Cangelosi Dance Project is a 501 (c) nonprofit organization

CDP is introducing two new Programs:
Contemporary Performance Group and Young Artist Program

Kris Cangelosi, creator of the Contemporary Performance Group and Young Artist program, is excited to launch 2 new ideal dance programs for serious students. The ages start at 10 and the levels are advanced, pre-pro and professional dancers who are studying on a career path for the Arts or actively engaged in performing at a professional level.

The CPG is a progressive contemporary dance company offering performances in the area and nearby cities offering advanced dance classes. The YA study program will offer students ballet and modern techniques to develop their skills for performances with additional opportunities in the area.

The Contemporary Performance Group: (Advanced/Pre-Pro/Pro Program)

Who we are: Ages: 16 and up, Male and Female invitation.

Serious minded dancers in the community and surrounding areas who already accelerated their goal at a high level of study, performances and strive to engage in dance professional productions.

Off Site Professional Artists

We invite performing dance artists who live off site (outside long distance time to drive to Baton Rouge) to join CPG!

CDG encourage off site professional artist to engaged by performing solos or collaborative work with other professional in our upcoming showcases.

Contact Kris for a performance schedule and required materials needed to give you the best support to present your work.

What does CPG offer their company dancers:

The CPG group of dancers will rehearse in preparation to perform for the community settings by invitation performing at gatherings, social occasions/charity events throughout the season.

The CPG opportunities are interacting with all stage sizes and audiences throughout to enlighten the audiences for the upcoming season. Ongoing Community Connection projects will expose existing educational groups to expand their knowledge of the arts.
