CPG invites Off Site Professional Artists

We invite performing dance artists who live off site (outside or live a long distance time to drive to Baton Rouge) to join CPG!

CDG encourage off site professional artist to engaged by performing solos or collaborative work with other professional dancers in our upcoming showcases.

Contact Kris for a performance schedule and required materials needed to give you the best support to present your work.

What does CPG offer their performing company dancers:

The CPG group of dancers will rehearse in preparation to perform for the community by invitation at performing in gatherings, social occasions/charity events throughout the season.

The CPG performances interact with all stage sizes to enlighten the audiences for the upcoming season.

To be considered a Contemporary Performance Group Pro dancer.

The Requirements are:

Dancers must already acquire a high level in technique with proficient study in ballet, modern dance by demonstrating in an audition class, send a video or a direct invitation by Cangelosi.

(Pointe is highly recommended but not required)

The Pro dancer can commit to the seasonal schedule unless approved with other arrangements by the creator.

Professional dancers will be asked to teach at the weekend workshop during the season and will be compensated for their work.

The professional dancers selected for performance group is offered a package of benefits in exchange for performing purposes. Dance classes, rehearsals and performance schedule are complimentary to the professional performer with a stipend for performance to value their work.

This keeps the professionals engaged, the ability to invite others to participate and observe their work in hopes of being invited by other organizations to fulfill their goals.
