

The Munk Manifesto

المنفستو المنك

We hold these truths to be self evident, that all [cis]men are not created equal and are, infact, fucking trash

We believe love is an action word that demands of us to speak up and fight, passionately, for the future we all deserve.

We believe in a future where all oppressive systems are fuckin destroyed-- a future rooted in the liberation of all human and non-human persons from patriarchy, capitalism, religion and all forms of systemic violence.

We believe in inclusive mosh pits that are centered in connection, community, joy and the healing power of physical touch, not violent whiteboy rage. Take that shit to therapy, bitch.

We believe in the power of music to heal, transform and thoroughly drag.

We are committed to being abundant in the face of scarcity.

We are committed to connection in the face of isolation.

We are committed to collectivity in a system of individualism.

We are committed to punching up and never down.

We are committed to having fun and giving no fucks.

We are committed to reverse-racisming and reverse-gatekeeping.

We are committed to being our whole selves, all the time.

We honor the legacy of Black and brown elders, queer and trans ancestors, and all fed-up freedom fighters who paved the way for problematic homosexuals to destroy the norms and take up space. We honor the future of QT/BIPOC punk youth who will continue to reclaim and reshape the scene, telling fuckboy gatekeepers to eat ass and fuck off!

Black rage is valid

Be gay, do crime

Stay hydrated

Stay haram

THE MUSLIMS FOREVER
