're hanging with your kids, they hate our way of life
They're ruining the culture, they'll never get it right

Now it's time to call them out
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey

No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey

We say "enter this way", but they don't
They're rushing our borders to build for their own
So put them in their place or put them in a cage
Put them in a prison if they do not learn our ways

We tried to be nice but we can't
They're taking good jobs from hard working men
They're sitting on the ass or sitting on our cash
If we let them loose they'll be shitting on our grass

Now it's time to call them out
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey

No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey

You been doing us so wrong
You been screwed up for so long
(KICK THEM OUT!)

Now it's time to call them out
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey

No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but white people
No one's illegal but whitey, whitey, whitey
