

Bigger the glob, the better the job? Smarter Crane Lubrication Products

Proven solutions that reduce labor, lubricant consumption, and maximize performance...
While virtually eliminating the mess!

Boom Lubricants

Advantages:

- Extremely Low Consumption
- Spray Application can Save 50% in Usage
- Clean – No Drips or Globbs!
- Approved by OEMs for 20+ years
- Longer Service Life
- Resistance to UV & Weather
- Lowest Friction Values Tested

Berulub PAL-1: Used extensively in the crane market for years, this is a fully synthetic paste fortified with heavy loading of anti-friction particles. OEM recognized. White color.

Berulub TCG-1: New generation of semi-synthetic paste with wider temperature range capabilities. Opaque Color

MADE IN GERMANY
PROUDLY SOLD IN USA

Not advised or recommended for booms where electrical conductivity is a concern.

Other Applications

Hundreds of Professional Grade Lubricants Available!

- Wire Rope
- Open Gear
- Chain
- Crawler Track Grease
- Corrosion Protection
- Silicone
- Rust Remover and Cleaners
- Eco-Friendly Lubricants
- Dry Anti-Friction Sprays
- Heavy Duty Greases

BECHEM Lubrication Technologies – Established in 1834 in Germany with a focus on critical applications in industrial and automotive markets. US headquarters is located in Cleveland, Ohio. Distributors in the USA, Mexico, & Canada.

Contact: Dustin Greiner
Email: d.greiner@bechem.com
Phone: (248) 496-9865

Tomorrow's Technologies, Today.

Please contact us to learn more about the efficient and highly effective use of these lubricants on your cranes and equipment.

